16 chapter 14.9 of title 19, in collecting or attempting to collect an alleged debt a collector may not:

17 (1) Use or threaten force or violence;

18 (2) Threaten criminal prosecution, unless the transaction involved the violation of a 19 criminal statute;

1           (3) Disclose or threaten to disclose information which affects the debtor's reputation for
2 credit worthiness with knowledge that the information is false;

3           (4) Except as permitted by statute, contact a person's employer with respect to a
4 delinquent indebtedness before obtaining final judgment against the debtor;

5           (5) Except as permitted by statute, disclose or threaten to disclose to a person other than 6 the debtor or their spouse or, if the debtor is a minor, their parent, information which affects the 7 debtor's reputation, whether or not for credit worthiness, with knowledge that the other person
8 does not have a legitimate business need for the information;

9           (6) Communicate with the debtor or a person related to them with the frequency, at 10 unusual hours, or in any other manner as reasonably can be expected to abuse or harass the 11 debtor;

12           (7) Use obscene or grossly abuse language in communicating with the debtor or a person
13 related to them;

14           (8) Claim, attempt, or threaten to enforce a right with knowledge that the right does not 15 exist; or

16           (9) Use a communication which simulates legal or judicial process or gives the 17 appearance of being authorized, issued, or approved by a government, governmental agency, or 18 lawyer when it is not.

19           (b) A collector may not initiate contact with a debtor, or a person related to the debtor,
20 unless the collector possesses verifiable information documenting:

21           (1) Ownership of the debt, including a copy of the signed contract of the original debt, the 22 final account statement of the debt, and written documentation that the collector has the right to 23 collect on the debt;

27 expired, a collector shall inform a debtor, in each communication, that:

28           (1) The statute of limitations for collection of the debt has expired;

29           (2) The debtor may assert the expiration of the statute of limitations as a defense in a civil 30 action involving collection of the debt; and

31           (3) Entering into an agreement with the collector or making a payment may:

32           (i) Revive the debt; and

33           (ii) Prevent the debtor from asserting the expiration of the statute of limitations as a 34 defense in a civil action involving collection of the debt.

1           19-14.12-3. Remedies and penalties. – A collector who fails to comply with the 2 provisions of this chapter shall be subject to all penalties provided in §19-14.9-13 including, but
3 not limited to, damages for emotional distress or mental anguish suffered with or without 4 accompanying physical injury.

5           19-14.12-4. Judicial action prohibited. – No court may enter a judgment by default
6 against a debtor in a civil action involving collection of a debt if the period in which a civil action
7 regarding the underlying debt must commence has expired.

8           19-14.12-5. Severability. – If any provision of this chapter or its application to any 9 person or circumstance is held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalidity does not 10 affect other provisions or applications of the chapter that can be given effect without the invalid
11 provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this chapter are severable.

12           SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.
