It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections 41-9.1-1, 41-9.1-2, 41-9.1-3, 41-9.1-4, 41-9.1-6, 41-9.1-7, 41-9.18, 41-9.1-14, 41-9.1-25, 41-9.1-26, 41-9.1-27, 41-9.1-30, 41-9.1-31, 41-9.1-36, and 41-9.1-40 of the General Laws in Chapter 41-9.1 entitled "The Rhode Island Gaming Control and Revenue Act" are hereby amended to read as follows:

41-9.1-1. Title. -- This chapter shall be known as the "Rhode Island Gaming Control and Revenue Enforcement Act."

41-9.1-2. Legislative findings. -- (a) The general assembly makes the following findings hereby finds, determines and declares it to be the public policy of this state that:
(1) In accord with R.I. Const. Art. VI, section 22, only the people of the State of Rhode Island can determine whether the state should pursue casino gaming as a source of revenue;
(2) The people should be able to make this determination in a manner that is consistent with the Rhode Island Constitution;
(3) The people should be able to exercise their right and their elected representatives should be able to implement the people's determination based upen clear and objective criteria;
(4) A potential casino licensee should be provided with clear and objective criteria;
(5) Casine states have diverse regulatory schemes, but all have strong legislative and regulatory oversight to ensure integrity of casino operations and to maintain public confidence;
(6) To ensure the integrity of the commercial casine gaming industry and its reputation in Rhode Island, commercial casino-gaming needs the strictest possible regulation with law enforcement oversight;

(7) There are socio economic costs that expanded gaming may impose on commanities and the state;
(2) The success of gaming is dependent upon public confidence and trust that licensed gaming is conducted honestly and competitively; that that rights of the creditors of licensees are protected; and that gaming is free from criminal and corruptive elements;
(3) Public confidence and trust can be maintained only by strict regulation of all persons, $\underline{\text { locations, practices, associations, and activities related to the operation of licensed gaming }}$ establishments and the manufacture or distribution of gaming devices and equipment;
(4) All establishments where gaming is conducted and where gambling devices are operated and all manufactures, sellers, and distributors of certain gambling devices and equipment must therefore be licensed, controlled, and assisted to protect the public health, safety, good order, and the general welfare of the inhabitants of the state to foster the stability and success of gaming and to preserve the economy and policies of free competition of the State of Rhode Island;
(5) No applicant for a license or other affirmative commission approval has any right to a license or to the granting of the approval sought. Any license issued or other commission approval granted pursuant to the provisions of this act is a revocable privilege, and no holder $\underline{\text { acquires any vested right therein or thereunder. }}$
$(8)(6)$ Problem gambling already exists in Rhode Island and may increase with the introduction of casino gaming;
(9)(7) The state of Rhode Island should follow the lead of other casino jurisdictions and take measures designed to detect the extent of problem gambling, educate the public, and assure availability of resources for treatment.
(b) It is the intent of the general assembly that, to achieve the goals set froth in subsection (a) of this section, the commission should place great weight upon the policies expressed in said subdivision (3) in construing the provisions of this chapter.

