SECTION 2. Each line appearing in Section 1 of this Article shall constitute an appropriation.

SECTION 3. Upon the transfer of any function of a department or agency to another department or agency, the Governor is hereby authorized by means of executive order to transfer or reallocate, in whole or in part, the appropriations and the full-time equivalent limits affected thereby.

SECTION 4. The General Assembly may provide a written "statement of legislative intent" signed by the chairperson of the House Finance Committee and by the chairperson of the Senate Finance Committee to show the intended purpose of the appropriations contained in Section 1 of this Article. The statement of legislative intent shall be kept on file in the House Finance Committee and in the Senate Finance Committee.

At least twenty (20) days prior to the issuance of a grant or the release of funds, which grant or funds are listed on the legislative letter of intent, all department, agency and corporation directors, shall notify in writing the chairperson of the House Finance Committee and the chairperson of the Senate Finance Committee of the approximate date when the funds are to be released or granted.

SECTION 5. Appropriation of Temporary Disability Insurance Funds -- There is hereby appropriated pursuant to sections 28-39-5 and 28-39-8 of the Rhode Island General Laws all funds required to be disbursed for the benefit payments from the Temporary Disability Insurance Fund and Temporary Disability Insurance Reserve Fund for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2007.

SECTION 6. Appropriation of Employment Security Funds -- There is hereby appropriated pursuant to section 28-42-19 of the Rhode Island General Laws all funds required to be disbursed for benefit payments from the Employment Security Fund for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2007.

SECTION 7. Appropriation of Lottery Division Funds – There is hereby appropriated to the Lottery Division any funds required to be disbursed by the Lottery Division for the purposes of awarding winnings for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2007.

SECTION 8. The amounts reflected in this Article include the appropriation of Rhode Island Capital Plan funds for fiscal year 2007 and supersede appropriations provided for FY 2007 within Section 11 of Article 1 of Chapter 117 of the P.L. of 2005. The following amounts are hereby appropriated out of any money in the state's Rhode Island Capital Plan Fund not otherwise appropriated to be expended during the fiscal years ending June 20, 3008 , June 30, 2009, June 30, 2010, and June 30, 2011. These amounts supersede appropriations provided within Section 11 of Article 1 of Chapter 117 of the P.L. of 2005. For the purposes and functions hereinafter mentioned, the State Controller is hereby authorized and directed to draw his or her orders upon the General Treasurer for the payment of such sums and such portions thereof as may be required by him or her upon receipt of properly authenticated vouchers.

2006 -- H 7120 SUBSTITUTE A

AN ACT MAKING APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE SUPPORT OF THE STATE FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 2007

Mr. Speaker:

I hereby move to amend 2006 -- H 7120 SUBSTITUTE A, entitled "AN ACT MAKING APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE SUPPORT OF THE STATE FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 2007", as follows:

By deleting Article 3 in its entirety, and substituting therefore the following:

"SECTION 1. Subject to the conditions, limitations and restrictions hereinafter contained in this act, the following general revenue amounts are hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated to be expended during the fiscal year ending June 30, 2006. The amounts identified for federal funds and restricted receipts shall be made available pursuant to Section 35-4-22 and Chapter 42-41 of the Rhode Island General Laws. For the purposes and functions hereinafter mentioned, the state controller is hereby authorized and directed to draw his or her orders upon the general treasurer for the payment of such sums or such portions thereof as may be required from time to time upon receipt by him or her of properly authenticated vouchers.

SECTION 4. (a) The general assembly authorizes the state controller to establish the internal service accounts shown below, and no other, to finance and account for the operations of state agencies that provide services to other agencies, institutions and other governmental units on a cost reimbursed basis. The purpose of these accounts is to ensure that certain activities are managed in a businesslike manner, promote efficient use of services by making agencies pay the full costs associated with providing the services, and allocate the costs of central administrative services across all fund types, so that federal and other nongeneral fund programs share in the costs of general government support. The controller is authorized to reimburse these accounts for the cost of work or services performed for any other department or agency subject to the following expenditure limitations:

(b) The Governor shall include as part of the FY 2007 budget, a description of these accounts, their purposes, and the efficacy of continuing them.

SECTION 5. Appropriation of Lottery Division Funds – There is hereby appropriated to the Lottery Division any funds required to be disbursed by the Lottery Division for the purposes of awarding winnings for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2006.

SECTION 6. Departments and agencies listed below may not exceed the number of full-time equivalent (FTE) positions shown below in any pay period. Full-time equivalent positions do not include seasonal or intermittent positions whose scheduled period of employment does not exceed twenty-six consecutive weeks or whose scheduled hours do not exceed nine hundred and twenty-five (925) hours, excluding overtime, in a one-year period. Nor do they include individuals engaged in training, the completion of which is a prerequisite of employment. Provided, however, that the Governor or designee, Speaker of the House of Representatives or designee, and President of the Senate or designee may authorize an adjustment to any limitation. Prior to the authorization, the State Budget Officer shall make a detailed written recommendation to the Governor, the Speaker of the House, and the President of the Senate. A copy of the recommendation and authorization to adjust shall be transmitted to the chairman of the House Finance Committee, the chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, the House Fiscal Advisor and the Senate Fiscal Advisor.

2006 -- H 7120 SUBSTITUTE A

AN ACT MAKING APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE SUPPORT OF THE STATE FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 2007

Mr. Speaker:

I hereby move to amend 2006 -- H 7120 SUBSTITUTE A, entitled "AN ACT MAKING APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE SUPPORT OF THE STATE FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 2007", as follows:

By deleting Article 3 in its entirety, and substituting therefore the following:

"SECTION 1. Subject to the conditions, limitations and restrictions hereinafter contained in this act, the following general revenue amounts are hereby appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated to be expended during the fiscal year ending June 30, 2006. The amounts identified for federal funds and restricted receipts shall be made available pursuant to Section 35-4-22 and Chapter 42-41 of the Rhode Island General Laws. For the purposes and functions hereinafter mentioned, the state controller is hereby authorized and directed to draw his or her orders upon the general treasurer for the payment of such sums or such portions thereof as may be required from time to time upon receipt by him or her of properly authenticated vouchers.

SECTION 2. Each line appearing in Section 1 of this Article shall constitute an appropriation.

SECTION 3. Section 11 of Article 1 of Chapter 117 of the Public Laws of 2005 authorizes the reappropriation of any unexpended funds from the Rhode Island Capital Plan Fund for the purposes for which they were originally appropriated. The following is a listing of those projects completed in FY 2005 for which reappropriated funds are no longer required. The amounts listed are hereby withdrawn and the State Controller is authorized to return these funds to the Rhode Island Capital Plan Fund.

SECTION 4. (a) The general assembly authorizes the state controller to establish the internal service accounts shown below, and no other, to finance and account for the operations of state agencies that provide services to other agencies, institutions and other governmental units on a cost reimbursed basis. The purpose of these accounts is to ensure that certain activities are managed in a businesslike manner, promote efficient use of services by making agencies pay the full costs associated with providing the services, and allocate the costs of central administrative services across all fund types, so that federal and other nongeneral fund programs share in the costs of general government support. The controller is authorized to reimburse these accounts for the cost of work or services performed for any other department or agency subject to the following expenditure limitations:

Account	FY 2006 Enacted	FY 2006 Change	FY 2006 Final
State Assessed Fringe Benefit Internal Service Account	34,134,366	(4,231,111)	29,903,255

(b) The Governor shall include as part of the FY 2007 budget, a description of these accounts, their purposes, and the efficacy of continuing them.

SECTION 5. Appropriation of Lottery Division Funds – There is hereby appropriated to the Lottery Division any funds required to be disbursed by the Lottery Division for the purposes of awarding winnings for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2006.

SECTION 6. Departments and agencies listed below may not exceed the number of full-time equivalent (FTE) positions shown below in any pay period. Full-time equivalent positions do not include seasonal or intermittent positions whose scheduled period of employment does not exceed twenty-six consecutive weeks or whose scheduled hours do not exceed nine hundred and twenty-five (925) hours, excluding overtime, in a one-year period. Nor do they include individuals engaged in training, the completion of which is a prerequisite of employment. Provided, however, that the Governor or designee, Speaker of the House of Representatives or designee, and President of the Senate or designee may authorize an adjustment to any limitation. Prior to the authorization, the State Budget Officer shall make a detailed written recommendation to the Governor, the Speaker of the House, and the President of the Senate. A copy of the recommendation and authorization to adjust shall be transmitted to the chairman of the House Finance Committee, the chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, the House Fiscal Advisor and the Senate Fiscal Advisor.

