It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

SECTION 1. Legislative findings. The general assembly hereby finds and declares that:

1. In enacting the Reproductive Privacy Act in 2019, the general assembly recognized the importance of protecting a person's right to reproductive health care. However, exercising that right can be illusory for people of limited financial means.

2. Funding restrictions on abortion coverage interfere with an individual's personal decision-making, with their health and well-being, and with their constitutionally protected right to a safe and legal medical procedure.

3. Restrictions on abortion coverage have a disproportionate impact on low-income residents, immigrants, people of color, and young people who are already disadvantaged in their access to the resources, information, and services necessary to prevent an unintended pregnancy or to carry a health pregnancy to term.

4. Numerous other states provide abortion coverage in their Medicaid programs and in their state employee insurance plans.

5. The purpose of this legislation is to promote equity in access to reproductive health care.

SECTION 2. Section 36-12-2.1 of the General Laws in Chapter 36-12 entitled "Insurance Benefits" is hereby repealed.

36-12-2.1. Health insurance benefits -- Coverage for abortions excluded.

(a) The state of Rhode Island shall not include in any health insurance contracts, plans, or policies covering employees, any provision which shall provide coverage for induced abortions (except where the life of the mother would be endangered if the fetus were carried to term, or where the pregnancy resulted from rape or incest). This section shall be applicable to all contracts, plans, or policies of:

1. All health insurers subject to title 27;
2. All group and blanket health insurers subject to title 27;
3. All nonprofit hospital, medical, surgical, dental, and health service corporations;
4. All health maintenance organizations; and
5. Any provision of medical, hospital, surgical, and funeral benefits and of coverage against accidental death or injury when the benefits or coverage are incidental to or part of other insurance authorized by the statutes of this state.

(b) Provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to benefits provided under existing collective bargaining agreements entered into prior to June 30, 1982.

(c) Nothing contained herein shall be construed to pertain to insurance coverage for complications as the result of an abortion.

SECTION 4. Section 42-12.3-3 of the General Laws in Chapter 42-12.3 entitled "Health Care for Children and Pregnant Women" is hereby amended to read as follows:
