(b) The reservation is made by filing with the secretary of state an application, executed by the applicant, to reserve a specified name. If the secretary of state finds that the name is available for use by a domestic or foreign limited partnership, he or she reserves the name for the exclusive use of the applicant for a period of one hundred and twenty (120) days. Once having reserved a name, that applicant may not again reserve the same name until more than sixty (60) days after the expiration of the last one hundred and twenty-day (120) period for which that applicant reserved that name. The right to the exclusive use of a reserved name may be transferred to any other person by filing in the office of the secretary of state a notice of the transfer, executed by the applicant for whom the name was reserved and specifying the name and address of the transferee.

7-13-4. Specified office and agent.

(iii) Any right of a partner to receive distribution, or of a general partner to make distributions to a partner, that include a return of all or any part of the partner’s contribution; and

(iv) Any events upon the happening of which the limited partnership is to be dissolved and its affairs wound up.

A limited partnership may carry on any business that a partnership without limited partners may carry on.

Except as provided in the partnership agreement, a partner may lend money to and transact any other business with the limited partnership and, subject to other applicable law, has the same rights and obligations with respect to that transaction of business as a person who is not a partner.

In order to form a limited partnership, a certificate of limited partnership shall be executed and filed in the office of the secretary of state, stating:

1. The name of the limited partnership;
2. The address of the office and the name and address of the agent for service of process required to be maintained by § 7-13-4;
3. The name and the business address of each general partner;
4. A mailing address for the limited partnership;
5. Any other matters the partners determine to include in the certificate.

7-13.1. Conversion of certain entities to a limited partnership.

(a) As used in this section, the term “other entity” means a corporation, business trust or association, a real estate investment trust, a common law trust, or any other unincorporated business or entity including a limited liability company or a partnership, whether general or limited (including a registered limited liability partnership).

(b) Any other entity may convert to a domestic limited partnership by complying with subsection (h) of this section and filing in the office of the secretary of state in accordance with § 7-13-13:

1. A certificate of conversion to limited partnership that has been executed by one or more authorized persons in accordance with § 7-13-11; and 2. A certificate of limited partnership that complies with § 7-13-8 and has been executed by one or more authorized persons in accordance with § 7-13-11.

(c) The certificate of conversion to a limited partnership shall state:

1. The date on which and jurisdiction where the other entity was first created, formed, or otherwise came into being and, if it has changed, its jurisdiction immediately prior to its conversion to a domestic limited partnership;
2. The name and type of the other entity immediately prior to the filing of the certificate of conversion to limited partnership;
3. The name of the limited partnership as set forth in its certificate of limited partnership filed in accordance with subsection (b) of this section; and
4. The future effective date or time (which shall be a date or time certain) of the conversion to a limited partnership if it is not to be effective upon the filing of the certificate of conversion to limited partnership and the certificate of limited partnership.

(d) Upon the filing in the office of the secretary of state of the certificate of conversion to limited partnership and the certificate of formation or upon the future effective date or time of the certificate of conversion to limited partnership and the certificate of limited partnership, the other entity shall be converted into a domestic limited partnership and the limited partnership shall thereafter be subject to all of the provisions of this chapter, except that, notwithstanding § 7-13-8, the existence of the limited partnership shall be deemed to have commenced on the date the other entity commenced its existence in the jurisdiction in which the other entity was first created, formed, or otherwise came into being.

(e) The conversion of any other entity into a domestic limited partnership shall not be deemed to affect any obligations or liabilities of the other entity incurred prior to its conversion to a domestic limited partnership or the personal liability of any person incurred prior to the conversion.

(f) When any conversion becomes effective under this section, for all purposes of the laws of the state of Rhode Island, all of the rights, privileges, and powers of the other entity that has converted, and all property, real, personal, and mixed, and all debts due to the other entity, as well as all other things and causes of action belonging to the other entity, are vested in the domestic limited partnership and are thereafter the property of the domestic limited partnership as they were of the other entity that has converted, and the title to any real property vested by deed or otherwise in the other entity shall not revert to such other entity or be in any way impaired by reason of this chapter, but all rights of creditors and all liens upon any property of the other entity shall be preserved unimpaired, and all debts, liabilities, and duties of the other entity that has converted are attached to the domestic limited partnership and may be enforced against it to the same extent as if those debts, liabilities, and duties were incurred or contracted by it.

(g) Unless otherwise agreed, or as required under applicable non-Rhode Island law, the converting other entity is not required to wind up its affairs or pay its liabilities and distribute its assets, and the conversion shall not be deemed to constitute a dissolution of the other entity and constitutes a continuation of the existence of the converting other entity in the form of a domestic limited partnership.

(h) Prior to filing a certificate of conversion to limited partnership with the office of the secretary of state, the conversion shall be approved in the manner provided for by the document, instrument, agreement, or other writing, as the case may be, governing the internal affairs of the other entity and the conduct of its business or by applicable law, as appropriate, and a partnership agreement shall be approved by the same authorization required to approve the conversion.

(i) The provisions of this section shall not be construed to limit the accomplishment of a change in the law governing, or the domicile of, another entity to the state of Rhode Island by any other means provided for in a partnership agreement or other agreement or as otherwise permitted by law, including by the amendment of a partnership agreement or other agreement.
7-13-8.2. Approval of conversion of a limited partnership.

(a) A domestic limited partnership may convert to a corporation, a business trust or association, a real estate investment trust, a common-law trust, or any other unincorporated business or entity including a partnership, whether general or limited (including a registered limited liability partnership) or a limited liability company, organized, formed, or created under the laws of the state of Rhode Island, upon the authorization of that conversion in accordance with this section. If the partnership agreement specified the manner of authorizing a conversion of the limited partnership, the conversion shall be authorized as specified in the partnership agreement. If the partnership agreement does not specify the manner of authorizing a conversion of the limited partnership and does not prohibit a conversion of the limited partnership, the conversion shall be authorized in the same manner as is specified in the partnership agreement for authorizing a merger or consolidation that involves the limited partnership as a constituent party to the merger or consolidation. If the partnership agreement does not specify the manner of authorizing a conversion of the limited partnership or a merger or consolidation that involved the limited partnership as a constituent party and does not prohibit a conversion of the limited partnership, the conversion shall be authorized by the approval (1) by all general partners, and (2) by the limited partners or, if there is more than one class or group of limited partners, then by each class or group of limited partners, in either case, by limited partners who own more than fifty percent (50%) of the then current percentage or other interest in the profits of the domestic limited partnership owned by all of the limited partners or by the limited partners in each class or group, as appropriate.

(b) If a limited partnership shall convert in accordance with this section to another entity or business form organized, formed, or created under the laws of a jurisdiction other than the state of Rhode Island or to a Rhode Island unincorporated “other entity”, a certificate of conversion to a non-Rhode Island entity shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state. The certificate of conversion to a non-Rhode Island entity shall state:

(1) The name of the limited partnership and, if it has been changed, the name under which its certificate of formation was originally filed;

(2) The date of filing of its original certificate of formation with the secretary of state;

(3) The jurisdiction in which the entity or business form, to which the limited partnership shall be converted, is organized, formed, or created, and the name and type of such entity or business form;

(4) The future effective date or time, which shall be a date or time certain, of the conversion if it is not to be effective upon the filing of the certificate of conversion to a non-Rhode Island entity;
(5) That the conversion has been approved in accordance with this section; and

(6) The agreement of the limited partnership that it may be served with process in the state of Rhode Island in any action, suit, or proceeding for enforcement of any obligation to the limited partnership arising while it was a limited partnership of the state of Rhode Island, and that it irrevocably appoints the secretary of state as its agent to accept service of process in any such action, suit, or proceeding.

(c) Upon the filing in the office of the secretary of state of the certificate of conversion to a non-Rhode Island entity or upon the future effective date or time of the certificate of conversion to a non-Rhode Island entity and upon payment of all fees due by the limited partnership, as evidenced by an appropriate certificate of good standing issued by the Rhode Island division of taxation, the secretary of state shall certify that the limited partnership has filed all documents and paid all fees required by this chapter, and thereupon the limited partnership shall cease to exist as a limited partnership of the state of Rhode Island. Such certificate of the secretary of state shall be prima facie evidence of the conversion by such limited partnership out of the state of Rhode Island.

(d) The conversion of a limited partnership out of the state of Rhode Island in accordance with this section and the resulting cessation of its existence as a limited partnership of the state of Rhode Island pursuant to a certificate of conversion to a non-Rhode Island entity shall not be deemed to affect any obligations or liabilities of the limited partnership incurred prior to such conversion or the personal liability of any person incurred prior to such conversion, nor shall it be deemed to affect the choice of laws applicable to the limited partnership with respect to matters arising prior to such conversion.

(e) When a limited partnership has been converted to another entity or business form pursuant to this section, the other entity or business form shall, for all purposes of the laws of the state of Rhode Island, be deemed to be the same entity as the limited partnership. When any conversion shall have become effective under this section, for all purposes of the laws of the state of Rhode Island, all of the rights, privileges, and powers of the limited partnership that has converted, and all property, real, personal, and mixed, and all such debts due to such limited partnership, as well as all other things and causes of action belonging to such limited partnership, shall remain vested in the other entity or business form to which such limited partnership has converted and shall be the property of such other entity or business form, and the title to any real property vested by deed or otherwise in such limited partnership shall not revert to such limited partnership or be in any way impaired by reason of this chapter, but all rights of creditors and all liens upon any property of such limited partnership shall be preserved unimpaired, and all debts, liabilities, and duties of the limited partnership that has converted shall remain attached to the other entity or business form to which such limited partnership has converted, and may be enforced against it to the same extent as if said debts, liabilities, and duties had originally been incurred or contracted by it in its capacity as such other entity or business form. The rights, privileges, powers, and interests in property of the limited partnership that has converted, as well as the debts, liabilities and duties of such limited partnership, shall not be deemed, as a consequence of the conversion, to have been transferred to the other entity or business form to which such limited partnership has converted for any purpose of the laws of the state of Rhode Island.

7-13-9. Amendment to certificate.

(a) A certificate of limited partnership is amended by filing a certificate of amendment to it in the office of the secretary of state. The certificate shall state:

(1) The name of the limited partnership;
(2) The date of filing the certificate; and
(3) The amendment to the certificate.

(b) Within thirty (30) days after the happening of any of the following events, an amendment to a certificate of limited partnership reflecting the occurrence of the event or events shall be filed:

(1) The admission of a new general partner;
(2) The withdrawal of a general partner; or
(3) The continuation of the business under § 7-13-44 after an event of withdrawal of a general partner.

(c) A general partner who becomes aware that any statement in a certificate of limited partnership was false when made or that any arrangements or other facts described have changed, making the certificate inaccurate in any material respect, shall promptly amend the certificate.

(d) A certificate of limited partnership may be amended at any time for any other proper purpose the general partners determine.

(e) If an amendment to a certificate of limited partnership is filed in compliance with subsection (a) or (b), no person is subject to liability because the amendment was not filed earlier.

(f) A restated certificate of limited partnership may be executed and filed in the same manner as a certificate of amendment.

(g) Unless otherwise provided in this chapter or in the certificate of amendment, a certificate of amendment is effective at the time of its filing with the secretary of state.

A certificate of limited partnership is cancelled upon the dissolution and the commencement of winding up of the partnership or at any other time there are no limited partners.
or upon the conversion of a limited partnership to a limited liability company. When all fees and taxes have been paid to the tax administrator, as evidenced by an appropriate certificate of good standing issued by the Rhode Island division of taxation, a certificate of cancellation shall be filed in the office of the secretary of state and state:

(1) The name of the limited partnership;

(2) The date of filing of its certificate of limited partnership or certificate of conversion from a limited partnership to a limited liability company, as the case may be;

(3) The reason for filing the certificate of cancellation;

(4) The effective date (which shall be a date certain) of cancellation if it is not to be effective upon the filing of the certificate; and

(5) Any other information the general partners filing the certificate determine.

(a) Each certificate required by this chapter to be filed in the office of the secretary of state shall be executed in the following manner:

(1) An original certificate of limited partnership, a certificate of cancellation, and a certificate of conversion to a limited partnership must be signed by all general partners; and

(2) A certificate of amendment must be signed by at least one general partner and by each other general partner designated in the certificate as a new general partner.

(b) Any person may sign a certificate by an attorney in fact, but a power of attorney to sign a certificate relating to the admission, of a general partner must specifically describe the admission or increase.

(c) The execution of a certificate by a general partner constitutes an affirmation under the penalties of perjury that the facts stated in it are true.

7-13-12. Amendment or cancellation by judicial act.

If a person required by § 7-13-11 to execute a certificate of amendment or cancellation fails or refuses to do so, any other partner, and any assignee of a partnership interest, who is adversely affected by the failure or refusal, may petition the superior court to direct the amendment or cancellation. If the court finds that the amendment or cancellation is proper and that any person so designated has failed or refused to execute the certificate, it shall order the secretary of state to record an appropriate certificate of amendment or cancellation.

7-13-13. Filing in office of secretary of state -- Certificate of conversion to a limited partnership.

(a) The certificate of limited partnership and of any certificates of amendments or cancellation (or of any judicial decree of amendment or cancellation) shall be delivered to the secretary of state. A person who executes a certificate as an agent, attorney in fact, or fiduciary need not exhibit evidence of his or her authority as a prerequisite to filing. Any signature on any certificate authorized to be filed with the secretary of state under any provision of this chapter may be a facsimile. Unless the secretary of state finds that any certificate does not conform to law, upon receipt of all filing fees required by law the secretary shall:

1. Endorse on the original the word "Filed" and the day, month, and year of the filing of it;
2. File the original in his or her office;
4. (b) Upon the filing of a certificate of amendment (or judicial decree of amendment) in the office of the secretary of state, the certificate of limited partnership or certificate of conversion as the case may be shall be amended as presented in the certificate, and on the effective date of a certificate of cancellation (or a judicial decree of cancellation), the certificate of limited partnership or certificate of conversion to a limited partnership is cancelled.

If any certificate of limited partnership or certificate of amendment or cancellation contains a false statement, one who suffers loss by reliance on the statement may recover damages for the loss from:

1. Any person who executes the certificate, or causes another to execute it on his or her behalf, and knew, and any general partner who knew or should have known, the statement to be false at the time the certificate was executed; and
2. Any general partner who subsequently knows or should have known that any arrangement or other fact described in the certificate has changed, making the statement inaccurate in any respect within a sufficient time before the statement was relied upon reasonably to have enabled that general partner to cancel or amend the certificate, or to file a petition for its cancellation or amendment under § 7-13-12.

The fact that a certificate of limited partnership is on file in the office of the secretary of state is notice that the partnership is a limited partnership and the persons designated in it as general partners are general partners, but it is not notice of any other fact.

7-13-16. Delivery of certificates to limited partners.

Upon the return by the secretary of state pursuant to § 7-13-13 of a certificate marked "Filed", the general partners shall promptly deliver or mail a copy of the certificate of limited partnership and each certificate of amendment or cancellation to each limited partner unless the his or her rights and powers as a limited partner, he or she participates in the control of the business.

However, if the limited partner participates in the control of the business, he or she is liable only to persons who establish by clear and convincing evidence that they transacted business with the limited partnership reasonably believing, based on the limited partner’s active conduct, that the limited partner is a general partner.
(b) A limited partner does not participate in the control of the business regardless of the nature, extent, scope, number or frequency of the limited partner’s possessing or, regardless of an investment company, including the election of directors or trustees of the investment company, the approving or terminating of investment advisory or underwriting contracts, and the approving of auditors;

(xiv) The indemnification of any partner or any other person; or

(xv) Any other matters that are stated in the partnership agreement or in any other agreement or in writing;

(6) Taking any action required or permitted by law to bring or pursue or settle or otherwise terminate a derivative action in the right of the limited partnership;

(7) Calling, requesting, attending, or participating in a meeting of partners or limited partners;

(8) Serving on a committee of the limited partnership or the limited partners;

(9) Serving on the board of directors or a committee of, consulting with or advising, being an officer, director, stockholder, partner, agent or employee of, or being a fiduciary for, any person in which the limited partnership has an interest; or

(10) Exercising any right or power granted or permitted to limited partners under this chapter and not specifically enumerated in this subsection.