2006 -- H 7120 SUBSTITUTE A

AN ACT MAKING APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE SUPPORT OF THE STATE FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 2007

Mr. Speaker:

I hereby move to amend 2006 -- H 7120 SUBSTITUTE A, entitled "AN ACT MAKING APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE SUPPORT OF THE STATE FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 2007", as follows:

(1) In Article 34, by replacing Sections 5 through 9 with the following language:

SECTION 5. Chapter 42-12 of the General Laws entitled "Department of Human Services" is hereby amended by adding thereto the following section:

42-12-29. Children's health account. – (a) There is created within the general fund a restricted receipt account to be known as the "childrens' health account". All money in the account shall be utilized by the department of human services to effectuate coverage for home health services, CEDARR services, and children's intensive services (CIS). All money received pursuant to this section shall be deposited in the childrens' health account. The general treasurer is authorized and directed to draw his or her orders on the account upon receipt of properly authenticated vouchers from the department of human services.

(b) Beginning in the fiscal year 2007, each insurer licensed or regulated pursuant to the provisions of chapters 18, 19, 20, and 41 of title 27 shall be assessed a for the purposes set forth in this section. The department of human services shall make available to each insurer, upon its request, information regarding the department of human services child health program and the costs related to the program. Further, the department of human services shall submit to the general assembly an annual report on the program and cost related to the program, on or before February 1 of each year. Annual assessments shall be based on direct premiums written in the year prior to the assessment and shall not include any Medicare Supplement Policy (as defined in section 27-18-2.1(g)), Medicare managed care, Medicare, Federal Employees Health Plan or dental premiums. As to accident and sickness insurance, the direct premium written shall include, but is not limited to, group, blanket, and individual policies. Those insurers assessed greater than five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) for the year shall be assessed four (4) quarterly payments of twenty-five percent (25%) of their total assessment. Beginning July 1, 2006, the annual rate of assessment shall be determined by the Director of Human Services in concurrence with the Primary Payors, those being insurers likely to be assessed at greater than five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000). The director of the department of human services shall deposit that amount in the "children's health account". The assessment shall be used solely for the purposes of the "children's health account" and no other.

(c) Any funds collected in excess of funds needed to carry-out the programs shall be deducted from the subsequent year's assessment.

(d) The total annual assessment on all insurers shall be equivalent to the amount paid by the department of human services for such services, for children insured by such insurers, but not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) per child covered by the services.

(e) The childrens' health account shall be exempt from the indirect cost recovery provisions of section 35-4-27 of the general laws."

(2) In Article 34, page 17, line 30 by replacing the number "10" and inserting in place thereof the number "6".

(4) In Article 38, page 13, by showing as stricken line 30.

(5) In Article 38, page 31, line 29, by deleting the number "200" and inserting in place thereof the number "211".

(6) In Article 38, page 38, by inserting the following between lines 16 and 17:

"SECTION 23. Section 37-6-2 of the General Laws in Chapter 37-6 entitled "Acquisition of Land" is hereby amended to read as follows:

37-6-2. Rules, regulations, and procedures of committee. -- (a) The state properties committee is hereby authorized and empowered to adopt and prescribe rules of procedure and regulations, and from time to time amend, change, and eliminate rules and regulations, and make such orders and perform such actions as it may deem necessary to the proper administration of this chapter and sections 37-7-1 -- 37-7-9. In the performance of the commission's duties hereunder, the commission may in any particular case prescribe a variation in procedure or regulation when it shall deem it necessary in view of the exigencies of the case and the importance of speedy action in order to carry out the intent and purpose of this chapter and sections 37-7-1 -- 37-7-9. The commission shall file written notice thereof in the office of the secretary of state. All filings shall be available for public inspection.

(b) The following siting criteria shall be utilized whenever current existing leases expire or additional office space is needed:

(1) A preference shall be given to sites designated as enterprise zone census tracts pursuant to chapter 64.3 of title 42, or in blighted and/or substandard areas pursuant to section 45-31-8, or in downtown commercial areas where it can be shown the facilities would make a significant impact on the economic vitality of the community's central business district;

(2) Consideration should be given to adequate access via public transportation for both employees as well as the public being served, and, where appropriate, adequate parking;

(3) A site must be consistent with the respective community's local comprehensive plan; and

(4) The division of planning within the department of administration shall be included in the evaluation of all future lease proposals.

(c) The state properties committee shall explain, in writing, how each site selected by the committee for a state facility meets the criteria described in subsection (b) of this section.

