3 follows:

4 34-39-3. Restrictions enforceable.

5 (a) No conservation restriction held by any governmental body or by a charitable 6 corporation, association, trust, or other entity whose purposes include conservation of land or 7 water areas or of a particular area, and no preservation restriction held by any governmental body
8 or by a charitable corporation, association, trust, or other entity whose purposes include
9 preservation of structures or sites of historical significance or of a particular structure or site, shall 10 be unenforceable against any owner of the restricted land or structure on account of lack of 11 privity of estate or contract, or lack of benefit to particular land, or on account of the benefit being 12 assignable or being assigned to any other governmental body or to any entity with like purposes,
13 or on account of any other doctrine of property law which might cause the termination of the

18 or condition which is not covered hereunder shall, on account of any provisions hereof, be

1 unenforceable.

2 (c) The restrictions shall not be subject to the thirty year limitation on restrictive
3 covenants provided in § 34-4-21.

4 (d) The attorney general, pursuant to his or her inherent authority, may bring an action in 5 the superior court to enforce the public interest in such restrictions.

6 (e) The court in any judicial proceeding, or the decision maker in any arbitration or other
7 alternative dispute resolution proceeding, in addition to any other relief ordered, may award the 8 prevailing party, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred in the action or proceeding.

9 (f) A court action affecting a conservation restriction held by a private land trust, as 10 defined in paragraph 42-17.1-2(28)(ii), may only be brought or intervened in by:

12 restriction;

13 (2) A holder of the conservation restriction;

14 (3) A person having a third-party right of enforcement stated in the recorded conservation
15 restriction; or

16 (4) The attorney general as provided in subsection 34-39-3(d).