(c) The enumeration in subsection (b) does not mean that the possession or exercise of any other powers by a limited partner constitutes participation by him or her in the business of the limited partnership.

(d) A limited partner does not participate in the control of the business within the meaning of subsection (a) by virtue of the fact that all or any part of the name of the limited partner is included in the name of the limited partnership.

(e) This section does not create rights or powers of limited partners. The rights and powers may be created only by a certificate of limited partnership, a partnership agreement or any other agreement or in writing, or by other sections of this chapter.

7-13-20. Person erroneously believing him or herself a limited partner.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b), a person who makes a contribution to a business enterprise and erroneously but in good faith believes that he or she has become a limited partner in the enterprise is not a general partner in the enterprise and is not bound by its obligations by reason of making the contribution, receiving distributions from the enterprise, or exercising any rights of a limited partner, if, on ascertaining the mistake, he or she:

(1) Causes an appropriate certificate of limited partnership or a certificate of amendment to be executed and filed; or

(2) Withdraws from future equity participation in the enterprise by executing and filing in the office of the secretary of state a certificate declaring withdrawal under this section.

(b) A person who makes a contribution of the kind described in subsection (a) is liable as a general partner to any third party who transacts business with the enterprise:

(i) Before the person withdraws and an appropriate certificate is filed to show withdrawal, or

(ii) Before an appropriate certificate is filed to show his or her status as a limited partner and, in the case of an amendment, after expiration of the thirty (30) day period for filing an amendment relating to the person as a limited partner under § 7-13-9, but in either case only if the third party actually believed in good faith that the person was a general partner at the time of the transaction.

7-13-21. Information.
Each limited partner has the right to:

(1) Inspect and copy any of the partnership records required to be maintained by § 7-13-5;

and

(2) Obtain from the general partners from time to time upon reasonable demand:

(i) True and full information regarding the state of the business and financial condition of the limited partnership,

(ii) Promptly after becoming available, a copy of the limited partnership’s federal, state, and local income tax returns for each year, and

(iii) Other information regarding the affairs of the limited partnership that is just and reasonable.

7-13-22. Admission of additional general partners.
After the filing of a limited partnership’s original certificate of limited partnership, additional general partners may be admitted as provided in the partnership agreement or, if the partnership agreement does not provide for the admission of additional general partners, with the written consent of all partners.

7-13-23. Events of withdrawal.
Except as approved by the specific written consent of all partners at the time, a person ceases to be a general partner of a limited partnership on the happening of any of the following events:

(1) The general partner withdraws from the limited partnership as provided in § 7-13-22;

(2) The general partner ceases to be a member of the limited partnership as provided in § 7-13-40;

(3) The general partner is removed as a general partner in accordance with the partnership agreement;

(4) Unless otherwise provided in writing in the partnership agreement, the general partner:

(i) Makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors;

(ii) Files a voluntary petition in bankruptcy;

(iii) Is adjudicated a bankrupt or insolvent;

(iv) Files a petition or answer seeking for himself or herself any reorganization, arrangement, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution or similar relief under any statute, law, or regulation;

(v) Files an answer or other pleading admitting or failing to contest the material allegation of a petition filed against him or her in any proceeding of this nature; or

(vi) Seeks, consents to, or acquiesces in the appointment of a trustee, receiver, or liquidator of the general partner or of all or any substantial part of his or her properties;

(5) Unless otherwise provided in writing in the partnership agreement, one hundred and twenty (120) days after the commencement of any proceeding against the general partner seeking reorganization, arrangement, composition, readjustment, liquidation, dissolution or similar relief under any statute, law, or regulation, the proceeding has not been dismissed, or if within ninety (90) days after the appointment without his or her consent or acquiescence of a trustee, receiver, or liquidator of the general partner or of all or any substantial part of his or her properties, the appointment is not vacated or stayed or within ninety (90) days after the expiration of any stay, the appointment is not vacated;

(6) In the case of a general partner who is a natural person:

(i) His or her death; or

(ii) The entry of an order by a court of competent jurisdiction adjudicating him or her incompetent to manage his or her person or his or her estate;

(7) In the case of a general partner who is acting as a general partner by virtue of being a trustee of a trust, the termination of the trust (but not merely the substitution of a new trustee);

(8) In the case of a general partner that is a separate partnership, the dissolution and commencement of winding up of the separate partnership;

(9) In the case of a general partner that is a corporation, the filing of a certificate of dissolution, or its equivalent, for the corporation or the revocation of its charter; or

(10) In the case of an estate, the distribution by the fiduciary of the estate's entire interest in the partnership.

(a) Except as provided in this chapter or in the partnership agreement, a general partner of a limited partnership has the rights and powers and is subject to the restrictions of a partner in a partnership without limited partners.

(b) Except as provided in this chapter a general partner of a limited partnership has the liabilities of a partner in a partnership without limited partners to persons other than the partnership and the other partners. Except as provided in this chapter or in the partnership agreement, a general partner of a limited partnership has the liabilities of a partner in a partnership without limited partners to the partnership and to the other partners.

7-13-25. Contributions by general partner.

A general partner of a limited partnership may make contributions to the partnership and share in the profits and losses of, and in distributions from, the limited partnership as a general partner. A general partner also may make contributions to and share in profits, losses, and distributions as a limited partner. A person who is both a general partner and a limited partner has the rights and powers, and is subject to the restrictions and liabilities, of a general partner and, except as provided in the partnership agreement, also has the powers, and is subject to the restrictions, of a limited partner to the extent of his or her participation in the partnership as a limited partner.

The partnership agreement may grant to all or certain identified general partners the right to vote, on a per capita or any other basis, separately or with all or any class of the limited partners, on any matter.

7-13-27. Form of contribution.

The contribution of a partner may be in cash, property, or services rendered, or a promissory note or other obligation to contribute cash or property or to perform services.

(a) Except as provided in the partnership agreement, a partner is obligated to the limited partnership to perform any promise to contribute cash or property or to perform services, even if he or she is unable to perform because of death, disability, or any other reason. If a partner does not make the required contribution of property or services, he or she is obligated at the option of the limited partnership to contribute cash equal to that portion of the value (as stated in the records to be kept pursuant to § 7-13-5) of the stated contribution that has not been made.

(b) Unless otherwise provided in the partnership agreement, the obligation of a partner to make a contribution or return money or other property paid or distributed in violation of this chapter may be compromised only by consent of all the partners. Notwithstanding the compromise, a creditor of a limited partnership who extends credit, or whose claim arises, after the filing of the certificate of limited partnership or an amendment to it that, in either case, reflects the obligation, and before the amendment or cancellation of it to reflect the compromise, may enforce the original obligation.

7-13-29. Sharing of profits and losses.

The profits and losses of a limited partnership shall be allocated among the partners and the classes of partners in the manner provided in the partnership agreement. If the partnership agreement does not provide for allocation, profits and losses shall be allocated on the basis of the value, as stated in the partnership records required to be kept pursuant to § 7-13-5, of the contributions made by each partner to the extent they have been received by the partnership and have not been returned.

Distributions of cash or other assets of a limited partnership shall be allocated among the partners, and among classes of partners, in the manner provided in the partnership agreement. If the partnership agreement does not provide for allocation, distributions shall be made on the basis of the value, as stated in the partnership records required to be kept pursuant to § 7-13-5, of the contributions made by each partner to the extent they have been received by the partnership and have not been returned.

Except as provided in this chapter, a partner is entitled to receive distributions from a limited partnership before his or her withdrawal from the limited partnership and before the dissolution and winding up of the limited partnership to the extent and at the times or upon the happening of the events specified in the partnership agreement.

7-13-32. Withdrawal of general partner.

A general partner may withdraw from a limited partnership at any time by giving written notice to the other partners, but if the withdrawal violates the partnership agreement, the limited partnership may recover from the withdrawing general partner damages for breach of the partnership agreement and offset the damages against the amount otherwise distributable to him or her.

7-13-33. Withdrawal of limited partner.

A limited partner may withdraw from a limited partnership only at the time or upon the occurrence of events specified in writing in the partnership agreement and in accordance with the partnership agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary under applicable law, unless a partnership agreement provides otherwise, a limited partner may not withdraw from a limited partnership prior to the dissolution and winding up of the limited partnership.
7-13-34. Distribution upon withdrawal.

Except as provided in this chapter, upon withdrawal any withdrawing partner is entitled to receive any distribution to which he or she is entitled under the partnership agreement and, if not otherwise provided in the agreement, he or she is entitled to receive, within a reasonable time after withdrawal, the fair value of his or her interest in the limited partnership as of the date of withdrawal based on his or her right to share in distributions from the limited partnership.

7-13-35. Distribution in kind.

Except as provided in writing in the partnership agreement, a partner, regardless of the nature of his or her contribution, has no right to demand and receive any distribution from a limited partnership in any form other than cash. Except as provided in the partnership agreement, a partner may not be compelled to accept a distribution of any asset in kind from a limited partnership to the extent that the percentage of the asset distributed to him or her exceeds a percentage of that asset that is equal to the percentage in which he or she shares in distributions from the limited partnership.

7-13-36. Right to distribution.

Subject to §§ 7-13-37 and 7-13-47, and unless otherwise provided in the partnership agreement at the time a partner becomes entitled to receive a distribution, he or she has the status of, and is entitled to all remedies available to, a creditor of the limited partnership as to the distribution. A partnership may provide for the establishment of a record date with respect to allocations and distributions by a limited partnership.

7-13-37. Limitations on distribution.

(a) A limited partnership shall not make a distribution to a partner to the extent that at the time of the distribution, after giving effect to the distribution, all liabilities of the limited partnership, other than liabilities to partners on account of their partnership interests and liabilities for which the recourse of creditors is limited to specified property of the limited partnership, exceed the fair value of the assets of the limited partnership, except that the fair value of property that is subject to a liability for which the recourse of creditors is limited shall be included in the assets of the limited partnership only to the extent that the fair value of that property exceeds that liability.

(b) A limited partner who received a distribution in violation of subsection (a), and who knew or reasonably should have known at the time of the distribution that the distribution violated subsection (a), is liable to the limited partnership for the amount of the distribution. A limited partner who receives a distribution in violation of subsection (a) and who did not know and reasonably should not have known at the time of the distribution that the distribution violated subsection (a), is not liable for the amount of the distribution. Subject to subsection (c), this subsection does not affect any obligation or liability of a limited partner under a partnership agreement.
agreement or other applicable law for the amount of a distribution.

(c) Unless otherwise agreed, a limited partner who received a distribution from a limited partnership has no liability under this chapter or other applicable law for the amount of the distribution after the expiration of three (3) years from the date of the distribution.

7-13-38. [Repealed.]

A partnership interest is personal property.

7-13-40. Assignment of partnership interest.

Except as provided in the partnership agreement, a partnership interest is assignable in whole or in part. An assignment of a partnership interest does not dissolve a limited partnership or entitle the assignee to become or to exercise any rights of a partner. An assignment entitles the assignee to receive, to the extent assigned, only the distribution to which the assignor would be entitled. Except as provided in the partnership agreement, a partner ceases to be a partner upon assignment of all his partnership interest.

7-13-41. Rights of creditor.

On application to a court of competent jurisdiction by any judgment creditor of a partner, the court may charge the partnership interest of the partner with payment of the unsatisfied amount of the judgment with interest. To the extent charged, the judgment creditor has only the rights of an assignee of the partnership interest. This chapter does not deprive any partner of the benefit of any exemption laws applicable to his or her partnership interest.

7-13-42. Rights of assignee to become limited partner.

(a) An assignee of a partnership interest, including an assignee of a general partner, may become a limited partner if and to the extent that:

(1) The assignor gives the assignee that right in accordance with authority described in the partnership agreement; or

(2) All other partners consent.

(b) An assignee who has become a limited partner has, to the extent assigned, the rights and powers, and is subject to the restrictions and liabilities, of a limited partner under the partnership agreement and this chapter. An assignee who becomes a limited partner also is liable for the obligations of his or her assignor to make and return contributions as provided in this chapter. However, the assignee is not obligated for liabilities unknown to the assignee at the time he or she became a limited partner.

(c) If an assignee of a partnership interest becomes a limited partner, the assignor is not released from his or her liability to the limited partnership under §§ 7-13-14 and 7-13-28.

7-13-43. Power of estate of deceased or incompetent person.
If a partner who is an individual dies or a court of competent jurisdiction adjudges him or her to be incompetent to manage his or her person or his or her property, the partner's executor, administrator, guardian, conservator, or other legal representative may exercise all the partner's rights for the purpose of settling his or her estate or administering his or her property, including any power the partner had to give an assignee the right to become a limited partner. If a partner is a corporation, trust, or other entity and is dissolved or terminated, the powers of that partner may be exercised by its legal representative or successor.

7-13-44. Nonjudicial dissolution.
A limited partnership is dissolved and its affairs shall be wound up upon the happening of the first to occur of the following:
(1) At the time or upon the happening of any of the events specified in the partnership agreement;
(2) Written consent of all partners;
(3) Unless otherwise provided in the partnership agreement, an event of withdrawal of a general partner unless at the time there is at least one other general partner and the partnership agreement permits the business of the limited partnership to be carried on by the remaining general partner and that partner does so, but the limited partnership is not dissolved and is not required to be wound up by reason of any event of withdrawal, if, within ninety (90) days after the withdrawal, a majority interest of the partners agrees in writing to continue the business of the limited partnership and to the appointment of one or more additional general partners if necessary or desired; or
(4) Entry of a decree of judicial dissolution under § 7-13-45.

On application by or for a partner the superior court may decree dissolution of a limited partnership whenever it is not reasonably practicable to carry on the business in conformity with the partnership agreement.

7-13-46. Winding up.
Except as provided in the partnership agreement, the general partners who have not wrongfully dissolved a limited partnership or, if none, the limited partners, may wind up the limited partnership's affairs. The superior court may wind up the limited partnership's affairs upon application of any partner, his or her legal representative, or assignee.

7-13-47. Distribution of assets.
Upon the winding up of a limited partnership, the assets shall be distributed as follows:

1. To creditors, including partners who are creditors, to the extent permitted by law, in satisfaction of liabilities of the limited partnership other than liabilities for distributions to partners under § 7-13-31 or § 7-13-34;

2. Except as provided in the partnership agreement, to partners and former partners in satisfaction of liabilities for distributions under § 7-13-31 or 7-13-34; and

3. Except as provided in the partnership agreement, to partners, first for the return of their contributions and secondly, as to their partnership interests, in the proportions in which the partners share in distributions.

Subject to the constitution of this state:

1. The laws of the state under which a foreign limited partnership is organized govern its organization and internal affairs and the liability of its limited partners, except as to foreign limited-liability partnerships, which shall be treated as if they were foreign limited partnerships;

2. A foreign limited partnership may not be denied registration by reason of any difference between those laws and the laws of this state; and

3. A certificate of registration does not authorize a foreign limited partnership to engage in any business or exercise any power that a limited partnership may not engage in or exercise in this state.

7-13-49. Registration.

Before transacting business in this state, a foreign limited partnership shall register with the secretary of state. In order to register, a foreign limited partnership shall submit to the secretary of state, in duplicate, an application for registration as a foreign limited partnership, signed and sworn to by a general partner and setting forth:

1. The name of the foreign limited partnership and, if different, the name under which it proposes to register and transact business in this state;

2. The state and date of its formation;

3. The general character of the business it proposes to transact in this state;

4. The name and address of any agent for service of process on the foreign limited partnership whom the foreign limited partnership elects to appoint; the agent must be an individual resident of this state, a domestic corporation, or a foreign corporation having a place of business in, and authorized to do business in this state;

5. A statement that the secretary of state is appointed the agent of the foreign limited partnership for service of process if no agent has been appointed under subdivision (4) or, if appointed, the agent’s authority has been revoked or if the agent cannot be found or served with the exercise of reasonable diligence;

(6) The address of the office required to be maintained in the state of its organization by the laws of that state or, if not so required, of the principal office of the foreign limited partnership;

(7) The name and business address of each general partner;

(8) The address of the office at which is kept a list of the names and addresses of the limited partners and their capital contributions, together with an undertaking by the foreign limited partnership to keep those records until the foreign limited partnership’s registration in this state is canceled or withdrawn;

(9) A mailing address for the foreign limited partnership; and

(10) Additional information as may be necessary or appropriate in order to enable the secretary of state to determine whether the foreign limited partnership is entitled to a certificate of authority to transact business in this state and to determine and assess the fees payable as prescribed in this chapter.