(d) For any lease, rental agreement or extension of an existing rental agreement for leased office and operating space which carries a term of five (5) years or longer, including any options or extensions that bring the total term to five (5) years or longer, where the state is the tenant and the aggregate rent of the terms exceeds $500,000 the State Properties Committee shall request approval of the General Assembly prior to entering into any new agreements or signing any extensions with existing landlords. The state properties committee, in the form of a resolution, shall provide information relating to the purpose of the lease or rental agreement, the agency's current lease or rental costs, the expiration date of any present lease or rental agreement, the range of costs of a new lease or rental agreement, the proposed term of a new agreement, and the location and owner of the desired property. "

(7) In Article 38, page 38, line 17, by deleting the number "23" and inserting in place thereof the number "24".

Respectfully submitted,

Mr. Speaker:

I hereby move to amend 2006 -- H 7120 SUBSTITUTE A, entitled "AN ACT MAKING APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE SUPPORT OF THE STATE FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING JUNE 30, 2007", as follows:

"ARTICLE_____
RELATING TO COURTS

SECTION 1. Sections 8-3-7, 8-3-7.1, 38-3-8, 8-3-8.1, 8-3-11, 8-3-12 and 8-3-15 of the General Laws in Chapter 8-3 entitled "Justices of Supreme, Superior, and Family Courts" are hereby amended to read as follows:

8-3-7. Retirement of justices on reduced pay -- Assignment as associate justices. -- (a) Whenever any person engaged as a judge on or before [July 2, 1997] has served as a justice of the supreme court, the superior court, the family court, the district court, or any combination thereof for twenty (20) years, or has so served for ten (10) years and has reached the age of sixty-five (65) years, that justice may retire from active service and thereafter the justice shall receive annually during life a sum equal to three-fourths (3/4) of the annual salary that the justice was receiving at the time of retirement.

(b) Any justice in any of the courts who shall retire in accordance with the provisions of this section or section 36-9-5 may, at his or her own request and at the direction of the chief justice of the supreme court, subject to the retiree's physical and mental competence, be assigned to perform such services as an associate justice of the superior court, or the family court, or the district court as the presiding justice of the superior court, or the chief judge of the family court, or the district shall prescribe. When so assigned and performing such service, the justice shall have all the powers and authority of an associate justice of the superior court, the family court, or the district court but otherwise shall have no powers nor be authorized to perform any judicial duties. Such a retired justice shall not be counted in the number of judges provided by law for the superior court, the family court, or the district court.

(c) Any justice of the supreme court who shall retire in accordance with the provisions of this section shall at the direction of the chief justice of the supreme court, subject to the retiree's physical and mental competence, be assigned to perform such services as an associate justice of the supreme court as the chief justice of the supreme court shall prescribe. When so assigned and performing such services, the retiree shall have all the powers and authority of an associate justice of the supreme court, but otherwise he or she shall have no powers nor be authorized to perform any judicial duties relating to the supreme court, except as authorized under section 8-1-1. Such a retired justice shall not be counted in the number of justices provided by law for the supreme court.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, this section shall not apply to any justice who has not served for ten (10) years or more or those justices appointed on or subsequent to January 1, 2007. Rather such justices shall be subject to the provisions of Chapter 36-10, including, but not limited to, sections 36-10-2, 36-10-9, 36-10-10, 36-10-11 and 36-10-35.

8-3-7.1. Retirement of justices on reduced pay -- Assignment as associate justices. -- (a) Whenever any person first engaged as a judge subsequent to [July 2, 1997] has served as a justice of the supreme court, the superior court, the family court, the district court or any combination thereof, for twenty (20) years, or has so served for ten (10) years and has reached the age of sixty-five (65) years, said justice may retire from active service and thereafter said justice shall receive annually during life a sum equal to three-fourths (3/4) of his or her average highest three (3) consecutive years of compensation.

(b) Any justice in any of said courts who shall retire in accordance with the provisions of this section or section 36-9-5 may, at his or her own request and at the direction of the chief justice of the supreme court, subject to the retiree's physical and mental competence, be assigned to perform such services as an associate justice of the superior court, or the family court or the district court as the presiding justice of the superior court or the chief judge of the family court or the district shall prescribe. When so assigned and performing such service, said justice shall have all the powers and authority of an associate justice of the superior court, the family court, or the district court but otherwise shall have no powers nor be authorized to perform any judicial duties. Such a retired justice shall not be counted in the number of judges provided by law for the superior court, the family court or the district court.

