plan shall have been approved by the local governing bodies of Barrington, Bristol and Warren.

Nothing contained in this Section (b) however shall thereafter require the authority to secure the approval of the local governing bodies of Barrington, Bristol and Warren for any particular acquisition or disposition of any water supply facility or any part thereof, and the authority shall be empowered from time to time, to amend the plan previously approved and such amendment shall be effective upon delivery of written notice thereof to the town clerks of each of Barrington, Bristol.

Section 7. DIRECTORS, OFFICERS and EMPLOYEES.

(a) The powers of the authority shall be vested in a board of directors which shall consist of nine members, three members each to be appointed by the local governing bodies respectively of Barrington, Bristol and Warren, no more than two of such appointees from each of Barrington, Bristol and Warren to be from the same political party based on their qualifications without regard for political affiliation. The members of the board of directors first appointed from Barrington, Bristol and Warren shall serve for terms of one, two and three years respectively, and thereafter until their successors are chosen and shall have qualified. Not earlier than, sixty (60) days prior to the expiration of any terms of the members of the board of directors, the local governing bodies of Barrington, Bristol and Warren shall each appoint one member to serve for a term of three years from the expiration of the term, and thereafter, until such appointee’s successor is chosen and shall have qualified. In the event of a vacancy occurring in the board of directors by reason of death, resignation or removal of a member, the local governing body of the municipality who appointed such a member shall appoint a new member to serve for the unexpired term, and thereafter until his successor is chosen and shall have qualified. The members of the board of directors may serve no more than four (4) consecutive terms before being required to relinquish their position for not less than one three (3)-year term, provided, however, that such provision shall not apply to any member currently serving for up to two (2) more consecutive terms regardless of how many terms he or she has already served. The members of the board of directors may be removed from their positions by a majority vote of their local governing body. Each town shall develop and adopt, by resolution or ordinance, standards for removal of the expectations for its member of the board of directors.

(b) The directors shall each receive compensation of thirty-five (35) dollars for each meeting attended, but not more than one thousand (1,000) dollars in any one calendar year, provided that the chairman of the board of directors shall receive fifty (50) dollars per meeting but not more than one thousand five hundred (1,500) dollars in any calendar year. Each director shall be reimbursed for his reasonable expenses incurred in carrying out his duties as a director one thousand dollars ($1,000) pro rata, per year, provided, that the chair of the board of directors shall receive one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) pro rata, per year of service. A director may engage in private employment or a profession or business.

(c) There shall be a chairman chair and vice chair of the board of directors who shall be selected to serve at the pleasure of the board of directors by a vote of not less than six (6) members thereof. The chairman shall designate a vice chairman who shall serve at the pleasure of the chairman, but such vice chairman shall reside in a municipality other than the municipality in which the chairman resides. The vice chair shall reside in a municipality other than the municipality in which the chair resides. Except as otherwise provided herein, five (5) directors shall constitute a quorum and any action to be taken by the Authority under the provisions of this Act may authorized by a resolution approved by not less than five (5) of the directors at any regular or special meeting at which a quorum is present. A vacancy in the membership on the board of directors shall not impair the right of a quorum to exercise all, rights and to perform all duties of the authority.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of the foregoing subparagraph (c), the following actions may be authorize only by an affirmative vote of not less than seven (7) directors six (6) directors, as long as there is at least one vote for each town:

(1) Selection, appointment, setting the salary and termination, of the chief executive officer of the authority, who shall have the title of executive director.

(2) The sale of all, or substantially all, of the real and personal property of the authority.

(3) The exercise of the power of eminent domain conferred upon the authority.

(4) Applications for, or the setting of, rates for the authority’s products and services.

(5) The issuance of bonds, notes, or the borrowing of amounts in excess of, or the entry into, any one or more series of contracts calling for the expenditure of $500,000 or more.

(6) The adoption of an annual budget.
(e) In addition to an executive director, the board of directors shall appoint a secretary and such additional officers, staff members and employees as it shall deem appropriate and shall determine the amount of reasonable compensation, if any, each shall receive. The board of directors may vest in the executive director and his subordinates the authority to appoint additional staff members, and to determine the amount of compensation such individual shall receive. The board of directors shall appoint an executive director, and shall determine the amount of reasonable compensation for said position.

(f) No fulltime employee of the authority shall, during the period of his employment by the authority engage in any other private employment, profession or business, except with the approval of the board of directors. No person shall be appointed executive director, if within one year prior, to the effective date of such appointment such person shall have been a member of the authority’s board of directors, or of a local governing body, or the chief administrative officer, of Barrington, Bristol or Warren.

(g) If any director, officer or employee of the authority shall be interested, directly or indirectly, or shall be a director, officer or employee of, or have ownership interest (other than as the owner of less than one percent of the shares of a publicly held corporation) in any firm, person or corporation interested, directly or indirectly, in any contract with the authority, such interest shall be disclosed to the authority and set forth in the minutes of the authority, and the director, officer or employee having such interest shall not participate on behalf of the authority in the authorization of any such contract. Interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at the meeting of the board of directors of the authority which authorizes the contract or transaction.

(h) Any action taken by the authority under the provisions of this act may be authorized by a Vote at any regular or special meeting, and each such vote shall take effect immediately. All actions taken by the board of directors must be in compliance with the Rhode Island General Laws “Access to Public Records Act” (RIGL section 38-2-1 et seq, as may be amended from time to time) and the “Open Meetings Act” (RIGL section 42-46-1 et seq, as may be amended from time to time). The board of directors may designate from among its members an executive committee, and one or more other committees, each of which to the extent authorized by the board of directors shall have and exercise all authority of the board of directors, except no such committee shall have the authority of the board of directors in the reference to the matters set forth in subsection (d) of this section, or amending the by-laws of the authority.

(i) Any action required by this act to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors or any action to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors, or a committee thereof, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing setting forth the action to be taken shall be signed before Or after such action by all of the directors or all of the members of the committee, as the case may be.

(j) Employees of the authority shall not, by reason of such employment be deemed to be employees of the state nor any municipality for any purpose, any purpose of the general Laws to the contrary notwithstanding.

(k) Prior to the board of directors approving amendments of any rates and/or fees, one or more hearings must be held to which the public is invited for comment, and notice of these hearings shall be advertised in the local newspapers of each of the three (3) towns or a newspaper of general circulation in all three (3) towns, and notice shall be posted at each of the three (3) town halls, as well as on the Internet if possible, at least ten (10), but not more than fourteen (14) days prior to each hearing.

(l) Prior to the engagement of external professional services, including, but not limited to, legal, accounting and engineering services, the authority shall be required to solicit competitive proposals based on a scope of services defined by the authority. The successful award shall be based on the applicant’s qualifications and fee structure. Retention of services shall not exceed three (3) years without obtaining new competitive proposals.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.
This act would amend the Bristol County Water Authority Act by specifying how by-laws may be amended and how directors, officers and employees may serve.

This act would take effect upon passage.
