RELATING TO ANIMALS AND ANIMAL HUSBANDRY -- CRUELTY TO ANIMALS

Introduced By: Senators Archambault, Burke, Kallman, Ruggerio, F Lombardi, McCaffrey, Goodwin, and Coyne

Date Introduced: January 25, 2022

Referred To: Senate Judiciary

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 4-1-3.2 of the General Laws in Chapter 4-1 entitled "Cruelty to 2 Animals" is hereby amended to read as follows:

3 4-1-3.2. Animal confinement in motor vehicles prohibited.

4 (a) No owner or person shall confine any animal in a motor vehicle that is done in a manner 5 that places the animal in a life-threatening or extreme health-threatening situation by exposing it to 6 a prolonged period of extreme heat or cold without proper ventilation or other protection from such 7 heat or cold. In order to protect the health and safety of an animal, an animal control officer, law 8 enforcement officer, or fire fighter who has probable cause to believe that this section is being 9 violated shall have the authority to enter such motor vehicle by any reasonable means necessary 10 under the circumstances after making a reasonable effort to locate the owner or other responsible 11 person.

12 (b) A law enforcement or animal control officer may take all steps that are reasonably 13 necessary to remove an animal from a motor vehicle if the animal's health, safety, or well-being 14 appears to be in immediate danger from heat, cold, or lack of adequate ventilation and the 15 conditions could reasonably be expected to cause extreme suffering or death.

16 (c) Nothing in this section shall prevent a law enforcement officer or animal control officer 17 from removing an animal from a motor vehicle if the animal's safety appears to be in immediate 18 danger from heat, cold, lack of adequate ventilation, lack of food or water or other circumstances
19 that could reasonably be expected to cause suffering, disability, or death to the animal. A law

1 enforcement officer or animal control officer may enter the motor vehicle for the sole purpose of 2 rescue or release of the animal and may not search the vehicle unless otherwise permitted by law.

3 (d) A law enforcement or animal control officer who removes an animal in accordance 4 with this section shall, in a secure and conspicuous location on or within the motor vehicle, leave 5 written notice bearing the officer's or agent's name and office and the address of the location where 6 the animal ~~may be retrieved. The owner may retrieve the animal only after payment of all charges~~ 7 ~~that have accrued for the maintenance, care, medical treatment, and impoundment of the animal is~~ 8 currently being treated and/or held.

9 (e) A law enforcement or animal control officer may, after removing an animal pursuant to 10 subsection (d) of this section, hold the animal for up to seventy-two (72) hours or until the date of 11 the arraignment of a person charged with a violation of this section as provided in subsection (h) 12 of this section if the officer reasonably believes the animal needs or requires any additional medical 13 treatment and/or medical observation. The officer shall provide written notice to the owner of the 14 animal that a hearing relating to temporary and/or permanent possession of the animal will be 15 afforded at the arraignment.

16 (f) The district court shall, after hearing, determine if and when the owner may retrieve the 17 animal and the amount the owner must pay for the maintenance, care, medical treatment, and 18 impounding of the animal. The owner shall pay for all charges ordered by the court before taking 19 possession of the animal. The court may also order that the owner permanently surrender physical 20 possession and ownership of the animal.

21 ~~(e)~~(g) A law enforcement or animal control officer who removes an animal from a motor 22 vehicle pursuant to this section is immune from criminal or civil liability that might otherwise result 23 from the removal.

24 ~~(f)~~(h) Any person who knowingly violates this section shall be punished by imprisonment 25 for a term not exceeding one year or by a fine of no more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or 26 both.

27 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.
