It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1           SECTION 1. Section 15-15-3 of the General Laws in Chapter 15-15 entitled "Domestic 2 Abuse Prevention" is hereby amended to read as follows:

3           15-15-3. Protective orders -- Penalty -- Jurisdiction.

4           (a) A person, or a parent, custodian, or legal guardian on behalf of a minor child or the 5 director of the department of children, youth and families ("DCYF") or its designee for a child in 6 the custody of DCYF, pursuant to §§ 40-11-7 and 40-11-7.1, suffering from domestic abuse or 7 sexual exploitation as defined in § 15-15-1, may file a complaint in the family court requesting 8 any order that will protect and support her or him from abuse or sexual exploitation, including, 9 but not limited to, the following:

10           (1) Ordering that the defendant be restrained and enjoined from contacting, assaulting, 11 molesting, sexually exploiting, or interfering with the plaintiff at home, on the street, or 12 elsewhere, whether the defendant is an adult or a minor;

13           (2) Ordering the defendant to vacate the household immediately, and further providing in 14 the order for the safety and welfare of all household animals and pets;

15           (3) Awarding the plaintiff custody of the minor children of the parties, if any;

16           (4) Ordering the defendant to surrender physical possession of all firearms in his or her 17 possession, care, custody, or control and shall further order a person restrained not to purchase or 18 receive, or attempt to purchase or receive, any firearms while the protective order is in effect. The 19 defendant shall surrender said firearms within twenty-four (24) hours of notice of the protective

1 order to the Rhode Island state police or local police department or to a federally licensed 2 firearms dealer.

3 (i) A person ordered to surrender possession of any firearm(s) pursuant to this section 4 shall, within seventy-two (72) hours after being served with the order, either:

5 (A) File with the court a receipt showing the firearm(s) was physically surrendered to the 6 Rhode Island state police or local police department, or to a federally licensed firearms dealer; or

7 (B) Attest to the court that, at the time of the order, the person had no firearms in his or 8 her immediate physical possession or control, or subject to their immediate physical possession or 9 control, and that the person, at the time of the attestation, has no firearms in their immediate 10 physical possession or control, or subject to their immediate physical possession or control.

11 (ii) If a person restrained under this section transfers a firearm(s) to a federally licensed 12 firearms dealer pursuant to this section, the person restrained under this section may instruct the 13 federally licensed firearms dealer to sell the firearm(s) or to transfer ownership, in accordance 14 with state and federal law, to a qualified named individual who is not a member of the person's 15 dwelling house, who is not related to the person by blood, marriage, or relationship as defined by 16 § 15-15-1(7), and who is not prohibited from possessing firearms under state or federal law. The 17 owner of any firearm(s) sold shall receive any financial value received from its sale, less the cost 18 associated with taking possession of, storing, and transferring of the firearm(s).

19 (iii) Every individual to whom ownership of a firearm(s) is transferred pursuant to this 20 subsection shall be prohibited from transferring or returning any firearm(s) to the person 21 restrained under this section while the protective order remains in effect and shall be informed of 22 this prohibition, Any knowing violation of this subsection is a felony that shall be punishable by a 23 fine of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment for a term of not less 24 than one year and not more than five (5) years, or both.

25 (iv) An individual to whom ownership of a firearm(s) is transferred pursuant to this 26 subsection shall return a firearm(s) to the person formerly restrained under this section only if the 27 person formerly restrained under this section provides documentation issued by a court indicating 28 that the restraining order issued pursuant to this section that prohibited the person from 29 purchasing, carrying, transporting, or possessing firearms has expired and has not been extended;

30 (5) After notice to the respondent and a hearing, ordering either party to make payments 31 for the support of a minor child or children of the parties as required by law for a period not to 32 exceed ninety (90) days, unless the child support order is for a child or children receiving public 33 assistance pursuant to chapter 5.1 of title 40. In these cases, legal counsel for the division of 34 taxation, child support enforcement, shall be notified as a party in interest to appear for the

1 purpose of establishing a child support order under a new or existing docket number previously 2 assigned to the parties and not under the protective docket number. The child support order shall 3 remain in effect until the court modifies or suspends the order.

4 (b) After notice to the respondent and a hearing, which shall be held within fifteen (15) 5 days of surrendering said firearms, the court, in addition to any other restrictions, may, for any 6 protective order issued after or renewed on or after July 1, 2017, continue the order of surrender, 7 and shall further order a person restrained under this section not to purchase or receive, or attempt 8 to purchase or receive, any firearms while the protective order is in effect.

9 (c) The Family Court shall provide a notice on all forms requesting a protective order that 10 a person restrained under this section shall be ordered pursuant to § 11-47-5 to surrender 11 possession of any firearms while the protective order is in effect. The form shall further provide 12 that any person who has surrendered his or her firearms shall be afforded a hearing within fifteen 13 (15) days of surrendering his or her firearms.

