1           SECTION 1. Section 8-16.1-6 of the General Laws in Chapter 8-16.1 entitled "Judicial 2 Selection" is hereby amended to read as follows:

3           ~~8-16.1-6. Nomination and appointment of judges. [Repealed effective June 30, 2008.]~~

4 ~~= Nomination and appointment of judges. [Repealed effective June 30, 2009,]~~ -- (a) (1) The 5 governor shall immediately notify the commission of any vacancy or prospective vacancy of a 6 judge of any state court other than the Rhode Island supreme court. The commission shall 7 advertise for each vacancy and solicit prospective candidates and shall consider names submitted
8 from any source. Within ninety (90) days of any vacancy the commission shall publicly submit 9 the names of not less than three (3) and not more than five (5) highly qualified persons for each 10 vacancy to the governor.

11           (2) Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, any individual whose name was 12 publicly submitted to the governor by the commission as described in subsection (1) above, shall 13 also be eligible for subsequent nomination by the governor for any vacancy or prospective
14 vacancy of a judge in the same court for which that particular individual had previously applied 15 except for a vacancy in the position of presiding justice, chief justice, or chief judge.

16           (3) Such individuals shall remain eligible for nomination to fill any vacancy or 17 prospective vacancy within the same court to which they previously applied for a period of five 18 (5) years from the date their name or names were publicly submitted to the governor by the 19 commission unless such individuals withdraw from future consideration in writing to the judicial

1 nominating commission. However, such individuals must reapply for any subsequent vacancy or 2 prospective vacancy in the same court for the position of presiding justice, chief justice, or chief 3 judge.

4 (4) Subject to the eligibility requirements set forth above, the governor shall fill any 5 vacancy of any judge of the Rhode Island superior court, family court, district court, workers'
6 compensation court, or any other state court which the general assembly may from time to time
7 establish, by nominating one of the three (3) to five (5) highly qualified persons forwarded to him
8 or her by the commission for the court where the vacancy occurs, or by nominating another 9 individual who has previously applied for a vacancy or prospective vacancy within the same court 10 and whose name had been previously publicly submitted to the governor within the previous five 11 (5) years.

12 (b) The governor shall fill any vacancy within twenty-one (21) days of the public 13 submission by the commission.

14 (c) Each nomination shall be delivered forthwith to the secretary of the senate for 15 presentation to the senate, and by and with the advice and consent of the senate, each nominee 16 shall be appointed by the governor to serve subject to the general laws. The senate shall, after 17 seven (7) calendar days of receipt of the nomination consider the nomination, but if the senate
18 fails within sixty (60) days after the submission to confirm the nominee or if the senate does not 19 by a majority vote of its members extend the deliberation an additional seven (7) calendar days, 20 the governor shall appoint some other person to fill the vacancy and shall submit his or her 21 appointment to the senate for confirmation in like manner until the senate shall confirm the 22 nomination. If the nominee is rejected by the senate, the commission shall submit a new list of 23 three (3) to five (5) candidates to the governor for the purpose of nomination in accordance with 24 this chapter. Any new list may include but need not be limited to the names of any candidates 25 who were previously submitted to the governor by the commission but who were not forwarded 26 to the senate for its advice and consent.

27 (d) During the time for consideration of the nominees by the senate, the senate judiciary 28 committee shall conduct an investigation and public hearing on the question of the qualifications
29 of the nominee or nominees. At the public hearing, the testimony of every witness shall be taken 30 under oath and stenographic records shall be taken and maintained. Further, the senate judiciary 31 committee shall during the course of its investigation and hearing have the power upon majority 32 vote of the committee members present to issue witness subpoenas, subpoenas duces tecum, and 33 orders for the production of books, accounts, papers, records, and documents which shall be 34 signed and issued by the chairperson of the committee, or the person serving in his or her

1 capacity. All such subpoenas and orders shall be served as subpoenas in civil cases in the superior
2 court are served, and witnesses so subpoenaed shall be entitled to the same fees for attendance
3 and travel as provided for witnesses in civil cases in the superior court. If the person subpoenaed
4 to attend before the committee fails to obey the command of the subpoena without reasonable 5 cause, refuse to be sworn, or to be examined, or to answer a legal and pertinent question, or if any 6 person shall refuse to produce books, accounts, papers, records, and documents material to the 7 issue, set forth in an order duly served on him or her, the committee by majority vote of the 8 committee members present may apply to any justice of the superior court, for any county, upon 9 proof by affidavit of the fact, for a rule or order returnable in not less than two (2) nor more than 10 five (5) days, directing the person to show cause before the justice who made the order or any 11 other justice of the superior court, why he or she should not be adjudged in contempt. Upon the 12 return of the order, the justice before whom the matter is brought on for hearing shall examine 13 under oath the person, and the person shall be given an opportunity to be heard, and if the justice 14 shall determine that the person has refused without reasonable cause or legal excuse to be 15 examined or to answer a legal and pertinent question, or to produce books, accounts, papers, 16 records, and documents material to the issue which he or she was ordered to bring or produce, he 17 or she may forthwith commit the offender to the adult correctional institution, there to remain
18 until the person submits to do the act which he or she was so required to do, or is discharged 19 according to law.

20 (e) The committee shall, for the purpose of investigating the qualifications of the 21 nominee or nominees, be furnished with a report compiled by the state police in conjunction with 22 the attorney general's office indicating the determinations and findings of the state police and 23 attorney general's office investigations concerning the background of the nominee or nominees,

9 returned to the chairperson of the judiciary committee and destroyed.

10 (g) The committee shall also require a financial statement to be submitted by each