(c) Any justice of the supreme court who shall retire in accordance with the provisions of this section shall at the direction of the chief justice of the supreme court, subject to the retiree's physical and mental competence, be assigned to perform such services as an associate justice of the supreme court as the chief justice of the supreme court shall prescribe. When so assigned and performing such services, the retiree shall have all the powers and authority of an associate justice of the supreme court, but otherwise he or she shall have no powers nor be authorized to perform any judicial duties relating to the supreme court, except as authorized under section 8-1-1. Such a retired justice shall not be counted in the number of justices provided by law for the supreme court.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, this section shall not apply to any justice who has not served for ten (10) years or more or those justices appointed on or subsequent to January 1, 2007. Rather such justices shall be subject to the provisions of Chapter 36-10, including, but not limited to, sections 36-10-2, 36-10-9, 36-10-10, 36-10-11 and 36-10-35.

8-3-8. Retirement of justices on full pay -- Assignment as associate justices. -- (a) Whenever any person engaged as a judge on or before [July 2, 1997]shall have served as a justice of the supreme court, the superior court, the family court, the district court, or any of them for twenty (20) years and has reached the age of sixty-five (65) years, or has served for fifteen (15) years, and reached the age of seventy (70) years, that justice may retire from regular active service and thereafter the justice shall receive annually during his or her life a sum equal to the annual salary the justice was receiving at the time of his or her retirement.

(b) Any justice of any of the courts who shall retire in accordance with the provisions of this section shall at the direction of the chief justice of the supreme court, subject to the retiree's physical and mental competence, be assigned to perform such services as an associate justice of the superior court, or the family court, or the district court as the presiding justice of the superior court, or the chief judge of the family court, or the district court shall prescribe. When so assigned and performing such service, the retiree shall have all the powers and authority of an associate justice of the superior court, the family court, or the district court but otherwise he or she shall have no powers nor be authorized to perform any judicial duties. Such a retired justice shall not be counted in the number of judges provided by law for the superior court, the family court, or the district court.

(c) Any justice of the supreme court who shall retire in accordance with the provisions of this section shall at the direction of the chief justice of the supreme court, subject to the retiree's physical and mental competence, be assigned to perform such services as an associate justice of the supreme court as the chief justice of the supreme court shall prescribe. When so assigned and performing such services, the retiree shall have all the powers and authority of an associate justice of the supreme court, but otherwise he or she shall have no powers nor be authorized to perform any judicial duties relating to the supreme court, except as authorized under section 8-1-1. Such a retired justice shall not be counted in the number of justices provided by law for the supreme court.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, this section shall not apply to any justice who has not served for ten (10) years or more or those justices appointed on or subsequent to January 1, 2007. Rather such justices shall be subject to the provisions of Chapter 36-10, including, but not limited to, sections 36-10-2, 36-10-9, 36-10-10, 36-10-11 and 36-10-35.

8-3-8.1. Retirement of justices on full pay -- Assignment as associate justices. -- (a) Whenever any person first engaged as a judge subsequent to [July 2, 1997] shall have served as a justice of the supreme court, the superior court, the family court, the district court, or any of them for twenty (20) years and has reached the age of sixty-five (65) years, or has served for fifteen (15) years, and reached the age of seventy (70) years, said justice may retire from regular active service and thereafter said justice shall receive annually during his or her life a sum equal to his or her average highest three (3) consecutive years of compensation.

(b) Any justice of any of the aforesaid courts who shall retire in accordance with the provisions of this section, shall at the direction of the chief justice of the supreme court, subject to the retiree's physical and mental competence be assigned to perform such services as an associate justice of the superior court, or the family court, or the district court as the presiding justice of the superior court or the chief judge of the family court, or the district court shall prescribe. When so assigned and performing such service, the retiree shall have all the powers and authority of an associate justice of the superior court, the family court, or the district court but otherwise he or she shall have no powers nor be authorized to perform any judicial duties. Such a retired justice shall not be counted in the number of judges provided by law for the superior court, the family court, or the district court.

