7-12-14. Interpretation of knowledge and notice.

(a) A person has “knowledge” of a fact within the meaning of §§ 7-12-12 — 7-12-55 not only when he or she has actual knowledge of it, but also when he or she has knowledge of any other facts that in the circumstances show bad faith.

(b) A person has “notice” of a fact within the meaning of §§ 7-12-12 — 7-12-55 when the person who claims the benefit of the notice:

7-12-16. Rules for cases not provided for.

In any case not provided for in §§ 7-12-12 — 7-12-55, the rules of law and equity, including the law merchant, govern.

7-12-17. Partnership defined.

(a) A partnership is an association of two (2) or more persons to carry on as co-owners a business for profit, and includes a registered limited-liability partnership.

(b) Any association formed under any other statute of this state, or any statute adopted by authority, other than the authority of the state, is not a partnership under §§ 7-12-12 — 7-12-59, unless the association would have been a partnership in this state prior to May 6, 1957; but §§ 7-12-12 — 7-12-59 apply to limited partnerships except insofar as the statutes relating to partnerships
7-12-18. Rules for determining the existence of a partnership.

In determining whether a partnership exists, these rules apply:

(1) Except as provided by § 7-12-27, persons who are not partners as to each other are not partners as to third persons.

(2) Joint tenancy, tenancy in common, tenancy by the entireties, joint property, common property, or part ownership does not of itself establish a partnership, whether the co-owners do or do not share any profits made by the use of the property.

(3) The sharing of gross returns does not of itself establish a partnership, whether or not the persons sharing them have a joint or common right or interest in any property from which the returns are derived.

(4) The receipt by a person of a share of the profits of a business is prima facie evidence that he or she is a partner in the business, but no such inference is drawn if profits were received in payment:

(i) As a debt by installments or otherwise;

(ii) As wages of an employee or rent to a landlord;

(iii) As an annuity to a widow or representative of a deceased partner;

(iv) As interest on a loan, though the amount of payment vary with the profits of the business;

(v) As the consideration for the sale of a good will of a business or other property by installments or otherwise.

7-12-19. Partnership property.

(a) All property originally brought into the partnership stock or subsequently acquired by purchase or otherwise, on account of the partnership, is partnership property.

(b) Unless the contrary intention appears, property acquired with partnership funds is partnership property.

(c) Any estate in real property may be acquired in the partnership name. Title so acquired can be conveyed only in the partnership name.

(d) A conveyance to a partnership in the partnership name, though without words of inheritance, passes the entire estate of the grantor unless a contrary intent appears.

7-12-20. Partner agent of partnership as to partnership business.

(a) Every partner is an agent of the partnership for the purpose of its business, and the act of every partner, including the execution in the partnership name of any instrument, for apparently carrying on in the usual way the business of the partnership of which he or she is a member, binds the partnership, unless the partner so acting has in fact no authority to act for the partnership in the particular matter, and the person with whom he or she is dealing has knowledge of the fact that he or she has no authority.

(b) An act of a partner that is not apparently for the carrying on of the business of the partnership in the usual way does not bind the partnership unless authorized by the other partners.

c) Unless authorized by the other partners or unless they have abandoned the business, one or more but less than all the partners have no authority to:

(1) Assign the partnership property in trust for creditors or on the assignee's promise to pay the debts of the partnership;
(2) Dispose of the good will of the business;
(3) Do any other act that would make it impossible to carry on the ordinary business of a partnership;
(4) Confess a judgment;
(5) Submit a partnership claim or liability to arbitration or reference.

d) No act of a partner in contravention of a restriction on authority shall bind the partnership to persons having knowledge of the restriction.

7-12-21. Conveyance of real property of the partnership.

(a) Where title to real property is in the partnership name, any partner may convey title to the property by a conveyance executed in the partnership name; but the partnership may recover the property unless the partner's act binds the partnership under the provisions of § 7-12-20(a), or unless the property has been conveyed by the grantee or a person claiming through the grantee to a holder for value without knowledge that the partner, in making the conveyance, has exceeded his or her authority.

(b) Where title to real property is in the name of the partnership, a conveyance executed by a partner, in his or her own name, passes the equitable interest of the partnership, provided the act is one within the authority of the partner under the provisions of § 7-12-20(a).

(c) Where title to real property is in the name of one or more but not all the partners, and the record does not disclose the right of the partnership, the partners in whose name the title stands may convey title to the property, but the partnership may recover the property if the partners' act does not bind the partnership under the provisions of § 7-12-20(a) unless the purchaser or his or her assignee, is a holder for value, without knowledge.

(d) Where the title to real property is in the name of one or more or all of the partners, or in a third person in trust for the partnership, a conveyance executed by a partner in the partnership name, or in his or her own name, passes the equitable interest of the partnership, provided the act is one within the authority of the partner under the provision of § 7-12-20(a).

e) Where the title to real property is in the names of all the partners a conveyance executed by all the partners passes all their rights in the property.

7-12-22. Partnership bound by admission of partner.

An admission or representation made by any partner concerning partnership affairs within the scope of his or her authority as conferred by §§ 7-12-12 - 7-12-20 is evidence against the partnership.

7-12-23. Partnership charged with knowledge of or notice to partner.

Notice to any partner of any matter relating to partnership affairs, and the knowledge of the partners acting in the particular matter, acquired while a partner or then present to his or her mind, and the knowledge of any other partner who reasonably could and should have communicated it to the acting partner, operate as notice to or knowledge of the partnership, except in the case of a fraud on the partnership committed by or with the consent of that partner.

7-12-24. Partnership bound by partner's wrongful act.

Where, by any wrongful act or omission of any partner acting in the ordinary course of the business of the partnership or with the authority of his or her copartners, loss or injury is caused to any person, not being a partner in the partnership, or any penalty is incurred, the partnership is liable for the loss, injury, or penalty to the same extent as the partner acting or omitting to act.

7-12-25. Partnership bound by partner's breach of trust.

The partnership is bound to make good the loss:

(1) Where one partner acting within the scope of his or her apparent authority receives money or property of a third person and misapplies it; and

(2) Where the partnership in the course of its business receives money or property of a third person and the money or property so received is misapplied by any partner while it is in the custody of the partnership.

(a) All partners are liable, except as provided in subsection (b):

(1) Jointly and severally for everything chargeable to the partnership under §§ 7-12-24 and 7-12-25.

(2) Jointly for all other debts and obligations of the partnership, but any partner may enter into a separate obligation to perform a partnership contract.

(b) Subject to subsection (c), a partner in a registered limited liability partnership is not liable, directly or indirectly (including by way of indemnification, contribution, assessment or otherwise), for debts, obligations, and liabilities of, or chargeable to, the partnership whether in tort, contract, or otherwise, arising while the partnership is a registered limited liability partnership.

(c) Subsection (b) does not affect the individual liability of a partner in a registered limited liability partnership for his or her own negligence, wrongful acts or misconduct, or that of any person under that partner's direct supervision and control other than in an administrative capacity.

(d) A partner in a registered limited liability partnership is not a proper party in his or her individual capacity to a proceeding by or against a registered limited-liability partnership the object of which is to recover damages or enforce the obligations of the registered limited-liability partnership, unless the partner is personally liable under subsection (c).

(e) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, the personal liability of a partner in a limited-liability partnership engaged in the rendering of professional services is not less than or greater than the personal liability of a shareholder of a professional corporation organized under chapter 5.1 of this title engaged in the rendering of the same professional services.

7-12-27. Partner by estoppel.

(a) When a person, by words spoken or written or by conduct, represents himself or herself, or consents to another representing him or her to any one, as a partner in an existing partnership or with one or more persons not actual partners, be or she is liable to any person to whom the representation has been made, who has, on the faith of the representation, given credit to the actual or apparent partnership, and if he or she has made a representation or consented to its being made in a public manner, he or she is liable to the person, whether the representation has or has not been made or communicated to the person giving credit by or with the knowledge of the apparent partner making the representation or consenting to its being made.

(1) When a partnership liability results, he or she is liable as though he or she were an actual member of the partnership.

(2) When no partnership liability results, he or she is liable jointly with the other persons, if any, so consenting to the contract or representation as to incur liability, otherwise separately.

(b) When a person is represented to be a partner in an existing partnership, or with one or more persons not actual partners, be or she is an agent of the persons consenting to the representation to bind them to the same extent and in the same manner as though he or she were a partner in fact, with respect to persons who rely on the representation. Where all the members of the existing partnership consent to the representation, a partnership act or obligation results; but in all other cases it is the joint act or obligation of the person acting and the persons consenting to the representation.

7-12-28. Liability of incoming partner.

A person admitted as a partner into an existing partnership is liable for all the obligations of the partnership arising before his or her admission as though he or she had been a partner when the obligations were incurred, except that this liability is satisfied only out of partnership property.

7-12-29. Rules determining rights and duties of partners.

The rights and duties of the partners in relation to the partnership are determined, subject to any agreement between them, by the following rules:

(1) Each partner is repaid his or her contributions, whether by way of capital or advances to the partnership property, and shares equally in the profits and surplus remaining after all liabilities, including those to partners, are satisfied; and except as provided in § 7-12-26(b), each partner must contribute toward the losses, whether of capital or otherwise, sustained by the partnership according to his or her share in the profits.

(2) The partnership must indemnify every partner in respect of payments made and personal liabilities reasonably incurred by him or her in the ordinary and proper conduct of its business, or for the preservation of its business or property.

(3) A partner, who in aid of the partnership makes any payment or advance beyond the amount of capital that he or she agreed to contribute, is paid interest from the date of the payment or advance.

(4) A partner receives interest on the capital contributed by him or her only from the date when repayment should be made.

(5) All partners have equal rights in the management and conduct of the partnership business.

(6) No partner is entitled to remuneration for acting in the partnership business, except that a surviving partner is entitled to reasonable compensation for his or her services in winding up the partnership affairs.

(7) No person can become a member of a partnership without the consent of all the partners.

(8) Any difference arising as to ordinary matters connected with the partnership business may be decided by a majority of the partners; but no act in contravention of any agreement between the partners may be done rightfully without the consent of all the partners.

7-12-30. Partnership books.

The partnership books are kept, subject to any agreement between the partners, at the principal place of business of the partnership, and every partner shall at all times have access to and may inspect and copy any of them.

7-12-31. Duty of partners to render information.

Partners shall render on demand true and full information of all things affecting the partnership to any partner or the legal representative of any deceased partner or partner under legal disability.

7-12-32. Partner accountable as a fiduciary.

(a) Every partner must account to the partnership for any benefit, and hold as trustee for it any profits derived by him or her without the consent of the other partners from any transaction connected with the formation, conduct, or liquidation of the partnership or from any use by him or her of its property.

(b) This section applies also to the representatives of a deceased partner engaged in the liquidation of the affairs of the partnership as the personal representatives of the last surviving partner.

7-12-33. Right to an account.

Any partner has the right to a formal account as to partnership affairs:

(1) If he or she is wrongfully excluded from the partnership business or possession of its property by his or her copartners.

(2) If the right exists under the terms of any agreement.

(3) As provided by § 7-12-32.

(4) Whenever other circumstances render it just and reasonable.

7-12-34. Continuation of partnership beyond fixed term.

(a) When a partnership for a fixed term or particular undertaking is continued after the termination of the term or particular undertaking without any express agreement, the rights and duties of the partners remain the same as they were at the termination, insofar as is consistent with a partnership at will.

(b) A continuation of the business by the partners or those of them who habitually acted in the partnership during the term, without any settlement or liquidation of the partnership affairs, is prima facie evidence of a continuation of the partnership.

7-12-35. Extent of property rights of a partner.

The property rights of a partner are:

(1) His or her rights in specific partnership property;

(2) His or her interest in the partnership; and

(3) His or her rights to participate in the management.

7-12-36. Nature of a partner’s right in specific partnership property.

(a) A partner is co-owner with his or her partners of specific partnership property holding as a tenant in partnership.

(b) The incidents of this tenancy are such that:

(1) A partner, subject to the provisions of §§ 7-12-12 -- 7-12-55 and to any agreement... between the partners, has an equal right with his or her partners to possess specific partnership property for partnership purposes; but he or she has no right to possess the property for any other purpose without the consent of his or her partners.

(2) A partner's right in specific partnership property is not assignable, except in connection with the assignment of rights of all the partners in the same property.

(3) A partner's right in specific partnership property is not subject to attachment or execution, except on a claim against the partnership. When partnership property is attached for a partnership debt, the partners, or any of them, or the representatives of a deceased partner, cannot claim any right under the exemption laws.

(4) On the death of a partner, his or her right in specific partnership property vests in the surviving partner or partners, except where the deceased was the last surviving partner, when his or her right in the property vests in his or her legal representative. The surviving partner, or partners, or the legal representative of the last surviving partner, has no right to possess the partnership property for any but a partnership purpose.

(5) A partner's right in specific partnership property is not subject to dower, curtesy, or allowances to widows, heirs, or next of kin.

7-12-37. Nature of partner's interest in the partnership.

A partner's interest in the partnership is his or her share of the profits and surplus, and his or her share of the profits and surplus is personal property.

7-12-38. Assignment of partner's interest.

(a) A conveyance by a partner of his or her interest in the partnership does not of itself dissolve the partnership, nor, as against the other partners in the absence of agreement, entitle the assignee, during the continuance of the partnership, to interfere in the management or administration of the partnership business or affairs, to require any information or account of partnership transactions, or to inspect the partnership book. It merely entitles the assignee to receive, in accordance with his or her contract, the profits to which the assigning partner would otherwise be entitled.

(b) In case of a dissolution of the partnership, the assignee is entitled to receive his or her assignor's interest and may require an account from the date only of the last account agreed to by all the partners.

7-12-39. Partner's interest subject to charging order.

(a) On the application to the superior court by any judgment creditor of a partner, the court may charge the interest of the debtor partner with payment of the unsatisfied amount of the judgment debt with interest on it; and may then or later appoint a receiver of his or her share of the profits, and of any other money due, or to fall due, to him or her in respect of the partnership, and make all other orders, directions, accounts, and inquiries that the debtor partner might have made, or that the circumstances of the case require.

(b) The interest charged may be redeemed at any time before foreclosure, or in case of a sale being directed by the court, may be purchased without causing a dissolution:

(1) With separate property, by any one or more of the partners; or

(2) With partnership property, by any one or more of the partners with the consent of all the partners whose interests are not so charged or sold.

(c) Nothing in §§ 7-12-12 - 7-12-55 deprives a partner of his or her right, if any, under the exemption laws, regarding his interest in the partnership.