7-13-50. Issuance of registration.

(a) If the secretary of state finds that an application for registration of a foreign limited partnership conforms to law and all requisite fees have been paid, he or she shall:

(1) Endorse on the application the word “Filed”, and the month, day, and year of the filing of the application;

(2) File in his or her office the original of the application; and

(3) Issue a certificate of registration to transact business in this state.

(b) The certificate of registration, together with a duplicate original of the application, shall be returned to the person who filed the application or his or her representative.

7-13-51. Name of foreign limited partnership.

A foreign limited partnership may register with the secretary of state under any name, whether or not it is the name under which it is registered in its state of organization, that includes either:

(1) without abbreviation the words “limited partnership” or

(2) the letters and punctuation “L.P.”, and that could be registered by a domestic limited partnership; and

(3) Shall be distinguishable upon the records of the secretary of state from the name of any corporation, non-business corporation or other association, domestic or foreign limited liability company, limited partnership organized under the laws of, or registered or qualified to do business in this state or any name that is filed, reserved, or registered under this title or as permitted by the laws of this state, subject to the following:

(i) This provision does not apply if the applicant files with the secretary of state a certified copy of a final decree of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the prior right of the applicant to the use of the name in this state; and

(ii) The name may be the same as the name of a corporation, non-business corporation or other association the certificate of incorporation or organization of which has been revoked by the secretary of state as permitted by law, and the revocation has not been withdrawn within one year from the date of the revocation;

(iii) Words and/or abbreviations that are required by statute to identify the particular type of business entity shall be disregarded when determining if a name is distinguishable upon the records of the secretary of state.

(iv) The secretary of state shall promulgate rules and regulations defining the term "distinguishable upon the record" for the administration of this chapter.

7-13-52. Changes and amendments.

If any statement in the application for registration of a foreign limited partnership was false when made or any arrangements or other facts described have changed, making the application inaccurate in any respect, the foreign limited partnership shall promptly file in the office of the secretary of state a certificate, signed and sworn to by a general partner, correcting the statement.

7-13-52.1. Foreign application for transfer of authority.

(a) A duly authorized foreign limited partnership in the state of Rhode Island that converts into any form of foreign or other entity subject to the provisions of Title 7 and the resulting entity is required to file for authority to transact business in this state may apply for a transfer of authority in the office of the secretary of state by filing:

(1) An application for transfer of authority that has been executed and filed in accordance with § 7-13-11;

(2) An application for authority to transact business in the state of Rhode Island for the resulting entity type; and

(3) A certificate of legal existence or good standing issued by the proper officer of the state or country under the laws of which the resulting entity has been formed.

(b) The application for transfer of authority shall state:

(1) The name of the limited partnership;

(2) The type of other entity into which it has been converted; and

(3) The jurisdiction whose laws govern its internal affairs.

(c) Upon the effective time and date of the application for transfer of authority, the authority... of the limited partnership authorized to transact business under this chapter shall be transferred without interruption to the other entity which shall thereafter hold such authority subject to the provisions of the laws of the state of Rhode Island applicable to that type of resulting entity.

When all fees and taxes have been paid to the tax administrator, as evidenced by an appropriate certificate of good standing issued by the Rhode Island division of taxation, a foreign limited partnership may cancel its registration by filing with the secretary of state a certificate of cancellation signed and sworn to by a general partner. In filing a certificate of cancellation, the foreign limited partnership revokes the authority of its registered agent to accept service of process and consents that service of process in any action, suit or proceeding based upon any cause of action arising in this state during the time the foreign limited partnership was authorized to transact business in this state may subsequently be made on the foreign limited partnership by service on the secretary of state. The certificate of cancellation must include the post office address to which the secretary of state may mail a copy of any process against the foreign limited partnership that is served on the secretary of state.

7-13-54. Transaction of business without registration.

(a) A foreign limited partnership transacting business in this state may not maintain any action, suit, or proceeding in any court of this state until it has registered in this state.

(b) The failure of a foreign limited partnership to register in this state does not impair the validity of any contract or act of the foreign limited partnership or prevent the foreign limited partnership from defending any action, suit, or proceeding in any court of this state.

(c) A limited partner of a foreign limited partnership is not liable as a general partner of the foreign limited partnership solely by reason of having transacted business in this state without registration.

(d) A foreign limited partnership, by transacting business in this state without registration, appoints the secretary of state as its agent for service of process as to claims for relief or causes of action arising out of the transaction of business in this state.

(e) Without excluding other activities that may not constitute transacting business in this state, a foreign limited partnership is not considered to be transacting business in this state for purposes of this chapter by reason of carrying on in this state any one or more of the following activities:

(1) Maintaining or defending any action or suit or any administrative or arbitration proceeding or effecting a settlement of it or the settlement of any claims or dispute;

(2) Holding meetings of the partners or carrying on other activities concerning its internal affairs;

(3) Maintaining bank accounts;

(4) Maintaining offices or agencies for the transfer, exchange, and registration of partnership securities or partnership interests, or appointing and maintaining depositories with relation to its partnership interests or securities;

(5) Effecting sales to independent contractors;

(6) Soliciting or procuring orders whether by mail or through employees or agents or otherwise where the orders require acceptance without this state before becoming binding contracts;

(7) Creating evidences of debt, mortgages, or liens on real or personal property;

(8) Securing or collecting debts or enforcing any rights and property securing the debts;

(9) Transacting any business in interstate commerce.

54.1. Fees for filing documents and issuing certificates.

(1) Filing a certificate of limited partnership, one hundred dollars ($100).

(2) Filing a certificate of amendment to a certificate of limited partnership, fifty dollars ($50.00).

(9) Filing a certificate of correction of a registration as a foreign limited partnership, ten dollars ($10.00).

(10) Filing a certificate of cancellation of registration as a foreign limited partnership, twenty-five dollars ($25.00).

(11) Filing any other document, statement or report of a domestic or foreign limited partnership, fifty dollars ($50.00).

(12) Filing a certificate of amendment of a foreign limited partnership, fifty dollars
For issuing a certificate of good standing/letter of status, twenty dollars ($20.00).

(14) For issuing a certificate of fact, thirty dollars ($30.00).

(15) For furnishing a certified copy of any document, instrument or paper relating to a domestic or foreign limited partnership, a fee of fifteen cents ($0.15) per page and ten dollars ($10.00) for the certificate and affixing the seal to it.

(16) Service of process on the secretary of state as registered agent of a limited partnership, fifteen dollars ($15.00) which amount may be recovered as a taxable cost by the party to the suit or action making the service if the party prevails in the suit or action.

7-13-55. Action to enjoin foreign limited partnership.

The superior court has jurisdiction to enjoin any foreign limited partnership, or any agent of a foreign limited partnership, from transacting any business in the state if the limited partnership has failed to comply with any section of this chapter applicable to it or if the limited partnership has secured a certificate of the secretary of state under § 7-13-49 on the basis of false or misleading representation. The attorney general may bring an action to restrain a foreign limited partnership from transacting business in this state in violation of this chapter.

7-13-56. Right of action.

A limited partner may bring an action in the right of a limited partnership to recover a judgment in its favor if general partners with authority to do so have refused to bring the action or if an effort to cause those general partners to bring the action is not likely to succeed.

7-13-57. Proper plaintiff.

In a derivative action, the plaintiff must be a partner at the time of bringing the action and (1) at the time of the transaction of which he or she complains, or (2) his or her status as a partner had developed upon him or her by operation of law or pursuant to the terms of the partnership agreement from a person who was a partner at the time of the transaction.

In a derivative action, the complaint shall set forth with particularity the effort of the plaintiff to secure initiation of the action by a general partner or the reasons for not making the effort.

7-13-59. Expenses.

If a derivative action is successful, in whole or in part, or if anything is received by the plaintiff as a result of a judgment, compromise, or settlement of an action or claim, the court may award the plaintiff reasonable expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, and shall direct him or her to remit to the limited partnership the remainder of those proceeds received by him or her.

7-13-60. Construction and application.

This chapter shall be applied and construed so as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law as to the subject of this chapter among states enacting it.

7-13-61. Short title.

This chapter may be cited as the "Uniform Limited Partnership Act".

If any provision of this chapter or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of the chapter that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this chapter are severable.

7-13-63. Rule for cases not provided for in this chapter.

In any case not provided for in this chapter, the provisions of chapter 12 of this title govern.

7-13-64. Applications to existing limited partnerships.

The provisions of this chapter apply to all domestic limited partnerships existing on January 1, 1987, to the extent that the partnership agreement of each partnership is not inconsistent with the provisions of this chapter. Unless otherwise agreed to by the partners, nothing in this chapter requires any domestic limited partnership validly existing on January 1, 1987, to comply with the provisions of this chapter in order to preserve or continue its status as a limited partnership.

7-13-65. Effect of repeal of prior acts.

The repeal of any prior statutory provision by this chapter does not impair, or otherwise affect, the organization or the continued existence of a limited partnership existing at January 1, 1986, nor is the repeal by this chapter of any prior provision to be construed so as to impair any contract or to affect any right accrued prior to January 1, 1986.

Subject to any standards and restrictions that are set forth in its partnership agreement, a limited partnership has the power to indemnify and hold harmless any partner or other person from any claims and demands.

(a)(1) A partnership agreement may provide for classes or groups of limited partners having any relative rights, powers and duties that the partnership agreement provides, and may make provision for the future creation in the manner provided in the partnership agreement of additional classes or groups of limited partners having any relative rights, powers and duties that may from time to time be established, including rights, powers and duties senior to existing classes and groups.

(2) A partnership agreement may provide for the taking of an action, including the amendment of the partnership agreement, without the vote or approval of any limited partner or class or group of limited partners, including an action to create under the provisions of the partnership agreement a class or group of partnership interests that was not previously outstanding.

(b) Subject to § 7-13-19 the partnership agreement may grant to all or certain identified limited partners or a specified class or group of the limited partners the right to vote separately or with all or any class or group of the limited partners or the general partners, on any matter. Voting by limited partners may be on a per capita, number, financial interest, class, group or any other basis.

(c) A partnership agreement that grants a right to vote may set forth provisions relating to notice of the time, place or purpose of any meeting at which any matter is to be voted on by any limited partners, waiver of any such notice, action by consent without a meeting, the establishment of a record date, quorum requirements, voting in person or by proxy, or any other matter as to the exercise of the right to vote.

(d) Any right or power, including voting rights, granted to limited partners as permitted under § 7-13-19 of this title is deemed to be permitted by this section.

7-13-68. Merger and consolidation.

(a) As used in this section, “other business entity” means a corporation, a business trust or association, a real estate investment trust, a common law trust, a limited liability corporation, whether foreign or domestic, or an unincorporated business, including a partnership, whether general or limited, but excluding a domestic limited partnership.

(b)(1) Pursuant to an agreement of merger or consolidation, a domestic limited partnership may merge or consolidate with or into one or more domestic limited partnerships or other business entities formed or organized under the laws of the state of Rhode Island or any other state or the United States or any foreign country or other foreign jurisdiction, with any domestic limited partnership or other business entity that the agreement provides being the surviving or resulting domestic limited partnership or other business entity. Unless otherwise provided in the partnership agreement, a merger or consolidation shall be approved by each domestic limited partnership that is to merge or consolidate:

(i) By all general partners; and

(ii) By the limited partners or, if there is more than one class or group of limited partners, then by each class or group of limited partners, in either case, by limited partners who own more than fifty percent (50%) of the then current percentage or other interest in the profits of the domestic limited partnership owned by all of the limited partners or by the limited partners in each class or group, as appropriate.

(2) In connection with a merger or consolidation under this section, rights or securities of, or interests in, a limited partnership or other business entity that is not a limited partnership or other business entity that is a constituent party to the merger or consolidation may be exchanged for or converted into cash, property, rights or securities of, or interests in, the surviving or resulting limited partnership or other business entity in the merger or consolidation. Despite prior approval, an agreement of merger or consolidation may be terminated or amended pursuant to a provision for termination or amendment contained in the agreement of merger or consolidation.

(c) If a domestic limited partnership is merging or consolidating under this section, the domestic limited partnership or other business entity surviving or resulting in or from the merger or consolidation shall file a certificate of merger or consolidation in the office of the secretary of state, stating:

(1) The name and jurisdiction of formation or organization of each of the domestic limited partnerships or other business entities that is to merge or consolidate;

(2) That an agreement of merger or consolidation has been approved and executed by each of the domestic limited partnerships or other business entities that is to merge or consolidate;

(3) The name of the surviving or resulting domestic limited partnership or other business entity;

(4) The future effective date or time, which shall be a date or time certain, of the merger or consolidation if it is not to be effective upon the filing of the certificate of merger or consolidation;

(5) That the agreement of merger or consolidation is on file at a place of business of the surviving or resulting domestic limited partnership or other business entity, and shall state the address of that place of business;

(6) That a copy of the agreement of merger or consolidation will be furnished by the surviving or resulting domestic limited partnership or other business entity, on request and without cost, to any partner of any domestic limited partnership or any person holding an interest in any other business entity that is to merge or consolidate; and

(7) If the surviving or resulting entity is not a domestic limited partnership or corporation organized under the laws of Rhode Island, a statement that the surviving or resulting other business entity agrees that it may be served with process in Rhode Island in any action, suit or proceeding for the enforcement of any obligation of any domestic limited partnership that is to merge or consolidate, irrevocably appointing the secretary of state as its agent to accept service of process in the action, suit or proceeding and specifying the address to which a copy of the process is to be mailed to it by the secretary of state. In the event of service under this section on the secretary of state, the procedures set forth in § 7-1.2-503 are applicable, except that the plaintiff in any action, suit or proceeding shall furnish the secretary of state with the address specified in the certificate of merger or consolidation provided for in this section and any other address that the plaintiff elects to furnish, together with copies of the process as required by the secretary of state, and the secretary of state shall notify the surviving or resulting other business entity at all addresses furnished by the plaintiff in accordance with the procedures set forth in § 7-1.2-503.

(d) Any failure to file a certificate of merger or consolidation in connection with a merger or consolidation pursuant to this section that was effective prior to the effective date of this section does not affect the validity or effectiveness of the merger or consolidation.

(e) Unless a future effective date or time is provided in a certificate of merger or consolidation, in which event a merger or consolidation is effective at that future effective date or time, a merger or consolidation is effective upon the filing in the office of the secretary of state of a certificate of merger or consolidation.

(f) A certificate of merger or consolidation acts as a certificate of cancellation for a domestic limited partnership that is not the surviving or resulting entity in the merger or consolidation.

(g)(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in a partnership agreement, a partnership agreement containing a specific reference to this subsection may provide that an agreement of merger or consolidation approved in accordance with subsection (b) may:

(i) Effect any amendment to the partnership agreement; or

(ii) Effect the adoption of a new partnership agreement for a limited partnership if it is the surviving or resulting limited partnership in the merger or consolidation.

(2) Any amendment to a partnership agreement or adoption of a new partnership agreement made pursuant to the preceding sentence is effective at the effective time or date of the merger or consolidation. The provisions of this subsection shall not be construed to limit the accomplishment of a merger or of any of the matters referred to in this section by any other means provided for in a partnership agreement or other agreement or as otherwise permitted by law, including that the partnership agreement of any constituent limited partnership to the merger or consolidation (including a limited partnership formed for the purpose of consummating a merger or consolidation) is the partnership agreement of the surviving or resulting limited partnership.