(c) Any justice of the supreme court who shall retire in accordance with the provisions of this section, shall at the direction of the chief justice of the supreme court, subject to the retiree's physical and mental competence, be assigned to perform such services as an associate justice of the supreme court as the chief justice of the supreme court shall prescribe. When so assigned and performing such services, the retiree shall have all the powers and authority of an associate justice of the supreme court, but otherwise he or she shall have no powers nor be authorized to perform any judicial duties relating to the supreme court, except as authorized under section 8-1-1. Such a retired justice shall not be counted in the number of justices provided by law for the supreme court.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, this section shall not apply to any justice who has not served for ten (10) years or more or those justices appointed on or subsequent to January 1, 2007. Rather such justices shall be subject to the provisions of Chapter 36-10, including, but not limited to, sections 36-10-2, 36-10-9, 36-10-10, 36-10-11 and 36-10-35.

8-3-11. Allowances to surviving spouses or minor children of deceased justices. -- (a) Whenever any justice of the supreme court, the superior court, the family court, or the district court dies after retirement or during active service while eligible for retirement, or during active service after having served fifteen (15) years or more in office, his or her surviving spouse shall receive annually thereafter, during his or her lifetime and so long as he or she remains unmarried, an amount equal to one-half (1/2) of the annual payment that the justice was receiving by way of salary or retirement pay at the time of his or her death. Whenever a justice of any of the courts shall die without having become eligible to retire either under section 8-3-7 or 8-3-8 and has served seven (7) years or more in office, his or her surviving spouse shall receive annually thereafter, during his or her lifetime and so long as he or she remains unmarried, one-third (1/3) of the annual salary that the justice was receiving at the time of his or her death. Whenever a justice of the courts shall die without having become eligible to retire either under section 8-3-7 or 8-3-8 and has not served seven (7) years in office, his or her surviving spouse shall receive annually thereafter, during his or her lifetime and so long as he or she remains unmarried, one-fourth (1/4) of the annual salary that the justice was receiving at the time of his or her death.

(b) In the event the deceased justice shall have no surviving spouse, or the surviving spouse should predecease their minor children, then the benefits conferred by this section shall be received in equal shares by the minor children, if any, until each shall attain the age of twenty-one (21) years. Any justice of the courts who retires under the provisions of section 8-3-7, 8-3-8, or 8-3-12 may at his or her option elect to receive three-fourths (3/4) of his or her retirement pay, and where such option is exercised by giving the general treasurer notice in writing thereof within two (2) years after the date of his or her retirement, his or her surviving spouse or minor children shall receive annually one-half (1/2) of his or her retirement pay during his or her lifetime so long as he or she remains unmarried, or the children are under twenty-one (21) years of age.

(c) This section shall not apply to any justice who was appointed subsequent to January 1, 2007.

8-3-12. Retirement of judges with general assembly or office service. -- (a) Any person, who has served as a member of the general assembly, as a general officer, and as a justice of the supreme court, the superior court, the family court, or the district court, whose combined service as a member of the general assembly, a justice, and a general officer is twenty (20) years or more and who has retired, resigned, or completed such service, shall, upon reaching the age of sixty-two (62) years, receive during life a sum equal to three-fourths (3/4) of the highest annual salary that the person was receiving during such service.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, this section shall not apply to any justice who has not served for ten (10) years or more or those justices newly appointed on or subsequent to January 1, 2007. Rather such justices shall be subject to the provisions of Chapter 36-10, including, but not limited to, sections 36-10-2, 36-10-9, 36-10-10, 36-10-11 and 36-10-35.

8-3-15. Cost of living allowance. -- (a) All justices of the supreme court, superior court, family court, or district court, or their surviving spouses, who retire after January 1, 1970 and who receive a retirement allowance pursuant to the provisions of this title shall, on the first day of January next following the third anniversary date of retirement, receive a cost-of-living retirement adjustment in addition to his or her retirement allowance in an amount equal to three percent (3%) of the original retirement allowance. In each succeeding year thereafter during the month of January, the retirement allowance shall be increased an additional three percent (3%) of the original allowance, not compounded, to be continued during the lifetime of the justice or his or her surviving spouse. For the purpose of such computation, credit shall be given for a full calendar year regardless of the effective date of the retirement allowance.

(b) Any justice who retired prior to January 31, 1977 shall be deemed for the purpose of this section to have retired on January 1, 1977.

(c) Any justice who was appointed subsequent to January 1, 2007 or those who have not served for ten (10) years or more shall receive a cost of living retirement adjustment in accordance with section 36-10-35

SECTION 2. This article shall take effect upon passage."