(c) (1) The state lottery division commission shall provide by rule for the establishment of a list of self-excluded persons from gaming activities at all gaming establishments. Any person may request placement on the list of self-excluded persons by acknowledging in a manner to be established by the state lettery division commission that the person wishes to be excluded and by agreeing that, during any period of voluntary exclusion, the person may not collect any winnings or recover any losses resulting from any gaming activity at such gaming establishments.
(2) The rules of the state lottery division commission shall establish procedures for placements on, and removals from, the list of self-excluded persons, provided that notwithstanding any law to the contrary, prior to the removal from such list, the state lettery division commission or a hearing officer shall conduct a investigative hearing not open to the general public at which it shall be established by the person seeking removal that there is no longer a basis to be maintained on the self-exclusion list.
(3) The rules shall establish procedures for the transmittal to the gaming establishment of identifying information concerning self-excluded persons, and shall require all the gaming establishment to establish procedures designed, at a minimum, to remove self-excluded persons from targeted mailings or other forms of advertising or promotions and deny self-excluded persons access to credit, complimentaries, check-cashing privileges and other club benefits.
(4) The rules shall provide that the state lottery division's commission's list of selfexcluded persons shall not be open to public inspection. The state lottery division commission, any licensee, permittee and any employee or agent thereof shall not be liable to any self-excluded person or to any other party in any judicial proceeding for any monetary damages or to other remedy which may arise as a result of disclosure or publication in any manner other than a willfully unlawful disclosure to a third party that is not an employee, affiliated company, or employee or agent of the state lottery division commission of the identity of any self-excluded person.
(d) A person who is prohibited from any gaming establishment by any provision of this chapter or pursuant to any self-exclusion rules adopted by the state lottery division commission shall not collect in any manner or proceeding any winnings or recover any losses arising as a result of any prohibited gaming activity.
(e) In any proceeding brought against any licensee, permittee any employee thereof for a willful violation of the self-exclusion rules of the state lottery division commission, the state lottery division commission may order the forfeiture of any money or thing of value obtained by the licensee from any self-excluded person.
(f) Nothing herein shall prevent any licensee or permittee from adopting and maintaining a self-exclusion policy that may impose different or greater standards so long as such policy is in addition to the state lottery division's commission's self-exclusion rules, and any actions taken pursuant to such a policy of a licensee or permittee shall be subject to the limitations of liability set forth in this section.
(g) The provisions of this section shall not require the state lottery division, licensees, permittees and the employees thereof to identify problem or compulsive gamblers, which is an activity that requires medical and clinical expertise.
(h) (1) The state lottery division commission may impose sanctions on a licensee or permittee, under this chapter, if the licensee, permittee, or casino gaming operator willfully fails to exclude from the licensed gaming establishment a person placed on the self-exclusion list.
(2) The state lettery division commission may seek the suspension of a licensor permit, if the licensee or permittee engages in a pattern of willful failure to exclude from the licensed gaming establishment persons placed on the self-exclusion list.
(i) A licensee conducting gaming pursuant to the provisions of this chapter can demonstrate to the state lottery division commission compliance with the education and training provisions of this section by providing proof of attendance by all employees when they are hired and annually thereafter at one of the following education programs:
(1) Training programs conducted by the Rhode Island department of mental health, retardation, and hospitals.
(2) Any other course on problem and compulsive gaming training approved by the state lottery division commission, including any courses offered by a casino licensee.

41-9.1-26. State lottery division designated excluded persons. -- (a) The state lottery division commission shall adopt rules to provide for the establishment of a list of persons who are to be excluded from any room, premises, or designated gaming area of any establishment where gaming is conducted pursuant to a license or contract issued pursuant to the provisions of this chapter. The rules must define the standards for exclusion and include standards relating to the following persons:
(1) Those who are career or professional offenders as defined by the rules of the lettery division commission.
(2) Those who have been convicted of a criminal offense specified by the state lettery division commission.
(3) Those whose presence in a gaming establishment operated by a casino licensee would be adverse to the interests of Rhode Island or gaming operations.