7-12-40. Dissolution defined.
The dissolution of a partnership is the change in the relation of the partners caused by any partner ceasing to be associated in the carrying on as distinguished from the winding up of the business.

7-12-41. Partnership not terminated by dissolution.
On dissolution the partnership is not terminated, but continues until the winding up of partnership affairs is completed.

7-12-42. Causes of dissolution.
Dissolution is caused:

(1) Without violation of the agreement between the partners:

(i) By the termination of the definite term or particular undertaking specified in the agreement;

(ii) By the express will of any partner when no definite term or particular undertaking is specified;

(iii) By the express will of all the partners who have not assigned their interests or suffered them to be charged for their separate debts, either before or after the termination of any specified term or particular undertaking;

(iv) By the expulsion of any partner from the business bona fide in accordance with the power conferred by the agreement between the partners;

(2) In contravention of the agreement between the partners, where the circumstances do not permit a dissolution under any other provision of this section, by the express will of any partner at any time:

(3) By any event that makes it unlawful for the business of the partnership to be carried on or for the members to carry it on in partnership;
(4) By the death of any partner;
(5) By the bankruptcy of any partner or the partnership;
(6) By decree of court under § 7-12-43.

7-12-43. Dissolution by decree of court.
(a) On application by or for a partner, the court shall decree a dissolution whenever:
(1) A partner has been declared mentally incompetent in any judicial proceeding or is shown to be of unsound mind;
(2) A partner becomes in any other way incapable of performing his or her part of the partnership contract;
(3) A partner has been guilty of any conduct that tends to affect prejudicially the carrying on of the business;
(4) A partner willfully or persistently commits a breach of the partnership agreement, or otherwise so conducts him or herself in matters relating to the partnership business that it is not reasonably practicable to carry on the business in partnership with him or her;
(5) The business of the partnership can only be carried on at a loss;
(6) Other circumstances render a dissolution equitable.
(b) On the application of the purchaser of a partner's interest under §§ 7-12-38 and 7-12-29, the court shall decree a dissolution:
(1) After the termination of the specified term or particular undertaking;
(2) At any time if the partnership was a partnership at will when the interest was assigned or when the charging order was issued.

7-12-44. General effect of dissolution on authority of partner.
Except insofar as is necessary to wind up partnership affairs or to complete transactions begun but not then finished, dissolution terminates all authority of any partner to act for the partnership:
(1) Regarding the partners:
(i) When the dissolution is not by the act, bankruptcy, or death of a partner; or
(ii) When the dissolution is by the act, bankruptcy, or death of a partner, in cases where § 29 7-12-45 so requires.
(2) With respect to persons not partners, as declared in § 7-12-46.

7-12-45. Right of partner to contribution from copartners after dissolution.
Where the dissolution is caused by the act, death, or bankruptcy of a partner, each partner is liable to his or her copartners for his or her share of any liability created by any partner acting for the partnership as if the partnership had not been dissolved, unless:
(1) The dissolution being by act of any partner, the partner acting for the partnership had knowledge of the dissolution;

(2) The dissolution being by the death or bankruptcy of a partner, the partner acting for the partnership had knowledge or notice of the death or bankruptcy; or

(3) The liability is for a debt or obligation for which the partner is not liable as provided in § 7-12-26(b).

7-12-46. Power of partner to bind partnership to third persons after dissolution.

(a) After dissolution, a partner can bind the partnership except as provided in subsection (c) by:

1. Any act appropriate for winding up partnership affairs or completing transactions unfinished at dissolution;

2. Any transaction that would bind the partnership if dissolution had not taken place, provided the other party to the transaction:

   i. Had extended credit to the partnership prior to dissolution and had no knowledge or notice of the dissolution; or

   ii. Though he or she had not so extended credit, had nevertheless known of the partnership prior to dissolution, and, having no knowledge or notice of dissolution, the fact of dissolution had not been advertised in a newspaper of general circulation in the place (or in each place if more than one) at which the partnership business was regularly carried on.

(b) The liability of a partner under subsection (a)(2) shall be satisfied out of partnership assets alone, when the partner had been, prior to dissolution:

1. Unknown as a partner to the person with whom the contract is made; and

2. So far unknown and inactive in partnership affairs that the business reputation of the partnership could not be said to have been in any degree due to his or her connection with it.

(c) The partnership is in no case bound by any act of a partner after dissolution where:

1. The partnership is dissolved because it is unlawful to carry on the business, unless the act is appropriate for winding up partnership affairs;

2. The partner has become bankrupt; or

3. The partner has no authority to wind up partnership affairs, except by a transaction with one who:

   i. Had extended credit to the partnership prior to dissolution and had no knowledge or notice of his or her want of authority; or

   ii. Had not extended credit to the partnership prior to dissolution, and, having no knowledge or notice of his or her want of authority, the fact of his or her want of authority has not been advertised in the manner provided for advertising the fact of dissolution in subsection (a)(2)(ii).

(d) Nothing in this section affects the liability under § 7-12-27 of any person who after dissolution represents him or herself or consents to another representing him or her as a partner in a partnership engaged in carrying on business.

7-12-47. Effect of dissolution on partner’s existing liability.

(a) The dissolution of the partnership does not of itself discharge the existing liability of any partner.

(b) A partner is discharged from any existing liability upon dissolution of the partnership by an agreement to that effect between himself or herself, the partnership creditor, and the person or partnership continuing the business. An agreement may be inferred from the course of dealing between the creditor having knowledge of the dissolution and the person or partnership continuing the business.

(c) Where a person agrees to assume the existing obligations of a dissolved partnership, the partners whose obligations have been assumed are discharged from any liability to any creditor of the partnership who, knowing of the agreement, consents to a material alteration in the nature or time of payment of the obligations.

(d) The individual property of a deceased partner is liable for those obligations of the partnership incurred while he or she was a partner and for which he or she is liable under § 7-12-26, but subject to the prior payment of his or her separate debts.

7-12-48. Right to wind up.

Unless otherwise agreed, the partners who have not wrongfully dissolved the partnership or the legal representative of the last surviving partner, not bankrupt, has the right to wind up the partnership affairs; provided, that any partner, his or her legal representative, or his or her assignee may obtain winding up by the court upon cause shown.

7-12-49. Rights of partners to application of partnership property.

(a) When dissolution is caused in any way, except in contravention of the partnership agreement, each partner, as against his or her copartners and all persons claiming through them in respect of their interests in the partnership, unless otherwise agreed, may have the partnership property applied to discharge its liabilities, and the surplus applied to pay in cash the net amount owing to the respective partners. But if dissolution is caused by the expulsion of a bona fide partner under the partnership agreement, and if the expelled partner is discharged from all partnership liabilities, either by payment or agreement under § 7-12-47(b), he or she receives in cash only the net amount due him or her from the partnership.
(b) When dissolution is caused in contravention of the partnership agreement, the rights of the partners are as follows:

(1) Each partner who has not wrongfully caused dissolution has:

(i) All the rights specified in subsection (a); and

(ii) The right, as against each partner who has wrongfully caused the dissolution, to damages for breach of the agreement.

(2) The partners who have not wrongfully caused the dissolution, if they all desire to continue the business in the same name, either by themselves or jointly with others, may do so during the agreed term for the partnership and for that purpose may possess the partnership property, provided they secure the payment by bond approved by the court, or pay to any partner who has wrongfully caused the dissolution, the value of his or her interest in the partnership at the dissolution, less any damages recoverable under subsection (b)(1)(ii), and in like manner indemnify him or her against all present or future partnership liabilities.

(3) A partner who has wrongfully caused the dissolution has:

(i) If the business is not continued under the provisions of subsection (b)(2), all the rights of a partner under subsection (a), subject to subsection (b)(1)(ii);

(ii) If the business is continued under subsection (b)(2), the right as against his or her copartners, and all claiming through them as to their interests in the partnership, to have the value of his or her interest in the partnership, less any damages caused to his or her copartners by the dissolution, ascertained and paid to him or her in cash, or the payment secured by bond approved by the court, and to be released from all existing liabilities of the partnership; but in ascertaining the value of the partner's interest, the value of the good will of the business is not considered.

7-12-50. Rights where partnership is dissolved for fraud or misrepresentation.

Where a partnership contract is rescinded on the ground of the fraud or misrepresentation of one of the parties to the contract, the party entitled to rescind is, without prejudice to any other right, entitled to:

(1) A lien on, or right of retention of, the surplus of the partnership property, after satisfying the partnership liabilities to third persons, for any sum of money paid by him or her for the purchase of an interest in the partnership and for any capital or advances contributed by him; and

(2) Stand, after all liabilities to third persons have been satisfied, in the place of the creditors of the partnership for any payments made by him or her as to the partnership liabilities; and

(3) Indemnification by the person guilty of the fraud or making the representation against all debts and liabilities of the partnership.

7-12-51. Rules for distribution.
In settling accounts between the partners after dissolution, the following rules are observed, subject to any agreement to the contrary:

1. The assets of the partnership are:
   (i) The partnership property;
   (ii) The contributions of the partners specified in subdivision (4).

2. The liabilities of the partnership rank in order of payment, as follows:
   (i) Those owing to creditors other than partners;
   (ii) Those owing to partners other than for capital and profits;
   (iii) Those owing to partners in respect of capital;
   (iv) Those owing to partners in respect of profits.

3. The assets are applied in the order of their declaration in subdivision (1) to the satisfaction of the liabilities.

4. Except as provided in § 7-12-26(b), the partners shall contribute, as provided by § 7-12-29(1), the amount necessary to satisfy the liabilities; but if any, but not all, of the partners are insolvent, or not being subject to process, refuse to contribute, the other partners shall contribute their share of the liabilities, and, in the relative proportions in which they share the profits, the additional amount necessary to pay the liabilities.

5. An assignee for the benefit of creditors of any person appointed by the court has the right to enforce the contributions specified in subdivision (4).

6. Any partner, or his or her legal representative, has the right to enforce the contributions specified in subdivision (4), to the extent of the amount that he or she has paid in excess of his or her share.

7. The individual property of a deceased partner is liable for the contributions specified in subdivision (4).

8. When partnership property and the individual properties of the partners are in possession of a court for distribution, partnership creditors have priority on partnership property and separate creditors on individual property, saving the rights of lien or secured creditors as previously.

9. Where a partner has become bankrupt, or his or her estate is insolvent, the claims against his or her separate property rank in the following order:
   (i) Those owing to separate creditors;
   (ii) Those owing to partnership creditors;
   (iii) Those owing to partners by way of contribution.

7-12-52. Liability of persons continuing the business in certain cases.
(a) When any new partner is admitted into an existing partnership, or when any partner retires and assigns (or the representative of the deceased partner assigns) his or her rights in partnership property to two (2) or more of the partners, or to one or more of the partners, and one or more third persons, if the business is continued without liquidation of the partnership affairs, creditors of the first or dissolved partnership are also creditors of the partnership continuing the business.

(b) When all but one partner retire and assign (or the representative of the deceased partner assigns) their rights in partnership property to the remaining partner, who continues the business without liquidation of partnership affairs, either alone or with others, creditors of the dissolved partnership are also creditors of the person or partnership continuing the business.

(c) When any partner retires or dies and the business of the dissolved partnership is continued as described in subsections (a) and (b), with the consent of the retired partners or the representative of the deceased partner, but without any assignment of his or her right in partnership property, rights of creditors of the dissolved partnership and of the creditors of the person or partnership continuing the business are as if the assignment had been made.

(d) When all the partners or their representatives assign their rights in partnership property to one or more third persons who promise to pay the debts and who continue the business of the dissolved partnerships, creditors of the dissolved partnerships are also creditors of the person or partnership continuing the business.

(e) When any partner wrongfully causes a dissolution and the remaining partners continue the business under the provision of § 7-12-49(b)(2), either alone or with others, and without liquidation of the partnership affairs, creditors of the dissolved partnership are also creditors of the person or partnership continuing the business.

(f) When a partner is expelled and the remaining partners continue the business either alone or with others, without liquidation of the partnership affairs, creditors of the dissolved partnership are also creditors of the person or partnership continuing the business.

(g) The liability of a third person becoming a partner in the partnership continuing the business, under this section, to the creditors of the dissolved partnership is satisfied out of partnership property only.

(h) When the business of a partnership after dissolution is continued under any conditions described in this section, the creditors of the dissolved partnership, as against the separate creditors of the retiring or deceased partner or the representative of the deceased partner, have a prior right to any claim of the retired partner or the representative of the deceased partner against the person or partnership continuing the business, on account of the retired or deceased partner's interest in the dissolved partnership or on account of any consideration promised for the interest or for his or her right in partnership property.

(i) Nothing in this section can be held to modify any right of creditors to set aside any assignment on the ground of fraud.

(ii) The use by the person or partnership continuing the business of the partnership name, or the name of a deceased partner as part of it, does not of itself make the individual property of the deceased partner liable for any debts contracted by the person or partnership.

7-12-53. Rights of retiring or estate of deceased partner when the business is continued.

When any partner retires or dies, and the business is continued under any of the conditions described in subsection (a), (b), (c), (e) or (f) of § 7-12-52, or § 7-12-49(b)(2), without any settlement of accounts as between him or her or his or her estate and the person or partnership continuing the business, unless otherwise agreed, he or she or his or her legal representative as against the persons or partnership may have the value of his or her interest at the date of dissolution ascertained, and shall receive as an ordinary creditor an amount equal to the value of his or her interest in the dissolved partnership with interest, or, at his or her option or at the option of his or her legal representative, in lieu of interest, the profits attributable to the use of his or her right in the property of the dissolved partnership; provided, that the creditors of the dissolved partnership as against the separate creditors, or the representative of the retired or deceased partner, have priority on any claim arising under this section as provided by § 7-12-52(h).

7-12-54. Accrual of actions.

The right to an account of his or her interest accrues to any partner, or his or her legal representative, as against the winding up partners or the surviving partners or the person or partnership continuing the business, at the date of dissolution, in the absence of any agreement to the contrary.

7-12-55. Other laws preserved.

Nothing contained in §§ 7-12-12 — 7-12-55 affects the provisions of §§ 7-12-11 — 7-12-11 or of chapter 13 of this title.

7-12-56. Registered limited liability partnerships.

(a) To become, and to continue as, a registered limited liability partnership, a partnership shall file with the secretary of state an application, or a renewal application, stating the name of the partnership, the address of its principal office, if the partnership’s principal office is not located in this state, the address of a registered office and the name and address of a registered agent for service of process in this state that a partnership is required to maintain. In addition, partnerships under this section shall provide the names and addresses of all resident partners, the place where the business records of the partnership are maintained, or if more than one location for business records is maintained, then the principal place of business of the partnership, number, a brief statement of the business in which the partnership engaged, and that the partnership applies for status, or renewal of its status, as a registered limited liability partnership.

