20 or indirectly, as a result of the offense.

21 (b) In a proceeding against real or personal property under this section, the person
22 convicted of the offense may assert a defense that the forfeiture is manifestly disproportionate to 23 the seriousness of the offense. The person has the burden to establish the defense by a 24 preponderance of the evidence.

25 (c) Proceeds from the public sale or auction of property forfeited under subsection (a) of 26 this section must be distributed in the manner provided for the distribution of the proceeds of 27 criminal forfeitures act pursuant to §§21-28-5.04.1 and 21-28-5.04.2.

28 11-67.1-12. Statute of limitations.

29 A prosecution for an offense under this chapter must be commenced not later than ten
30 (10) years after commission of the offense.

31 11-67.1-13. Victim confidentiality.

32 In an investigation of, or a prosecution for an offense under this chapter, every agency of 33 state or local government shall keep confidential the identity, pictures, and images of the alleged 34 victim and the family of the alleged victim, except to the extent that disclosure is:

- 1           (1) Necessary for the purpose of investigation or prosecution;
2           (2) Required by law or court order; or
3           (3) Necessary to ensure provision of services or benefits for the victim or the victim's
4 family.

5           11-67.1-14. Past sexual behavior of victim.

6           In a prosecution for an offense under this chapter or a civil action under §11-67.1-18,
7 evidence of a specific instance of the alleged victim's past sexual behavior or reputation or 8 opinion evidence of past sexual behavior of the alleged victim is not admissible unless the 9 evidence is:

- 10           (1) Admitted in accordance with §11-37-13; or 11           (2) Offered by the prosecution to prove a pattern of human trafficking by the defendant.

12           11-67.1-15. Immunity of minor.

13           (a) An individual is not criminally liable or subject to a delinquency proceeding in the 14 family court for prostitution or solicitation to commit a sexual act if the individual was a minor at 15 the time of the offense and committed the offense as a direct result of being a victim.

16           (b) An individual who has engaged in commercial sexual activity is not criminally liable
17 or subject to a delinquency proceeding in the family court for prostitution or solicitation to 18 commit a sexual act if the individual was a minor at the time of the offense.

19           (c) A minor who under subsections (a) or (b) of this section is not subject to criminal 20 liability or a delinquency proceeding in family court is presumed to be an abused and/or 21 neglected child as defined in §40-11-2.

22           (d) This section does not apply in a prosecution or a delinquency proceeding for 23 patronizing a prostitute.

24           11-67.1-16. Affirmative defense of victim.

25           An individual charged with prostitution or solicitation to commit a sexual act, committed
26 as a direct result of being a victim may assert an affirmative defense that the individual is a
27 victim.

28           11-67.1-17. Motion to vacate and expunge conviction.

29           (a) An individual convicted of prostitution or solicitation to commit a sexual act,
30 committed as a direct result of being a victim may apply by motion to the court having 31 jurisdiction over the offense, to vacate the conviction and expunge the record of conviction. The 32 court may grant the motion on a finding that the individual's participation in the offense was a
33 direct result of being a victim.

34           (b) No official determination or documentation is required to grant a motion by an

1 individual under subsection (a) of this section, but an official determination or documentation
2 from a federal, state, local, or tribal agency that the individual was a victim at the time of the 3 offense creates a presumption that the individual's participation was a direct result of being a
4 victim.

5 (c) A motion filed under subsection (a) of this section, any hearing conducted on the 6 motion, and any relief granted shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of chapter 1.3

11 injunctive relief, and any other appropriate relief.

12 (b) If a victim prevails in an action under this section, the court shall award the victim
13 reasonable attorney's fees and costs.

14 (c) An action under this section must be commenced not later than ten (10) years after the 15 later of the date on which the victim:

16 (1) No longer was subject to human trafficking; or

17 (2) Attained eighteen (18) years of age.

18 (d) Damages awarded to a victim under this section for an item must be offset by any 19 restitution paid to the victim pursuant to §11-67.1-10.

20 (e) This section does not preclude any other remedy available to a victim under federal 21 law or other general or public law of this state other than this chapter.