(b) The full commission shall consist of five (5) members, all of whom shall be citizens of the United States and residents of the state for the past five (5) years. The governor, with the advice and consent of both the house of representatives and the senate, shall appoint the members. At the first meeting of each fiscal year, a chairperson and vice-chairperson of the commission shall be chosen from the membership by a majority of the members. Membership and operation of the commission shall additionally meet the following requirements:
(1) One member of the commission shall have had at least five (5) years' law enforcement experience as a peace officer as defined in section 12-7-21; one member shall be an attorney admitted to the practice of law in Rhode Island for not less than five (5) years; one member shall be a certified public accountant or public accountant who has been practicing in Rhode Island for at least five (5) years; one member shall have been engaged in business in a management-level capacity for at lease five (5) years; and one member shall be a member of the general public who is not employed in the gaming industry or any profession or industry otherwise as set forth in section 41-9.1-3.
(c) Initial members shall be appointed to the commission by the governor no later than one hundred and twenty (120) days after the effective date of this chapter. All members of the commission shall be appointed for staggered terms of office as follows: one member to serve until one year after initial appointment; one member to serve until two (2) years after initial appointment; one member to serve until three (3) years after initial appointment; and two (2) $\underline{\text { members to serve until four (4) years after initial appointment. All subsequent appointments shall }}$ be for terms of five (5) years. No member of the commission shall be eligible to serve more than two (2) consecutive terms.
(d) Any vacancy on the commission shall be filled for the unexpired term in the same manner as the original appointment. The member appointed to fill such vacancy shall be from the same category described in subsection (a) of this subdivision (1) as the member vacating the position.
(e) Any person who is not of good moral character or who has been indicted or charged with, convicted of, pled guilty or nolo contendere to, or forfeited bail concerning a felony or misdemeanor involving gambling, theft, dishonesty, or fraud under the laws of this state, any other state, or the United States or a local ordinance in any state involving gambling, theft, dishonesty, or fraud that substantially corresponds to a misdemeanor or felony in that state, shall not be appointed to or remain a member of the commission.
(f) Any member of the commission may be removed by the governor for neglect of duty, $\underline{\text { misfeasance, malfeasance, nonfeasance, or any other just cause with the consent and approval of }}$ both the house of representatives and senate.
(g) No commission member shall seek or accept any other employment from any licensee, licensee applicant or other entity regulated by the commission for a period of one year $\underline{\text { after leaving the commission. This does not preclude them from appearing before the commission }}$ as a fact witness pursuant to subsection 41-9.1-5(q).
(h) Commission members shall be reimbursed for necessary travel and other reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties.
(i) The commission shall hold at least one meeting each month and such additional meetings as may be prescribed by rules of the commission. In addition, special meetings may be called by the chairperson, any two (2) commission members, or the executive director, if written $\underline{\text { notification of such meeting is delivered to each member at least seventy-two (72) hours prior to }}$ such meeting.
(i) A majority of the full commission shall constitute a quorum, and the concurrence of a majority of the members appointed to the commission shall be required for any final determination by the commission.
(k) The commission shall appoint an executive director of the commission to serve a five (5) year term. After the initial appointment of the executive director, any subsequent appointment of the executive director shall require the approval of the senate by a recorded roll call vote. The commission shall determine, including, without limitation, the salary of the executive director. The executive director shall perform any and all duties that the commission assigns to him or her. The executive director shall be reimbursed for all actual and necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of official duties. The executive director shall keep records of all proceedings of the commission and shall reserve all records, books, documents, and other papers belonging to the commission or entrusted to its care. The executive director shall devote his or her full time to the duties of the office and shall not hold any other office or employment. A vacancy in the position of executive director shall be filled as provided within this subsection for a new five (5) year term.
(l) The commission shall employ such personnel as may be necessary to carry out the functions of the commission.
(m) The commission shall be subject to chapter 2 of title 38, entitled "Access to Public Records", and chapter 46 of title 42 entitled "Open Meetings."