(b) The application or renewal application shall be executed by a majority in interest of the partners or by one or more partners authorized to execute an application or renewal application.

(c) The application shall be accompanied by a fee of one hundred fifty dollars ($150) for each partnership's initial filing.

Renewal applications are to be filed yearly and are to be accompanied by a fee of fifty dollars ($50.00).

(d) The secretary of state shall register as a registered limited liability partnership, and shall renew the registration of any limited liability partnership, any partnership that submits a completed application or renewal application with the required fee.

(e) Registration is effective for one year after the date an application is filed, unless voluntarily withdrawn by filing with the secretary of state a written withdrawal notice executed by a majority in interest of the partners or by one or more partners authorized to execute a withdrawal.
Registration, whether pursuant to an original application or a renewal application, as a registered limited liability partnership is renewed if, during the sixty-day (60) period preceding the date the application or renewal application otherwise would have expired, the partnership filed with the secretary of state a renewal application. A renewal application expires one year after the date an original application would have expired if the last renewal of the application had not occurred.

(f) The status of a partnership as a registered limited liability partnership is not affected by changes after the filing of an application or a renewal application in the information stated in the application or renewal application.

(g) The secretary of state may provide forms for application for, or renewal of, registration.

Any renewals shall maintain resident partners as set out in this section.

(h) A partnership that registers as a registered limited liability partnership is not deemed to have dissolved as a result of that registration and is for all purposes the same partnership that existed before the registration and continues to be a partnership under the laws of this state. If a registered limited liability partnership dissolves, a partnership that is a successor to the registered limitedliability partnership and that intends to be a registered limited liability partnership is not required to file a new application and is deemed to have filed any documents required or permitted under this chapter that were filed by the predecessor partnership.
(i) The fact that an application or renewal application is on file in the office of the secretary of state is notice that the partnership is a registered limited liability partnership and is notice of all other facts stated in the application or renewal application.

7-12-57. Name of registered limited-liability partnerships.

(a) The name of a registered limited liability partnership contains the words "registered limited liability partnership" or the abbreviation "L.L.P." or "LLP" as the last words or letters of its name.

(b) The name shall be distinguishable upon the records of the secretary of state from the name of any domestic for-profit or nonprofit corporation, or any domestic limited partnership, or any limited liability company, or any registered limited liability partnership existing under the laws of the state, or the name of any foreign for-profit or nonprofit corporation, or foreign limited partnership, or foreign limited liability company, or foreign registered limited liability partnership authorized to transact business in this state, or a name the exclusive right to which is, at the time filed, reserved or registered in the manner provided under this title, subject to the following:

(1) This provision does not apply if the applicant files with the secretary of state a certified copy of a final decree of a court of competent jurisdiction establishing the prior right of the applicant to the use of the name in this state; and

(2) The name may be the same as the name of a corporation, or limited liability company, or registered limited liability partnership, the certificate of incorporation, authority, organization, or registration of which has been revoked by the secretary of state as permitted by law and the revocation has not been withdrawn within one year from the date of the revocation.

(3) Words and/or abbreviations that are required by statute to identify the particular type of business entity shall be disregarded when determining if a name is distinguishable upon the records of the secretary of state.

(4) The secretary of state shall promulgate rules and regulations defining the term "distinguishable upon the record" for the administration of this chapter.

7-12-58. Insurance or financial responsibility of registered limited-liability partnerships.

(a) A registered limited liability partnership that is to perform professional services as defined in § 7-5.1-2 shall carry, if reasonably available, liability insurance of a kind that is designed to cover the kinds of negligence, wrongful acts, or misconduct for which liability is limited by § 7-12-26(b). The insurance shall be in the aggregate amount of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) multiplied by the number of professional employees of the registered limited liability partnership.
as of the policy anniversary date; provided, that in no case shall the coverage be less than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) but in no event shall the necessary coverage exceed a maximum of five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000); provided, further, that any policy for insurance coverage may include a deductible provision in any amount not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) for each claim multiplied by the number of professional employees of the limited-liability partnership as of the date of the issuance of the policy. The policy or policies of insurance may be subject to any terms, conditions, exclusions and endorsements that are typically contained in policies of this type.

(b) If, in any proceeding, compliance by a partnership with the requirements of subsection
(a) is disputed:

(1) That issue is determined by the court, and

(2) The burden of proof of compliance is on the person who claims the limitation of liability in § 7-12-26(b).

(c) If a registered limited-liability partnership is in compliance with the requirements of subsection (a), the requirements of this section shall not be admissible or in any way be made known to a jury in determining an issue of liability for or extent of the debt or obligation or damages in question.

(d) Insurance is reasonably available for the purpose of subsection (a) if, at the time that the coverage would apply to the negligence, wrongful acts, or misconduct in question, it was reasonably available to similar types of partnerships through the admitted or eligible surplus lines market.

(e) A registered limited-liability partnership is considered to be in compliance with subsection (a) if the partnership provides five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) of funds specifically designated and segregated for the satisfaction of judgments against the partnership based on the forms of negligence, wrongful acts, and misconduct for which liability is limited by § 7-12-26(b) by:

(1) Deposit in trust or in bank escrow of cash, bank certificates of deposit, or United States Treasury obligations; or

(2) A bank letter of credit or insurance company bonds.

(f) To the extent that a partnership maintains liability insurance or segregated funds pursuant to the laws or regulations of another jurisdiction, the liability insurance or segregated funds are deemed to satisfy this section if the amount hereof is equal to or greater than the amount specified in subsection (a) or (e).

7-12-59. Applicability to foreign and interstate commerce.
(a) A partnership, including a registered limited liability partnership, formed and existing pursuant to an agreement governed by this chapter, may conduct its business, carry on its operations and have and exercise the powers granted by this chapter in any state, territory, district or possession of the United States, or in any foreign country.

(b) It is the intent of the general assembly that the legal existence of partnerships, including registered limited liability partnerships, formed in this state are recognized outside the boundaries of this state and that, subject to any reasonable requirement of registration, a partnership, including a registered limited liability partnership, formed pursuant to an agreement governed by this chapter and transacting business outside this state is granted the protection of full faith and credit under the Constitution of the United States.

(c) The liability of partners in a partnership, including registered limited liability partnerships, formed and existing pursuant to an agreement governed by this chapter for the debts and obligations of the partnership, is at all times determined exclusively by the laws of this state.

(d) Before transacting business in this state, a foreign registered limited liability partnership shall comply with any statutory or administrative registration or filing requirements governing the specific type of business in which the partnership is engaged, and file a notice with the secretary of state, on any forms that the Secretary provides, stating:

(1) The name of the partnership;
(2) The jurisdiction, the laws of which govern its partnership agreement and under which it is registered as a limited liability partnership;
(3) The address of its principal office;
(4) If the partnership’s principal office is not located in this state;
(5) The address of a registered office and the name and address of a registered agent for service of process in this state that the partnership shall be required to maintain;
(6) The names and addresses of all resident partners in this state;
(7) A brief statement of the business in which the partnership engages;
(8) Any other information that the partnership determines to include;
(9) A statement that the partnership is a registered limited liability partnership. The notice shall be accompanied by a fee of one thousand dollars ($1,000). The notice is effective for two (2) years from the date of filing, after which time the partnership shall file a new notice. The filing of the notice with the secretary of state makes it unnecessary to file any other documents under §§ 6-1-1.1–6-1-1.4.

(e) The name of a foreign registered limited liability partnership doing business in this state shall contain the words “Registered Limited Liability Partnership” or “L.L.P.” or “LLP”, or any other similar words or abbreviation as are required or authorized by the laws of the state where the partnership is registered, or the last words or letters of its name.

(f) The internal affairs of foreign registered limited liability partnerships, including the liability of partners for debts, obligations, and liabilities of, or chargeable to, the partnership or another partner or partners, are subject to and governed by the laws of the jurisdiction in which the foreign registered limited liability partnership is registered.

(d) Subject to subsection (c)(8) of this section, without limiting other terms that may be included in a partnership agreement, the following rules apply:

the duty of loyalty may be authorized or ratified by one or more disinterested and independent persons after full disclosure of all material facts; and

(ii) Alter the prohibition in § 7-12.1-406(a)(2) to the extent the prohibition requires only that the partnership's total assets not be less than the sum of its total liabilities.

(2) To the extent the partnership agreement expressly relieves a partner of a responsibility that the partner would otherwise have under this chapter and imposes the responsibility on one or more other partners, the agreement also may eliminate or limit any fiduciary duty of the partner relieved of the responsibility which would have pertained to the responsibility.

(3) If not manifestly unreasonable, the partnership agreement may:

(i) Alter or eliminate the aspects of the duty of loyalty stated in § 7-12.1-409(b);

(ii) Identify specific types or categories of activities that do not violate the duty of loyalty;
(iii) Alter the duty of care, but may not authorize conduct involving bad faith, willful or intentional misconduct, or knowing violation of law; and

(iv) Alter or eliminate any other fiduciary duty.

e) The court shall decide as a matter of law whether a term of a partnership agreement is manifestly unreasonable under subsection (c)(6) or (d)(3) of this section. The Providence County superior court:

(1) Shall make its determination as of the time the challenged term became part of the partnership agreement and by considering only circumstances existing at that time; and

(2) May invalidate the term only if, in light of the purposes and business of the partnership, it is readily apparent that:

partner -- Preformation agreement.

(a) A partnership is bound by and may enforce the partnership agreement, whether or not the partnership has itself manifested assent to the agreement.

(b) A person that becomes a partner is deemed to assent to the partnership agreement.

(c) Two (2) or more persons intending to become the initial partners of a partnership may make an agreement providing that upon the formation of the partnership the agreement will become the partnership agreement.

7-12.1-107. Partnership agreement -- Effect on third parties and relationship to records effective on behalf of partnership.

(a) A partnership agreement may specify that its amendment requires the approval of a person that is not a party to the agreement or the satisfaction of a condition. An amendment is ineffective if its adoption does not include the required approval or satisfy the specified condition.

(b) The obligations of a partnership and its partners to a person in the person’s capacity as a transferee or person dissociated as a partner are governed by the partnership agreement. Subject to a court order issued under § 7-12.1-504(b)(2) to effectuate a charging order, an amendment to the partnership agreement made after a person becomes a transferee or is dissociated as a partner:

(1) Is effective with regard to any debt, obligation, or other liability of the partnership or its partners to the person in the person’s capacity as a transferee or person dissociated as a partner;

and

(2) Is not effective to the extent the amendment:

(i) Imposes a new debt, obligation, or other liability on the transferee or person dissociated as a partner; or

(ii) Prejudices the rights under § 7-12.1-701 of a person that dissociated as a partner before the amendment was made.

(c) If a record delivered by a partnership to the secretary of state for filing becomes effective and contains a provision that would be ineffective under §§ 7-12.1-105(c) or 7-12.1-105(d)(3) if contained in the partnership agreement, the provision is ineffective in the record.

(d) Subject to subsection (c) of this section, if a record delivered by a partnership to the secretary of state for filing becomes effective and conflicts with a provision of the partnership agreement:

(1) The agreement prevails as to partners, persons dissociated as partners, and transferees; and

(2) The record prevails as to other persons to the extent they reasonably rely on the record.

7-12.1-108. Signing of records to be delivered for filing to secretary of state.

(a) A record filed with the secretary of state pursuant to this chapter must be signed as follows:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (a)(2) and (a)(3) of this section, a record signed by a partnership must be signed by a person authorized by the partnership.

(2) A record filed on behalf of a dissolved partnership that has no partner must be signed by the person winding up the partnership's business under § 7-12.1-802(c) or a person appointed under § 7-12.1-802(d) to wind up the business.

(3) A statement of denial by a person under § 7-12.1-304 must be signed by that person.

(4) Any other record delivered on behalf of a person to the secretary of state for filing must be signed by that person.

(b) A record filed under this chapter may be signed by an agent. Whenever this chapter requires a particular individual to sign a record and the individual is deceased or incompetent, the record may be signed by a legal representative of the individual.

(c) A person that signs a record as an agent or legal representative affirms as a fact that the person is authorized to sign the record.

7-12.1-109. Liability for inaccurate information in filed record.

(a) If a record filed with the secretary of state under this chapter and filed by the secretary of state contains inaccurate information, a person that suffers loss by reliance on the information may recover damages for the loss from:

(1) A person that signed the record, or caused another to sign it on the person's behalf, and knew the information to be inaccurate at the time the record was signed; and
(2) Subject to subsection (b) of this section, a partner if:

(i) The record was delivered for filing on behalf of the partnership; and

(ii) The partner knew or had notice of the inaccuracy for a reasonably sufficient time before the information was relied upon so that, before the reliance, the partner reasonably could have:

(A) Effected an amendment under § 7-12.1-901(f);

(B) Filed a petition under § 7-12.1-112; or

(C) Filed with the secretary of state a statement of change under § 7-12.1-909 or a statement of correction under § 7-12.1-116.

(b) To the extent the partnership agreement expressly relieves a partner of responsibility for maintaining the accuracy of information contained in records delivered on behalf of the partnership to the secretary of state for filing under this chapter and imposes that responsibility on one or more other partners, the liability stated in subsection (a)(2) of this section applies to those other partners and not to the partner that the partnership agreement relieves of the responsibility.

(c) An individual who signs a record authorized or required to be filed under this chapter affirms under penalty of perjury that the information stated in the record is accurate.

7-12.1-110. Application to existing relationships.

(a) This chapter governs only:

(1) A partnership formed on or after January 1, 2023; and

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c) of this section, a partnership formed before January 1, 2023, which elects, in the manner provided in its partnership agreement or by law for amending the partnership agreement, to be subject to this chapter.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c) of this section, on and after January 1, 2023, this chapter governs all partnerships.

(c) With respect to a partnership that elects pursuant to subsection (a)(2) of this section to be subject to this chapter, after the election takes effect the provisions of this chapter relating to the liability of the partnership's partners to third parties apply to:

(1) A third party that had not done business with the partnership in the year before the election took effect; and

(2) A third party that had done business with the partnership in the year before the election took effect only if the third party knows or has been notified of the election.

7-12.1-110.1. Election of existing limited-liability partnerships.

(a) With respect to a limited-liability partnership that elects pursuant to §7-12.1-110 (a)(2) to be subject to this chapter, the partnership must deliver to the secretary of state a statement approved in the manner required by § 7-12.1-901(b). The statement must contain:
(1) The name of the limited-liability partnership;

(2) A statement that the partnership is a limited-liability partnership and elects to comply with the provisions of chapter 12.1 of title 7;

(3) A statement that the partnership’s status as a limited-liability partnership is perpetual and remains effective, regardless of changes to the partnership, until it is canceled or administratively revoked pursuant to the provision of chapter 12.1 of title 7;

(4) The name and street address in this state of the partnership’s registered agent.