(h) When any merger or consolidation has become effective under this section, for all purposes of the laws of the state of Rhode Island, all of the rights, privileges and powers of each of the domestic limited partnerships and other business entities that have merged or consolidated, and all property, real, personal, and mixed, and all debts due to any of those domestic limited partnerships and other business entities, as well as all other things and causes of action belonging to each of those domestic limited partnerships and other business entities, are vested in the surviving or resulting domestic limited partnership or other business entity, and are subsequently the property of the surviving or resulting domestic limited partnership or other business entity as they were of each of the domestic limited partnerships and other business entities that have merged or consolidated. The title to any real property vested by deed or otherwise, under the laws of the state of Rhode Island, in any of those domestic limited partnerships and other business entities, does not revert or in any way become impaired because of this chapter, but all rights of creditors and all liens upon any property of the domestic limited partnerships and other business entities are preserved unimpaired, and all debts, liabilities, and duties of each of the domestic limited partnerships and other business entities that have merged or consolidated subsequently attach to the surviving or resulting domestic limited partnership or other business entity, and may be enforced against it to the same extent as if the debts, liabilities and duties had been incurred or contracted by it. Unless otherwise agreed, a merger or consolidation of a domestic limited partnership, including a domestic limited partnership that is not the surviving or resulting entity in the merger or consolidation, does not require the domestic limited partnership to wind up its affairs under § 7-13-46 or pay its liabilities and distribute its assets under § 7-13-47.

7-13-69. Filing of returns with the tax administrator—Annual charge.

(a) For tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2012, a limited partnership certified under this chapter shall file a return, in the form and containing the information as prescribed by the tax administrator, as follows:

(1) If the fiscal year of the limited partnership is the calendar year, on or before the fifteenth day of April in the year following the close of the fiscal year; and

(2) If the fiscal year of the limited partnership is not a calendar year, on or before the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of the fiscal year.

(b) For tax years beginning after December 31, 2015, a limited partnership certified under this chapter shall file a return, in the form and containing the information as prescribed by the tax administrator, and shall be filed on or before the date a federal tax return is due to be filed, without regard to extension.

(c) An annual charge, equal to the minimum tax imposed upon a corporation under § 44-12-2(e), shall be due on the filing of the limited partnership's return filed with the tax administrator and shall be paid to the division of taxation.

(d) The annual charge is delinquent if not paid by the due date for the filing of the return.

The law of this state governs:

1. The internal affairs of a limited partnership; and
2. The liability of a partner as partner for a debt, obligation, or other liability of a limited partnership.

7-13.1-105. Partnership agreement; Scope, function, and limitations.

a. Except as otherwise provided in subsections (c) and (d) of this section, the partnership agreement governs:

1. Relations among the partners as partners and between the partners and the limited partnership;
2. The activities and affairs of the partnership and the conduct of those activities and affairs; and
3. The means and conditions for amending the partnership agreement.

b. To the extent the partnership agreement does not provide for a matter described in subsection (a) of this section, this chapter governs the matter.

c. A partnership agreement may not:

   (i) Registered agents; or
   (ii) The secretary of state, including provisions pertaining to records authorized or required to be delivered to the secretary of state for filing under this chapter;

(7) Eliminate the contractual obligation of good faith and fair dealing under §§ 7-13.1-305(a) and 7-13.1-409(d), but the partnership agreement may prescribe the standards, if not manifestly unreasonable, by which the performance of the obligation is to be measured;

(8) Relieve or exonerate a person from liability for conduct involving bad faith, willful or intentional misconduct, or knowing violation of law;

(9) Vary the information required under § 7-13.1-108 or unreasonably restrict the duties and rights under §§ 7-13.1-304 or 7-13.1-407, but the partnership agreement may impose reasonable restrictions on the availability and use of information obtained under those sections and may define appropriate remedies, including liquidated damages, for a breach of any reasonable restriction on use;

(10) Vary the grounds for expulsion specified in § 7-13.1-603(5)(ii);

(18) Except as otherwise provided in §§ 7-13.1-106 and 7-13.1-107(b), restrict the rights under this chapter of a person other than a partner.

(d) Subject to subsection (c)(8) of this section, without limiting other terms that may be included in a partnership agreement, the following rules apply:

(1) The partnership agreement may:

(i) Specify the method by which a specific act or transaction that would otherwise violate the duty of loyalty may be authorized or ratified by one or more disinterested and independent persons after full disclosure of all material facts; and

(ii) Alter the prohibition in § 7-13.1-504(a)(2) so that the prohibition requires only that the partnership's total assets not be less than the sum of its total liabilities.

(2) If not manifestly unreasonable, the partnership agreement may:

(i) Alter or eliminate the aspects of the duty of loyalty stated in § 7-13.1-409(b);

(ii) Identify specific types or categories of activities that do not violate the duty of loyalty;

(iii) Alter the duty of care, but may not authorize conduct involving bad faith, willful or intentional misconduct, or knowing violation of law; and

(iv) Alter or eliminate any other fiduciary duty.

(e) The superior court shall decide as a matter of law whether a term of a partnership agreement is manifestly unreasonable under subsection (c)(7) or (d)(2) of this section. The superior court:

(1) Shall make its determination as of the time the challenged term became part of the partnership agreement and by considering only circumstances existing at that time; and

(2) May invalidate the term only if, in light of the purposes, activities, and affairs of the limited partnership, it is readily apparent that:

(i) The objective of the term is unreasonable; or

(ii) The term is an unreasonable means to achieve its objective.

7-13.1-106. Partnership agreement -- Effect on limited partnership and person becoming partner -- Preformation agreement.

(a) A limited partnership is bound by and may enforce the partnership agreement, whether or not the partnership has itself manifested assent to the agreement.

(b) A person that becomes a partner is deemed to assent to the partnership agreement.

(c) Two (2) or more persons intending to become the initial partners of a limited partnership may make an agreement providing that upon the formation of the partnership the agreement will become the partnership agreement.

(a) A partnership agreement may specify that its amendment requires the approval of a person that is not a party to the agreement or the satisfaction of a condition. An amendment is ineffective if its adoption does not include the required approval or satisfy the specified condition.

(b) The obligations of a limited partnership and its partners to a person in the person’s capacity as a transferee or person dissociated as a partner are governed by the partnership agreement. Subject only to a court order issued under § 7-13.1-703(b)(2) to effectuate a charging order, an amendment to the partnership agreement made after a person becomes a transferee or is dissociated as a partner:

1. (1) Is effective with regard to any debt, obligation, or other liability of the partnership or its partners to the person in the person’s capacity as a transferee or person dissociated as a partner; and

2. (2) Is not effective to the extent the amendment imposes a new debt, obligation, or other liability on the transferee or person dissociated as a partner.

(c) If a record delivered by a limited partnership to the secretary of state for filing becomes effective and contains a provision that would be ineffective under § 7-13.1-105(c) or 7-13.1-105(d)(2) if contained in the partnership agreement, the provision is ineffective in the record.

(d) Subject to subsection (c) of this section, if a record delivered by a limited partnership to the secretary of state for filing becomes effective and conflicts with a provision of the partnership agreement:

1. (1) The agreement prevails as to partners, persons dissociated as partners, and transferees; and

2. (2) The record prevails as to other persons to the extent they reasonably rely on the record.

A limited partnership shall maintain at its principal office the following information:

1. (1) A current list showing the full name and last known street and mailing address of each partner, separately identifying the general partners, in alphabetical order, and the limited partners, in alphabetical order;

2. (2) A copy of the initial certificate of limited partnership and all amendments to and restatements of the certificate, together with signed copies of any powers of attorney under which any certificate, amendment, or restatement has been signed;

3. (3) A copy of any filed articles of merger, interest exchange, conversion, or domestication;

4. (4) A copy of the partnership’s federal, state, and local income tax returns and reports, if any, for the three (3) most recent years;

5. (5) A copy of any partnership agreement made in a record and any amendment made in a record to any partnership agreement;

(6) A copy of any financial statement of the partnership for the three (3) most recent years;

(7) A copy of the three (3) most recent annual reports delivered by the partnership to the secretary of state pursuant to § 7-13.1-212;

(8) A copy of any record made by the partnership during the past three (3) years of any consent given by or vote taken of any partner pursuant to this chapter or the partnership agreement;

and

(9) Unless contained in a partnership agreement made in a record, a record stating:

(i) A description and statement of the agreed value of contributions other than money made and agreed to be made by each partner;

(ii) The times at which, or events on the happening of which, any additional contributions agreed to be made by each partner are to be made;

(iii) For any person that is both a general partner and a limited partner, a specification of what transferable interest the person owns in each capacity; and

(iv) Any events upon the happening of which the partnership is to be dissolved and its activities and affairs wound up.

A person may be both a general partner and a limited partner. A person that is both a general and limited partner has the rights, powers, duties, and obligations provided by this chapter and the partnership agreement in each of those capacities. When the person acts as a general partner, the person is subject to the obligations, duties, and restrictions under this chapter and the partnership agreement for general partners. When the person acts as a limited partner, the person is subject to the obligations, duties, and restrictions under this chapter and the partnership agreement for limited partners.

(a) A limited partnership is an entity distinct from its partners. A limited partnership is the same entity regardless of whether its certificate states that the limited partnership is a limited liability limited partnership.

(b) A limited partnership may have any lawful purpose, regardless of whether for profit.

(c) A limited partnership has perpetual duration.

A limited partnership has the capacity to sue and be sued in the name of the partnership and the power to do all things necessary or convenient to carry on the partnership's activities and affairs.

(a) Before one year after the effective date of this chapter, this chapter governs only:

(1) A limited partnership formed on or after the effective date of this chapter; and

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (c) and (d) of this section, a limited partnership formed before the effective date of this chapter which elects, in the manner provided in its partnership agreement or by law for amending the partnership agreement, to be subject to this chapter.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (c) and (d) of this section, on and after one year after the effective date of this chapter, this chapter governs all limited partnerships.

(c) With respect to a limited partnership formed before the effective date of this chapter, the following rules apply except as the partners otherwise elect in the manner provided in the partnership agreement or by law for amending the partnership agreement:

(1) Section 7-13.1-110(c) does not apply and the limited partnership has whatever duration it had under the law applicable immediately before the effective date of this chapter.

(2) The limited partnership is not required to amend its certificate of limited partnership to comply with § 7-13.1-201(b)(5).

(3) Sections 7-13.1-601 and 7-13.1-602 do not apply and a limited partner has the same right and power to dissociate from the limited partnership, with the same consequences, as existed immediately before the effective date of this chapter.

(4) Section 7-13.1-603(4) does not apply.

(5) Section 7-13.1-603(5) does not apply and a court has the same power to expel a general partner as the court had immediately before the effective date of this chapter.

(6) Section 7-13.1-801(a)(3) does not apply and the connection between a person's dissociation as a general partner and the dissolution of the limited partnership is the same as existed immediately before the effective date of this chapter.

(d) With respect to a limited partnership that elects pursuant to subsection (a)(2) of this section to be subject to this chapter, after the election takes effect the provisions of this chapter relating to the liability of the limited partnership's general partners to third parties apply:

(1) Before one year after the effective date, to:

(i) A third party that had not done business with the limited partnership in the year before the election took effect; and it was mailed to the corporation by the secretary of state.

(e) Each limited partnership, domestic or foreign, that fails or refuses to file its annual report for any year within thirty (30) days after the time prescribed by this chapter is subject to a penalty of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) per year.

(a) A limited partnership certified under this chapter shall file a return, in the form and containing the information as prescribed by the tax administrator, as follows:

(1) If the fiscal year of the limited partnership is the calendar year, on or before the fifteenth day of April in the year following the close of the fiscal year; and

(2) If the fiscal year of the limited partnership is not a calendar year, on or before the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of the fiscal year.

(b) For tax years beginning after December 31, 2022, a limited partnership certified under this chapter shall file a return, in the form and containing the information as prescribed by the tax administrator, and shall be filed on or before the date a federal tax return is due to be filed, without regard to extension.

(c) An annual charge, equal to the minimum tax imposed upon a corporation under § 44-
11-2(c), shall be due on the filing of the limited partnership’s return filed with the tax administrator and shall be paid to the division of taxation.

(d) The annual charge is delinquent if not paid by the due date for the filing of the return and an addition of one hundred dollars ($100) to the charge is then due.

(a) Notwithstanding any other provisions of state law to the contrary, when any section of this chapter refers to state fees and/or taxes paid, the division of taxation is authorized to respond and share tax information with the secretary of state’s office in response to a request from that office regarding an entity’s tax status as compliant or noncompliant.
(b) If the secretary of state’s office receives notice from the division of taxation that the limited liability company has failed to pay any fees or taxes due this state, the secretary of state shall begin revocation proceedings in accordance with the provisions of § 7-13.1-811.

(c) The notice of revocation may state as the basis for revocation that the taxpayer failed to pay state fees and/or taxes to the division of taxation. However, the secretary of state’s office must otherwise protect all state and federal tax information in its custody as required by § 7-13.1-215 and refrain from disclosing any other specific tax information.

7-13.1-215. Revocation of certificate of limited partnership or certificate of registration for nonpayment of fee.

(a) The tax administrator may, after July 15 of each year, compile a list of all limited partnerships that have failed to pay any state fees and/or taxes for one year after the fees and/or taxes became due and payable, and the failure is not the subject of a pending appeal. The tax administrator shall certify to the correctness of the list. Upon receipt of the certified list, the secretary of state may initiate revocation proceedings as defined in § 7-13.1-811.

(b) With respect to any information provided by the division of taxation to the secretary of state’s office pursuant to this chapter, the secretary of state, together with the employees or agents thereof, shall be subject to all state and federal tax confidentiality laws applying to the division of taxation and the officers, agents, and employees thereof, and which restrict the acquisition, use, storage, dissemination, or publication of confidential taxpayer data.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the notice of revocation may state as the basis for revocation that the taxpayer has failed to pay state fees and/or taxes to the division of taxation. However, the secretary of state’s office must otherwise protect all state and federal tax information in its custody as required by subsection (b) of this section and refrain from disclosing any other specific tax information.

LIMITED PARTNERS

7-13.1-301. Becoming limited partner.

(a) Upon formation of a limited partnership, a person becomes a limited partner as agreed among the persons that are to be the initial partners.

(b) After formation, a person becomes a limited partner:

(1) As provided in the partnership agreement;

(2) As the result of a transaction effective under part 11 of this chapter;

(3) With the affirmative vote or consent of all the partners; or

A person may become a limited partner without:

1. Acquiring a transferable interest; or
2. Making or being obligated to make a contribution to the limited partnership.

7-13.1-302. No agency power of limited partner as limited partner.

(a) A limited partner is not an agent of a limited partnership solely by reason of being a limited partner.

(b) A person's status as a limited partner does not prevent or restrict law other than this chapter from imposing liability on a limited partnership because of the person's conduct.

7-13.1-303. No liability as limited partner for limited partnership obligations.

(a) A debt, obligation, or other liability of a limited partnership is not the debt, obligation, or other liability of a limited partner. A limited partner is not personally liable, directly or indirectly, by way of contribution or otherwise, for a debt, obligation, or other liability of the partnership solely by reason of being or acting as a limited partner, even if the limited partner participates in the management and control of the limited partnership. This subsection applies regardless of the dissolution of the partnership.

(b) The failure of a limited partnership to observe formalities relating to the exercise of its powers or management of its activities and affairs is not a ground for imposing liability on a limited partner for a debt, obligation, or other liability of the partnership.

7-13.1-304. Rights to information of limited partner and person dissociated as limited partner.

(a) On ten (10) days' demand, made in a record received by the limited partnership, a limited partner may inspect and copy required information during regular business hours in the limited partnership's principal office. The limited partner need not have any particular purpose for seeking the information.

(b) During regular business hours and at a reasonable location specified by the limited partnership, a limited partner may inspect and copy information regarding the activities, affairs, financial condition, and other circumstances of the limited partnership as is just and reasonable if:

1. The limited partner seeks the information for a purpose reasonably related to the partner's interest as a limited partner;

2. The limited partner makes a demand in a record received by the limited partnership, describing with reasonable particularity the information sought and the purpose for seeking the information; and

3. The information sought is directly connected to the limited partner's purpose.

(c) Not later than ten (10) days after receiving a demand pursuant to subsection (b) of this section, the limited partnership shall inform in a record the limited partner that made the demand of:

(1) What information the partnership will provide in response to the demand and when and where the partnership will provide the information; and

(2) The partnership's reasons for declining, if the partnership declines to provide any demanded information.

(d) Whenever this chapter or a partnership agreement provides for a limited partner to vote on or give or withhold consent to a matter, before the vote is cast or consent is given or withheld, the limited partnership shall, without demand, provide the limited partner with all information that is known to the partnership and is material to the limited partner's decision.

