STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2012

AN ACT

RELATING TO BUSINESSES AND PROFESSIONS - LICENSING OF APPLIED BEHAVIOR ANALYSTS

Introduced By: Senators E O’Neill, Perry, Gallo, Ottiano, and Goodwin

Date Introduced: February 28, 2012

Referred To: Senate Health & Human Services

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

SECTION 1. Title 5 of the General Laws entitled “BUSINESSES AND PROFESSIONS” is hereby amended by adding thereto the following chapter:

CHAPTER 86

LICENSING OF APPLIED BEHAVIOR ANALYSTS

5-86-1. Short title. – This chapter shall be known and may be cited as “Licensing of Applied Behavior Analysts”.

5-86-2. Definitions. – As used in this chapter, the following terms shall be construed as follows:

(1) “Applied behavior analyst” means a person licensed to practice applied behavior analysis under the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations authorized by this chapter.

(2) “Applied behavior analyst aide” means a person not licensed pursuant to the laws and rules applicable to the practice of applied behavior analysis, who works under the supervision of a licensed applied behavior analyst, who assists in the practice of applied behavior analysis and whose activities require an understanding of applied behavior analysis, but do not require professional or advanced training in the basic anatomical, psychological, and social sciences involved in the practice of applied behavior analysis.

(3) “Applied behavior assistant analyst” means a person licensed who practices applied behavior analysis under the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations authorized by this chapter.

licensure as an applied behavior analyst upon satisfying equivalency requirements through submission and satisfaction of written evidence of education and relevant experience to the department pursuant to subsection 5-86-9(c) of this chapter.

(9) “Practice of applied behavior analysis” means the design, implementation and evaluation of environmental modifications by a behavior analyst to produce socially significant improvements in human behavior. It includes the empirical identification of functional relations between environment and behavior, known as functional assessment and analysis. Applied behavior analysis interventions are based on scientific research and the direct observation and measurement of behavior and environment. They utilize contextual factors, establishing operations, antecedent stimuli, positive reinforcement and other consequences to help people develop new behaviors, increase or decrease existing behaviors, and emit behaviors under specific environmental conditions. The practice of applied behavior analysis expressly excludes psychological testing, neuropsychology, psychotherapy, cognitive therapy, sex therapy, psychoanalysis, hypnotherapy, and long-term counseling as treatment modalities. Such services are provided by a person licensed under this chapter only when applied behavior analysis services are prescribed by a child psychiatrist, a behavioral developmental pediatrician, a child neurologist or a licensed psychologist with training in child psychology pursuant to section 27-20.11-4.

(6) Conducts his or her professional activities in accordance with accepted standards for responsible professional conduct, as required by the Rhode Island applied behavior analyst licensure board; and

(7) Meets the criteria as established in section 5-86-12.

5-86-10. Licensure. -- A license may be issued to:

(1) An applicant who meets the requirements for licensure as approved by the department of health and licensed as a licensed applied behavior analyst, licensed applied behavior assistant analyst or psychologist with equivalent experience as stated in this chapter; and

(2) An applicant who has been certified by an appropriate nationally recognized and accredited organization, as approved by the department of health, licensing and licensed as a licensed applied behavior analyst, licensed applied behavior assistant analyst or psychologist with equivalent experience under the laws of another state, United States territory, or foreign country where the board determines that the requirements are substantially equivalent to those of this state.

5-86-11. Application fee. -- The applicant applying for licensure as an applied behavior analyst, applied behavior assistant analyst or psychologist with equivalent experience shall pay a fee of one hundred fifty dollars ($150) to the department.

5-86-12. Limitation of practice. -- The board shall ensure through regulations and enforcement that licensees limit their practice to demonstrated areas of competence as documented by relevant professional education, training, and experience.

5-86-13. Expiration and renewal of licenses – Continuing education – Lapsed license. -- (a) The license of every person licensed under the provisions of this chapter shall expire on the first (1st) day of July of the next even-numbered year following the issuance of his or her license.

(b) On or before the first day of May of each even-numbered year, the department shall mail an application for renewal of license to every person to whom a license has been issued or renewed during the cycle.

(c) Every licensed person who desires to renew his or her license shall file with the department a renewal application, executed, together with a renewal fee of one hundred and fifty dollars ($150), on or before the first (1st) day of June in each even-numbered year. Upon receipt of a renewal application and payment of the renewal fee, the accuracy of the application shall be verified and the department may grant a renewal license effective July 1st and expiring the June 30th in each even-numbered year.

