PROCLAIMING JUNE 10, 2018, AS THE "DAY OF PORTUGAL" IN THE STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

Introduced By: Senators DaPonte, Conley, Pearson, Goldin, and DiPalma

Date Introduced: June 07, 2018

Referred To: Recommended for Immediate Consideration

1 WHEREAS, June 10th marks the anniversary of the death of the revered Portuguese poet, 2 Luis Vaz Camoes in 1580, who is best known for his epic poem "Os Lusíadas," a tribute to the 3 golden age of Portuguese maritime exploration and discoveries. The day is now celebrated around 4 the world in Portuguese-speaking communities as the "Day of Portugal, Camoes and the 5 Portuguese Communities"; and

6 WHEREAS, Rhode Island's large and significant Portuguese population has made 7 substantial contributions to all aspects of the state's history and rich cultural diversity; and

8 WHEREAS, Between 1830 and 1860, whaling ships from Bristol, Newport, New 9 Bedford, and Fall River traveled to the Azores where they often took on Portuguese sailors. Many 10 of these sailors traveled back to New England, settling in Providence, Pawtucket, and East 11 Providence. They frequently took on work in the textile mills, which were abundant in the area at 12 the time, while others became farmers in Little Compton and Portsmouth; and

13 WHEREAS, The main goal for the Portuguese people coming to Rhode Island and the 14 United States was economic betterment, but, like the Irish and Italians, the Portuguese people all 15 too often suffered discrimination and exploitation in employment. Through perseverance and an 16 indomitable work ethic, they carved a future for themselves, their families, and generations to 17 come; and

18 WHEREAS, Thousands sought refuge in Rhode Island in the mid-20th century to escape 19 the devastation of the Capelinhos volcano on the Azorean island of Faial, opening the door for

1 legal immigration for all Portuguese and many other ethnicities; and

2 WHEREAS, The number of Rhode Islanders with Portuguese ancestry is 9.6 percent of 3 the state's population, one of the largest percentages of any state in the nation with the majority 4 making their homes in the Providence, Kent and Bristol Counties; and

5 WHEREAS, The Portuguese American population in Rhode Island is an active and vital 6 part of our state. They have enriched and delighted our palates with fine restaurants that serve 7 traditional Portuguese dishes, and they actively contribute to and participate in all areas of the 8 community distinguishing themselves in leadership roles in such fields as the judiciary, law 9 enforcement, medicine, education, social services, entrepreneurship, civic engagement and 10 political participation; and

11 WHEREAS, The President of the Republic of Portugal, Marcelo Rebelo Sousa and the 12 Prime Minister of Portugal, Antonio Costa, have chosen to celebrate the Day of Portugal with the 13 Portuguese communities and will be visiting Providence, Rhode Island, to celebrate the annual 14 Rhode Island Day of Portugal and to recognize the many decades of contributions that hard
15 working Portuguese-Americans have made to Rhode Island; now, therefore be it

16 RESOLVED, That this Senate of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations 17 hereby thanks Rhode Island's Portuguese Community for the many contributions it has 18 generously made to the enrichment of this state; and be it further

19 RESOLVED, That this Senate hereby recognizes June 10, 2018, as the "Day of Portugal"
20 in the State of Rhode Island. We join in the celebration of the 41st consecutive celebration of this