(b) Prior to the effective date of this chapter outlined in § 7-12.1-110(b), a limited-liability partnership may renew its registration pursuant to § 7-12-56(e). Upon the effective date of this chapter, to maintain its status as a limited-liability partnership, the following actions must be taken:

(1) A designation of a registered agent must be recorded with the secretary of state; and

(2) At the time prescribed, the limited-liability partnership must file an annual report in accordance with the provisions of § 7-12.1-913.

7-12.1-111. Delivery of record.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, permissible means of delivery of a record include delivery by hand, mail, conventional commercial practice, and electronic transmission.

(b) Delivery to the secretary of state is effective only when a record is received by the secretary of state.

7-12.1-112. Signing and filing pursuant to judicial order.

(a) If a person required by this chapter to sign a record or deliver a record to the secretary of state for filing under this chapter does not do so, any other person that is aggrieved may petition the superior court to order:

(1) The person to sign the record;

(2) The person to deliver the record to the secretary of state for filing; or

(3) The secretary of state to file the record unsigned.

(b) If a petitioner under subsection (a) of this section is not the partnership or foreign limited-liability partnership to which the record pertains, the petitioner shall make the partnership or foreign partnership a party to the action.

(c) A record filed under subsection (a)(3) of this section is effective without being signed.

7-12.1-113. Filing requirements.

(a) To be filed by the secretary of state pursuant to this chapter, a record must be received by the secretary of state, comply with this chapter, and satisfy the following:

(b) If any law other than this chapter prohibits the disclosure by the secretary of state of information contained in a record filed with the secretary of state, the secretary of state shall file the record if the record otherwise complies with this chapter but may redact the information.

(c) When a record is filed with the secretary of state, any fee required under this chapter and any fee, tax, interest, or penalty required to be paid under this chapter or law other than this chapter must be paid in a manner permitted by the secretary of state or by that law.

(d) The secretary of state may require that a record delivered in written form be accompanied by an identical or conformed copy.

(e) The secretary of state may provide forms for filings required or permitted to be made by this chapter, but, except as otherwise provided in this section, their use is not required.

(f) The secretary of state may require that a cover sheet for a filing be on a form prescribed by the secretary of state.

7-12.1-114. Effective date and time.

Except as otherwise provided in § 7-12.1-115 and subject to § 7-12.1-116(c), a record filed under this chapter is effective:

(1) On the date and at the time of its filing by the secretary of state, as provided in § 7-12.1-117(b);

(2) On the date of filing and at the time specified in the record as its effective time, if later than the time under subsection (1) of this section;

(3) At a specified delayed effective date and time, which may not be more than ninety (90) days after the date of filing; or

(b) A statement of withdrawal must:

(1) Be signed by each person that signed the record being withdrawn, except as otherwise agreed by those persons;

(2) Identify the record to be withdrawn; and

(3) If signed by fewer than all the persons that signed the record being withdrawn, state that the record is withdrawn in accordance with the agreement of all the persons that signed the record.

(c) On filing by the secretary of state of a statement of withdrawal, the action or transaction evidenced by the original record does not take effect.

(a) A person on whose behalf a filed record was filed with the secretary of state may correct the record if:

(1) The record at the time of filing was inaccurate;

(2) The record was defectively signed; or

(3) The electronic transmission of the record to the secretary of state was defective.

The record and the explanation of the secretary of state of the refusal to file must be attached to the petition. The Providence County superior court may decide the matter in a summary proceeding.

(e) The filing of or refusal to file a record does not:

(1) Affect the validity or invalidity of the record in whole or in part; or

(2) Create a presumption that the information contained in the record is correct or incorrect.

(f) Except as otherwise provided by § 7-12.1-909 or by law other than this chapter, the secretary of state may deliver any record to a person by delivering it:

ARTICLE 2
NATURE OF PARTNERSHIP

7-12.1-201. Partnership as entity.
(a) A partnership is an entity distinct from its partners.

(b) A partnership is the same entity regardless of whether the partnership has a statement of qualification in effect under § 7-12.1-901.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b) of this section, the association of two or more persons to carry on as co-owners a business for profit forms a partnership, whether or not the persons intend to form a partnership.

(b) An association formed under a statute other than this chapter, a predecessor statute, or a comparable statute of another jurisdiction is not a partnership under this chapter.

(c) In determining whether a partnership is formed, the following rules apply:

(1) Joint tenancy, tenancy in common, tenancy by the entireties, joint property, common property, or part ownership does not by itself establish a partnership, even if the co-owners share profits made by the use of the property;

(2) The sharing of gross returns does not by itself establish a partnership, even if the persons sharing them have a joint or common right or interest in property from which the returns are derived; and

(3) A person who receives a share of the profits of a business is presumed to be a partner in the business, unless the profits were received in payment:

(i) Of a debt by installments or otherwise;

(ii) For services as an independent contractor or of wages or other compensation to an employee:

(iii) Of rent;

(iv) Of an annuity or other retirement or health benefit to a deceased or retired partner or a beneficiary, representative, or designee of a deceased or retired partner;

(v) Of interest or other charge on a loan, even if the amount of payment varies with the profits of the business, including a direct or indirect present or future ownership of the collateral, or rights to income, proceeds, or increase in value derived from the collateral; or

(vi) For the sale of the goodwill of a business or other property by installments or otherwise.

7-12.1-203. Partnership property.

Property acquired by a partnership is property of the partnership and not of the partners individually.

7-12.1-204. When property is partnership property.

(a) Property is partnership property if acquired in the name of:

(1) The partnership; or

(2) One or more partners with an indication in the instrument transferring title to the property of the person's capacity as a partner or of the existence of a partnership but without an indication of the name of the partnership.

(b) Property is acquired in the name of the partnership by a transfer to:

(1) The partnership in its name; or

(2) One or more partners in their capacity as partners in the partnership, if the name of the partnership is indicated in the instrument transferring title to the property.

(c) Property is presumed to be partnership property if purchased with partnership assets, even if not acquired in the name of the partnership or of one or more partners with an indication in the instrument transferring title to the property of the person's capacity as a partner or of the existence of a partnership.

(d) Property acquired in the name of one or more of the partners, without an indication in the instrument transferring title to the property of the person's capacity as a partner or of the existence of a partnership and without use of partnership assets, is presumed to be separate property, even if used for partnership purposes.

RELATIONS OF PARTNERS TO PERSONS DEALING WITH PARTNERSHIP

7-12.1-301. Partner agent of partnership.

Subject to the effect of a statement of partnership authority under § 7-12.1-303, the following rules apply:
(1) Each partner is an agent of the partnership for the purpose of its business. An act of a partner, including the signing of an instrument in the partnership name, for apparently carrying on in the ordinary course the partnership business or business of the kind carried on by the partnership binds the partnership, unless the partner did not have authority to act for the partnership in the particular matter and the person with which the partner was dealing knew or had notice that the partner lacked authority.

(2) An act of a partner which is not apparently for carrying on in the ordinary course the partnership's business or business of the kind carried on by the partnership binds the partnership only if the act was actually authorized by all the other partners.

7-12.1-302. Transfer of partnership property.

(a) Partnership property may be transferred as follows:

1. Subject to the effect of a statement of partnership authority under § 7-12.1-303, partnership property held in the name of the partnership may be transferred by an instrument of transfer signed by a partner in the partnership name;

2. Partnership property held in the name of one or more partners with an indication in the instrument transferring the property to them of their capacity as partners or of the existence of a partnership, but without an indication of the name of the partnership, may be transferred by an instrument of transfer signed by the persons in whose name the property is held; or

3. Partnership property held in the name of one or more persons other than the partnership, without an indication in the instrument transferring the property to them of their capacity as partners or of the existence of a partnership, may be transferred by an instrument of transfer signed by the persons in whose name the property is held.

(b) A partnership may recover partnership property from a transferee only if it proves that signing of the instrument of initial transfer did not bind the partnership under § 7-12.1-301 and:

1. As to a subsequent transferee who gave value for property transferred under subsections (a)(1) and (a)(2) of this section, proves that the subsequent transferee knew or had been notified that the person who signed the instrument of initial transfer lacked authority to bind the partnership; or

2. As to a transferee who gave value for property transferred under subsection (a)(3) of this section, proves that the transferee knew or had been notified that the property was partnership property and that the person who signed the instrument of initial transfer lacked authority to bind the partnership.

(c) A partnership may not recover partnership property from a subsequent transferee if the partnership would not have been entitled to recover the property, under subsection (b) of this section, from any earlier transferee of the property.

(d) If a person holds all the partners' interests in the partnership, all the partnership property vests in that person. The person may sign a record in the name of the partnership to evidence vesting of the property in that person and may file or record the record.

(a) A partnership may deliver to the secretary of state for filing a statement of partnership authority. The statement:

(1) Must include the name of the partnership and:

(i) If the partnership is not a limited-liability partnership, the street and mailing addresses of its principal office; or

(ii) If the partnership is a limited-liability partnership, the name and street and mailing addresses of its registered agent;

(2) With respect to any position that exists in or with respect to the partnership, may state the authority, or limitations on the authority, of all persons holding the position to:

(i) Sign an instrument transferring real property held in the name of the partnership; or

(ii) Enter into other transactions on behalf of, or otherwise act for or bind, the partnership;

and

(3) May state the authority, or limitations on the authority, of a specific person to:

(i) Sign an instrument transferring real property held in the name of the partnership; or

(ii) Enter into other transactions on behalf of, or otherwise act for or bind, the partnership.

(b) To amend or cancel a statement of authority filed by the secretary of state, a partnership must deliver to the secretary of state for filing an amendment or cancellation stating:

(1) The name of the partnership;

(2) If the partnership is not a limited-liability partnership, the street and mailing addresses of the partnership's principal office;

(3) If the partnership is a limited-liability partnership, the name and street and mailing addresses of its registered agent;

(4) The date the statement being affected became effective; and

(5) The contents of the amendment or a declaration that the statement is canceled.

(c) A statement of authority affects only the power of a person to bind a partnership to persons that are not partners.

(d) Subject to subsection (c) of this section and § 7-12.1-103(d)(1), and except as otherwise provided in subsections (f), (g), and (h) of this section, a limitation on the authority of a person or a position contained in an effective statement of authority is not by itself evidence of any person's knowledge or notice of the limitation.

(e) Subject to subsection (c) of this section, a grant of authority not pertaining to transfers of real property and contained in an effective statement of authority is conclusive in favor of a person that gives value in reliance on the grant, except to the extent that if the person gives value:

(1) The person has knowledge to the contrary;

(2) The statement has been canceled or restrictively amended under subsection (b) of this section; or

(3) A limitation on the grant is contained in another statement of authority that became effective after the statement containing the grant became effective.

(f) Subject to subsection (c) of this section, an effective statement of authority that grants authority to transfer real property held in the name of the partnership, a certified copy of which statement is recorded in the office for recording transfers of the real property, is conclusive in favor of a person that gives value in reliance on the grant without knowledge to the contrary, except to the extent that when the person gives value:

(1) The statement has been canceled or restrictively amended under subsection (b) of this section, and a certified copy of the cancellation or restrictive amendment has been recorded in the office for recording transfers of the real property; or

(2) A limitation on the grant is contained in another statement of authority that became effective after the statement containing the grant became effective, and a certified copy of the later-effective statement is recorded in the office for recording transfers of the real property.

(g) Subject to subsection (c) of this section, if a certified copy of an effective statement containing a limitation on the authority to transfer real property held in the name of a partnership is recorded in the office for recording transfers of that real property, all persons are deemed to know of the limitation.

(h) Subject to subsection (i) of this section, an effective statement of dissolution is a cancellation of any filed statement of authority for the purposes of subsection (f) of this section and is a limitation on authority for purposes of subsection (g) of this section.

(i) After a statement of dissolution becomes effective, a partnership may deliver to the secretary of state for filing and, if appropriate, may record a statement of authority that is designated as a post-dissolution statement of authority. The statement operates as provided in subsections (f) and (g) of this section.

(j) Unless canceled earlier, an effective statement of authority is canceled by operation of law five (5) years after the date on which the statement, or its most recent amendment, becomes effective. The cancellation is effective without recording under subsection (f) or (g) of this section.
(k) An effective statement of denial operates as a restrictive amendment under this section and may be recorded by certified copy for purposes of subsection (f)(1) of this section.

7-12.1-304. Statement of denial.
A person named in a filed statement of authority granting that person authority may deliver to the secretary of state for filing a statement of denial that:

(1) Provides the name of the partnership and the caption of the statement of authority to which the statement of denial pertains; and

(2) Denies the grant of authority.

7-12.1-305. Partnership liable for partner's actionable conduct.

(a) A partnership is liable for loss or injury caused to a person, or for a penalty incurred, as a result of a wrongful act or omission, or other actionable conduct, of a partner acting in the ordinary course of business of the partnership or with the actual or apparent authority of the partnership.

(b) If, in the course of the partnership's business or while acting with actual or apparent authority of the partnership, a partner receives or causes the partnership to receive money or property of a person not a partner, and the money or property is misapplied by a partner, the partnership is liable for the loss.

7-12.1-306. Partner's liability.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (b) and (c) of this section, all partners are liable jointly and severally for all debts, obligations, and other liabilities of the partnership unless otherwise agreed by the claimant or provided by law.

(b) A person that becomes a partner is not personally liable for a debt, obligation, or other liability of the partnership incurred before the person became a partner.

(c) A debt, obligation, or other liability of a partnership incurred while the partnership is a limited-liability partnership is solely the debt, obligation, or other liability of the limited-liability partnership. A partner is not personally liable, directly or indirectly, by way of contribution or otherwise, for a debt, obligation, or other liability of the limited-liability partnership solely by reason of being or acting as a partner. This subsection applies:

(1) Despite anything inconsistent in the partnership agreement that existed immediately before the vote or consent required to become a limited-liability partnership under § 7-12.1-901(b); and

(2) Regardless of the dissolution of the limited-liability partnership.

(d) The failure of a limited-liability partnership to observe formalities relating to the exercise of its powers or management of its business is not a ground for imposing liability on a partner for a debt, obligation, or other liability of the partnership.
(e) The cancellation or administrative revocation of a limited-liability partnership's statement of qualification does not affect the limitation in this section on the liability of a partner for a debt, obligation, or other liability of the partnership incurred while the statement was in effect.

7-12.1-307. Actions by and against partnership and partners.

(a) A partnership may sue and be sued in the name of the partnership.