(d) Every licensed person who desires to continue licensure as a licensed applied behavior analyst, licensed applied behavior assistant analyst or psychologist with equivalent experience shall present satisfactory evidence to the board and approved by rule or regulation of the board that the licensed applied behavior analyst, licensed applied behavior assistant analyst or psychologist with equivalent experience, has completed a prescribed course of continuing applied behavior analysis education.

(e) Any person who allows his or her license to lapse, by failing to renew it on or before June 1st in each even-numbered year, as provided in this section, may be reinstated by the department on payment of the current renewal fee, plus an additional fee of forty dollars ($40.00).
Any person using the title licensed applied behavior analyst or licensed applied behavior assistant analyst or psychologist with equivalent experience offering services defined as the practice of behavior analysis under this chapter during the time his or her license has lapsed is subject to the penalties provided for violation of this chapter.

5-86-14. Transfers to inactive list – Reinstatement. -- (a) A licensed applied behavior analyst, licensed applied behavior assistant analyst or the equivalence who does not intend to continue his or her licensure, upon written request to the department may have his or her name transferred to an inactive list, and shall not be required to pay the renewal fee as long as he or she remains inactive.

(b) Should a licensed applied behavior analyst, licensed applied behavior assistant analyst or psychologist with equivalent experience wish to resume functioning as an applied behavior analyst, he or she must notify the department and remit his or her renewal fee in accordance with the rules and regulations promulgated hereunder within the immediate two (2) years prior to the applicant's request for licensure.

5-86-15. Receipts. -- The proceeds of any fees collected pursuant to the provisions of this chapter shall be deposited as general revenues.

5-86-16. Grounds for discipline. -- The board has the power to deny, revoke, or suspend any license issued by the department in accordance with this chapter, or to discipline a licensee upon proof that the person:

(1) Is guilty of fraud or deceit in procuring or attempting to procure a license or temporary license;

(2) Is guilty of a felony or of a crime of immorality;

(3) Is habitually intemperate or is addicted to the use of habit-forming drugs;

(4) Is mentally incompetent;

(5) Is incompetent or negligent in the practice of applied behavior analysis as determined by the Rhode Island applied behavior analyst licensing board;

(6) Has not fulfilled the required continuing education requirements as determined by the Rhode Island applied behavior analysis licensing board;

(7) Has violated the ethical principles governing applied behavior analysts and the practice of applied behavior analysis, as adopted by the board and in force at the time a charge is made, provided that those ethical principles are a nationally recognized standard;

(8) Has practiced as a licensed applied behavior assistant analyst or has performed the duties of a licensed applied behavior assistant analyst without proper supervision by a licensed applied behavior analyst pursuant to section 5-86-26;

(9) Has had their license revoked, suspended, privileges limited or other disciplinary action in another state or jurisdiction, including the voluntary surrender of a license; or

(10) Has failed to furnish the department or its legal representative information requested by the board as part of a disciplinary action.

5-86-17. Procedure for discipline. -- (a) When a sworn complaint is filed with the board charging a person with being guilty of any of the actions specified in section 5-86-16, the department shall immediately investigates those charges, or, the board, after investigation, may institute charges. The department may coordinate investigations of alleged violations of the Rhode Island applied behavior analyst licensing board with an appropriate nationally recognized accrediting organization.

(b) If the investigation reveals reasonable grounds for believing that the licensee or applicant for licensure is guilty of the charges, the board shall fix a time and place for a hearing, and shall serve a copy of the charges, together with a notice of the time and the place fixed for the hearing, personally upon the accused at least twenty (20) days prior to the time fixed for the hearing.

(c) When personal service cannot be effected and that fact is certified by oath by any person authorized to make service, the board shall publish once in each of two (2) successive weeks, a notice of the hearing in a newspaper published in the county where the accused last resided according to the records of the board and shall mail a copy of the charges and of the notice to the accused at his or her last known address.

(d) When publication of notice is necessary, the date of the hearing shall not be less than twenty (20) days after the last date of publication of the notice.

(e) At the hearing, the accused has the right to appear personally or by counsel or both, to produce witnesses and evidence on his or her behalf, to cross-examine witnesses, and to have subpoenas issued by the administrator of professional regulation.

(f) The attendance of witnesses and the production of books, documents, and papers at the hearing may be compelled by subpoenas issued by the department, which shall be served in accordance with law.