(e) Subject to subsection (j) of this section, on ten (10) days' demand made in a record received by a limited partnership, a person dissociated as a limited partner may have access to information to which the person was entitled while a limited partner if:

(1) The information pertains to the period during which the person was a limited partner;

(2) The person seeks the information in good faith; and

(3) The person satisfies the requirements imposed on a limited partner by subsection (b) of this section.

(f) A limited partnership shall respond to a demand made pursuant to subsection (e) of this section in the manner provided in subsection (c) of this section.

(g) A limited partnership may charge a person that makes a demand under this section reasonable costs of copying, limited to the costs of labor and material.

(h) A limited partner or person dissociated as a limited partner may exercise the rights under this section through an agent or, in the case of an individual under legal disability, a legal representative. Any restriction or condition imposed by the partnership agreement or under subsection (j) of this section applies both to the agent or legal representative and to the limited partner or person dissociated as a limited partner.

(i) Subject to § 7-13.1-704, the rights under this section do not extend to a person as transferee.

(j) In addition to any restriction or condition stated in its partnership agreement, a limited partnership, as a matter within the ordinary course of its activities and affairs, may impose reasonable restrictions and conditions on access to and use of information to be furnished under this section, including designating information confidential and imposing nondisclosure and safeguarding obligations on the recipient. In a dispute concerning the reasonableness of a restriction under this subsection, the partnership has the burden of proving reasonableness.

(a) A limited partner shall discharge any duties to the partnership and the other partners under the partnership agreement and exercise any rights under this chapter or the partnership agreement consistently with the contractual obligation of good faith and fair dealing.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (a) of this section, a limited partner does not have any duty to the limited partnership or to any other partner solely by reason of acting as a limited partner.

(c) If a limited partner enters into a transaction with a limited partnership, the limited partner's rights and obligations arising from the transaction are the same as those of a person that is not a partner.

7-13.1-306. Person erroneously believing self to be limited partner.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b) of this section, a person that makes an investment in a business enterprise and erroneously but in good faith believes that the person has become a limited partner in the enterprise is not liable for the enterprise's obligations by reason of making the investment, receiving distributions from the enterprise, or exercising any rights of or appropriate to a limited partner, if, on ascertaining the mistake, the person:

(1) Causes an appropriate certificate of limited partnership, amendment, or statement of correction to be signed and delivered to the secretary of state for filing; or

(2) Withdraws from future participation as an owner in the enterprise by signing and delivering to the secretary of state for filing a statement of negation under this section.

(b) A person that makes an investment described in subsection (a) of this section is liable to the same extent as a general partner to any third party that enters into a transaction with the enterprise, believing in good faith that the person is a general partner, before the secretary of state files a statement of negation, certificate of limited partnership, amendment, or statement of correction to show that the person is not a general partner.

(c) If a person makes a diligent effort in good faith to comply with subsection (a)(1) of this section and is unable to cause the appropriate certificate of limited partnership, amendment, or statement of correction to be signed and delivered to the secretary of state for filing, the person has the right to withdraw from the enterprise pursuant to subsection (a)(2) of this section even if the withdrawal would otherwise breach an agreement with others that are or have agreed to become co-owners of the enterprise.

GENERAL PARTNERS

(a) Upon formation of a limited partnership, a person becomes a general partner as agreed among the persons that are to be the initial partners.

(b) After formation of a limited partnership, a person becomes a general partner:

(1) As provided in the partnership agreement;

(2) As the result of a transaction effective under part 11 of this chapter;

(3) With the affirmative vote or consent of all the partners; or

(c) A person may become a general partner without:

(1) Acquiring a transferable interest; or

(2) Making or being obligated to make a contribution to the partnership.

(a) Each general partner is an agent of the limited partnership for the purposes of its activities and affairs. An act of a general partner, including the signing of a record in the partnership's name, for apparently carrying on in the ordinary course the partnership's activities and affairs or activities and affairs of the kind carried on by the partnership binds the partnership, unless the general partner did not have authority to act for the partnership in the particular matter and the person with which the general partner was dealing knew or had notice that the general partner lacked authority.

(b) An act of a general partner which is not apparently for carrying on in the ordinary course the limited partnership's activities and affairs or activities and affairs of the kind carried on by the partnership binds the partnership only if the act was actually authorized by all the other partners.

(a) A limited partnership is liable for loss or injury caused to a person, or for a penalty incurred, as a result of a wrongful act or omission, or other actionable conduct, of a general partner acting in the ordinary course of activities and affairs of the partnership or with the actual or apparent authority of the partnership.

(b) If, in the course of a limited partnership's activities and affairs or while acting with actual or apparent authority of the partnership, a general partner receives or causes the partnership to receive money or property of a person not a partner, and the money or property is misapplied by a general partner, the partnership is liable for the loss.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (b) and (c) of this section, all general partners are liable jointly and severally for all debts, obligations, and other liabilities of the limited partnership unless otherwise agreed by the claimant or provided by law.
(b) A person that becomes a general partner is not personally liable for a debt, obligation, or other liability of the limited partnership incurred before the person became a general partner.

(c) A debt, obligation, or other liability of a limited partnership incurred while the partnership is a limited liability limited partnership is solely the debt, obligation, or other liability of the limited liability limited partnership. A general partner is not personally liable, directly or indirectly, by way of contribution or otherwise, for a debt, obligation, or other liability of the limited liability limited partnership solely by reason of being or acting as a general partner. This subsection applies:

1. Despite anything inconsistent in the partnership agreement that existed immediately before the vote or consent required to become a limited liability limited partnership under § 7-13.1-406(b)(2); and

2. Regardless of the dissolution of the partnership.

(d) The failure of a limited liability limited partnership to observe formalities relating to the exercise of its powers or management of its activities and affairs is not a ground for imposing liability on a general partner for a debt, obligation, or other liability of the partnership.

(e) An amendment of a certificate of limited partnership which deletes a statement that the limited partnership is a limited liability limited partnership does not affect the limitation in this section on the liability of a general partner for a debt, obligation, or other liability of the limited partnership incurred before the amendment became effective.

(a) To the extent not inconsistent with § 7-13.1-404, a general partner may be joined in an action against the limited partnership or named in a separate action.

(b) A judgment against a limited partnership is not by itself a judgment against a general partner. A judgment against a partnership may not be satisfied from a general partner's assets unless there is also a judgment against the general partner.

(c) A judgment creditor of a general partner may not levy execution against the assets of the general partner to satisfy a judgment based on a claim against the limited partnership, unless the partner is personally liable for the claim under § 7-13.1-404 and:

1. A judgment based on the same claim has been obtained against the limited partnership and a writ of execution on the judgment has been returned unsatisfied in whole or in part;

2. The partnership is a debtor in bankruptcy;

3. The general partner has agreed that the creditor need not exhaust partnership assets;

4. A court grants permission to the judgment creditor to levy execution against the assets of a general partner based on a finding that partnership assets subject to execution are clearly insufficient to satisfy the judgment, that exhaustion of assets is excessively burdensome, or that the grant of permission is an appropriate exercise of the court's equitable powers; or

(5) Liability is imposed on the general partner by law or contract independent of the existence of the partnership.

(a) Each general partner has equal rights in the management and conduct of the limited partnership's activities and affairs. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, any matter relating to the activities and affairs of the partnership is decided exclusively by the general partner or, if there is more than one general partner, by a majority of the general partners.

(b) The affirmative vote or consent of all the partners is required to:

(1) Amend the partnership agreement;

(2) Amend the certificate of limited partnership to add or delete a statement that the limited partnership is a limited liability limited partnership; and

(3) Sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of all, or substantially all, of the limited partnership's property, with or without the good will, other than in the usual and regular course of the limited partnership's activities and affairs.

(c) A limited partnership shall reimburse a general partner for an advance to the partnership beyond the amount of capital the general partner agreed to contribute.

(d) A payment or advance made by a general partner which gives rise to a limited partnership obligation under subsection (c) of this section or § 7-13.1-408(a) constitutes a loan to the limited partnership which accrues interest from the date of the payment or advance.

(e) A general partner is not entitled to remuneration for services performed for the limited partnership.

7-13.1-407. Rights to information of general partner and person dissociated as general partner.

(a) A general partner may inspect and copy required information during regular business hours in the limited partnership's principal office, without having any particular purpose for seeking the information.

(b) On reasonable notice, a general partner may inspect and copy during regular business hours, at a reasonable location specified by the limited partnership, any record maintained by the partnership regarding the partnership's activities, affairs, financial condition, and other circumstances, to the extent the information is material to the general partner's rights and duties under the partnership agreement or this chapter.

(c) A limited partnership shall furnish to each general partner:
(1) Without demand, any information concerning the partnership's activities, affairs, financial condition, and other circumstances which the partnership knows and is material to the proper exercise of the general partner's rights and duties under the partnership agreement or this chapter, except to the extent the partnership can establish that it reasonably believes the general partner already knows the information; and

(2) On demand, any other information concerning the partnership's activities, affairs, financial condition, and other circumstances, except to the extent the demand or the information demanded is unreasonable or otherwise improper under the circumstances.

(d) The duty to furnish information under subsection (c) of this section also applies to each general partner to the extent the general partner knows any of the information described in subsection (b) of this section.

(e) Subject to subsection (j) of this section, on ten (10) days' demand made in a record received by a limited partnership, a person dissociated as a general partner may have access to the information and records described in subsections (a) and (b) of this section at the locations specified in those subsections if:

(1) The information or record pertains to the period during which the person was a general partner;

(2) The person seeks the information or record in good faith; and

(3) The person satisfies the requirements imposed on a limited partner by § 7-13.1-304(b).

(f) A limited partnership shall respond to a demand made pursuant to subsection (e) of this section in the manner provided in § 7-13.1-304(c).

(g) A limited partnership may charge a person that makes a demand under this section the reasonable costs of copying, limited to the costs of labor and material.

(h) A general partner or person dissociated as a general partner may exercise the rights under this section through an agent or, in the case of an individual under legal disability, a legal representative. Any restriction or condition imposed by the partnership agreement or under subsection (j) of this section applies both to the agent or legal representative and to the general partner or person dissociated as a general partner.

(i) The rights under this section do not extend to a person as transferee, but if:

(1) A general partner dies, § 7-13.1-704 applies; and

(2) An individual dissociates as a general partner under §§ 7-13.1-603(6)(ii) or 7-13.1-603(6)(iii), the legal representative of the individual may exercise the rights under subsection (c) of this section of a person dissociated as a general partner.

(j) In addition to any restriction or condition stated in its partnership agreement, a limited partnership, as a matter within the ordinary course of its activities and affairs, may impose reasonable restrictions and conditions on access to and use of information to be furnished under this section, including designating information confidential and imposing nondisclosure and safeguarding obligations on the recipient. In a dispute concerning the reasonableness of a restriction under this subsection, the partnership has the burden of proving reasonableness.

(a) A limited partnership shall reimburse a general partner for any payment made by the general partner in the course of the general partner's activities on behalf of the partnership, if the

(b) A limited partnership shall indemnify and hold harmless a person with respect to any claim or demand against the person and any debt, obligation, or other liability incurred by the person by reason of the person's former or present capacity as a general partner, if the claim, demand, debt, obligation, or other liability does not arise from the person's breach of §§ 7-13.1-

(c) In the ordinary course of its activities and affairs, a limited partnership may advance reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees and costs, incurred by a person in connection with a claim or demand against the person by reason of the person's former or present capacity as a general partner, if the person promises to repay the partnership if the person ultimately is determined not to be entitled to be indemnified under subsection (b) of this section.

(d) A limited partnership may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of a general partner against liability asserted against or incurred by the general partner in that capacity or arising from that status even if, under § 7-13.1-105(c)(8), the partnership agreement could not eliminate or limit the person's liability to the partnership for the conduct giving rise to the liability.

(a) A general partner owes to the limited partnership and, subject to § 7-13.1-901, the other partners the duties of loyalty and care stated in subsections (b) and (c) of this section.

(b) The fiduciary duty of loyalty of a general partner includes the duties:

(1) To account to the limited partnership and hold as trustee for it any property, profit, or benefit derived by the general partner:

(i) In the conduct or winding up of the partnership's activities and affairs;

(ii) From a use by the general partner of the partnership's property; or

(iii) From the appropriation of a partnership opportunity;

(2) To refrain from dealing with the partnership in the conduct or winding up of the partnership's activities and affairs as or on behalf of a person having an interest adverse to the partnership; and

(3) To refrain from competing with the partnership in the conduct or winding up of the partnership's activities and affairs.

(c) The duty of care of a general partner in the conduct or winding up of the limited partnership's activities and affairs is to refrain from engaging in grossly negligent or reckless conduct, willful or intentional misconduct, or knowing violation of law.

(d) A general partner shall discharge the duties and obligations under this chapter or under the partnership agreement and exercise any rights consistently with the contractual obligation of good faith and fair dealing.

(e) A general partner does not violate a duty or obligation under this chapter or under the partnership agreement solely because the general partner's conduct furthers the general partner's own interest.

(f) All the partners of a limited partnership may authorize or ratify, after full disclosure of all material facts, a specific act or transaction by a general partner that otherwise would violate the duty of loyalty.

(g) It is a defense to a claim under subsection (b)(2) of this section and any comparable claim in equity or at common law that the transaction was fair to the limited partnership.

(h) If, as permitted by subsection (f) of this section or the partnership agreement, a general partner enters into a transaction with the limited partnership which otherwise would be prohibited by subsection (b)(2) of this section, the general partner's rights and obligations arising from the transaction are the same as those of a person that is not a general partner.

CONTRIBUTIONS AND DISTRIBUTIONS

A contribution may consist of property transferred to, services performed for, or another benefit provided to the limited partnership or an agreement to transfer property to, perform services for, or provide another benefit to the partnership.

(a) A person's obligation to make a contribution to a limited partnership is not excused by the person's death, disability, termination, or other inability to perform personally.

(b) If a person does not fulfill an obligation to make a contribution other than money, the person is obligated at the option of the limited partnership to contribute money equal to the value, as stated in the required information, of the part of the contribution which has not been made.

(c) The obligation of a person to make a contribution may be compromised only by the affirmative vote or consent of all the partners. If a creditor of a limited partnership extends credit or otherwise acts in reliance on an obligation described in subsection (a) of this section without knowledge or notice of a compromise under this subsection, the creditor may enforce the obligation.

7-13.1-503. Sharing of and right to distributions before dissolution.

(a) Any distribution made by a limited partnership before its dissolution and winding up must be shared among the partners on the basis of the value, as stated in the required information when the limited partnership decides to make the distribution, of the contributions the limited partnership has received from each partner, except to the extent necessary to comply with a transfer effective under § 7-13.1-702 or charging order in effect under § 7-13.1-703.

(b) A person has a right to a distribution before the dissolution and winding up of a limited partnership only if the partnership decides to make an interim distribution. A person's dissociation does not entitle the person to a distribution.

(c) A person does not have a right to demand or receive a distribution from a limited partnership in any form other than money. Except as otherwise provided in § 7-13.1-810(f), a partnership may distribute an asset in kind only if each part of the asset is fungible with each other part and each person receives a percentage of the asset equal in value to the person's share of distributions.

(d) If a partner or transferee becomes entitled to receive a distribution, the partner or transferee has the status of, and is entitled to all remedies available to, a creditor of the limited partnership with respect to the distribution. However, the partnership's obligation to make a distribution is subject to offset for any amount owed to the partnership by the partner or a person dissociated as a partner on whose account the distribution is made.

(a) A limited partnership may not make a distribution, including a distribution under § 7-13.1-810, if after the distribution:

(1) The partnership would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the ordinary course of the partnership's activities and affairs; or

(2) The partnership's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed, if the partnership were to be dissolved and wound up at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution and winding up of partners and transferees whose preferential rights are superior to the rights of persons receiving the distribution.

(b) A limited partnership may base a determination that a distribution is not prohibited under subsection (a) of this section on:
(1) Financial statements prepared on the basis of accounting practices and principles that are reasonable in the circumstances; or

(2) A fair valuation or other method that is reasonable under the circumstances.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (e) of this section, the effect of a distribution under subsection (a) of this section is measured:

(1) In the case of a distribution as defined in § 7-13.1-102(4)(i), as of the earlier of:

(i) The date money or other property is transferred or debt is incurred by the limited partnership; or

(ii) The date the person entitled to the distribution ceases to own the interest or right being acquired by the partnership in return for the distribution;

(2) In the case of any other distribution of indebtedness, as of the date the indebtedness is distributed; and

(3) In all other cases, as of the date:

(i) The distribution is authorized, if the payment occurs not later than one hundred twenty (120) days after that date; or

(ii) The payment is made, if the payment occurs more than one hundred twenty (120) days after the distribution is authorized.

