17-25-5. Duties and powers of the board of elections. -- (a) The board of elections is authorized to perform any duties that are necessary to implement the provisions of this chapter. Without limiting the generality of this provision, the board is authorized and empowered to:

(1) Develop forms for the making of the required reports to be filed with the board of elections, which form shall contain a notice setting forth the times and dates when reports are required to be filed;

(2) Prepare and publish a manual for all candidates, political party committees, ~~and~~ political action committees and ballot questions advocates prescribing the requirements of the law, including uniform methods of bookkeeping and reporting and requirements as to the length of time that any person required to keep any records pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall retain these records, or any class or category of records, or any other documents;

(3) Adopt rules and regulations to carry out the purposes of this chapter;

(4) Prepare and make available for public inspection, through the office of the board of elections, summaries of all reports grouped according to candidates and political parties;

(5) Prepare and publish, prior to May 1 or as soon as practicable thereafter of each year, an annual report to the general assembly;

(6) Ascertain whether candidates or political party committees, ~~or~~ political action committees or ballot questions advocates, have failed to file reports or have filed defective reports; and may for good cause shown extend the dates upon which reports are required to be filed;

(7) (i) Conduct confidential investigations and/or closed hearings in accordance with this title relative to alleged violations of this chapter either on its own initiative or upon receipt of a verified written complaint, which complaint shall, under pain and penalty of perjury, be based upon actual knowledge and not merely on information and belief. Upon completion of its investigation and/or hearings, if the board has reason to believe that a violation of this chapter has occurred or that a complainant has willfully sworn or affirmed falsely, the chairperson of the board of elections is authorized to and shall issue to the person found to be in violation of this chapter a summons pursuant to section 12-7-11 to appear before the division of the district court where the person resides and shall be prosecuted by the attorney general. Any action taken by the board as a result of a written verified complaint shall, whenever possible, be completed no later than five (5) business days after its receipt, and if no violation is found to exist, all records and papers shall be kept confidential unless further legal proceedings are instituted.

(ii) The confidentiality of an audit, investigation, hearing, and/or findings may be waived in writing only by the person or persons complained of or audited. However, once an audit is complete and presented to the board, the audit will be a matter of public record.

(8) Conduct compliance reviews and audits of campaign accounts as necessary, and in a manner consistent with the provisions of this chapter.

(b) The board of elections shall take any steps that may be necessary or appropriate to furnish timely and adequate information, in appropriate printed summaries and in any other form that it may see fit, to every candidate or prospective candidate for public office who becomes or is likely to become subject to the provisions of this chapter, and to every treasurer duly designated under the provisions of this chapter, informing them of their actual or prospective obligations and responsibilities under this chapter.

(c) (1) The board of elections is authorized, upon written request, to render written advisory opinions as to whether a given set of facts and circumstances set forth in the request would constitute a violation of any of the provisions of this chapter, or whether a given set of facts and circumstances set forth in the request would render any person subject to any of the reporting requirements of this chapter; provided, that the requirement for a written opinion may be voluntarily waived by the candidate or committee.

(2) Unless an extension of time is consented to by any person who submits a written request for an advisory opinion, the board of elections shall, whenever possible, render its written advisory opinion within five (5) business days of receipt of the request.

(d) (1) For each quarterly report required to be filed, the board shall send a postcard by regular mail to each person and entity required to file a report, which will notify the person or entity that a report required to be filed is due within fourteen (14) days.

(2) The failure to receive this notice shall not absolve the person or entity of the reporting requirements contained in this chapter.

17-25-7.2. Personal use of campaign funds prohibited. -- (a) The personal use by any elected public office holder or by any candidate for public office, as defined in section 17-25-3, of campaign funds contributed after April 29, 1992, is prohibited. For the purposes of this section, "personal use" is defined as any use other than expenditures related to gaining or holding public office and for which the candidate for public office or elected public official would be required to treat the amount of the expenditure as gross income under section 61 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, 26 U.S.C. section 61, or any subsequent corresponding Internal Revenue Code of the United States, as from time to time amended.

(b) Expenditures that are specifically prohibited under this chapter include:

If a candidate or officeholder uses campaign funds to pay expenses associated with travel that involves both personal activities and campaign or officeholder activities, the incremental expenses that result from the personal activities are personal use, unless the person(s) benefiting from this use reimburse(s) the campaign account within thirty (30) days for the amount of the incremental expenses;

(5) Gifts of nominal value and donations of a nominal amount made on a special occasion such as a holiday, graduation, marriage, retirement or death, unless made to a member of the candidate's or officeholder's family;

(6) Meal expenses which are incurred as part of a campaign activity or as apart of a function that is related to the candidate's or officeholder's responsibilities, including meals between and among candidates and/or officeholders that are incurred as an ordinary and necessary expense of seeking, holding, or maintaining public office, or seeking holding, or maintaining a position within the legislature or other publicly elected body;

(7) Food and beverages which are purchased as part of a campaign or officeholder activity.

(d) Any campaign funds not used to pay for the expenses of gaining or holding public office may:

(1) Be maintained in a campaign account(s);

(2) Be donated to a candidate for public office, to a political organization, or to a political action committee, subject to the limitation on contributions in section 17-25-10.1;

(4) Be donated to a tax exempt charitable organization as that term is used in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, 26 U.S.C. section 501, or any subsequent corresponding internal revenue code of the United States as from time to time amended;

(c) Any anonymous contribution received by a campaign treasurer or deputy campaign treasurer shall not be used or expended, but shall be returned to the donor, if the donor's identity can be ascertained; if not, the contribution shall bescheat to the state.

