STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2021

H O U S E R E S O L U T I O N

EXPRESSING DEEPEST CONDOLENCES ON THE PASSING OF BARBARA A. HACKEY

Introduced By: Representatives Fogarty, Shekarchi, McEntee, Tanzi, Filippi, Ajello, and McGaw

Date Introduced: July 01, 2021

Referred To: House read and passed

1 WHEREAS, It is with great sadness that this House has learned of the passing of Barbara
2 A. Hackey, beloved wife of the late Frederick Hackey, Jr., cherished mother of Robert Hackey
3 and his wife, Tacy, and the doting grandmother of two granddaughters, Meagan and Sarah; and

4 WHEREAS, A lifelong resident of South Kingstown, Mrs. Hackey was born at South
5 County Hospital, the daughter of the late Robert and Emma Bristow. She attended St. Joseph's 6 Hospital School of Nursing where, as a student nurse, she supervised an entire ward of patients.
7 Upon graduation, she spent more than thirty years caring for her patients at South County 8 Hospital in myriad departments within the hospital including the emergency room, medical-9 surgical floors, and in the operating room; and

10 WHEREAS, Always going above and beyond, in addition to her devoted medical care for 11 her patients, Mrs. Hackey sought to brighten their days by writing and producing many of the 12 hospital's annual talent shows and delighted all with her acting and singing talents. In 1988, after 13 helping to coordinate the construction of the hospital's new surgical suite, she retired as Director 14 of Surgical Services; and

15 WHEREAS, In addition to her family and nursing, Mrs. Hackey was imbued with a deep 16 passion for politics and public service. As a young girl she had attended local Democratic Party 17 meetings with her father. In 1977, she was elected as Town Moderator in South Kingstown, the 18 first woman to serve in this position, and over the years, she also served as a member of the 19 town's Zoning Board of Review. Her leadership style always kept meetings open, on-track, and 20 fair; and

1 WHEREAS, In 1981, Mrs. Hackey graduated from the University of Rhode Island with a 2 Bachelor's degree in political science. She was subsequently elected to the South Kingstown
3 Town Council where she served for 17 years, including five terms as President. During her years
4 as President, meetings of the Council were never dull and considered by many to be "must see"
5 public access TV. She was also involved with the planning of the new Senior Center; and 6 WHEREAS, A woman of great faith, Mrs. Hackey was a dedicated parishioner at St.

7 Mary Star of the Sea Church in Narragansett where she served as a Lector, Eucharistic Minister, 8 and a Minister to the sick and homebound; and

9 WHEREAS, Even after retiring, Mrs. Hackey remained vital and active, holding court
10 every morning in the coffee shop at Old Mountain Lanes, gardening, solving crossword puzzles, 11 and making daily rounds to check on her fellow residents after she moved into Elderwood of 12 Scallop Shell at Wakefield; and

13 WHEREAS, Barbara Hackey epitomized wholehearted service to her community and the 14 welfare of others. She enriched the lives of all who knew her and she will be dearly missed; now, 15 therefore be it

16 RESOLVED, That this House of Representatives of the State of Rhode Island hereby 17 expresses our deepest sympathies on the passing of Barbara A. Hackey; and be it further

18 RESOLVED, That the Secretary of State be and hereby is authorized and directed to 19 transmit a duly certified copy of this resolution to Robert Hackey and Family.