(d) A limited partnership's indebtedness to a partner or transferee incurred by reason of a distribution made in accordance with this section is at parity with the partnership's indebtedness to its general, unsecured creditors, except to the extent subordinated by agreement.

(e) A limited partnership's indebtedness, including indebtedness issued as a distribution, is not a liability for purposes of subsection (a) of this section if the terms of the indebtedness provide that payment of principal and interest is made only if and to the extent that payment of a distribution could then be made under this section. If the indebtedness is issued as a distribution, each payment of principal or interest is treated as a distribution, the effect of which is measured on the date the payment is made.

(f) In measuring the effect of a distribution under § 7-13.1-810, the liabilities of a dissolved limited partnership do not include any claim that has been disposed of under §§ 7-13.1-806, 7-13.1-807, or 7-13.1-808.

(a) If a general partner consents to a distribution made in violation of § 7-13.1-504 and in consenting to the distribution fails to comply with § 7-13.1-409, the general partner is personally liable to the limited partnership for the amount of the distribution which exceeds the amount that could have been distributed without the violation of § 7-13.1-504.
(b) A person that receives a distribution knowing that the distribution violated § 7-13.1-504 is personally liable to the limited partnership but only to the extent that the distribution received by the person exceeded the amount that could have been properly paid under § 7-13.1-504.

(c) A general partner against which an action is commenced because the general partner is liable under subsection (a) of this section may:

(1) Impale any other person that is liable under subsection (a) of this section and seek to enforce a right of contribution from the person; and

(2) Impale any person that received a distribution in violation of subsection (b) of this section and seek to enforce a right of contribution from the person in the amount the person received in violation of subsection (b) of this section.

(d) An action under this section is barred unless commenced not later than two (2) years after the distribution.

PART 6

DISSOCIATION

7-13.1-601. Dissociation as limited partner.

(a) A person does not have a right to dissociate as a limited partner before the completion of the winding up of the limited partnership.

(b) A person is dissociated as a limited partner when:

(1) The limited partnership knows or has notice of the person's express will to withdraw as a limited partner, but, if the person has specified a withdrawal date later than the date the partnership knew or had notice, on that later date;

(2) An event stated in the partnership agreement as causing the person's dissociation as a limited partner occurs;

(3) The person is expelled as a limited partner pursuant to the partnership agreement;

(4) The person is expelled as a limited partner by the affirmative vote or consent of all the other partners if:

(i) It is unlawful to carry on the limited partnership's activities and affairs with the person as a limited partner;

(ii) There has been a transfer of all the person's transferable interest in the partnership, other than:

(A) A transfer for security purposes; or

(B) A charging order in effect under § 7-13.1-703 which has not been foreclosed;

(iii) The person is an entity and:

(A) The partnership notifies the person that it will be expelled as a limited partner because the person has filed a statement of dissolution or the equivalent, the person has been administratively dissolved, the person’s charter or the equivalent has been revoked, or the person’s right to conduct business has been suspended by the person’s jurisdiction of formation; and

(B) Not later than ninety (90) days after the notification, the statement of dissolution or the equivalent has not been withdrawn, rescinded, or revoked, the person has not been reinstated, or the person’s charter or the equivalent or right to conduct business has not been reinstated; or

(iv) The person is an unincorporated entity that has been dissolved and whose activities and affairs are being wound up;

(5) On application by the limited partnership or a partner in a direct action under § 7-13.1-901, the person is expelled as a limited partner by judicial order because the person:

(i) Has engaged or is engaging in wrongful conduct that has affected adversely and materially, or will affect adversely and materially, the partnership's activities and affairs;

(ii) Has committed willfully or persistently, or is committing willfully and persistently, a material breach of the partnership agreement or the contractual obligation of good faith and fair dealing under § 7-13.1-305(a); or

(iii) Has engaged or is engaging in conduct relating to the partnership's activities and affairs which makes it not reasonably practicable to carry on the activities and affairs with the person as a limited partner;

(6) In the case of an individual, the individual dies;

(7) In the case of a person that is a testamentary or inter vivos trust or is acting as a limited partner by virtue of being a trustee of such a trust, the trust's entire transferable interest in the limited partnership is distributed;

(8) In the case of a person that is an estate or is acting as a limited partner by virtue of being a personal representative of an estate, the estate’s entire transferable interest in the limited partnership is distributed;

(9) In the case of a person that is not an individual, the existence of the person terminates;

(10) The limited partnership participates in a merger under part 11 of this chapter and:

7-13.1-602. Effect of dissociation as limited partner.

(a) If a person is dissociated as a limited partner:

(1) Subject to § 7-13.1-704, the person does not have further rights as a limited partner;

(2) The person's contractual obligation of good faith and fair dealing as a limited partner under § 7-13.1-305(a) ends with regard to matters arising and events occurring after the person's dissociation; and

(3) Subject to § 7-13.1-704 and part 11 of this chapter, any transferable interest owned by the person in the person's capacity as a limited partner immediately before dissociation is owned by the person solely as a transferee.

(b) A person's dissociation as a limited partner does not of itself discharge the person from any debt, obligation, or other liability to the limited partnership or the other partners which the person incurred while a limited partner.

7-13.1-603. Dissociation as general partner.

A person is dissociated as a general partner when:

(1) The limited partnership knows or has notice of the person's express will to withdraw as a general partner, but, if the person has specified a withdrawal date later than the date the partnership knew or had notice, on that later date;

(2) An event stated in the partnership agreement as causing the person's dissociation as a general partner occurs;

(3) The person is expelled as a general partner pursuant to the partnership agreement;

(B) Not later than ninety (90) days after the notification, the statement of dissolution or the equivalent has not been withdrawn, rescinded, or revoked, the person has not been reinstated, or the person's charter or the equivalent or right to conduct business has not been reinstated; or

(iv) The person is an unincorporated entity that has been dissolved and whose activities and affairs are being wound up;

(5) On application by the limited partnership or a partner in a direct action under § 7-13.1-901, the person is expelled as a general partner by judicial order because the person:

(i) Has engaged or is engaging in wrongful conduct that has affected adversely and materially, or will affect adversely and materially, the partnership's activities and affairs;

(ii) Has committed willfully or persistently, or is committing willfully or persistently, a material breach of the partnership agreement or a duty or obligation under § 7-13.1-409; or

(iii) Has engaged or is engaging in conduct relating to the partnership's activities and affairs which makes it not reasonably practicable to carry on the activities and affairs of the limited partnership with the person as a general partner;

(6) In the case of an individual:

(9) In the case of a person that is an estate or is acting as a general partner by virtue of being a personal representative of an estate, the estate's entire transferable interest in the limited partnership is distributed;

(10) In the case of a person that is not an individual, the existence of the person terminates;

(i) The limited partnership participates in a merger under part 11 of this chapter and;

(ii) Otherwise as a result of the merger, the person ceases to be a general partner;
(12) The limited partnership participates in an interest exchange under part 11 of this chapter and, as a result of the interest exchange, the person ceases to be a general partner;

(13) The limited partnership participates in a conversion under part 11 of this chapter;

(14) The limited partnership participates in a domestication under part 11 of this chapter and, as a result of the domestication, the person ceases to be a general partner; or

(15) The limited partnership dissolves and completes winding up.

(a) A person has the power to dissociate as a general partner at any time, rightfully or wrongfully, by withdrawing as a general partner by express will under § 7-13.1-603(1).

(b) A person's dissociation as a general partner is wrongful only if the dissociation:

(1) Is in breach of an express provision of the partnership agreement; or

(2) Occurs before the completion of the winding up of the limited partnership, and:

(i) The person withdraws as a general partner by express will;

(ii) The person is expelled as a general partner by judicial order under § 7-13.1-603(5);

(iii) The person is dissociated as a general partner under § 7-13.1-603(7); or

(iv) In the case of a person that is not a trust other than a business trust, an estate, or an individual, the person is expelled or otherwise dissociated as a general partner because it willfully dissolved or terminated.

(c) A person that wrongfully dissociates as a general partner is liable to the limited partnership and, subject to § 7-13.1-901, to the other partners for damages caused by the dissociation. The liability is in addition to any debt, obligation, or other liability of the general partner to the partnership or the other partners.

7-13.1-605. Effect of dissociation as general partner.

(a) If a person is dissociated as a general partner:

(1) The person's right to participate as a general partner in the management and conduct of the limited partnership's activities and affairs terminates;

(2) The person's duties and obligations as a general partner under § 7-13.1-409 end with regard to matters arising and events occurring after the person's dissociation;

(3) The person may sign and deliver to the secretary of state for filing a statement of dissociation pertaining to the person and, at the request of the limited partnership, shall sign an amendment to the certificate of limited partnership which states that the person has dissociated as a general partner; and by the person solely as a transferee.

(b) A person's dissociation as a general partner does not of itself discharge the person from any debt, obligation, or other liability to the limited partnership or the other partners which the person incurred while a general partner.

7-13.1-606. Power to bind and liability of person dissociated as general partner.

(a) After a person is dissociated as a general partner and before the limited partnership is merged out of existence, converted, or domesticated under part 11 of this chapter, or dissolved, the partnership is bound by an act of the person only if:

(1) The act would have bound the partnership under § 7-13.1-402 before the dissociation; and

(2) At the time the other party enters into the transaction:

(i) Less than two (2) years has passed since the dissociation; and

(ii) The other party does not know or have notice of the dissociation and reasonably believes that the person is a general partner.

(b) If a limited partnership is bound under subsection (a) of this section, the person dissociated as a general partner which caused the partnership to be bound is liable:

(1) To the partnership for any damage caused to the partnership arising from the obligation incurred under subsection (a) of this section; and

(2) If a general partner or another person dissociated as a general partner is liable for the obligation, to the general partner or other person for any damage caused to the general partner or other person arising from the liability.

7-13.1-607. Liability of person dissociated as general partner to other persons.

(a) A person's dissociation as a general partner does not of itself discharge the person's liability as a general partner for a debt, obligation, or other liability of the limited partnership incurred before dissociation. Except as otherwise provided in subsections (b) and (c) of this section, the person is not liable for a partnership obligation incurred after dissociation.

(b) A person whose dissociation as a general partner results in a dissolution and winding up of the limited partnership's activities and affairs is liable on an obligation incurred by the partnership under § 7-13.1-805 to the same extent as a general partner under § 7-13.1-404.

(c) A person that is dissociated as a general partner without the dissociation resulting in a dissolution and winding up of the limited partnership's activities and affairs is liable on a transaction entered into by the partnership after the dissociation only if:

(1) A general partner would be liable on the transaction; and

(2) At the time the other party enters into the transaction.
(i) Less than two (2) years has passed since the dissociation; and

(ii) The other party does not have knowledge or notice of the dissociation and reasonably believes that the person is a general partner.

(d) By agreement with a creditor of a limited partnership and the partnership, a person dissociated as a general partner may be released from liability for a debt, obligation, or other liability of the partnership.

(e) A person dissociated as a general partner is released from liability for a debt, obligation, or other liability of the limited partnership if the partnership's creditor, with knowledge or notice of the person's dissociation as a general partner but without the person's consent, agrees to a material alteration in the nature or time of payment of the debt, obligation, or other liability.

PART 7

TRANSFERABLE INTERESTS AND RIGHTS OF TRANSFEREES AND CREDITORS

A transferable interest is personal property.

(a) A transfer, in whole or in part, of a transferable interest:

(1) Is permissible;

(2) Does not by itself cause a person's dissociation as a partner or a dissolution and winding up of the limited partnership's activities and affairs; and

(3) Subject to § 7-13.1-704, does not entitle the transferee to:

(i) Participate in the management or conduct of the partnership's activities and affairs; or

(ii) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c) of this section, have access to required information, records, or other information concerning the partnership's activities and affairs.

(b) A transferee has the right to receive, in accordance with the transfer, distributions to which the transferor would otherwise be entitled.

(c) In a dissolution and winding up of a limited partnership, a transferee is entitled to an account of the partnership's transactions only from the date of dissolution.

(d) A transferable interest may be evidenced by a certificate of the interest issued by a limited partnership in a record, and, subject to this section, the interest represented by the certificate may be transferred by a transfer of the certificate.

(e) A limited partnership need not give effect to a transferee's rights under this section until the partnership knows or has notice of the transfer.

(f) A transfer of a transferable interest in violation of a restriction on transfer contained in the partnership agreement is ineffective if the intended transferee has knowledge or notice of the restriction at the time of transfer.

(g) Except as otherwise provided in §§ 7-13.1-601(b)(4)(ii) and 7-13.1-603(4)(ii), if a general or limited partner transfers a transferable interest, the transferor retains the rights of a general or limited partner other than the transferable interest transferred and retains all the duties and obligations of a general or limited partner.

(h) If a general or limited partner transfers a transferable interest to a person that becomes a general or limited partner with respect to the transferred interest, the transferee is liable for the transferor's obligations under §§ 7-13.1-502 and 7-13.1-505 known to the transferee when the transferee becomes a partner.

(a) On application by a judgment creditor of a partner or transferee, a court may enter a charging order against the transferable interest of the judgment debtor for the unsatisfied amount of the judgment. A charging order constitutes a lien on a judgment debtor's transferable interest and requires the limited partnership to pay over to the person to which the charging order was issued any distribution that otherwise would be paid to the judgment debtor.

(b) To the extent necessary to effectuate the collection of distributions pursuant to a charging order in effect under subsection (a) of this section, the court may:

(1) Appoint a receiver of the distributions subject to the charging order, with the power to make all inquiries the judgment debtor might have made; and

(2) Make all other orders necessary to give effect to the charging order.

(c) Upon a showing that distributions under a charging order will not pay the judgment debt within a reasonable time, the court may foreclose the lien and order the sale of the transferable interest. The purchaser at the foreclosure sale obtains only the transferable interest, does not thereby become a partner, and is subject to § 7-13.1-702.

(d) At any time before foreclosure under subsection (c) of this section, the partner or transferee whose transferable interest is subject to a charging order under subsection (a) of this section may extinguish the charging order by satisfying the judgment and filing a certified copy of the satisfaction with the court that issued the charging order.

(e) At any time before foreclosure under subsection (c) of this section, a limited partnership or one or more partners whose transferable interests are not subject to the charging order may pay to the judgment creditor the full amount due under the judgment and thereby succeed to the rights of the judgment creditor, including the charging order.

(f) This chapter does not deprive any partner or transferee of the benefit of any exemption law applicable to the transferable interest of the partner or transferee.

(g) This section provides the exclusive remedy by which a person seeking in the capacity of a judgment creditor to enforce a judgment against a partner or transferee may satisfy the judgment from the judgment debtor's transferable interest.

If a partner dies, the deceased partner's legal representative may exercise:
(1) The rights of a transferee provided in § 7-13.1-702(c); and
(2) For the purposes of settling the estate, the rights of a current limited partner under § 7-13.1-304.