APPENDIX
VETO MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations
State House
Providence, Rhode Island 02903-1196
401-222-2080

Donald L. Carcieri
Governor

June 13, 2006

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE:

In accordance with the provisions of Section 14, Article IX of the Constitution of the State of Rhode Island and Section 43-1-4 of the Rhode Island General Laws, I transmit, with my disapproval, 2006 H 6779, Substitute A, "An Act Relating to Public Property and Works – Government Oversight and Fiscal Accountability Review Act."

This bill would increase the reporting requirements of state agencies that have entered into privatization contracts valued at $100,000 or more. Each state agency would be required to prepare and submit an addendum to their budget requests containing business specific information for all privatized contracts. In addition, agencies that have entered into privatized contracts would have to submit additional information for the preparation of reports to the secretary of state.

As Governor, I strongly support, and have committed significant state resources to, public accountability. While additional information may be useful in some situations, the particular requirements of this bill are clearly burdensome and would detract from the functions that these public agencies have been charged to perform.

Many of our human service programs are administered by community organizations. Most of these groups are small non-profits. They provide adoption services, substance abuse treatment, counseling for troubled youth, job training, and an endless array of other services. Many of these providers have sought increases in state reimbursements in recent years, arguing that state support has not kept pace with costs. There is no good reason to impose on community groups and state agencies a slew of new and cumbersome burdens, needlessly driving up costs.

If this bill were to pass, private contractors would be required to report proprietary information in order to seek a contract with the state for provision of services. Under these circumstances, the number of businesses willing to bid on contracts may well be reduced. This would decrease the number of contractors and in turn increase the costs that state agencies would have to pay private contractors.

Another example is the Rhode Island Department of Transportation's construction program. DOT administers a vast construction program involving hundreds of millions of dollars in state and federal funds. DOT must use many consultants to implement and maintain the State's highway program. This act would require DOT to track and calculate every employee used by a consultant or sub-consultant. DOT, however, already provides detailed information about consultant contracts in its budget and such expenditures are subject to audit. Ironically, should this bill become law, it will be necessary for DOT to hire consultants to compile the necessary data about the other consultants.

2006 H 6779, Substitute A

There are several provisions of this bill that are already required by law and are therefore unnecessary. For example, under present Rhode Island law, contracts entered into by governmental agencies are public records. Moreover, these records are presently available upon request of the Access to Public Records Act contained in RIGL Chapter 38-2.

Oversight, accountability and transparency are all critically important in order to ensure the effective and honest administration of government. The outcome of this bill, however, will only make the use of private businesses by state government so burdensome that many likely will not even consider submitting bids for these services. That is exactly the wrong approach. We must find ways to make government services better and more cost effective. Often, that means letting the private sector do the job.

For these reasons, I disapprove of this legislation and respectfully urge your support of this veto.

Sincerely,

Donald L. Carcieri
Governor

State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations
State House
Providence, Rhode Island 02903-1196

Donald L. Carcieri
Governor

June 6, 2006

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES:

In accordance with the provisions of Section 14, Article IX of the Rhode Island Constitution and Section 43-1-4 of the Rhode Island General Laws, I am transmitting herewith, with my disapproval, 2006-H 7167 Substitute A, "An Act Relating to Insurance -- Unfair Competition and Practices."

The bill would require Rhode Island insurance companies offering motor vehicle liability insurance to conduct auto body repair labor rate surveys and establish prevailing auto body labor rates. Further, the bill would require the Department of Business Regulation ("DBR") to regulate the process for establishing such labor rates, including promulgation of a uniform questionnaire for the industry and annual review of the results of the insurance company surveys.

This legislation represents an unnecessary and unwarranted governmental intrusion, not found in other states, into commercial transactions that are more appropriately regulated by an open and competitive marketplace. Where no evidence of abuse exists, the setting of labor rates is not only a dangerous precedent and anti-competitive practice, but also may reduce the number of insurance carriers willing to write such insurance, further reducing competition. Finally, regulation by the state would require additional staffing, training and financial resources, none of which are presently available to the DBR.

For these reasons, I disapprove of this legislation and urge your support of this veto.

Sincerely,

Donald L. Carcieri

Governor

June 9, 2006

TO THE HONORABLE, THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES:

In accordance with the provisions of Section 14, Article IX of the Rhode Island Constitution and section 43-1-4 of the Rhode Island General Laws, I am transmitting herewith, with my disapproval, 2006-H 6885 as amended, "An Act Relating to Public Property and Works—State Purchases."

This bill prohibits the Governor, or any other state official, from binding the State or giving consent to bind the State to the government procurement rules of an international trade agreement, at the request of the federal government, without the express consent of the General Assembly. This bill also invalidates any consent previously given by the Governor or a State official to bind the State or give consent to bind the State to the government procurement of an international trade agreement.

This legislation represents a complete and unwarranted reversal of the state's historic policy of supporting Rhode Island companies in securing economic and competitive equality with respect to contracts and procurements outside the United States. Specifically, it would reverse all international trade agreements entered into during the past fourteen years, without any inquiry into the financial, legal or public policy implications.

Beginning in the 1990s, the United States negotiated and entered into a series of international trade agreements culminating in the World Trade Organization (WTO) Uruguay Round agreements and the North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA). The agreements were established to address, among other things, the issue of government procurements under the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT). They were negotiated consistent with the principal trade policy objective not to "weaken or reduce the protections afforded in domestic environmental and labor laws" and to "ensure that foreign investors in the United States are not accorded greater substantive rights with respect to investment protections than United States investors in the United States." All member nations would agree not to favor domestic products or suppliers, or discriminate