41-9.1-4.2. Commission - Powers and duties. -- The commission shall have the following powers and duties:
(1) To promulgate such rules and regulations governing the licensing, conducting and operating of casino gaming as it deems necessary to carry out the purposes of this chapter. The executive director shall prepare and submit to the commission written recommendations concerning proposed rules and regulations for this purpose.
(2) To conduct investigative hearings upon complaints charging violations of this chapter or rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to this chapter and to conduct such other hearings as may be required by rules of the commission.
(3) To enter into agreements with the attorney general and the Rhode Island state police for the conduct of investigation, identification, or registration, or any combination thereof, of $\underline{\text { licensed operators and employees in licensed premises or in premises containing licensed }}$ premises in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, which conduct shall include, but not be limited to, performing background investigations and criminal records checks on an applicant applying for licensure pursuant to the provisions of this act and investigating violations of any provision of this chapter or of any rule or regulation promulgated by the commission pursuant to subdivision (1) discovered as a result of such investigatory process or discovered by the commission and division in the course of conducting its business. Nothing in this section shall prevent or impair the attorney general or state or local law enforcement agencies from engaging in the activities set forth in subdivision (3) on their own initiative.
(4) To conduct a continuous study and investigation of casino gaming throughout the state for the purpose of ascertaining any defects in this chapter or in the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to this chapter in order to discover any abuses in the administration and operation of the division or any violation of this chapter or any rule or regulation promulgated pursuant to this chapter.
(5) To formulate and recommend changes to this chapter or any rule or regulation promulgated pursuant to this chapter for the purpose of preventing abuses and violations of this chapter or any of the rules or regulations promulgated pursuant to this chapter, to guard against the use of this chapter and such rules and regulations as a cloak for the conducting of illegal $\underline{\text { activities and to ensure that this chapter and such rules and regulations shall be in such form and }}$ be so administered as to serve the true purpose and intent of this chapter.
(6) To report immediately to the governor, the attorney general, the speaker of the house of representatives, the president of the senate, the majority and minority leaders of both houses and such other state officers as the commission deems appropriate concerning any laws which it determines require immediate amendment to prevent abuses and violations of this chapter or any rule or regulation promulgated pursuant to this chapter or to remedy undesirable conditions in connection with the administration or the operation of the commission, division of casino gaming.
(7) To require such special reports from the chairperson, executive director and division as it considers necessary.
(8) To issue temporary or permanent licenses to those involved in the ownership, participation or conduct of casino gaming and to review and approve the transfer of any existing $\underline{\text { license(s) or facility(ies). }}$
(9) Upon complaint, or upon its own motion, to levy fines and to suspend or revoke $\underline{\text { licenses which the commission has issued. }}$
(10) To establish and collect fees and taxes upon persons, licenses and gaming devices used in, or participating in, casino gaming.
(11) To obtain all information from licensees and other persons and agencies which the commission deems necessary or desirable in the conduct of its business.
(12) To issue subpoenas for the appearance or production of persons, records and things in connection with applications before the commission or in connection with disciplinary or contested cases considered by the commission.
(13) To apply for injunctive or declaratory relief to enforce the provisions of this chapter and any rules and regulations pursuant to this chapter.
(14) To inspect and examine without notice all premises wherein casino gaming is conducted or devices or equipment used in casino gaming are located, manufactured, sold or distributed, and to summarily seize, remove and impound, without notice or hearing from such premises any equipment, devices, supplies, books or records for the purpose of examination or inspection.
(15) To enter into contracts with any governmental entity to carry out its duties. Such contracts or formal agreements, or both, are to be based on pre-established commission criteria specifying minimum levels of cooperation and conditions for payment. No state agency shall count employees used in any agreements entered into with the commission for the purpose of entering into, or to carry out, any agreement shall be considered an administrative expense of the commission. When such agreements are entered into for responsibilities relating to casino enterprise licensing, as well as ongoing casino enterprise gaming, the commission shall require both casino enterprise license applicants and existing licensees to pay for such services under rules and regulations of the commission. #### Abstract fix in the Master Contract for the duration of such term the following: the casino license fee; the rate of taxation on the adjusted gross receipts from gaming authorized under this chapter, the two (2) year tax revenue insurance policy; the hotel oceupancy tax which shall be in lieu of all other parking, admission and other related patron taxes and fees; the project investment requirement of the casing licensee; the anmal funding covenant of the casino licensee in favor of the Rhode Island Council on Problem Gambling; and the annual funding covenant of the casino licensee in connection with a joint marketing budget in favor of the Rhode Island Hespitality and Tourism Association and Rhode Island-Convention Center and-Visitors Bureat, all as set forth and described in section-41-9.1-12. Insofar as the provisions of this act are inconsistent with the provisions of any other general or special law, the provisions of this act shall be controlling. The state does hereby pledge and agree under this act that the state will not limit, alter, diminish, or adversely impact the rights or economic benefits which vest in the casino licensee under the terms of the Master Contract authorized hereby, unless authorized by this act, and the state lottery division is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to memorialize this pledge and agreement en behalf of the state in the Master Contract. (f) After the expiration of the ten (10) year period of the Master Contrat described above, the parties thereto shall renegotiate the wagering tax rates set forth in section $41-9.112$ (b) and the casino license renewal fee set forth in section 41 9.111 .41-9.1-9. State and-local referendum-election. - (a) Pursuant to the terms of R.I. Const., Art. VI, section 22 and chapter 5 of title 17 , the general assembly hereby authorizes submission to all of the electors of the state, at the general election to take place on November 2, 2004, the following question: "Shall there be a casing in the Town of West Warwick operated by an Affiliate of Harrah's Entertainment in association with the Narragansett Indian Tribe?"