(b) To the extent not inconsistent with § 7-12.1-306, a partner may be joined in an action against the partnership or named in a separate action.

(c) A judgment against a partnership is not by itself a judgment against a partner. A judgment against a partnership may not be satisfied from a partner's assets unless there is also a judgment against the partner.

(d) A judgment creditor of a partner may not levy execution against the assets of the partner to satisfy a judgment based on a claim against the partnership unless the partner is personally liable for the claim under § 7-12.1-306 and:

(1) A judgment based on the same claim has been obtained against the partnership and a writ of execution on the judgment has been returned unsatisfied in whole or in part;

(2) The partnership is a debtor in bankruptcy;

(3) The partner has agreed that the creditor need not exhaust partnership assets;

(4) A court grants permission to the judgment creditor to levy execution against the assets of a partner based on a finding that partnership assets subject to execution are clearly insufficient to satisfy the judgment, that exhaustion of partnership assets is excessively burdensome, or that the grant of permission is an appropriate exercise of the court's equitable powers; or

(5) Liability is imposed on the partner by law or contract independent of the existence of the partnership.

(e) This section applies to any debt, liability, or other obligation of a partnership which results from a representation by a partner or purported partner under § 7-12.1-308.

7-12.1-308. Liability of purported partner.

(a) If a person, by words or conduct, purports to be a partner, or consents to being represented by another as a partner, in a partnership or with one or more persons not partners, the purported partner is liable to a person to whom the representation is made, if that person, relying on the representation, enters into a transaction with the actual or purported partnership. If the representation, either by the purported partner or by a person with the purported partner's consent, is made in a public manner, the purported partner is liable to a person who relies upon the purported partnership even if the purported partner is not aware of being held out as a partner to the claimant.

If partnership liability results, the purported partner is liable with respect to that liability as if the
(b) If a person is thus represented to be a partner in an existing partnership, or with one or more persons not partners, the purported partner is an agent of persons consenting to the representation to bind them to the same extent and in the same manner as if the purported partner were a partner with respect to persons who enter into transactions in reliance upon the representation. If all the partners of the existing partnership consent to the representation, a partnership act or obligation results. If fewer than all the partners of the existing partnership consent to the representation, the person acting and the partners consenting to the representation are jointly and severally liable.

c) A person is not liable as a partner merely because the person is named by another as a partner in a statement of partnership authority.

d) A person does not continue to be liable as a partner merely because of a failure to file a statement of dissociation or to amend a statement of partnership authority to indicate the person's dissociation as a partner.

e) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (a) and (b) of this section, persons who are not partners as to each other are not liable as partners to other persons.

ARTICLE 4

RELATIONS OF PARTNERS TO EACH OTHER AND TO PARTNERSHIP

7-12.1-401. Partner's rights and duties.

(a) Each partner is entitled to an equal share of the partnership distributions and, except in the case of a limited-liability partnership, is chargeable with a share of the partnership losses in proportion to the partner's share of the distributions.

(b) A partnership shall reimburse a partner for any payment made by the partner in the course of the partner's activities on behalf of the partnership, if the partner complied with this section and § 7-12.1-409 in making the payment.

(c) A partnership shall indemnify and hold harmless a person with respect to any claim or demand against the person and any debt, obligation, or other liability incurred by the person by reason of the person's former or present capacity as a partner, if the claim, demand, debt, obligation, or other liability does not arise from the person's breach of this section or §§ 7-12.1-407 or 7-12.1-409.

(d) In the ordinary course of its business, a partnership may advance reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees and costs, incurred by a person in connection with a claim or demand.
against the person by reason of the person's former or present capacity as a partner, if the person promises to repay the partnership if the person ultimately is determined not to be entitled to be indemnified under subsection (c) of this section.

c) A partnership may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of a partner against liability asserted against or incurred by the partner in that capacity or arising from that status even if, under § 7-12.1-105(c)(7), the partnership agreement could not eliminate or limit the person's liability to the partnership for the conduct giving rise to the liability.

(f) A partnership shall reimburse a partner for an advance to the partnership beyond the amount of capital the partner agreed to contribute.

(g) A payment or advance made by a partner which gives rise to a partnership obligation under subsections (b) or (f) of this section constitutes a loan to the partnership which accrues interest from the date of the payment or advance.

(b) Each partner has equal rights in the management and conduct of the partnership's business.

(i) A partner may use or possess partnership property only on behalf of the partnership.

(j) A partner is not entitled to remuneration for services performed for the partnership, except for reasonable compensation for services rendered in winding up the business of the partnership.

(k) A difference arising as to a matter in the ordinary course of business of a partnership may be decided by a majority of the partners. An act outside the ordinary course of business of a partnership and an amendment to the partnership agreement may be undertaken only with the affirmative vote or consent of all the partners.

7-12.1-402. Becoming partner.

(a) Upon formation of a partnership, a person becomes a partner under § 7-12.1-202(a).

(b) After formation of a partnership, a person becomes a partner:

(1) As provided in the partnership agreement;

(2) As a result of a transaction effective under Article 11 of this chapter; or

(3) With the affirmative vote or consent of all the partners.

(c) A person may become a partner without:

(1) Acquiring a transferable interest; or

(2) Making or being obligated to make a contribution to the partnership.

7-12.1-403. Form of contribution.

A contribution may consist of property transferred to, services performed for, or another benefit provided to the partnership or an agreement to transfer property to, perform services for, or provide another benefit to the partnership.

7-12.1-404. Liability for contribution.

(a) A person's obligation to make a contribution to a partnership is not excused by the person's death, disability, termination, or other inability to perform personally.

(b) If a person does not fulfill an obligation to make a contribution other than money, the person is obligated at the option of the partnership to contribute money equal to the value of the part of the contribution which has not been made.

(c) The obligation of a person to make a contribution may be compromised only by the affirmative vote or consent of all the partners. If a creditor of a limited-liability partnership extends credit or otherwise acts in reliance on an obligation described in subsection (a) of this section without knowledge or notice of a compromise under this subsection, the creditor may enforce the obligation.

7-12.1-405. Sharing of and right to distributions before dissolution.

(a) Any distribution made by a partnership before its dissolution and winding up must be in equal shares among partners, except to the extent necessary to comply with a transfer effective under § 7-12.1-503 or charging order in effect under § 7-12.1-504.

(b) Subject to § 7-12.1-701, a person has a right to a distribution before the dissolution and winding up of a partnership only if the partnership decides to make an interim distribution.

(c) A person does not have a right to demand or receive a distribution from a partnership in any form other than money. Except as otherwise provided in § 7-12.1-806, a partnership may distribute an asset in kind only if each part of the asset is fungible with each other part and each person receives a percentage of the asset equal in value to the person's share of distributions.

(d) If a partner or transferee becomes entitled to receive a distribution, the partner or transferee has the status of, and is entitled to all remedies available to, a creditor of the partnership with respect to the distribution. However, the partnership's obligation to make a distribution is subject to offset for any amount owed to the partnership by the partner or a person dissociated as partner on whose account the distribution is made.

7-12.1-406. Limitations on distributions by limited-liability partnership.

(a) A limited-liability partnership may not make a distribution, including a distribution under § 7-12.1-806, if after the distribution:

(1) The partnership would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the ordinary course of the partnership's business; or

(2) The partnership's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed, if the partnership were to be dissolved and wound up at the time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon dissolution and winding up of partners and transferees whose preferential rights are superior to the rights of persons receiving the distribution.

(b) A limited-liability partnership may base a determination that a distribution is not prohibited under subsection (a) of this section on:

(1) Financial statements prepared on the basis of accounting practices and principles that are reasonable in the circumstances; or

(2) A fair valuation or other method that is reasonable under the circumstances.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (e) of this section, the effect of a distribution under subsection (a) of this section is measured:

(1) In the case of a distribution as defined in § 7-12.1-102(4)(i), as of the earlier of:

(i) The date money or other property is transferred or debt is incurred by the limitedliability partnership; or

(ii) The date the person entitled to the distribution ceases to own the interest or rights being acquired by the partnership in return for the distribution;

(2) In the case of any other distribution of indebtedness, as of the date the indebtedness is distributed; and

(3) In all other cases, as of the date:

(i) The distribution is authorized, if the payment occurs not later than one hundred twenty
(120) days after that date; or

(ii) The payment is made, if the payment occurs more than one hundred twenty (120) days after the distribution is authorized.

(d) A limited-liability partnership's indebtedness to a partner or transferee incurred by reason of a distribution made in accordance with this section is at parity with the partnership's indebtedness to its general, unsecured creditors, except to the extent subordinated by agreement.

(e) A limited-liability partnership's indebtedness, including indebtedness issued as a distribution, is not a liability for purposes of subsection (a) of this section if the terms of the indebtedness provide that payment of principal and interest is made only if and to the extent that a payment of a distribution could then be made under this section. If the indebtedness is issued as a distribution, each payment of principal or interest is treated as a distribution, the effect of which is measured on the date the payment is made.

(f) In measuring the effect of a distribution under § 7-12.1-806, the liabilities of a dissolved limited-liability partnership do not include any claim that has been disposed of under §§ 7-12.1-807, 7-12.1-808, or 7-12.1-809.

7-12.1-407. Liability for improper distributions by limited-liability partnership.
(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b) of this section, if a partner of a limited-liability partnership consents to a distribution made in violation of § 7-12.1-406 and in consenting to the distribution fails to comply with § 7-12.1-409, the partner is personally liable to the partnership for the amount of the distribution which exceeds the amount that could have been distributed without the violation of § 7-12.1-406.

(b) To the extent the partnership agreement of a limited-liability partnership expressly relieves a partner of the authority and responsibility to consent to distributions and imposes that authority and responsibility on one or more other partners, the liability stated in subsection (a) of this section applies to the other partners and not to the partner that the partnership agreement relieves of the authority and responsibility.

(c) A person that receives a distribution knowing that the distribution violated § 7-12.1-406 is personally liable to the limited-liability partnership but only to the extent that the distribution received by the person exceeded the amount that could have been properly paid under § 7-12.1-406.

(d) A person against which an action is commenced because the person is liable under subsection (a) of this section may:

(1) Implead any other person that is liable under subsection (a) of this section and seek to enforce a right of contribution from the person; and

(2) Implead any person that received a distribution in violation of subsection (c) of this section and seek to enforce a right of contribution from the person in the amount the person received in violation of subsection (c) of this section.

(e) An action under this section is barred unless commenced not later than two (2) years after the distribution.

7-12.1-408. Rights to information of partners and persons dissociated as partner.

(a) A partnership shall keep its books and records, if any, at its principal office.

(b) On reasonable notice, a partner may inspect and copy during regular business hours, at a reasonable location specified by the partnership, any record maintained by the partnership regarding the partnership's business, financial condition, and other circumstances, to the extent the information is material to the partner's rights and duties under the partnership agreement or this chapter.

(c) The partnership shall furnish to each partner:

(1) Without demand, any information concerning the partnership's business, financial condition, and other circumstances which the partnership knows and is material to the proper exercise of the partner's rights and duties under the partnership agreement or this chapter, except to the extent the partnership can establish that it reasonably believes the partner already knows the information; and

(2) On demand, any other information concerning the partnership's business, financial condition, and other circumstances, except to the extent the demand or the information demanded is unreasonable or otherwise improper under the circumstances.

(d) The duty to furnish information under subsection (c) of this section also applies to each partner to the extent the partner knows any of the information described in subsection (c) of this section.

(e) Subject to subsection (j) of this section, on ten (10) days' demand made in a record received by a partnership, a person dissociated as a partner may have access to information to which the person was entitled while a partner if:

(1) The information pertains to the period during which the person was a partner;
(2) The person seeks the information in good faith; and
(3) The person satisfies the requirements imposed on a partner by subsection (b) of this section.

(f) Not later than ten (10) days after receiving a demand under subsection (e) of this section, the partnership in a record shall inform the person that made the demand of:

(1) The information that the partnership will provide in response to the demand and when and where the partnership will provide the information; and
(2) The partnership's reasons for declining, if the partnership declines to provide any demanded information.

(g) A partnership may charge a person that makes a demand under this section the reasonable costs of copying, limited to the costs of labor and material.

(h) A partner or person dissociated as a partner may exercise the rights under this section through an agent or, in the case of an individual under legal disability, a legal representative. Any restriction or condition imposed by the partnership agreement or under subsection (j) of this section applies both to the agent or legal representative and to the partner or person dissociated as a partner.

(i) Subject to § 7-12.1-505, the rights under this section do not extend to a person as transferee.

(j) In addition to any restriction or condition stated in its partnership agreement, a partnership, as a matter within the ordinary course of its business, may impose reasonable restrictions and conditions on access to and use of information to be furnished under this section, including designating information confidential and imposing nondisclosure and safeguarding obligations on the recipient. In a dispute concerning the reasonableness of a restriction under this section,
subsection, the partnership has the burden of proving reasonableness.

7-12.1-409. Standards of conduct for partners.

(a) A partner owes to the partnership and the other partners the duties of loyalty and care stated in subsections (b) and (c) of this section.

(b) The fiduciary duty of loyalty of a partner includes the duties:

(1) To account to the partnership and hold as trustee for it any property, profit, or benefit derived by the partner;

(i) In the conduct or winding up of the partnership's business;

(ii) From a use by the partner of the partnership's property; or

(iii) From the appropriation of a partnership opportunity;

(2) To refrain from dealing with the partnership in the conduct or winding up of the partnership business as or on behalf of a person having an interest adverse to the partnership; and

(3) To refrain from competing with the partnership in the conduct of the partnership's business before the dissolution of the partnership.

(c) The duty of care of a partner in the conduct or winding up of the partnership business is to refrain from engaging in grossly negligent or reckless conduct, willful or intentional misconduct, or a knowing violation of law.

(d) A partner shall discharge the duties and obligations under this chapter or under the partnership agreement and exercise any rights consistently with the contractual obligation of good faith and fair dealing.

(e) A partner does not violate a duty or obligation under this chapter or under the partnership agreement solely because the partner's conduct furthers the partner's own interest.

(f) All the partners may authorize or ratify, after full disclosure of all material facts, a specific act or transaction by a partner that otherwise would violate the duty of loyalty.

(g) It is a defense to a claim under subsection (b)(2) of this section and any comparable claim in equity or at common law that the transaction was fair to the partnership.

(h) If, as permitted by subsection (i) of this section or the partnership agreement, a partner enters into a transaction with the partnership which otherwise would be prohibited by subsection (b)(2) of this section, the partner's rights and obligations arising from the transaction are the same as those of a person that is not a partner.

7-12.1-410. Actions by partnership and partners.