DISSOLUTION AND WINDING UP

(a) A limited partnership is dissolved, and its activities and affairs must be wound up, upon the occurrence of any of the following:
(1) An event or circumstance that the partnership agreement states causes dissolution;
(2) The affirmative vote or consent of all general partners and of limited partners owning a majority of the rights to receive distributions as limited partners at the time the vote or consent is to be effective;
(3) After the dissociation of a person as a general partner:
   (i) If the partnership has at least one remaining general partner, the affirmative vote or consent to dissolve the partnership not later than ninety (90) days after the dissociation by partners owning a majority of the rights to receive distributions as partners at the time the vote or consent is to be effective; or
   (ii) If the partnership does not have a remaining general partner, the passage of ninety (90) days after the dissociation, unless before the end of the period:
      (A) Consent to continue the activities and affairs of the partnership and admit at least one general partner is given by limited partners owning a majority of the rights to receive distributions as limited partners at the time the consent is to be effective; and
      (B) At least one person is admitted as a general partner in accordance with the consent;
(4) The passage of ninety (90) consecutive days after the dissociation of the partnership's last limited partner, unless before the end of the period the partnership admits at least one limited partner;
(5) The passage of ninety (90) consecutive days during which the partnership has only one partner, unless before the end of the period:
(i) The partnership admits at least one person as a partner;
(ii) If the previously sole remaining partner is only a general partner, the partnership admits the person as a limited partner; and
(iii) If the previously sole remaining partner is only a limited partner, the partnership admits a person as a general partner;
(6) On application by a partner, the entry by the superior court of an order dissolving the partnership on the grounds that:
(i) The conduct of all or substantially all the partnership's activities and affairs is unlawful;
or
(ii) It is not reasonably practicable to carry on the partnership's activities and affairs in conformity with the certificate of limited partnership and partnership agreement; or
(7) The signing and filing of a certificate of revocation by the secretary of state under § 7-13.1-811.
(b) If an event occurs that imposes a deadline on a limited partnership under subsection (a) of this section and before the partnership has met the requirements of the deadline, another event occurs that imposes a different deadline on the partnership under subsection (a) of this section:
(1) The occurrence of the second event does not affect the deadline caused by the first event; and
(2) The partnership's meeting of the requirements of the first deadline does not extend the second deadline.
(a) A dissolved limited partnership shall wind up its activities and affairs and, except as otherwise provided in § 7-13.1-803, the partnership continues after dissolution only for the purpose of winding up.
(b) In winding up its activities and affairs, the limited partnership:
(1) Shall discharge the partnership's debts, obligations, and other liabilities, settle and close the partnership's activities and affairs, and marshal and distribute the assets of the partnership; and (2) May:
(i) Amend its certificate of limited partnership to state that the partnership is dissolved;
(ii) Preserve the partnership activities, affairs, and property as a going concern for a reasonable time;
(iii) Prosecute and defend actions and proceedings, whether civil, criminal, or administrative;
(iv) Transfer the partnership's property;
(v) Settle disputes by mediation or arbitration;

(vi) Deliver to the secretary of state for filing a statement of dissolution stating the name of the partnership and that the partnership is dissolved; and

(vii) Perform other acts necessary or appropriate to the winding up.

(c) If a dissolved limited partnership does not have a general partner, a person to wind up the dissolved partnership's activities and affairs may be appointed by the affirmative vote or consent of limited partners owning a majority of the rights to receive distributions as limited partners at the time the vote or consent is to be effective. A person appointed under this subsection:

(1) Has the powers of a general partner under § 7-13.1-804 but is not liable for the debts, obligations, and other liabilities of the partnership solely by reason of having or exercising those powers or otherwise acting to wind up the dissolved partnership's activities and affairs; and

(2) Shall deliver promptly to the secretary of state for filing an amendment to the partnership's certificate of limited partnership stating:

(i) That the partnership does not have a general partner;

(ii) The name and street and mailing addresses of the person; and

(iii) That the person has been appointed pursuant to this subsection to wind up the partnership.

(d) On the application of a partner, the superior court may order judicial supervision of the winding up of a dissolved limited partnership, including the appointment of a person to wind up the partnership's activities and affairs, if:

(1) The partnership does not have a general partner and within a reasonable time following the dissolution no person has been appointed pursuant to subsection (c) of this section; or

(2) The applicant establishes other good cause.

(a) A limited partnership may rescind its dissolution, unless a statement of dissolution applicable to the partnership has become effective, the superior court has entered an order under § 7-13.1-801(a)(6) dissolving the partnership, or the secretary of state has revoked the partnership under § 7-13.1-811.

(b) Rescinding dissolution under this section requires:

(1) The affirmative vote or consent of each partner; and

(2) If the limited partnership has delivered to the secretary of state for filing an amendment to the certificate of limited partnership stating that the partnership is dissolved and:

(i) The amendment has not become effective, delivery to the secretary of state for filing of a statement of withdrawal under § 7-13.1-208 applicable to the amendment; or
(ii) The amendment has become effective, delivery to the secretary of state for filing of an amendment to the certificate of limited partnership stating that dissolution has been rescinded under this section.

(c) If a limited partnership rescinds its dissolution:

(1) The partnership resumes carrying on its activities and affairs as if dissolution had never occurred;

(2) Subject to subsection (c)(3) of this section, any liability incurred by the partnership after the dissolution and before the rescission has become effective is determined as if dissolution had never occurred; and

(3) The rights of a third party arising out of conduct in reliance on the dissolution before the third party knew or had notice of the rescission may not be adversely affected.

(a) A limited partnership is bound by a general partner's act after dissolution which:

(1) Is appropriate for winding up the partnership's activities and affairs; or

(2) Would have bound the partnership under § 7-13.1-402 before dissolution if, at the time the other party enters into the transaction, the other party does not know or have notice of the dissolution.

(b) A person dissociated as a general partner binds a limited partnership through an act occurring after dissolution if:

(1) At the time the other party enters into the transaction:

(i) Less than two (2) years has passed since the dissociation; and

(2) The act:

(i) Is appropriate for winding up the partnership's activities and affairs; or

(ii) Would have bound the partnership under § 7-13.1-402 before dissolution and at the time the other party enters into the transaction the other party does not know or have notice of the dissolution.

7-13.1-805. Liability after dissolution of general partner and person dissociated as general partner.

(a) If a general partner having knowledge of the dissolution causes a limited partnership to incur an obligation under § 7-13.1-804(a) by an act that is not appropriate for winding up the partnership's activities and affairs, the general partner is liable:

(1) To the partnership for any damage caused to the partnership arising from the obligation;
(2) If another general partner or a person dissociated as a general partner is liable for the obligation, to that other general partner or person for any damage caused to that other general partner or person arising from the liability.

(b) If a person dissociated as a general partner causes a limited partnership to incur an obligation under § 7-13.1-804(b), the person is liable:

(1) To the partnership for any damage caused to the partnership arising from the obligation; and

(2) If a general partner or another person dissociated as a general partner is liable for the obligation, to that general partner or other person for any damage caused to that general partner or other person arising from the obligation.

7-13.1-806. Known claims against dissolved limited partnership.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d) of this section, a dissolved limited partnership may give notice of a known claim under subsection (b) of this section, which has the effect provided in subsection (c) of this section.

(b) A dissolved limited partnership may in a record notify its known claimants of the dissolution. The notice must:

(1) Specify the information required to be included in a claim;

(2) State that a claim must be in writing and provide a mailing address to which the claim is to be sent;

(3) State the deadline for receipt of a claim, which may not be less than one hundred twenty (120) days after the date the notice is received by the claimant;

(4) State that the claim will be barred if not received by the deadline; and

(5) Unless the partnership has been throughout its existence a limited liability limited partnership, state that the barring of a claim against the partnership will also bar any corresponding claim against any general partner or person dissociated as a general partner which is based on § 7-13.1-404.

(c) A claim against a dissolved limited partnership is barred if the requirements of subsection (b) of this section are met and:

(1) The claim is not received by the specified deadline; or

(2) If the claim is timely received but rejected by the partnership:

(i) The partnership causes the claimant to receive a notice in a record stating that the claim is rejected and will be barred unless the claimant commences an action against the partnership to enforce the claim not later than ninety (90) days after the claimant receives the notice; and
(ii) The claimant does not commence the required action not later than ninety (90) days after the claimant receives the notice.

(d) This section does not apply to a claim based on an event occurring after the date of dissolution or a liability that on that date is contingent.

7-13.1-807. Other claims against dissolved limited partnership.

(a) A dissolved limited partnership may publish notice of its dissolution and request persons having claims against the partnership to present them in accordance with the notice.

(b) A notice under subsection (a) of this section must:

(1) Be published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in this state in which the dissolved limited partnership's principal office is or, if the principal office is not located in this state, in the county in which the office of the partnership's registered agent is or was last located;

(2) Describe the information required to be contained in a claim, state that the claim must be in writing, and provide a mailing address to which the claim is to be sent;

(3) State that a claim against the partnership is barred unless an action to enforce the claim is commenced not later than three (3) years after publication of the notice; and

(4) Unless the partnership has been throughout its existence a limited liability limited partnership, state that the barring of a claim against the partnership will also bar any corresponding claim against any general partner or person dissociated as a general partner which is based on § 7-13.1-404.

(c) If a dissolved limited partnership publishes a notice in accordance with subsection (b) of this section, the claim of each of the following claimants is barred unless the claimant commences an action to enforce the claim against the partnership not later than three (3) years after the publication date of the notice:

(1) A claimant that did not receive notice in a record under § 7-13.1-806;

(2) A claimant whose claim was timely sent to the partnership but not acted on; and

(3) A claimant whose claim is contingent at, or based on an event occurring after, the date of dissolution.

(d) A claim not barred under this section or § 7-13.1-806 may be enforced:

(1) Against the dissolved limited partnership, to the extent of its undistributed assets;

(2) Except as otherwise provided in § 7-13.1-808, if assets of the partnership have been distributed after dissolution, against a partner or transferee to the extent of that person's proportionate share of the claim or of the partnership's assets distributed to the partner or transferee after dissolution, whichever is less, but a person's total liability for all claims under this subsection may not exceed the total amount of assets distributed to the person after dissolution; and

(a) A dissolved limited partnership that has published a notice under § 7-13.1-807 may file an application with the superior court in the county where the partnership's principle office is located or, if the principal office in not located in this state, where the office of its registered agent is or was last located, for a determination of the amount and form of security to be provided for payment of claims that are contingent, have not been made known to the partnership, or are based on an event occurring after the date of dissolution but which, based on the facts known to the partnership, are reasonably expected to arise after the date of dissolution. Security is not required for any claim that is or is reasonably anticipated to be barred under § 7-13.1-807.

(b) Not later than ten (10) days after the filing of an application under subsection (a) of this section, the dissolved limited partnership shall give notice of the proceeding to each claimant holding a contingent claim known to the partnership.

(c) In a proceeding brought under this section, the court may appoint a guardian ad litem to represent all claimants whose identities are unknown. The reasonable fees and expenses of the guardian, including all reasonable expert witness fees, must be paid by the dissolved limited partnership.

(d) A dissolved limited partnership that provides security in the amount and form ordered by the court under subsection (a) of this section satisfies the partnership's obligations with respect to claims that are contingent, have not been made known to the partnership, or are based on an event occurring after the date of dissolution, and such claims may not be enforced against a partner or transferee on account of assets received in liquidation.

7-13.1-809. Liability of general partner and person dissociated as general partner when claim against limited partnership barred.

If a claim against a dissolved limited partnership is barred under §§ 7-13.1-806, 7-13.1-807, or 7-13.1-808, any corresponding claim under §§ 7-13.1-404 or 7-13.1-607 is also barred.

7-13.1-810. Disposition of assets in winding up -- When contributions required.

(a) In winding up its activities and affairs, a limited partnership shall apply its assets, including the contributions required by this section, to discharge the partnership's obligations to creditors, including partners that are creditors.

(b) After a limited partnership complies with subsection (a) of this section, any surplus must be distributed in the following order, subject to any charging order in effect under § 7-13.1-703:
(1) To each person owning a transferable interest that reflects contributions made and not previously returned, an amount equal to the value of the unreturned contributions; and

(2) Among persons owning transferable interests in proportion to their respective rights to share in distributions immediately before the dissolution of the partnership.

(c) If a limited partnership's assets are insufficient to satisfy all of its obligations under subsection (a) of this section, with respect to each unsatisfied obligation incurred when the partnership was not a limited liability limited partnership, the following rules apply:

(1) Each person that was a general partner when the obligation was incurred and that has not been released from the obligation under § 7-13.1-607 shall contribute to the partnership for the purpose of enabling the partnership to satisfy the obligation. The contribution due from each of those persons is in proportion to the right to receive distributions in the capacity of a general partner in effect for each of those persons when the obligation was incurred.

(2) If a person does not contribute the full amount required under subsection (c)(1) of this section with respect to an unsatisfied obligation of the partnership, the other persons required to contribute by subsection (c)(1) of this section on account of the obligation shall contribute the additional amount necessary to discharge the obligation. The additional contribution due from each of those other persons is in proportion to the right to receive distributions in the capacity of a general partner in effect for each of those other persons when the obligation was incurred.

(3) If a person does not make the additional contribution required by subsection (c)(2) of this section, further additional contributions are determined and due in the same manner as provided in that subsection.

(d) A person that makes an additional contribution under subsections (c)(2) or (c)(3) of this section may recover from any person whose failure to contribute under subsections (c)(1) or (c)(2) of this section necessitated the additional contribution. A person may not recover under this subsection more than the amount additionally contributed. A person's liability under this subsection may not exceed the amount the person failed to contribute.

(e) All distributions made under subsections (b) and (c) of this section must be paid in money.

(a) The certificate of limited partnership may be revoked by the secretary of state under the conditions prescribed in this section when it is established that:

(b) No certificate of limited partnership of a limited partnership shall be revoked by the secretary of state unless:

(1) The secretary of state shall have given the limited partnership notice thereof not less than sixty (60) days prior to such revocation by regular mail addressed to the registered agent in this state on file with the secretary of state's office, which notice shall specify the basis for the revocation; provided, however, that if a prior mailing addressed to the address of the registered agent of the limited partnership in this state currently on file with the secretary of state's office has been returned as undeliverable by the United States Postal Service for any reason, or if the revocation notice is returned as undeliverable by the United States Postal Service for any reason, the secretary of state shall give notice as follows:

(i) To the limited partnership at its principal office of record as shown in its most recent annual report, and no further notice shall be required; or
(ii) In the case of a limited partnership that has not yet filed an annual report, then to the limited partnership at the principal office in the certificate of limited partnership and no further notice shall be required; and

(2) The limited partnership fails prior to revocation to file the annual report, pay the fees or taxes, file the required statement of change of registered agent, file the articles of amendment or amendment to its registration or articles of dissolution, cancellation of registration, merger, or consolidation, or correct the misrepresentation.

(i) To the limited partnership at its principal office of record as shown in its most recent

(ii) In the case of a limited partnership that has not yet filed an annual report, then to the

(a) Within ten (10) years after issuing a certificate of revocation as provided in § 7-13.1-812, the secretary of state may withdraw the certificate of revocation and retroactively reinstate the except as subsequently provided:

(1) On the filing by the limited partnership of the documents it had previously failed to file as set forth in §§ 7-13.1-811(a)(3) through (6);

(d) When reinstatement under this section has become effective, the following rules apply:

(1) The reinstatement relates back to and takes effect as of the effective date of the certificate of revocation.

(3) The rights of a person arising out of an act or omission in reliance on the revocation before the person knew or had notice of the reinstatement are not affected.

PART 9

ACTIONS BY PARTNERS

7.13.1.901. Direct action by partner.

(a) Subject to subsection (b) of this section, a partner may maintain a direct action against another partner or the limited partnership, with or without an accounting as to the partnership's activities and affairs, to enforce the partner's rights and otherwise protect the partner's interests, including rights and interests under the partnership agreement or this chapter or arising independently of the partnership relationship.

(b) A partner maintaining a direct action under this section must plead and prove an actual or threatened injury that is not solely the result of an injury suffered or threatened to be suffered by the limited partnership.

(c) A right to an accounting on a dissolution and winding up does not revive a claim barred...

A partner may maintain a derivative action to enforce a right of a limited partnership if:

1. The partner first makes a demand on the general partners, requesting that they cause the partnership to bring an action to enforce the right, and the general partners do not bring the action within a reasonable time; or

2. A demand under subsection (1) of this section would be futile.

A derivative action to enforce a right of a limited partnership may be maintained only by a person that is a partner at the time the action is commenced and:

1. Was a partner when the conduct giving rise to the action occurred; or

2. Whose status as a partner devolved on the person by operation of law or pursuant to the terms of the partnership agreement from a person that was a partner at the time of the conduct.

In a derivative action, the complaint must state with particularity:

1. The date and content of plaintiff’s demand and the response to the demand by the general partner; or

2. Why the demand should be excused as futile.

7-13.1-905. Special litigation committee.

(a) If a limited partnership is named as or made a party in a derivative proceeding, the partnership may appoint a special litigation committee to investigate the claims asserted in the proceeding and determine whether pursuing the action is in the best interests of the partnership. If the partnership appoints a special litigation committee, on motion by the committee made in the name of the partnership, except for good cause shown, the court shall stay discovery for the time reasonably necessary to permit the committee to make its investigation. This subsection does not prevent the court from:

1. Enforcing a person's right to information under §§ 7-13.1-304 or 7-13.1-407; or

2. Granting extraordinary relief in the form of a temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction.

(b) A special litigation committee must be composed of one or more disinterested and independent individuals, who may be partners.