(b) Prior to the general election question being submitted to the electors of the state and prior to any casino being established in the Town of West Warwick, and in order for such town to be eligible as the host community for such casine, the casine license applicant shall, within seventy five (75) days of the passage of this act, file a statement of intent with the state lottery division that demonstrates the following:
(1) Evidence that the West Warwick Town Council has agreed to pose, by adopting subsequent to July 1, 2004, a resolution to be placed on the ballet at the next general election to be submitted to the qualified electors of the Town of West Warwick and to the quatified electors of the state, the question referenced in subsection (a) of this section;
(2) Adequate description of real estate designated and available for the development of the casine, which real estate shall constitute at least thirty (30) acres;
(3) Evidence of a fully executed development agreement; and
(4) A complete proposal as referred to in section-41-9.110.
(c) In the event of certifieation by the state lottery division of the statement of intent, the question referenced in subsection (a) shall then be submitted by the secretary of state to the qualified electors of the state at a general-election to take place on November 2, 2004. The secretary of state shall certify the election results. The question shall also be submitted at the same general election by the local board of canvassers to the qualified electors of the Town of West Warwick, and the local board of canvassers shall certify the election results to the secretary of state. Notwithstanding any provisions of this section, in the event that certification by the state lottery division of the statement of intent does not oceur, then any vote by the qualified electors of the state and the Town of West Warwick on the question referenced in subsection (a) shall be deemed non binding.
(d) In the event of the affirmative vote of the qualified electors of the Town of West Warwick and the qualified electors of the state, the state lottery division shall, in accordance with the provisions of this section and section 419.111 , award the casine license to the applicant that is a party with the Town of West Warwick to the development agreement no later than Mareh 1, 2005.
(e) In the event that the affirmative vote of both the Town of West Warwick and the electors of the state does not oceur, or in the event that the casino license applieant is not able to timely file a statement of intent with the state lottery division in accordance with the provisions of subsection (b), then this chapter shall cease to have effect, and shall become null and woid.
(f) Netwithstanding any provision of the General Laws to the contrary, with respect to the matters contemplated in this chapter, the application and license isstance process described in this chapter shall govern and control and shall be in lieu of any other public bidding, request for proposal rights or requirements contained in the General Laws. Any decision or act by the generat assembly, the secretary of state or the state lottery division in: (i) phrasing or submitting the statewide question, (ii) determining whether a statement of intent is in compliance with the filing and other provisions of this chapter, or (iii) awarding the single casino license, shall be final and binding and shall not be reviewable in any court on any grounds except corruption or fraud, so as to promote and not hinder the economic development initiatives and matters contemplated in this ehapter. Juristiction of any suit, action or proceeding with respect to any of the foregoing shall immediately and exclusively vest in the Superior Court, and any appeat to the Rhode Istand Supreme Court shall be heard on an expedited basis; provided, however, that no such suit, action or proceeding shall serve to enjoin (i) the question referenced in subsection (a) from being submitted by the Secretary of State to the qualified electors of the state at a general election to take place on November 2, 2004, and submitted at the same general election by the local board of eanvassers to the qualified electors of the Town of West Warwick, (ii) the awarding and issuance of the single casine license, or (iii) any recipient of a casing license from proceeding with development or operational matters, until a final, non appealable decision has been rendered by a court.