(a) A partnership may maintain an action against a partner for a breach of the partnership agreement, or for the violation of a duty to the partnership, causing harm to the partnership.

(b) A partner may maintain an action against the partnership or another partner, with or without an accounting as to partnership business, to enforce the partner's rights and protect the partner's interests, including rights and interests under the partnership agreement or this chapter or arising independently of the partnership relationship.

(c) A right to an accounting on dissolution and winding up does not revive a claim barred by law.

7-12.1-411. Continuation of partnership beyond definite term or particular undertaking.

(a) If a partnership for a definite term or particular undertaking is continued, without an express agreement, after the expiration of the term or completion of the undertaking, the rights and duties of the partners remain the same as they were at the expiration or completion, so far as is consistent with a partnership at will.

(b) If the partners, or those of them who habitually acted in the business during the term or undertaking, continue the business without any settlement or liquidation of the partnership, they are presumed to have agreed that the partnership will continue.

ARTICLE 5
TRANSFERABLE INTERESTS AND RIGHTS OF TRANSFEREES AND CREDITORS

7-12.1-501. Partner not co-owner of partnership property.
A partner is not a co-owner of partnership property and has no interest in partnership property which can be transferred, either voluntarily or involuntarily.

A transferable interest is personal property.

7-12.1-503. Transfer of transferable interest.
(a) A transfer, in whole or in part, of a transferable interest:
(1) Is permissible;
(2) Does not by itself cause a person's dissociation as a partner or a dissolution and winding up of the partnership business; and
(3) Subject to § 7-12.1-505, does not entitle the transferee to:
(i) Participate in the management or conduct of the partnership's business; or
(ii) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c) of this section, have access to records or other information concerning the partnership's business.

(b) A transferee has the right to:
(1) Receive, in accordance with the transfer, distributions to which the transferor would otherwise be entitled; and
(2) Seek under § 7-12.1-801(5) a judicial determination that it is equitable to wind up the partnership business.

c) In a dissolution and winding up of a partnership, a transferee is entitled to an account of the partnership's transactions only from the date of dissolution.

d) A partnership need not give effect to a transferee's rights under this section until the partnership knows or has notice of the transfer.

e) A transfer of a transferable interest in violation of a restriction on transfer contained in the partnership agreement is ineffective if the intended transferee has knowledge or notice of the restriction at the time of transfer.

(f) Except as otherwise provided in § 7-12.1-601(4)(ii), if a partner transfers a transferable interest, the transferor retains the rights of a partner other than the transferable interest transferred and retains all the duties and obligations of a partner.

g) If a partner transfers a transferable interest to a person that becomes a partner with respect to the transferred interest, the transferee is liable for the partner's obligations under §§ 7-12.1-404 and 7-12.1-407 known to the transferee when the transferee becomes a partner.

7-12.1-504. Charging order.

(a) On application by a judgment creditor of a partner or transferee, a court may enter a charging order against the transferable interest of the judgment debtor for the unsatisfied amount of the judgment. A charging order constitutes a lien on a judgment debtor's transferable interest and requires the partnership to pay over to the person to which the charging order was issued any distribution that otherwise would be paid to the judgment debtor.

(b) To the extent necessary to effectuate the collection of distributions pursuant to a charging order in effect under subsection (a) of this section, the court may:

(1) Appoint a receiver of the distributions subject to the charging order, with the power to make all inquiries the judgment debtor might have made; and

(2) Make all other orders necessary to give effect to the charging order.

c) Upon a showing that distributions under a charging order will not pay the judgment debt within a reasonable time, the court may foreclose the lien and order the sale of the transferable interest. The purchaser at the foreclosure sale obtains only the transferable interest, does not thereby become a partner, and is subject to § 7-12.1-503.

(d) At any time before foreclosure under subsection (c) of this section, the partner or transferee whose transferable interest is subject to a charging order under subsection (a) of this section may extinguish the charging order by satisfying the judgment and filing a certified copy of the satisfaction with the court that issued the charging order.
(e) At any time before foreclosure under subsection (c) of this section, a partnership or one or more partners whose transferable interests are not subject to the charging order may pay to the judgment creditor the full amount due under the judgment and thereby succeed to the rights of the judgment creditor, including the charging order.

(f) This chapter does not deprive any partner or transferee of the benefit of any exemption law applicable to the transferable interest of the partner or transferee.

(g) This section provides the exclusive remedy by which a person seeking in the capacity of a judgment creditor to enforce a judgment against a partner or transferee may satisfy the judgment from the judgment debtor's transferable interest.

7-12.1-505. Power of legal representative of deceased partner.

If a partner dies, the deceased partner's legal representative may exercise:

(1) The rights of a transferee provided in § 7-12.1-503(c); and

(2) For purposes of settling the estate, the rights the deceased partner had under § 7-12.1-408.

DISSOCIATION

7-12.1-601. Events causing dissociation.

A person is dissociated as a partner when:

(1) The partnership knows or has notice of the person's express will to withdraw as a partner, but, if the person has specified a withdrawal date later than the date the partnership knew or had notice, on that later date;

(2) An event stated in the partnership agreement as causing the person's dissociation occurs;

(3) The person is expelled as a partner pursuant to the partnership agreement;

(4) The person is expelled as a partner by the affirmative vote or consent of all the other partners if:

(i) It is unlawful to carry on the partnership business with the person as a partner;

(ii) There has been a transfer of all of the person's transferable interest in the partnership, other than:

(A) A transfer for security purposes; or

(B) A charging order in effect under § 7-12.1-504 which has not been foreclosed;

(iii) The person is an entity and:

(A) The partnership notifies the person that it will be expelled as a partner because the person has filed a statement of dissolution or the equivalent, the person has been administratively dissolved, the person's charter or the equivalent has been revoked, or the person's right to conduct business has been suspended by the person's jurisdiction of formation; and

(B) Not later than ninety (90) days after the notification, the statement of dissolution or the equivalent has not been withdrawn, rescinded, or revoked, or the person's charter or the equivalent or right to conduct business has not been reinstated; or

(iv) The person is an unincorporated entity that has been dissolved and whose activities and affairs are being wound up;

(5) On application by the partnership or another partner, the person is expelled as a partner by judicial order because the person:

(i) Has engaged or is engaging in wrongful conduct that has affected adversely and materially, or will affect adversely and materially, the partnership's business;

(ii) Has committed willfully or persistently, or is committing willfully or persistently, a material breach of the partnership agreement or a duty or obligation under § 7-12.1-409; or

(iii) Has engaged or is engaging in conduct relating to the partnership's business which makes it not reasonably practicable to carry on the business with the person as a partner;

(6) The person:

(i) Becomes a debtor in bankruptcy;

(ii) Signs an assignment for the benefit of creditors; or

(iii) Seeks, consents to, or acquiesces in the appointment of a trustee, receiver, or liquidator of the person or of all or substantially all the person's property;

(7) In the case of an individual:

(i) The individual dies;

(ii) A guardian or general conservator for the individual is appointed; or

(iii) A court orders that the individual has otherwise become incapable of performing the individual's duties as a partner under this chapter or the partnership agreement;

(8) In the case of a person that is a testamentary or inter vivos trust or is acting as a partner by virtue of being a trustee of such a trust, the trust's entire transferable interest in the partnership is distributed;

(9) In the case of a person that is an estate or is acting as a partner by virtue of being a personal representative of an estate, the estate's entire transferable interest in the partnership is distributed;

(10) In the case of a person that is not an individual, the existence of the person terminates;

(11) The partnership participates in a merger under Article 11 of this chapter and:

(i) The partnership is not the surviving entity; or

(ii) Otherwise as a result of the merger, the person ceases to be a partner;
(12) The partnership participates in an interest exchange under Article 11 of this chapter and, as a result of the interest exchange, the person ceases to be a partner;
(13) The partnership participates in a conversion under Article 11 of this chapter;
(14) The partnership participates in a domestication under Article 11 of this chapter and, as a result of the domestication, the person ceases to be a partner; or
(15) The partnership dissolves and completes winding up.

7-12.1-602. Power to dissociate as partner -- Wrongful dissociation.

(a) A person has the power to dissociate as a partner at any time, rightfully or wrongfully, by withdrawing as a partner by express will under § 7-12.1-601(1).

(b) A person's dissociation as a partner is wrongful only if the dissociation:
   (1) Is in breach of an express provision of the partnership agreement; or
   (2) In the case of a partnership for a definite term or particular undertaking, occurs before the expiration of the term or the completion of the undertaking and:
      (i) The person withdraws as a partner by express will, unless the withdrawal follows not later than ninety (90) days after another person's dissociation by death or otherwise under §§ 7-12.1-601(6) through 7-12.1-601(10) or wrongful dissociation under this subsection;
      (ii) The person is expelled as a partner by judicial order under § 7-12.1-601(5);
      (iii) The person is dissociated under § 7-12.1-601(6); or
      (iv) In the case of a person that is not a trust other than a business trust, an estate, or an individual, the person is expelled or otherwise dissociated because it willfully dissolved or terminated.

(c) A person that wrongfully dissociates as a partner is liable to the partnership and to the other partners for damages caused by the dissociation. The liability is in addition to any debt, obligation, or other liability of the partner to the partnership or the other partners.

7-12.1-603. Effect of dissociation.

(a) If a person's dissociation results in a dissolution and winding up of the partnership business, Article 8 of this chapter applies; otherwise, Article 7 of this chapter applies.

(b) If a person is dissociated as a partner:
   (1) The person's right to participate in the management and conduct of the partnership's business terminates, except as otherwise provided in § 7-12.1-802(c); and
   (2) The person's duties and obligations under § 7-12.1-409 end with regard to matters arising and events occurring after the person's dissociation, except to the extent the partner participates in winding up the partnership's business pursuant to § 7-12.1-802.

(c) A person's dissociation does not of itself discharge the person from any debt, obligation, or other liability to the partnership or the other partners which the person incurred while a partner.

 PERSON’S DISSOCIATION AS A PARTNER WHEN BUSINESS NOT WOUND UP

7-12.1-701. Purchase of interest of person dissociated as partner.

(a) If a person is dissociated as a partner without the dissociation resulting in a dissolution and winding up of the partnership business under § 7-12.1-801, the partnership shall cause the person’s interest in the partnership to be purchased for a buyout price determined pursuant to subsection (b) of this section.

(b) The buyout price of the interest of a person dissociated as a partner is the amount that would have been distributable to the person under § 7-12.1-806(b) if, on the date of dissociation, the assets of the partnership were sold and the partnership were wound up, with the sale price equal to the greater of:

(1) The liquidation value; or
(2) The value based on a sale of the entire business as a going concern without the person.

(c) Interest accrues on the buyout price from the date of dissociation to the date of payment, but damages for wrongful dissociation under § 7-12.1-602(b), and all other amounts owing, whether or not presently due, from the person dissociated as a partner to the partnership, must be offset against the buyout price.

(d) A partnership shall defend, indemnify, and hold harmless a person dissociated as a partner whose interest is being purchased against all partnership liabilities, whether incurred before or after the dissociation, except liabilities incurred by an act of the person under § 7-12.1-702.

(e) If no agreement for the purchase of the interest of a person dissociated as a partner is reached not later than one hundred twenty (120) days after a written demand for payment, the partnership shall pay, or cause to be paid, in money to the person the amount the partnership estimates to be the buyout price and accrued interest, reduced by any offsets and accrued interest under subsection (c) of this section.

(f) If a deferred payment is authorized under subsection (h) of this section, the partnership may tender a written offer to pay the amount it estimates to be the buyout price and accrued interest, reduced by any offsets under subsection (c) of this section, stating the time of payment, the amount and type of security for payment, and the other terms and conditions of the obligation.

(g) The payment or tender required by subsections (e) or (f) of this section must be accompanied by the following:

(1) A statement of partnership assets and liabilities as of the date of dissociation;
(2) The latest available partnership balance sheet and income statement, if any;
(3) An explanation of how the estimated amount of the payment was calculated; and

(h) A person that wrongfully dissociates as a partner before the expiration of a definite term or the completion of a particular undertaking is not entitled to payment of any part of the buyout price until the expiration of the term or completion of the undertaking, unless the person establishes to the satisfaction of the court that earlier payment will not cause undue hardship to the business of the partnership. A deferred payment must be adequately secured and bear interest.

(i) A person dissociated as a partner may maintain an action against the partnership, pursuant to § 7-12.1-410(b)(2), to determine the buyout price of that person's interest, any offsets under subsection (c) of this section, or other terms of the obligation to purchase. The action must be commenced not later than one hundred twenty (120) days after the partnership has tendered payment or an offer to pay or within one year after written demand for payment if no payment or offer to pay is tendered. The court shall determine the buyout price of the person's interest, any offset due under subsection (c) of this section, and accrued interest, and enter judgment for any additional payment or refund. If deferred payment is authorized under subsection (h) of this section, the court shall also determine the security for payment and other terms of the obligation to purchase. The court may assess reasonable attorneys' fees and the fees and expenses of appraisers or other experts for a party to the action, in amounts the court finds equitable, against a party that the court finds acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith. The finding may be based on the partnership's failure to tender payment or an offer to pay or to comply with subsection (g) of this section.

7-12.1-702. Power to bind and liability of person dissociated as partner.

(a) After a person is dissociated as a partner without the dissociation resulting in a dissolution and winding up of the partnership business and before the partnership is merged out of existence, converted, or domesticated under Article 11, or dissolved, the partnership is bound by an act of the person only if:

(1) The act would have bound the partnership under § 7-12.1-301 before dissociation; and

(2) At the time the other party enters into the transaction:

(i) Less than two (2) years has passed since the dissociation; and

(ii) The other party does not know or have notice of the dissociation and reasonably believes that the person is a partner.
(b) If a partnership is bound under subsection (a) of this section, the person dissociated as a partner which caused the partnership to be bound is liable:

(1) To the partnership for any damage caused to the partnership arising from the obligation incurred under subsection (a) of this section; and

(2) If a partner or another person dissociated as a partner is liable for the obligation, to the partner or other person for any damage caused to the partner or other person arising from the liability.

7-12.1-703. Liability of person dissociated as partner to other persons.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b) of this section, a person dissociated as a partner is not liable for a partnership obligation incurred after dissociation.

(b) A person that is dissociated as a partner is liable on a transaction entered into by the partnership after the dissociation only if:

(1) A partner would be liable on the transaction; and

(2) At the time the other party enters into the transaction:

(ii) The other party does not have knowledge or notice of the dissociation and reasonably believes that the person is a partner.

(c) By agreement with a creditor of a partnership and the partnership, a person dissociated as a partner may be released from liability for a debt, obligation, or other liability of the partnership.