(g) The department shall administer oaths as necessary for the proper conduct of the hearing.

(h) The board is not bound by the strict rules of procedure or by the laws of evidence in the conduct of its proceedings, but the determination shall be based upon sufficient legal evidence to sustain it.

(i) If the accused is found guilty of the charges, the board may refuse to issue a license to the applicant, or may revoke or suspend his or her license, or discipline that person.

(j) Upon the revocation or suspension of any license, the license holder shall surrender the license to the department, who shall indicate the same in the licensure verification database.

(k) A revocation or suspension of license may be reviewed at the discretion of the board, or at the initiative of the department which may order a rehearing of the issue if it finds cause.

5-86-18. Grounds for discipline without a hearing. -- With the approval of the director, the board may temporarily suspend the license of a licensed applied behavior analyst, licensed applied behavior assistant analyst or psychologist with equivalent experience without a hearing if the board finds that evidence in its possession indicates that a licensed applied behavior analyst, licensed applied behavior assistant analyst or psychologist with equivalent experience continuing in practice would constitute an immediate danger to the public. In the event that the board temporarily suspends the license of a licensed applied behavior analyst, licensed applied behavior assistant analyst or psychologist with equivalent experience without a hearing by the board, a hearing must be held within ten (10) days after the suspension has occurred.

5-86-19. Penalty for violations. -- (a) It is a misdemeanor for any person, in offering his or her services to the public, to:

(1) Use in connection with his or her name any designation tending to imply that he or she is a licensed applied behavior analyst, licensed applied behavior assistant analyst, or psychologist with equivalent experience to render services defined as the practice of behavior analysis, unless licensed under the provisions of this chapter;

(2) Use in connection with his or her name any designation tending to imply that he or she is a licensed applied behavior analyst, licensed applied behavior assistant analyst, or psychologist with equivalent experience to render services defined as the practice of behavior analysis, during the time his or her license issued under the provision of this chapter is suspended or revoked; or

(3) Otherwise violate any of the provisions of this chapter or the rules and regulations promulgated hereunder.

(b) These misdemeanors shall be punishable by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars ($500) for each offense.

5-86-20. Injunction of violations. -- When it appears to the board that any person is violating any of the provisions of this chapter, the director may institute an action, commenced in the name of the board, to enjoin that violation in a court of competent jurisdiction. That court may enjoin any person from violating any of the provisions of this chapter, without regard to whether proceedings have been or may be instituted before the board or whether criminal proceedings have been or may be instituted.

5-86-21. Persons and practices exempt. -- (a) No provision of this chapter shall be construed to prevent members of other recognized professions that are licensed, certified, or regulated for independent practice of that profession under the laws of this state from rendering services consistent with their professional training and code of ethics and scope of practice as defined in the relevant licensure act, provided that they do not represent themselves to be licensed applied behavior analysts, licensed applied behavior assistant analysts or psychologists with equivalent experience. Recognized members of the clergy shall not be restricted from functioning in their ministerial capacity, provided that they do not represent themselves to be applied behavior analysts, licensed applied behavior assistant analysts or psychologists with equivalent experience.

(b) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit teachers, guidance personnel, social workers, and school psychologists in public or private schools from full performance of their duties, nor to prohibit the use of applied behavior analytic techniques by business or industrial organizations or companies for employment, placement, evaluation, promotion, or job adjustment of their own officers or employees.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting the use of consultants who are defined as qualified mental retardation professionals under the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) 42, § 483.430 by facilities licensed as intermediate care facilities for people who are developmentally disabled by the department of behavioral healthcare, developmental disabilities and hospitals.

(d) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as permitting licensed applied behavior analysts, licensed applied behavior assistant analysts or psychologists with equivalent experience to practice medicine as defined by the laws of this state.

(e) Nothing in this section shall be construed as permitting those persons identified in subsections (b) and (f) of this section to offer their services to any persons or organizations other than those listed in subsection (f) of this section as consultants or to accept remuneration for any behavior analytic services other than that of their institutional salaries or fees unless they have been licensed under this chapter or exempted under subsection (a) of this section.

(f) Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting those persons who are implementing applied behavior analysis services to an immediate family member or as a paid or volunteer caregiver, if the individual or caregiver does not represent himself/herself as a licensed applied behavior analyst, licensed applied behavior assistant analyst or psychologist with equivalent experience.