License, permit and registration as revocable privilege- Rights, limitations and prohibitions-- Revocation and suspension -- Penalties for violation. -- (a) A license, permit or registration issued under this chapter is a revocable privilege granted by the state dependent upon the holder's compliance with this chapter and rules promulgated hereunder and is not a property right. Granting a license, permit or registration under this chapter does net ereate or vest any right, title, franchise or other property interest. Any casine license or gaming supplier permit is exclusive to the holder, and a holder or any other person shall apply for and receive the state lottery division's approval before a casine license or gaming supplier permit is transferred, sold or purchased, or before a voting trust agreement or other similar agreement is established with respect to such. A holder of a casino-license or gaming supplier permit, or any other person, shall not lease, pledge, or borrow, or loan money against such license or permit. The attempted transfer, sale or other conveyance of an interest in a casino license or gaming supplier permit without prior state lottery division approval is grounds for suspension or revecation of the license or permit, or other sanctions considered appropriate by the state lottery division. In the event of any transfer, sale or other conveyance of a casino license or gaming supplier permit, including those ordered by a court of competent jurisdiction in connection with a bankruptey, receivership or other like proceeding, the state lottery division shall have the right to approve any proposed transferee purstuant to the requirements of this chapter. Any costs associated with a transfer, sale or other conveyance of a casino license or gaming supplier permit shall be borne by the transferee.
(b) The state lottery division may upen its own motion, and shall upen the verified complaint, in writing, of any person initiating a catse under this chapter, ascertain the facts and, if warranted, hold a hearing for the nomrenewal, suspension ar revecation of a license, permit or registration. The state lottery division shall have the power to suspend or revoke a license, permit or registration or place a holder on probation where the license permit or registration has been ebtained by fatse representation or by fratudulent act or conduct or where a holder violates any of the provisions of this chapter.
(c) In addition to the nonrenewal, revocation or suspension of a license, permit or registration, the state lottery division is authorized to levy an administrative penalty not exceeding the greater of:
(1) Five hundred thousand dollars $($ 500,000)$; of
(2) Two hundred percent $(200 \%)$ of the amount unreported or underreported for any violation of the reporting requirements of this chapter and/or the rules and regulations promulgated by the state lottery division. For violations of the chapter and/or the rules promulgated by the state lottery division other than reporting requirements, the state lottery division may levy administrative penalties of up to five thousand dollars $($ 5,000)$ against individuals and up to ten thousand-dollars $($ 10,000)$ or an amount equal to the daily gross receipts on the date of the violation, whichever is greater, against casing licensees for each such violation.
(d) (1) Except as provided in subsection (e), before refusing to renew, suspending or revoking a license, permit or registration on its own motion, the state lottery division shall, in writing, notify the holder of its intended action and the grounds for the action. The holder may, within twenty (20) days, file with the state lottery division, in tripliente, a request for a hearing stating his or her answer to the grounds specified in the notifiention. The state lottery division shall consider the answer and set a date for a hearing, notifying the holder of the date at least twenty (20) days prior to the hearing date.
(2) Before refusing to renew, suspending or revoling an existing license, permit or registration upen the verified written complaint of any person stating a violation of this chapter, the state lottery division shall, in writing, notify the holder of its receipt of the complaint, enclosing a copy of the complaint. The holder shall, within twenty (20) days, file with the state lottery division, in quadruplicate his or her answer to the complainant or complainants.
(3) The state lottery division shall tramsmit a copy of the answer to the complainant or eomplainants with the scheduled date, time and place for hearing at least twenty (20) days prior to the hearing date.
(4) All notices and answers required or authorized to be made or filed under this section may be served or filed personally, or by centified mail to the last known business address of the addressee. If served personally, the time rums from the date of service; if by registered mail, from the postmarked date of the letter enclosing the document.
(5) Hearings are subject to chapter 46 of title 42 , entitled "open meetings", and the holder has an opportunity to be heard in person or by counsel. The state lottery division shall render a decision on any application or complaint within sixty (60) days after the final hearing on the matter and shall immediately notify the parties to the proceedings, in writing, of its ruling, order or decision. In the event the matter contained in the complaint has been filed or made part of a case pending in any court of this state, the state lottery division may then withhold itsdecision until the court action has been concluded. Hearings are held in accordance with rules promulgated by the state lottery division in conformity with state and federal law.
(e) The state lottery division may suspend a license, permit or registration, without notice or hearing, upen a determination that the safety or health of patrons or employees is jeopardized. If the state lottery division strpends a license, permit or registration under this subsection without notice or hearing, a prompt post suspension hearing shall be held in accordance with subsection (d) to determine if the suspension should remain in effect. The suspension may remain in effect until the state lottery division determines that the cause for suspension has been abated. The state lottery division may revoke the license, permit or registration upon a determination that the holder has not made satisfactory progress toward abating the hazard.
(f)(1) The state lottery division is authorized and empowered to issue subpoenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of records or documents. The process issued by the state lettery division may extend to all parts of the state, and the process may be served by any person designated by the state lottery division. The person serving that process shall receive any compensation that is allowed by the state lottery division, not to exceed the fee prescribed by law for similar services. All witnesses subpeenaed whe appear in any proceedings before the state lottery division shall receive the same fees and mileage allowances allowed by law, and all those fees and allowances are taxed as part of the costs of the proceedings.
(2) Where, in any proceeding before the state lottery division, any witness faits or refuses to attend upen subpeena-issued by the state lottery division, or refuses to testify, of refuses to produce any records or documents the production of which is called for by the subpeena, the attendance of the witness and the giving of his or her testimeny and the production of the documents and records shall be enforced by any court of competent jurisdiction of this state in the same manner as are enforced the attendance, testimony of witnesses and production of records in civil cases in the courts of this state-
(g) The procedures of the administrative procedures act, chapter 35 of title 42 , and all amendments and modifications to that act and the rules adopted pursuant to the act, apply to and govern all proceedings for the judicial review of final administrative decisions of the state lottery division. Any party aggrieved by a final administrative decision of the state lottery division may seek review of that decision in the superior court of the county of his or her residence if a naturat person, or the county in which the aggrieved party maintains a place of business, if other than a natural persen.
(h) Any person aggrieved has the right of appeal from any adverse ruling, order of decision of the state lottery division to a court of competent juristiction in the county where the hearing was held within thirty (30) days from the service of notice of the action of the state lottery division upen the parties to the hearing.
(i) Notice of appeal is filed in the office of the clerk of the court, which shall isste a writ of certiorari directed to the state lottery division, commanding it, within fifteen (15) days after service of the writ, to certify to the court its entire record in the matter in which the appeat has been taken. The appeal shall be heard in due course, by the court, which shall review the record and, after a hearing on the matter, make its determination of the cause.
(j) A final administrative decision of the state lottery division shall not become effective until time for appeal has expired. If an appeal is taken, it shall not act as a stay of decision unless the court so-directs.
(k) In the event of a suspension or revecation of a license, permit or registration, the state lottery division may take such action as is necessary to continue the daily operation of the casine until the reinstatement of the license, permit or registration in the case of a suspension, or the approval of a replacement license, permit or registration in accordance with the approval process contained in this chapter in the case of a revocation.