(d) A person dissociated as a partner is released from liability for a debt, obligation, or other liability of the partnership if the partnership's creditor, with knowledge or notice of the person's dissociation but without the person's consent, agrees to a material alteration in the nature or time of payment of the debt, obligation, or other liability.

7-12.1-704. Statement of dissociation.

(a) A person dissociated as a partner or the partnership may deliver to the secretary of state for filing a statement of dissociation stating the name of the partnership and that the person has dissociated from the partnership.

7-12.1-705. Continued use of partnership name.

Continued use of a partnership name, or the name of a person dissociated as a partner as part of the partnership name, by partners continuing the business does not of itself make the person dissociated as a partner liable for an obligation of the partners or the partnership continuing the business.
ARTICLE 8

DISSOLUTION AND WINDING UP

7-12.1-801. Events causing dissolution.

A partnership is dissolved, and its business must be wound up, upon the occurrence of any of the following:

(1) In a partnership at will, the partnership knows or has notice of a person's express will to withdraw as a partner, other than a partner that has dissociated under §§ 7-12.1-601(2) through 7-12.1-601(10), but, if the person has specified a withdrawal date later than the date the partnership knew or had notice, on the later date;

   (ii) The affirmative vote or consent of all the partners to wind up the partnership business;

or

(iii) The expiration of the term or the completion of the undertaking;

(3) An event or circumstance that the partnership agreement states causes dissolution;

   (iii) Another partner has engaged in conduct relating to the partnership business which makes it not reasonably practicable to carry on the business in partnership with that partner; or
   (iv) It is otherwise not reasonably practicable to carry on the partnership business in conformity with the partnership agreement;

(5) On application by a transferee, the entry by the superior court of an order dissolving the partnership on the ground that it is equitable to wind up the partnership business:

   (ii) At any time, if the partnership was a partnership at will at the time of the transfer or entry of the charging order that gave rise to the transfer; or

(d) If a dissolved partnership does not have a partner and no person has the right to participate in winding up under subsection (c) of this section, the personal or legal representative of the last person to have been a partner may wind up the partnership's business. If the representative does not exercise that right, a person to wind up the partnership's business may be appointed by the affirmative vote or consent of transferees owning a majority of the rights to receive distributions at the time the consent is to be effective. A person appointed under this subsection has the powers of a partner under § 7-12.1-804 but is not liable for the debts, obligations, and other liabilities of the partnership solely by reason of having or exercising those powers or otherwise acting to wind up the partnership's business.

(e) On the application of any partner or person entitled under subsection (c) of this section to participate in winding up, the superior court may order judicial supervision of the winding up of a dissolved partnership, including the appointment of a person to wind up the partnership's business, if:
(1) The partnership does not have a partner and within a reasonable time following the dissolution no person has been appointed under subsection (d) of this section; or
(2) The applicant establishes other good cause.

7-12.1-803. Rescinding dissolution.

to the partnership has become effective or the superior court has entered an order under §§ 7-12.1-

(2) Subject to subsection (c)(3) of this section, any liability incurred by the partnership after the dissolution and before the rescission has become effective is determined as if dissolution had never occurred; and
(3) The rights of a third party arising out of conduct in reliance on the dissolution before the third party knew or had notice of the rescission may not be adversely affected.

7-12.1-804. Power to bind partnership after dissolution.
(a) A partnership is bound by a partner's act after dissolution which:
(1) Is appropriate for winding up the partnership business; or dissolution.

7-12.1-805. Liability after dissolution of partner and person dissociated as partner.

(a) If a partner having knowledge of the dissolution causes a partnership to incur an obligation under § 7-12.1-804(a) by an act that is not appropriate for winding up the partnership business, the partner is liable:

(1) To the partnership for any damage caused to the partnership arising from the obligation;

and

(2) If another partner or person dissociated as a partner is liable for the obligation, to that other partner or person for any damage caused to that other partner or person arising from the liability.

as a partner causes a partnership to incur an obligation under § 7-12.1-804(b), the person is liable:

distributed in the following order, subject to any charging order in effect under § 7-12.1-504:

The contribution due from each of those persons is in proportion to the right to receive distributions in the capacity of a partner in effect for each of those persons when the obligation was incurred.

(d) A person that makes an additional contribution under subsection (c)(2) or (c)(3) of this section may recover from any person whose failure to contribute under subsection (c)(1) or (c)(2) of this section necessitated the additional contribution. A person may not recover under this subsection more than the amount additionally contributed. A person's liability under this subsection may not exceed the amount the person failed to contribute.

(e) If a partnership does not have sufficient surplus to comply with subsection (b)(1) of this section, any surplus must be distributed among the owners of transferable interests in proportion to the value of the respective unreturned contributions.

(f) All distributions made under subsections (b) and (c) of this section must be paid in money.

(b) A dissolved limited-liability partnership may in a record notify its known claimants of the dissolution. The notice must:
(1) Specify the information required to be included in a claim;

(2) State that a claim must be in writing and provide a mailing address to which the claim is to be sent;

(3) State the deadline for receipt of a claim, which may not be less than one hundred twenty (120) days after the date the notice is received by the claimant;

(c) A claim against a dissolved limited-liability partnership is barred if the requirements of subsection (b) of this section are met and:

(1) The claim is not received by the specified deadline; or

(9) A misrepresentation has been made of any material matter in any application, report, affidavit, or other document submitted by the limited-liability partnership pursuant to this chapter.

(b) No certificate of a limited-liability partnership shall be revoked by the secretary of state unless:

(1) The secretary of state shall have given the limited-liability partnership notice thereof not less than sixty (60) days prior to such revocation by regular mail addressed to the registered agent in this state on file with the secretary of state's office, which notice shall specify the basis for the revocation; provided, however, that if a prior mailing addressed to the address of the registered agent of the limited-liability partnership in this state currently on file with the secretary of state's office has been returned as undeliverable by the United States Postal Service for any reason, or if the revocation notice is returned as undeliverable by the United States Postal Service for any reason, the secretary of state shall give notice as follows:
(i) To the limited-liability partnership at its principal office of record as shown in its most recent annual report, and no further notice shall be required; or

(ii) In the case of a limited-liability partnership that has not yet filed an annual report, then to the limited-liability partnership at the principal office in the statement of qualification of limited-liability partnership and no further notice shall be required; and

(2) The limited-liability partnership fails prior to revocation to file the annual report, pay the fees or taxes, file the required statement of change of registered agent, file any amendments to its statement of qualification or articles of dissolution, cancellation statement, merger, or consolidation, or correct the misrepresentation.

(a) Upon revoking any such certificate of a limited-liability partnership, the secretary of state shall:

(1) Issue a certificate of revocation in duplicate;

(2) File one of the certificates in the secretary of state's office;

(3) Send to the limited-liability partnership by regular mail a certificate of revocation, addressed to the registered agent of the limited-liability partnership in this state on file with the secretary of state's office; provided, however, that if a prior mailing addressed to the address of the registered agent of the limited-liability partnership in this state currently on file with the secretary of state's office has been returned to the secretary of state as undeliverable by the United States Postal Service for any reason, or if the revocation certificate is returned as undeliverable to the secretary of state's office by the United States Postal Service for any reason, the secretary of state shall give notice as follows:

(i) To the limited-liability partnership at its principal office of record as shown in its most recent annual report, and no further notice shall be required; or

(ii) In the case of a limited-liability partnership that has not yet filed an annual report, then to the domestic limited-liability company at the principal office in the articles of organization or to the authorized person listed on the articles of organization, and no further notice shall be required.

(b) An administrative revocation under this section affects only the partnership’s status as a limited-liability partnership and is not an event causing dissolution of the partnership.

(c) The revocation of a limited-liability partnership does not terminate the authority of its registered agent.

7-12.1-904. Reinstatement.

(a) A partnership whose statement of qualification has been revoked administratively under § 7-12.1-903 may apply to the secretary of state for reinstatement of the statement of qualification not later than two (2) years after the effective date of the revocation. The application must be accompanied by a certificate of good standing from the Rhode Island division of taxation and state:

(1) The name of the partnership at the time of the administrative revocation of its statement of qualification and, if needed, a different name that satisfies § 7-12.1-902;

(2) The address of the principal office of the partnership and the name and street and mailing addresses of its registered agent;

(3) The effective date of administrative revocation of the partnership's statement of qualification;

(4) On the payment by the limited-liability partnership of a penalty in the amount of fifty dollars ($50.00) for each year or part of year that has elapsed since the issuance of the certificate of revocation; and

(5) That the grounds for revocation did not exist or have been cured.

(b) To have its statement of qualification reinstated, a partnership must pay all fees, taxes, interest, and penalties that were due to the secretary of state or tax administrator at the time of the administrative revocation and all fees, taxes, interest, and penalties that would have been due to the secretary of state or tax administrator while the partnership's statement of qualification was revoked administratively.

(c) If the secretary of state determines that an application under subsection (a) of this section contains the required information, is satisfied that the information is correct, and determines that all payments required to be made to the secretary of state by subsection (b) of this section have been made, the secretary of state shall:

(1) Cancel the statement of revocation and prepare a statement of reinstatement that states the secretary of state's determination and the effective date of reinstatement; and

(2) File the statement of reinstatement and serve a copy on the partnership.

(d) When reinstatement under this section has become effective, the following rules apply:

(1) The reinstatement relates back to and takes effect as of the effective date of the administrative revocation.

(2) The partnership's status as a limited-liability partnership continues as if the revocation had not occurred.

(3) The rights of a person arising out of an act or omission in reliance on the revocation before the person knew or had notice of the reinstatement are not affected.

(a) If the secretary of state denies a partnership's application for reinstatement following administrative revocation of the partnership's statement of qualification, the secretary of state shall serve the partnership with a notice in a record that explains the reasons for the denial.

(b) A partnership may seek judicial review of denial of reinstatement in the Providence County superior court not later than thirty (30) days after service of the notice of denial.

7-12.1-906. Reservation of name.

(a) A person may reserve the exclusive use of a name that complies with § 7-12.1-902 by delivering an application to the secretary of state for filing. The application must state the name and address of the applicant and the name to be reserved. If the secretary of state finds that the name is available, the secretary of state shall reserve the name for the applicant's exclusive use for one hundred twenty (120) days.

(b) The owner of a reserved name may transfer the reservation to another person by delivering to the secretary of state a signed notice in a record of the transfer which states the name and address of the person to which the reservation is being transferred.

(a) A foreign limited-liability partnership not registered to do business in this state under Article 10 of this chapter may register its name, or an alternate name adopted pursuant to § 7-12.1-902, if the name is distinguishable on the records of the secretary of state from the names that are not available under § 7-12.1-902.

(b) To register its name or an alternate name adopted pursuant to § 7-12.1-902, a foreign limited-liability partnership must deliver to the secretary of state for filing an application stating the partnership's name, the jurisdiction and date of its formation, and any alternate name adopted pursuant to § 7-12.1-902. If the secretary of state finds that the name applied for is available, the secretary of state shall register the name for the applicant's exclusive use.

(c) The registration of a name under this section is effective for one year after the date of registration.

(d) A foreign limited-liability partnership whose name registration is effective may renew the registration for successive one-year periods by delivering, not earlier than three (3) months before the expiration of the registration, to the secretary of state for filing a renewal application that complies with this section. When filed, the renewal application renews the registration for a succeeding one-year period.

(e) A foreign limited-liability partnership whose name registration is effective may register as a foreign limited-liability partnership under the registered name or consent in a signed record to the use of that name by another person that is not an individual.

7-12.1-908. Registered agent.

(a) Each limited-liability partnership and each registered foreign limited-liability partnership shall designate and maintain a registered agent in this state. The designation of a registered agent is an affirmation of fact by the partnership or foreign partnership that the agent has consented to serve.

(b) A registered agent for a limited-liability partnership or registered foreign limited-liability partnership must be an existing person and have a place of business in this state.

(c) The only duties under this chapter of a registered agent that has complied with this chapter are:

(1) To forward to the limited-liability partnership or registered foreign limited-liability partnership at the address most recently supplied to the agent by the partnership or foreign partnership any process, notice, or demand pertaining to the partnership or foreign partnership which is served on or received by the agent;

(2) If the registered agent resigns, to provide the notice required by § 7-12.1-907(c) to the partnership or foreign partnership at the address most recently supplied to the agent by the partnership or foreign partnership; and

(3) To keep current the information with respect to the agent in the statement of qualification or foreign registration statement.

7-12.1-909. Change of registered agent or address for registered agent by limited-liability partnership.

(a) A limited-liability partnership or registered foreign limited-liability partnership may change its registered agent or the address of its registered agent by delivering to the secretary of state for filing a statement of change that states:

(1) The name of the partnership or foreign partnership; and

(2) The information that is to be in effect as a result of the filing of the statement of change.

(b) The partners of a limited-liability partnership need not approve the delivery to the secretary of state for filing of:

(1) A statement of change under this section; or

(2) A similar filing changing the registered agent or registered office, if any, of the partnership in any other jurisdiction.

(c) A statement of change under this section designating a new registered agent is an affirmation of fact by the limited-liability partnership or registered foreign limited-liability partnership that the agent has consented to serve.

7-12.1-910. Resignation of registered agent.

(a) A registered agent may resign as an agent for a limited-liability partnership or registered foreign limited-liability partnership by delivering to the secretary of state for filing a statement of resignation that states:

1. The name of the partnership or foreign partnership;

2. The name of the agent;

3. That the agent resigns from serving as registered agent for the partnership or foreign partnership; and

4. The address of the partnership or foreign partnership to which the agent will send the notice required by subsection (c) of this section.

(b) A statement of resignation takes effect on the earlier of:

1. The thirty-first day after the day on which it is filed by the secretary of state; or

2. The designation of a new registered agent for the limited-liability partnership or registered foreign limited-liability partnership.

c. A registered agent promptly shall furnish to the limited-liability partnership or registered foreign limited-liability partnership notice in a record of the date on which a statement of resignation was filed.

d. When a statement of resignation takes effect, the registered agent ceases to have responsibility under this chapter for any matter thereafter tendered to it as agent for the limited-liability partnership or registered foreign limited-liability partnership. The resignation does not affect any contractual rights the partnership or foreign partnership has against the agent or that the agent has against the partnership or foreign partnership.

e. A registered agent may resign with respect to a limited-liability partnership or registered foreign limited-liability partnership whether or not the partnership or foreign partnership is in good standing.

7-12.1-911. Change of name or address by registered agent.