(g) An applied behavior analyst licensed or certified in another state, or United States territory may perform applied behavior analysis services in this state without obtaining a license for up to ten (10) calendar days per calendar year with no more than five (5) days of this activity occurring consecutively. The calendar day limit shall not apply to services as an expert witness in a legal proceeding.

(h) Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting any person pursuing a supervised course of study leading to a degree or certificate in applied behavior analysis at an accredited or approved educational program if the person is designated by a title which clearly indicates his or her status as a student or trainee.

(i) Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting any persons fulfilling the supervised fieldwork experience requirement of this section.

5-86-22. Enforcement. -- The director shall enforce the provisions of this chapter. He or she, or his or her authorized agents, and the board shall be exempt from providing surety for costs in connection with the commencement of any legal proceedings under this chapter.

5-86-23. Rules Governing Practices and Procedures. -- All hearings and reviews required under the provisions of chapter 5-44 of the general laws of Rhode Island, as amended, shall be held in accordance with the provisions of the rules and regulations of the Rhode Island department of health regarding practices and procedures before the department of health and access to public records of the department of health (R42-35-PP).

5-86-24. Appeals from director and board. -- Any person aggrieved by any decision or ruling of the director or the board may appeal to the superior court in the manner provided in the administrative procedures act, chapter 35 of title 42.

5-86-25. Applicability of other laws. -- This chapter shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 2 of title 38 ("access to public records") and chapter 46 of this title ("open meetings") and, in addition, the members of the board shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 14 of title 36 ("code of ethics").

5-86-26. Supervision. -- (a) A licensed applied behavior analyst shall exercise sound judgment and shall provide care within the scope of practice or guidelines in the performance of his or her duties. A licensed applied behavior analyst shall be permitted to supervise the following: applied behavior analysts, applied behavior assistant analysts, applied behavior analyst aides, care extenders, applied behavior analyst students, and volunteers.

(b) Subject to the requirements of this section, a licensed applied behavior assistant analyst may practice limited applied behavior analysis only under the supervision of a licensed applied behavior analyst. Supervision requires, at a minimum, that the supervising licensed applied behavior therapist meet in person with the licensed applied behavior assistant analyst to provide initial direction and periodic on-site supervision. The supervising licensed applied behavior analyst working with the applied behavior assistant analyst shall determine the amount and type of supervision necessary in response to the experience and competence of the licensed applied behavior assistant analyst and the complexity of the treatment program. The supervisor and the licensed applied behavior assistant analyst shall be jointly responsible for maintaining records, including patient records, to document compliance with this regulation.
(c) A licensed applied behavior assistant analyst:

(1) May not initiate a treatment program until the patient has been evaluated and the treatment planned by the licensed behavior analyst;

(2) May not perform an evaluation, but may assist in the data gathering process and administer specific assessments where clinical competency has been demonstrated, under the direction of the licensed applied behavior analyst;

(3) May not analyze or interpret evaluation data;

(4) May participate in the screening process by collecting data and communicate the information gathered to the licensed applied behavior analyst;

(5) Monitors the need for reassessment and report changes in status that might warrant reassessment or referral under the supervision of the licensed applied behavior analyst; and

(6) Immediately discontinues any treatment procedure, which appears harmful to the patient and immediately notifies the supervising applied behavior analyst;

(d) An applied behavior analyst aide shall be a worker trained on the job. A licensed applied behavior analyst using applied behavior analyst aide personnel to assist with the provision of applied behavior analysis services must provide close supervision in order to protect the health and welfare of the consumer.

(e) The primary function of an applied behavior analyst aide shall be to perform designated routine tasks related to the operation of applied behavior analysis service.

(f) The licensed applied behavior analyst shall not delegate to an applied behavior analyst aide:

(1) Performance of applied behavior analysis evaluation procedures;

(2) Initiation, planning, adjustment, modification, or performance of applied behavior analyst procedures requiring the skills or judgment of a licensed applied behavior analyst;

(3) Acting on behalf of the applied behavior analyst in any matter related to applied behavior analysis, which requires decision making or professional judgment.

5-86-27. Severability. -- The provisions of this chapter are severable, and if any provision hereof shall be held invalid in any circumstances, any invalidity shall not affect any other provisions or circumstances. This chapter shall be construed in all respects so as to meet any constitutional requirements. In carrying out the purposes and provisions of this chapter, all steps shall be taken which are necessary to meet constitutional requirements.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.