41-9.1-20. Records of state lottery division-deemed-open-Exceptions.-- (a) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter or other chapters, records of the state lottery division shall be public records. A record of the state lottery division shall be confidential when the record:

If the costs of the researeh and investigation exceed fifty thousand dollars ( $$ 50,000$ ), the applicant shall pay the additional amount.
$(\mathrm{g})$ All licensees, all permittees, and any other persons who have been found suitable or approved by the state lottery division shall maintain suitability throughout the term of the license, permit or approval. In the event of a current prosecution of an offense, the state lottery division shall have the discretion to defer a determination on a person's continuing suitability pending the outcome of the proceedings, provided that if a decision is deferred pending such outcome, the state lottery division, where applicable, may take such action as is necessary to protect the public trust, including the suspension of any license, permit or registration.
(h) All holders of licenses, permits and registrations, and any other persons required to be found suitable, shall have a continuing duty to inform the state lottery division of any possible violation of this chapter and of any rules adopted by the state lottery division. No person who se informs the state lottery division or any law enforcement authority within the state of a violation or possible violation shall be diseriminated against by the applieant, licensee, permittee, registrant or casine gaming operator because of supplying such information, and shall be afforded the protection of section 28-50-1 et al. "The Rhode Island Whistleblower's Protection Act", so called.
(i) The state lottery division shall have the power to call forward for a finding of suitability any person that is affiliated with a Irensee, permittee or registrant if necessary to-protect the public interest. Subject to section-41-9.124, any persen who has or controls directly or indirectly five percent $(5 \%$ or greater voting interest shall meet all suitability requirements and qualifications pursuant to the provisions of this chapter, unless otherwise determined by the state lottery division.
(j) If the state lottery division finds that an individual owner or holder of a security of a licensee, permittee, or registrant, or of a holding or intermediary company of a licensee or permittee, or registrant, or any person or persons with an economic interest in a licensee, permittee, or registrant, or a director, partner, officer, or managerial employee is not suitable, and if as a result, the licensee, permittee, or registrant is no longer qualified to continue as a licensee, permittee, or registrant, the state lottery division shall propose action necessary to protect the-public interest, including the suspension-of the license, permit or registration. The state lottery division may also issue under penalty of revocation or suspension of a license, permit, or registration, impose a condition of disqualifieation naming the person or persons and declaring that sueh person or persons may not:
(1) Receive dividends or interest on securities of a person, or a holding or intermediary company of a person, holding a license, permit, or other approval.

(b) The exercise of voting privileges with regard to publicly traded securities shall not be deemed to constitute the exereise of influence over the affairs of the issuer of such securities.
(c) The state lottery division may reseind the presumption of suitability for an institutional lender or institutional investor at any time if the institutional lender or investor exercises or intends to exercise influence or control over the affairs of the casine licensee applieant, the casing licensee, permittee, or a holding, intermediate, or parent company of the easing licensee applicant, the casino licensee or permittee.
(d) This section shall not be construed to preclude the state lottery division from investigating the suitability or qualifications of an institutional investor or institutional lender should the state lottery division become aware of facts or information which may result in such institutional investor or institutional lender being found unsuitable or disqualified.