(c) A special litigation committee may be appointed:

1. By a majority of the general partners not named as parties in the proceeding; or

2. If all general partners are named as parties in the proceeding, by a majority of the general partners named as defendants.

(d) After appropriate investigation, a special litigation committee may determine that it is in the best interests of the limited partnership that the proceeding:

(1) Continue under the control of the plaintiff;

(2) Continue under the control of the committee;

(3) Be settled on terms approved by the committee; or

(4) Be dismissed.

(e) After making a determination under subsection (d) of this section, a special litigation committee shall file with the court a statement of its determination and its report supporting its determination and shall serve each party with a copy of the determination and report. The court shall determine whether the members of the committee were disinterested and independent and whether the committee conducted its investigation and made its recommendation in good faith, independently, and with reasonable care, with the committee having the burden of proof. If the court finds that the members of the committee were disinterested and independent and that the committee acted in good faith, independently, and with reasonable care, the court shall enforce the determination of the committee. Otherwise, the court shall dissolve the stay of discovery entered under subsection (a) of this section and allow the action to continue under the control of the plaintiff.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b) of this section:

(1) Any proceeds or other benefits of a derivative action, whether by judgment, compromise, or settlement, belong to the limited partnership and not to the plaintiff; and

(2) If the plaintiff receives any proceeds, the plaintiff shall remit them immediately to the partnership.

(b) If a derivative action is successful in whole or in part, the court may award the plaintiff reasonable expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, from the recovery of the limited partnership.

(c) A derivative action on behalf of a limited partnership may not be voluntarily dismissed or settled without the court's approval.

PART 10
FOREIGN LIMITED PARTNERSHIPS

(1) The internal affairs of the partnership;
(2) The liability of a partner as partner for a debt, obligation, or other liability of the partnership; and

(3) The liability of a series of the partnership.

(b) A foreign limited partnership is not precluded from registering to do business in this state because of any difference between the law of its jurisdiction of formation and the law of this state.

(c) Registration of a foreign limited partnership to do business in this state does not authorize the foreign partnership to engage in any activities and affairs or exercise any power that a limited partnership may not engage in or exercise in this state.

7-13.1-1002. Registration to do business in this state.

(a) A foreign limited partnership may not do business in this state until it registers with the secretary of state under this part.

(b) A foreign limited partnership doing business in this state may not maintain an action or proceeding in this state unless it is registered to do business in this state.

(c) The failure of a foreign limited partnership to register to do business in this state does not impair the validity of a contract or act of the partnership or preclude it from defending an action or proceeding in this state.

(d) A limitation on the liability of a general partner or limited partner of a foreign limited partnership is not waived solely because the partnership does business in this state without registering to do business in this state.

(e) Section 7-13.1-1001(a) and 7-13.1-1001(b) applies even if the foreign limited partnership fails to register under this part.

(9) Additional information as may be necessary or appropriate in order to enable the secretary of state to determine whether the foreign limited partnership is entitled to a certificate of authority to transact business in this state.

A registered foreign limited partnership shall deliver to the secretary of state for filing an amendment to its foreign registration statement if there is a change in:

(1) The name of the partnership;

(2) The alternate name adopted pursuant to § 7-13.1-1006(a); or

After registering to do business in this state with an alternate name, a partnership shall do business in this state under:

(1) The alternate name;
(2) The partnership's name, with the addition of its jurisdiction of formation; or
(3) A name the partnership is authorized to use under the law of this state other than this chapter.

(b) If a registered foreign limited partnership changes its name to one that does not comply with § 7-13.1-114, it may not do business in this state until it complies with subsection (a) of this section by amending its registration to adopt an alternate name that complies with § 7-13.1-114.

7-13.1-1007. Withdrawal deemed on conversion to domestic filing entity or domestic limited liability partnership.

A registered foreign limited partnership that converts to a domestic limited liability partnership or to a domestic entity whose formation requires delivery of a record to the secretary of state for filing is deemed to have withdrawn its registration on the effective date of the conversion.

7-13.1-1008. Withdrawal on dissolution or conversion to nonfiling entity other than limited liability partnership.

(a) A registered foreign limited partnership that has dissolved and completed winding up or has converted to a domestic or foreign entity whose formation does not require the public filing of a record, other than a limited liability partnership, shall deliver a statement of withdrawal to the secretary of state for filing. The statement must state:

   (i) Its name and jurisdiction of formation;
   (ii) That the partnership surrenders its registration to do business in this state;

(iv) A mailing address to which service of process may be made under subsection (b), of this section; and
(v) A statement that the limited partnership certifies that it has no outstanding tax action or proceeding based on a cause of action arising during the time the foreign limited partnership was registered to do business in this state may be made pursuant to § 7-13.1-121.

(a) When a registered foreign limited partnership has merged into a foreign entity that is not registered to do business in this state or has converted to a foreign entity required to register with the secretary of state to do business in this state, the foreign entity shall deliver to the secretary agent in this state.

(b) When an application for transfer of registration takes effect, the registration of the foreign limited partnership to do business in this state is transferred without interruption to the foreign entity into which the partnership has merged or to which it has been converted.

(a) The registration of a foreign limited partnership may be revoked by the secretary of state under the conditions prescribed in this section when it is established that:

(1) The limited partnership procured its certificate of registration through fraud;

(2) The limited partnership has continued to exceed or abuse the authority conferred upon it by law;

(3) The limited partnership has failed to file its annual report within the time required by this chapter;

(4) The limited partnership has failed to pay any required fees to the secretary of state when

(b) The authority of the registered foreign limited partnership to do business in this state ceases on the effective date of the certificate of revocation, or to apply for reinstatement under § 7-13.1-1012.

(c) The revocation of a limited partnership does not terminate the authority of its registered agent.

(a) Within ten (10) years after issuing a certificate of revocation as provided in § 7-13.1-1011, the secretary of state may withdraw the certificate of revocation and retroactively reinstate the limited partnership in good standing as if its certificate of registration of limited partnership had not been revoked except as subsequently provided:

(d) When reinstatement under this section has become effective, the following rules apply:

(3) The rights of a person arising out of an act or omission in reliance on the revocation before the person knew or had notice of the reinstatement are not affected.

Unless prohibited by the plan, a domestic converting limited partnership may abandon the plan in the same manner as the plan was approved.

(c) If a plan of conversion is abandoned after a statement of conversion has been delivered to the secretary of state for filing and before the statement becomes effective, a statement of abandonment, signed by the converting entity, must be delivered to the secretary of state for filing before the statement of conversion becomes effective. The statement of abandonment takes effect on filing, and the conversion is abandoned and does not become effective. The statement of abandonment must contain:

(1) The name of the converting limited partnership:
(2) The date on which the statement of conversion was filed by the secretary of state; and

(3) A statement that the conversion has been abandoned in accordance with this section.

(a) A statement of conversion must be signed by the converting entity and delivered to the secretary of state for filing.

(b) A statement of conversion must contain:

(1) The name, jurisdiction of formation, and type of entity of the converting entity;

(2) The name, jurisdiction of formation, and type of entity of the converted entity;

(3) If the converting entity is a domestic limited partnership, a statement that the plan of conversion was approved in accordance with this subpart or, if the converting entity is a foreign entity, a statement that the conversion was approved by the foreign entity in accordance with the law of its jurisdiction of formation;

(4) If the converted entity is a domestic filing entity, its public organic record, as an attachment; and

(5) If the converted entity is a domestic limited liability partnership, its statement of qualification, as an attachment.

(c) In addition to the requirements of subsection (b) of this section, a statement of conversion may contain any other provision not prohibited by law.

(d) If the converted entity is a domestic entity, its public organic record, if any, must satisfy the requirements of the law of this state, except that the public organic record does not need to be signed.

(e) If the converted entity is a domestic limited partnership, the conversion becomes effective when the statement of conversion is effective. In all other cases, the conversion becomes effective on the later of:

(1) The date and time provided by the organic law of the converted entity; and

(2) When the statement is effective.

(a) When a conversion becomes effective:

(1) The converted entity is:

(i) Organized under and thereafter subject to the organic law of the converted entity; and

(ii) The same entity without interruption as the converting entity;

(2) All property of the converting entity continues to be vested in the converted entity without transfer, reversion, or impairment;

(3) All debts, obligations, and other liabilities of the converting entity continue as debts, obligations, and other liabilities of the converted entity;

(4) Except as otherwise provided by law or the plan of conversion, all the rights, privileges, immunities, powers, and purposes of the converting entity remain in the converted entity;

(5) The name of the converted entity may be substituted for the name of the converting entity in any pending action or proceeding;

(6) The certificate of limited partnership of the converted entity becomes effective;

(7) The provisions of the partnership agreement of the converted entity which are to be in a record, if any, approved as part of the plan of conversion become effective; and

(8) The interests in the converting entity are converted, and the interest holders of the converting entity are entitled only to the rights provided to them under the plan of conversion and to any appraisal rights they have under § 7-13.1-1106.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in the partnership agreement of a domestic converting limited partnership, the conversion does not give rise to any rights that a partner or third party would have upon a dissolution, liquidation, or winding up of the converting entity.

(c) When a conversion becomes effective, a person that did not have interest holder liability with respect to the converting entity and becomes subject to interest holder liability with respect to a domestic entity as a result of the conversion has interest holder liability only to the extent provided by the organic law of the entity and only for those debts, obligations, and other liabilities that are incurred after the conversion becomes effective.

(d) When a conversion becomes effective, the interest holder liability of a person that ceases to hold an interest in a domestic converting limited partnership with respect to which the person had interest holder liability is subject to the following rules:

(1) The conversion does not discharge any interest holder liability under this chapter to the extent the interest holder liability was incurred before the conversion became effective.

(2) The person does not have interest holder liability under this chapter for any debt, obligation, or other liability that is incurred after the conversion becomes effective.

(3) This chapter continues to apply to the release, collection, or discharge of any interest holder liability preserved under subsection (d)(1) of this section as if the conversion had not occurred.

(4) The person has whatever rights of contribution from any other person as are provided by this chapter, law other than this chapter, or the organic rules of the converting entity with respect to any interest holder liability preserved under subsection (d)(1) of this section as if the conversion had not occurred.

(e) When a conversion becomes effective, a foreign entity that is the converted entity may be served with process in this state for the collection and enforcement of any of its debts, obligations, and other liabilities as provided in § 7-13.1-121.

(f) If the converting entity is a registered foreign entity, its registration to do business in this state is canceled when the conversion becomes effective.

(g) A conversion does not require the entity to wind up its affairs and does not constitute or cause the dissolution of the entity.

DOMESTICATION

(a) By complying with this subpart, a domestic limited partnership may become a foreign limited partnership if the domestication is authorized by the law of the foreign jurisdiction.

(b) By complying with the provisions of this subpart applicable to foreign limited partnerships, a foreign limited partnership may become a domestic limited partnership if the domestication is authorized by the law of the foreign limited partnership's jurisdiction of formation.

(c) If a protected agreement contains a provision that applies to a merger of a domestic limited partnership but does not refer to a domestication, the provision applies to a domestication of the limited partnership as if the domestication were a merger until the provision is amended after the effective date of this chapter.

(a) A domestic limited partnership may become a foreign limited partnership in a domestication by approving a plan of domestication. The plan must be in a record and contain:

(1) The name of the domesticating limited partnership;

(2) The name and jurisdiction of formation of the domesticated limited partnership;

(3) The manner of converting the interests in the domesticating limited partnership into interests, securities, obligations, money, other property, rights to acquire interests or securities, or any combination of the foregoing;

(4) The proposed certificate of limited partnership of the domesticated limited partnership;

(5) The full text of the provisions of the partnership agreement of the domesticated limited partnership, that are proposed to be in a record;

(6) The other terms and conditions of the domestication; and

(7) Any other provision required by the law of this state or the partnership agreement of the domesticating limited partnership.

(b) In addition to the requirements of subsection (a) of this section, a plan of domestication may contain any other provision not prohibited by law.

(a) A plan of domestication of a domestic domesticating limited partnership is not effective unless it has been approved:

(1) By all the partners entitled to vote on or consent to any matter; and

(2) In a record, by each partner that will have interest holder liability for debts, obligations, and other liabilities that are incurred after the domestication becomes effective, unless:

(i) The partnership agreement of the domesticating partnership in a record provides for the approval of a domestication or merger in which some or all of its partners become subject to interest holder liability by the affirmative vote or consent of fewer than all the partners; and

(ii) The partner voted for or consented in a record to that provision of the partnership agreement or became a partner after the adoption of that provision.

(b) A domestication of a foreign domesticating limited partnership is not effective unless it is approved in accordance with the law of the foreign limited partnership's jurisdiction of formation.

7-13.1-1154. Amendment or abandonment of plan of domestication.

(a) A plan of domestication of a domestic domesticating limited partnership may be amended:

(1) In the same manner as the plan was approved, if the plan does not provide for the manner in which it may be amended; or

(2) By its partners in the manner provided in the plan, but a partner that was entitled to vote on or consent to approval of the domestication is entitled to vote on or consent to any amendment of the plan that will change:

(i) The amount or kind of interests, securities, obligations, money, other property, rights to acquire interests or securities, or any combination of the foregoing, to be received by any of the partners of the domesticating limited partnership under the plan;

(ii) The certificate of limited partnership or partnership agreement of the domesticated limited partnership that will be in effect immediately after the domestication becomes effective, except for changes that do not require approval of the partners of the domesticated limited partnership under its organic law or partnership agreement; or

(iii) Any other terms or conditions of the plan, if the change would adversely affect the partner in any material respect.

(b) After a plan of domestication has been approved by a domestic domesticating limited partnership and before a statement of domestication becomes effective, the plan may be abandoned as provided in the plan. Unless prohibited by the plan, a domestic domesticating limited partnership may abandon the plan in the same manner as the plan was approved.

c) If a plan of domestication is abandoned after a statement of domestication has been delivered to the secretary of state for filing and before the statement becomes effective, a statement of abandonment, signed by the domesticating limited partnership, must be delivered to the secretary of state for filing before the statement of domestication becomes effective. The statement of abandonment takes effect on filing, and the domestication is abandoned and does not become effective. The statement of abandonment must contain:

1. The name of the domesticating limited partnership;
2. The date on which the statement of domestication was filed by the secretary of state;
and

3. A statement that the domestication has been abandoned in accordance with this section.

(a) A statement of domestication must be signed by the domesticating limited partnership and delivered to the secretary of state for filing.

(b) A statement of domestication must contain:

in accordance with the law of its jurisdiction of formation; and

4. The certificate of limited partnership of the domesticated limited partnership, as an attachment.

(c) In addition to the requirements of subsection (b) of this section, a statement of domestication may contain any other provision not prohibited by law.

(d) The certificate of limited partnership of a domesticated domestic limited partnership must satisfy the requirements of this chapter, but the certificate does not need to be signed.

(e) If the domesticated entity is a domestic limited partnership, the domestication becomes effective when the statement of domestication is effective. If the domesticated entity is a foreign limited partnership, the domestication becomes effective on the later of:

1. The date and time provided by the organic law of the domesticated entity; and
2. When the statement is effective.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in the organic law or partnership agreement of the domesticating limited partnership, the domestication does not give rise to any rights that a partner or third party would have upon a dissolution, liquidation, or winding up of the domesticating partnership.

(c) When a domestication becomes effective, a person that did not have interest holder liability with respect to the domesticating limited partnership and becomes subject to interest holder liability with respect to a domestic limited partnership as a result of the domestication has interest holder liability only to the extent provided by this chapter and only for those debts, obligations, and other liabilities that are incurred after the domestication becomes effective.

(d) When a domestication becomes effective, the interest holder liability of a person that ceases to hold an interest in a domesticating limited partnership with respect to which the person had interest holder liability is subject to the following rules:

(1) The domestication does not discharge any interest holder liability under this chapter to the extent the interest holder liability was incurred before the domestication became effective.
(2) A person does not have interest holder liability under this chapter for any debt, obligation, or other liability that is incurred after the domestication becomes effective.
