2012 -- H 8142

STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2012

AN ACT

RELATING TO CORRECTIONS -- EARLY RELEASE CREDIT

Introduced By: Representatives Tanzi, Walsh, Lally, Marcello, and Dickinson

Date Introduced: May 09, 2012

Referred To: House Judiciary

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

SECTION 1. Sections 42-56-24 and 42-56-26 of the General Laws in Chapter 42-56 entitled "Corrections Department" are hereby amended to read as follows:

42-56-24. Earned time for good behavior or program participation or completion. --

(a) A person serving a sentence of a violation of sections 11-5-1, 11-23-1, 11-26-1.4, 11-37-2, 11-37-8.1 and/or 11-37-8.3, shall not be eligible to earn time off his or her term or terms of incarceration for good behavior.

(b) The director, or his or her designee, shall keep a record of the conduct of each prisoner, and for each month that a prisoner who has been sentenced to imprisonment for six (6) months or more and not under sentence to imprisonment for life, appears by the record to have faithfully observed all the rules and requirements of the institutions and not to have been subjected to discipline, and is serving a sentence imposed for violation of sexual offenses under sections 11-37-2, 11-37-4, 11-37-6, 11-37-8, 11-37-8.1 and 11-37-8.3 or 11-9-1.3 there shall, with the consent of the director of the department of corrections, or his or her designee, upon recommendation to him or her by the assistant director of institutions/operations, be deducted from the term or terms of sentence of that prisoner the same number of days that there are years in the term of his or her sentence; provided, that when the sentence is for a longer term than ten (10) years, only ten (10) days shall be deducted for one month's good behavior; and provided, further, that in the case of sentences of at least six (6) months and less than one year, one day per month shall be deducted.
For the purposes of this subsection computing the number of days to be deducted for good behavior, consecutive sentences shall be counted as a whole sentence. This subsection recognizes the serious nature of sex offenses; promotes community safety and protection of the public; and maintains the ability of the department of corrections to oversee the rehabilitation and supervision of sex offenders.

For all prisoners serving sentences of more than one month, and not serving a sentence of imprisonment for life or a sentence imposed for a violation of the sexual offenses identified in subsection (a) or (b), the director, or his or her designee, shall keep a record of the conduct of each prisoner, and for each month that prisoner has faithfully observed all the rules and requirements of the institutions and has not been subjected to discipline, there shall, with the consent of the director of the department of corrections or his or her designee and upon recommendation by the assistant director of institutions/operations, be deducted from the term or terms of sentence of that prisoner ten (10) days for each month's good behavior.

For every day a prisoner shall be shut up or otherwise disciplined for bad conduct, as determined by the assistant director, institutions/operations, subject to the authority of the director, there shall be deducted one day from the time he or she shall have gained for good conduct.

The assistant director, or his or her designee, subject to the authority of the director, shall have the power to restore lost good conduct time in whole or in part upon a showing by the prisoner of subsequent good behavior and disposition to reform.

For each month that a prisoner who has been sentenced to imprisonment for more than one month and not under sentence to imprisonment for life who has faithfully engaged in institutional industries there shall, with the consent of the director, upon the recommendations to him or her by the assistant director, institutions/operations, be deducted from the term or terms of the prisoner an additional two (2) days a month.

Except those prisoners serving a sentence imposed for violation of any sexual offense committed under sections 11-37-2, 11-37-4, 11-37-6, 11-37-8, 11-37-8.1, 11-37-8.3 or 11-9-1.3, for each month that a prisoner who has been sentenced to imprisonment for more than one month and not under sentence to imprisonment for life has participated faithfully in programs that have been determined by the director or his/her designee to address that prisoner's individual needs that are related to his/her criminal behavior, there may, with the consent of the director and upon the recommendation of the assistant director, rehabilitative services, be deducted from the term or terms of the prisoner up to an additional five (5) days a month.
Furthermore, whenever the prisoner has successfully completed such program, they may; with the consent of the director and upon the recommendation by the assistant director, rehabilitative services, be deducted from the term or terms of the prisoner up to an additional thirty (30) days.

(h) For all prisoners serving a sentence of more than one month, and not serving a sentence of imprisonment for life, and who are serving a sentence for a violation of those offenses identified in subsection 42-26-24(a) shall not be eligible to have deducted from his or her sentence more than thirty-six (36) days per year for any combination of those eligible credits in subsections 42-56-24(f) and 42-56-24(g) and section 42-56-26.

42-56-26. Additional time allowed for meritorious service. -- With the exception of the prisoners eligible for credits pursuant to subsections 42-56-24(b) and 42-56-24(f), any prisoner sentenced to imprisonment for one year or more in the adult correctional institutions, whether the sentence was imposed before or after May 8, 1974, shall be eligible to have deducted from his or her sentence up to three (3) days per month up to a maximum of thirty-six (36) days per year, when in the determination of the director, or his or her designee, an inmate has performed heroic acts affecting the lives and welfare of the institutional personnel, inmates, or the general public, or when an inmate has submitted extraordinary and useful ideas and plans which have been implemented for the benefit of the state resulting in substantial savings and/or a higher degree of efficiency or performance while participating in and completing academic or vocational education programs, or when an inmate has submitted useful ideas concerning academic or vocational programs which have been implemented at the adult correctional institutions. Nothing in this section shall be construed to deprive a prisoner of time already accumulated or deducted prior to May 8, 1974.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage and shall only apply to persons convicted after passage.