SECTION 4. Title 41 of the General Laws entitled "SPORTS, RACING, AND ATHLETICS" is hereby amended by adding thereto the following chapter:

CHAPTER 9.2

GAMING ENFORCEMENT

41-9.2-1. Attorney general's division of gaming enforcement. - There is hereby established in the department of attorney general the division of gaming enforcement. The division shall be under the immediate supervision of a director who shall also be sworn as an $\underline{\text { assistant attorney general and who shall administer the work of the division under the direction }}$ and supervision of the attorney general. The attorney general shall be responsible for the exercise of the duties and powers assigned to the division.

41-9.2-2. Organization and employees. - The attorney general shall organize the work of the division in such bureaus and other organizational units as he/she may determine to be necessary for efficient and effective operation and shall assign to the division such employees of the department of attorney general as may be necessary to assist the director in the performance of his/her duties. Subject to the approval of the superintendent of state police, the Rhode Island state police shall assign such supervisory and investigative personnel and other resources to the division of gaming enforcement as may be necessary to fulfill its obligations under this act.

41-9.2-3. Annual assessments of licensees. - (a) The chairperson of the Rhode Island gaming commission shall make an annual assessment against each applicant and casino licensee subject to regulation under title 41 with respect to casino gaming. The annual assessment shall be for all reasonable expenditures incurred by the division in matters involving casino gaming regulation enforcement and oversight. The assessments shall be in amounts annually determined and certified by the attorney general to the chairperson of the Rhode Island gaming commission as sufficient reimbursement for the expenditures of the attorney general and the Rhode Island state police on behalf of the commission and division and shall be proportionately assessed by the chairperson of the Rhode Eland gaming commission against each casino licensee, or casino enterprise license applicant.
(b) A company may meet its obligations under this section by directly reimbursing the attorney general and by notifying the chairperson of the Rhode Island gaming commission of the amount of the payment.

41-9.2-4. Division of gaming enforcement - General duties and powers. - The division of gaming enforcement shall:
(1) Investigate all applications, enforce the provisions of this chapter and any regulations promulgated hereunder, and prosecute before the commission all proceedings for violations of this act or any regulations promulgated hereunder;
(2) Provide the commission with all information necessary for all actions under this chapter and for all proceedings involving enforcement of the provisions of this chapter or any regulations promulgated hereunder; and
(3) Investigate the qualifications of each applicant before any license, certificate, or permit is issued pursuant to the provisions of this chapter;
(4) Investigate the circumstances surrounding any act or transaction for which commission approval is required;
(5) Investigate violations of this chapter and regulations promulgated hereunder;
(6) Initiate, prosecute and defend such proceedings before the commission, or appeals therefrom, as the division may deem appropriate;
(7) Provide assistance upon request by the commission in the consideration and promulgation of rules and regulations;
(8) Conduct continuing reviews of casino operations through on-site observation and other reasonable means to assure compliance with this chapter and regulations promulgated hereunder;
(9) Receive and take appropriate action on any referral from the commission relating to any evidence of a violation of the regulations promulgated thereunder;
(10) To the extend allowed by the law, exchange fingerprint date with, and receive criminal history information from the Federal Bureau of Investigation for use in considering applicants for any license or registration issued pursuant to any regulations promulgated;
(11) Conduct audits of casino operations at such times, under such circumstances, and to such extent as the director shall determine, including reviews of accounting, administrative and financial records, and management control systems, procedures and records utilized by a casino licensee;
(12) Be entitled to request and receive information, materials and other data from any licensee or registrant, or applicant for a license or registration under this chapter; and
(13) Report to the attorney general and the commission recommendations that promote more efficient operations of the division.

41-9.2-5 Cooperation by licensees, registrants or applicants. -- Each licensee or registrant, or applicant for a license or registration under this chapter shall cooperate with the division in the performance of its duties.

41-9.2-6 Appropriation -- Reimbursement. - There is appropriated for the first year of the effective date a sum sufficient to fund the operations of the division. This appropriation shall be reimbursed either directly from the casino enterprise licensee(s) licensed under this chapter or indirectly assessed by the chairperson of the Rhode Island gaming control commission pursuant to this chapter. The amount owing from such license(s) shall be paid to the general fund no later than the first ( $\left.1^{\text {st }}\right)$ day such casino(s) open for operation or upon transfer of an existing gaming license. Operations of the division during subsequent fiscal years shall be funded by the fees paid by licensees and suppliers pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect in accordance with the Rhode Island Constitution, when Article VI, Section 22 of the Rhode Island Constitution is amended by the voters to allow casino gaming.