14 (d) Any firearm surrendered in accordance with this section to the Rhode Island state 15 police or local police department shall be returned to the person formerly restrained under this 16 section upon his or her request when:

17 (1) The person formerly restrained under this section produces documentation issued by a 18 court indicating that the restraining order issued pursuant to this section that prohibited the person 19 from purchasing, carrying, transporting, or possessing firearms has expired and has not been 20 extended; and

21 (2) The law enforcement agency in possession of the firearms determined that the person 22 formerly restrained under this section is not otherwise prohibited from possessing a firearm under 23 state or federal law.

24 (3) The person required to surrender their firearms pursuant to this section shall not be 25 responsible for any costs of storage of any firearms surrendered pursuant to this section.

26 (e) The Rhode Island state police are authorized to develop rules and procedures 27 pertaining to the storage and return of firearms surrendered to the Rhode Island state police or 28 local police departments pursuant to this section. The Rhode Island state police may consult with 29 the Rhode Island Police Chiefs' Association in developing rules and procedures.

30 (f) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit, expand, or in any way modify 31 orders issued under § 12-29-7 or § 15-5-19.

32 (g) Nothing in this section shall limit a defendant's right under existing law to petition the 33 court at a later date for modification of the order.

34 (h) The court shall immediately notify the person suffering from domestic abuse whose

1 complaint gave rise to the protective order, and the law enforcement agency where the person 2 restrained under this section resides, of the hearing.

3 (i) The person suffering from domestic abuse, local law enforcement, and the person 4 restrained under this section shall all have an opportunity to be present and to testify when the 5 court considers the petition.

6 (j) At the hearing, the person restrained under this section shall have the burden of 7 showing, by clear and convincing evidence, that, if his or her firearm rights were restored, he or 8 she would not pose a danger to the person suffering from domestic abuse or to any other person.

9 (1) In determining whether to restore a person's firearm rights, the court shall examine all 10 relevant evidence, including, but not limited to: the complaint seeking a protective order; the 11 criminal record of the person restrained under this section; the mental health history of the person 12 restrained under this section; any evidence that the person restrained under this section has, since 13 being served with the order, engaged in violent or threatening behavior against the person 14 suffering from domestic abuse or any other person.

15 (2) If the court determines, after a review of all relevant evidence and after all parties
16 have had an opportunity to be heard, that the person restrained under this section would not pose 17 a danger to the person suffering from domestic abuse or to any other person if his or her firearm
18 rights were restored, then the court may grant the petition and modify the protective order and lift 19 the firearm prohibition.

20 (3) If the court lifts a person's firearms prohibition pursuant to this subsection, the court 21 shall issue the person written notice that he or she is no longer prohibited under this section from 22 purchasing or possessing firearms while the protective order is in effect.

23 (k) The prohibition against possessing a firearm(s) due solely to the existence of a 24 domestic violence restraining order issued under this section shall not apply with respect to sworn 25 peace officers as defined in § 12-7-21 and active members of military service, including members 26 of the reserve components thereof, who are required by law or departmental policy to carry 27 departmental firearms while on duty or any person who is required by his or her employment to 28 carry a firearm in the performance of his or her duties. Any individual exempted pursuant to this 29 exception may possess a firearm only during the course of his or her employment. Any firearm 30 required for employment must be stored at the place of employment when not being possessed for 31 employment use; all other firearm(s) must be surrendered in accordance with this section.

32 (l) Upon motion by the plaintiff, his or her address shall be released only at the discretion 33 of the family court judge.

34 (m)(1) Any violation of the protective orders in subsection (a) of this section shall subject

1 the defendant to being found in contempt of court.

2 (2) The contempt order shall not be exclusive and shall not preclude any other available
3 civil or criminal remedies. Any relief granted by the court shall be for a fixed period of time not 4 to exceed three (3) years, at the expiration of which time the court may extend any order, upon 5 motion of the plaintiff, for any additional time, that it deems necessary to protect the plaintiff
6 from abuse. The court may modify its order at any time upon motion of either party.

7 (n)(1) Any violation of a protective order under this chapter of which the defendant has 8 actual notice shall be a misdemeanor that shall be punished by a fine of no more than one 9 thousand dollars ($1,000) or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

10 (2) The penalties for violation of this section shall also include the penalties as provided 11 by § 12-29-5.

12 (o) Actual notice means that the defendant has received a copy of the order by service or 13 by being handed a copy of the order by a police officer pursuant to § 15-15-5(d).

14 (p)(1) The district court shall have criminal jurisdiction over all adult violations of this 15 chapter.

16 (2) The family court shall have jurisdiction over all juvenile violations of this chapter.

17 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.
