H O U S E R E S O L U T I O N

CELEBRATING MARCH 25, 2017, AS THE 196TH ANNIVERSARY OF GREEK INDEPENDENCE DAY

Introduced By: Representatives McNamara, Bennett, Giarrusso, Shanley, and Ackerman

Date Introduced: March 30, 2017

Referred To: House read and passed

1           WHEREAS, On March 25, 1821, the Feast Day of the Annunciation, the Greek nation
2 reclaimed its ancient heritage as the "Cradle of Democracy" by overthrowing the yoke of 3 oppression which had enslaved its people since the fall of Constantinople in 1453. Conquered by 4 the Ottoman Turks in the 15th century, Greece waged a successful War of Independence (1821-5 1829) and re-instituted a democratic form of government; and

6           WHEREAS, The people of the United States generously offered humanitarian assistance 7 to the Greek people during their struggle for independence; and

8           WHEREAS, The price for Greece in holding onto our common values in their region was 9 high, as hundreds of thousands of civilians were killed in Greece during World War II; and

10           WHEREAS, Greece is only one of three nations in the world, beyond the former British 11 Empire, that has been allied with the United States in every major international conflict in the last 12 100 years; and

13           WHEREAS, The Government and people of Greece actively participate in peacekeeping 14 and peace-building operations conducted by international organizations, including the United 15 Nations, the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, the European Union, and the Organization for 16 Security and Co-operation in Europe, and have more recently provided critical support to the 17 operation of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization in the Aegean and Mediterranean Seas; and

18           WHEREAS, Greece, located in a region where Christianity meets Islam and Judaism, 19 maintains excellent relations with Muslim nations and Israel and demonstrates religious

1 tolerance; and

2 WHEREAS, Greece and the United States are at the forefront of the effort for freedom, 3 democracy, peace, stability, and human rights; and

4 WHEREAS, Those and similar ideas have forged a close bond between Greece and the 5 United States, and their people's will be celebrating the 70th Anniversary of the Truman Doctrine 6 in 2017, passed in 1947 to aid Greece, which was on the brink of collapse after the devastation of 7 the Second World War. President Truman's farsighted decision to step in and assist democracies
8 like Greece came with the foresight to know that America's transatlantic partnerships with nations 9 like Greece would become the most enduring and important relationships that we have in the 10 world. The United States eventually gave Greece and other Western European democracies more 11 than two billion dollars in assistance, which in today's money amounts to more than twenty-one 12 billion dollars. The American aid given to Greece through military economic, and diplomatic 13 assistance secured Greece's place in the West and helped countless people; and

14 WHEREAS, A record 1.2 million people requested asylum with the European Union in 15 2015. Greece faced the brunt of this exodus, receiving more than 650,000 migrants in 2015, with 16 asylum seekers arriving at the rate of 8,000 a day. The nation of Greece and its people have 17 generously assisted these applicants and have shown great compassion for them as they seek out a 18 better life for themselves, one filled with personal freedom and economic security. We all owe a 19 debt of gratitude to the Greek people; and 20 WHEREAS, March 25, 2017, Greek Independence Day, marks the 196th anniversary of 21 the beginning of the revolution that freed the Greek people from the Ottoman Empire and 22 celebrates the aspirations for democracy and tolerance that the peoples of Greece and the United 23 States share; and

24 WHEREAS, The Government of Greece has taken important steps in recent years to 25 improve relations with other countries in the region. Greece Foreign Minister Nikos Kotzias, in a 26 recent two-day visit to the United States, highlighted Greece's value as a bastion of stability in a
27 volatile area, the need for security in the region, and outlined the importance of the ties Greece
28 has nurtured with key ally Cyprus and other nations in the region including Israel, Egypt, 29 Lebanon and Jordan; and

30 WHEREAS, It is proper and desirable for the United States to celebrate this anniversary 31 with the Greek people and to reaffirm the democratic principles from which these two great 32 nations were born; now, therefore be it

33 RESOLVED, That this House of Representatives of the State of Rhode Island and 34 Providence Plantations hereby celebrates March 25, 2017, as the 196th Anniversary of Greek

1 Independence, reaffirms Rhode Island's abiding commitment to the magnificent principles of 2 democracy and religious freedom, and urges Turkey to respect the rights and religious freedoms
3 of the Ecumenical Patriarchate; and be it further

4           RESOLVED, That the Secretary of State be and hereby is authorized and directed to 5 transmit duly certified copies of this resolution to the Annunciation Greek Orthodox Church of 6 Cranston, the Assumption Greek Orthodox Church of Pawtucket, the St. Spyridon Greek 7 Orthodox Church of Newport, the members of the Rhode Island Congressional Delegation, and