(a) If a registered agent changes its name or address, the agent may deliver to the secretary of state for filing a statement of change that states:

1. The name of the limited-liability partnership or registered foreign limited-liability partnership represented by the registered agent;

2. The name of the agent as currently shown in the records of the secretary of state for the partnership or foreign partnership;

3. If the name of the agent has changed, its new name; and

4. If the address of the agent has changed, its new address.

(b) A registered agent promptly shall furnish notice to the represented limited-liability partnership or registered foreign limited-liability partnership of the filing by the secretary of state of the statement of change and the changes made by the statement.
7-12.1-912. Service of process, notice, or demand.

(a) A limited-liability partnership or registered foreign limited-liability partnership may be served with any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law by serving its registered agent.

(b) If a limited-liability partnership or registered foreign limited-liability partnership fails to appoint or maintain a registered agent in this state, or whenever its registered agent cannot with reasonable diligence be found at the registered office, then the secretary of state is an agent of the corporation upon whom any process, notice, or demand may be served. Service on the secretary of state of any process, notice, or demand is made by delivering to and leaving with him or her or with any clerk having charge of the corporation department of his or her office, duplicate copies of the process, notice, or demand. In the event any process, notice, or demand is served on the secretary of state, the secretary of state shall immediately forward one of the copies by certified mail, addressed to the corporation at its registered office. Any service upon the secretary of state is returnable in not less than thirty (30) days.

(c) The secretary of state shall maintain a record of any such service setting forth the name of the plaintiff and defendant, the title, docket number and nature of the proceeding in which process has been served upon the secretary of state, the fact that service has been effected pursuant to this subsection, the return date thereof, and the day and hour when the service was made. The secretary of state shall not be required to retain such information for a period longer than five (5) years from receipt of the service of process.

(d) Service of process, notice, or demand on a registered agent must be in a written record.

(e) Service of process, notice, or demand may be made by other means under law other than this chapter.

7-12.1-913. Annual report for secretary of state.

(a) A limited-liability partnership or registered foreign limited-liability partnership shall deliver to the secretary of state for filing an annual report that states:

(1) The name of the partnership or registered foreign partnership;
(2) The street and mailing addresses of its principal office;
(3) The name of at least one partner;
(4) In the case of a foreign partnership, its jurisdiction of formation and any alternate name adopted under § 7-12.1-1006;
(5) A brief statement of the character of the business in which the limited-liability partnership is actually engaged in this state; and
(6) Any additional information that is required by the secretary of state.
(b) The annual report must be made on forms prescribed and furnished by the secretary of state, and the information in the annual report must be current as of the date the report is signed by the limited-liability partnership or registered foreign limited-liability partnership.

(c) The first annual report must be filed with the secretary of state after February 1, and before May 1, of the year following the calendar year in which the limited-liability partnership's statement of qualification became effective or the registered foreign limited-liability partnership registered to do business in this state. Subsequent annual reports must be filed with the secretary of state after February 1, and before May 1, of each calendar year thereafter. Proof to the satisfaction of the secretary of state that prior to May 1 the report was deposited in the United States mail in a sealed envelope, properly addressed, with postage prepaid, is deemed to be a compliance with this requirement.

(d) If the secretary of state finds that the annual report conforms to the requirements of this chapter, the secretary of state shall file the report. If an annual report does not contain the information required by this section, the secretary of state promptly shall notify the reporting limited-liability partnership or registered foreign limited-liability partnership in a record and return the report for correction, in which event the penalties subsequently prescribed for failure to file the report within the time previously provided do not apply if the report is corrected to conform to the requirements of this chapter and returned to the secretary of state within thirty (30) days from the date on which it was mailed to the corporation by the secretary of state.

(e) Each limited-liability partnership, domestic or foreign, that fails or refuses to file its annual report for any year within thirty (30) days after the time prescribed by this chapter is subject to a penalty of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) per year.

7-12.1-914. Filing of returns with the tax administrator -- annual charge.

(a) For tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2012, a limited-liability partnership registered under § 7-12-56, shall file a return in the form and containing the information as prescribed by the tax administrator as follows:

(1) If the fiscal year of the limited-liability partnership is the calendar year, on or before the fifteenth day of April in the year following the close of the fiscal year; and

(2) If the fiscal year of the limited-liability partnership is not a calendar year, on or before the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of the fiscal year.

(b) For tax years beginning after December 31, 2015, a limited-liability partnership registered under § 7-12-56 or this chapter, shall file a return, in the form and containing the information as prescribed by the tax administrator, and shall be filed on or before the date a federal tax return is due to be filed, without regard to extension.
(c) An annual charge, equal to the minimum tax imposed upon a corporation under § 44-11-2(e), shall be due on the filing of the limited-liability partnership's return filed with the tax administrator and shall be paid to the division of taxation.

(d) The annual charge is delinquent if not paid by the due date for the filing of the return and an addition of one hundred dollars ($100) to the charge is then due.

7-12.1-915. Confirmation of state fees and taxes.

(a) Notwithstanding any other provisions of the Rhode Island general laws, when any section of this chapter refers to state fees and/or taxes paid, the division of taxation is authorized to respond and share tax information with the secretary of state’s office in response to a request from that office regarding an entity’s tax status as compliant or noncompliant.

(b) If the secretary of state’s office receives notice from the division of taxation that the limited-liability partnership has failed to pay any fees or taxes due this state, the secretary of state shall begin revocation proceedings in accordance with the provisions of § 7-12.1-903. The notice of revocation may state as the basis for revocation that the taxpayer failed to pay state fees and/or taxes to the division of taxation. However, the secretary of state’s office must otherwise protect all state and federal tax information in its custody as required by § 7-12.1-915 and refrain from disclosing any other specific tax information.

7-12.1-916. Revocation of certificate of limited-liability partnership or certificate of registration for nonpayment of fee.

(a) The tax administrator may, after July 15 of each year, compile a list of all limited-liability partnerships that have failed to pay any state fees and/or taxes for one year after the fees and/or taxes became due and payable, and the failure is not the subject of a pending appeal. The tax administrator shall certify to the correctness of the list. Upon receipt of the certified list, the secretary of state may initiate revocation proceedings as defined in § 7-12.1-903.

(b) With respect to any information provided by the division of taxation to the secretary of state’s office pursuant to this chapter, the secretary of state, together with the employees or agents thereof, shall be subject to all state and federal tax confidentiality laws applying to the division of taxation and the officers, agents, and employees thereof, and which restrict the acquisition, use, storage, dissemination, or publication of confidential taxpayer data.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the notice of revocation may state as the basis for revocation that the taxpayer has failed to pay state fees and/or taxes to the division of taxation. However, the secretary of state’s office must otherwise protect all state and federal tax information in its custody as required by subsection (b) of this section and refrain from disclosing any other specific tax information.
ARTICLE 10
FOREIGN LIMITED-LIABILITY PARTNERSHIP

(a) The law of the jurisdiction of formation of a foreign limited-liability partnership governs:

(1) The internal affairs of the partnership; and

(2) The liability of a partner as partner for a debt, obligation, or other liability of the foreign partnership.

(b) A foreign limited-liability partnership is not precluded from registering to do business in this state because of any difference between the law of its jurisdiction of formation and the law of this state.

(c) Registration of a foreign limited-liability partnership to do business in this state does not authorize the foreign partnership to engage in any business or exercise any power that a limited-liability partnership may not engage in or exercise in this state.

7-12.1-1002. Registration to do business in this state.

(a) A foreign limited-liability partnership may not do business in this state until it registers with the secretary of state under this article.

(b) A foreign limited-liability partnership doing business in this state may not maintain an action or proceeding in this state unless it has registered to do business in this state.

(c) The failure of a foreign limited-liability partnership to register to do business in this state does not impair the validity of a contract or act of the foreign partnership or preclude it from defending an action or proceeding in this state.

(d) A limitation on the liability of a partner of a foreign limited-liability partnership is not waived solely because the foreign partnership does business in this state without registering to do business in this state.

(e) Sections 7-12.1-1001(a) and 7-12.1-1001(b) applies even if a foreign limited-liability partnership fails to register under this article.

7-12.1-1003. Foreign registration statement.

To register to do business in this state, a foreign limited-liability partnership must deliver a foreign registration statement to the secretary of state for filing. The statement must state:

(1) The name of the partnership and, if the name does not comply with § 7-12.1-902, an alternate name adopted pursuant to § 7-12.1-1006(a);

(2) That the partnership is a foreign limited-liability partnership;

(3) The partnership's jurisdiction of formation;
(4) The general character of the business it proposes to transact in this state;
(5) The name and business address of at least one partner;
(6) The street and mailing addresses of the partnership's principal office and, if the law of the partnership's jurisdiction of formation requires the partnership to maintain an office in that jurisdiction, the street and mailing addresses of the required office;
(7) The name and street and mailing addresses of the partnership's registered agent in this state;
(8) A statement that the secretary of state is appointed the agent of a foreign limited-liability partnership for service of process if no agent has been appointed, or, if appointed, the agent’s authority has been revoked or if the agent cannot be found or served with the exercise of reasonable diligence; and
(9) Additional information as may be necessary or appropriate in order to enable the secretary of state to determine whether the foreign limited-liability partnership is entitled to a certificate of authority to transact business in this state.

7-12.1-1004. Amendment of foreign registration statement.
A registered foreign limited-liability partnership shall deliver to the secretary of state for filing an amendment to its foreign registration statement if there is a change in:
(1) The name of the partnership;
(2) The alternate name adopted pursuant to § 7-12.1-1006(a);
(3) The address required by § 7-12.1-1003(6).

7-12.1-1005. Activities not constituting doing business.
(a) Activities of a foreign limited-liability partnership which do not constitute doing business in this state under this article include:
(1) Maintaining, defending, mediating, arbitrating, or settling an action or proceeding;
(2) Carrying on any activity concerning its internal affairs, including holding meetings of its partners;
(3) Maintaining accounts in financial institutions;
(4) Maintaining offices or agencies for the transfer, exchange, and registration of securities of the partnership or maintaining trustees or depositories with respect to those securities;
(5) Selling through independent contractors;
(6) Soliciting or obtaining orders by any means if the orders require acceptance outside this state before they become contracts;
(7) Creating or acquiring indebtedness, mortgages, or security interests in property;
(8) Securing or collecting debts or enforcing mortgages or security interests in property.
securing the debts and holding, protecting, or maintaining property;

(9) Conducting an isolated transaction that is not in the course of similar transactions;

(10) Owning, without more, property; and

(11) Doing business in interstate commerce.

(b) A person does not do business in this state solely by being a partner of a foreign limited-liability partnership that does business in this state.

(c) This section does not apply in determining the contacts or activities that may subject a foreign limited-liability partnership to service of process, taxation, or regulation under law of this state other than this chapter.

7-12.1-1006. Noncomplying name of foreign limited-liability partnership.

(a) A foreign limited-liability partnership whose name does not comply with § 7-12.1-902 may not register to do business in this state until it adopts, for the purpose of doing business in this state, an alternate name that complies with § 7-12.1-902. A partnership that registers under an alternate name under this subsection need not comply with §§ 7-16-902 or 7-1.2-402. A partnership that registers under an alternate name under this subsection need not comply with this state’s fictitious name statute. After registering to do business in the state with an alternate name, a partnership shall do business in this state under:

(1) The alternate name;

(2) The partnership's name, with the addition of its jurisdiction of formation; or

(3) A name the partnership is authorized to use under the state's fictitious name statute to include, but not be limited to, §§ 7-16-902.1 or 7-1.2-402.

(b) If a registered foreign limited-liability partnership changes its name to one that does not comply with § 7-12.1-902, it may not do business in this state until it complies with subsection (a) of this section by amending its registration to adopt an alternate name that complies with § 7-12.1-902.

7-12.1-1007. Withdrawal deemed on conversion to domestic filing entity or domestic limited-liability partnership.

A registered foreign limited-liability partnership that converts to a domestic limited-liability partnership or to a domestic entity whose formation requires the delivery of a record to the secretary of state for filing is deemed to have withdrawn its registration on the effective date of the conversion.

7-12.1-1008. Withdrawal on dissolution or conversion to nonfiling entity other than limited-liability partnership.

(a) A registered foreign limited-liability partnership that has dissolved and completed winding up or has converted to a domestic or foreign entity whose formation does not require the public filing of a record, other than a limited-liability partnership, shall deliver a statement of withdrawal to the secretary of state for filing. The statement must state:

(1) In the case of a partnership that has completed winding up:

(i) Its name and jurisdiction of formation;

(ii) That the partnership surrenders its registration to do business in this state;

(iii) That the limited-liability partnership revokes the authority of its registered agent in this state to accept service of process and consents that service of process in any action, suit, or proceeding based upon any cause of action arising in this state during the time the limited-liability partnership was authorized to transact business in this state may subsequently be made on the limited-liability partnership by service on the secretary of state in accordance with subsection (b) of this section; and

(iv) The post office address to which the secretary of state may mail a copy of any process against the limited-liability partnerships that is served on the secretary of state.

(2) In the case of a partnership that has converted:

(i) The name of the converting partnership and its jurisdiction of formation;

(ii) The type of entity to which the partnership has converted and its jurisdiction of

(iii) That the converted entity surrenders the converting partnership's registration to do business in this state and revokes the authority of the converting partnership's registered agent to act as registered agent in this state on behalf of the partnership or the converted entity; and

(iv) A mailing address to which service of process may be made under subsection (b) of this section.

(b) After a withdrawal under this section becomes effective, service of process in any action or proceeding based on a cause of action arising during the time the foreign limited-liability partnership was registered to do business in this state may be made pursuant to § 7-12.1-912.

7-12.1-1009. Transfer of registration.

(a) When a registered foreign limited-liability partnership has merged into a foreign entity that is not registered to do business in this state or has converted to a foreign entity required to register with the secretary of state to do business in this state, the foreign entity shall deliver to the secretary of state for filing an application for transfer of registration. The application must state:

(1) The name of the registered foreign limited-liability partnership before the merger or conversion;

(2) That before the merger or conversion the registration pertained to a foreign limitedliability partnership;

(3) The name of the applicant foreign entity into which the foreign limited-liability partnership has merged or to which it has been converted and, if the name does not comply with § 7-12.1-902, an alternate name adopted pursuant to § 7-12.1-1006(a);

(4) The type of entity of the applicant foreign entity and its jurisdiction of formation;

(b) An application for authority to transact business in the state of Rhode Island for the resulting entity type and a certificate of legal existence or good standing issued by the proper officer of the state or country under the laws of which the resulting entity has been formed.

c) When an application for transfer of registration takes effect, the registration of the foreign limited-liability limited partnership to do business in this state is transferred without interruption to the foreign entity into which the partnership has merged or to which it has been converted.

7-12.1-1010. Revocation of registration.

(a) The registration of a foreign limited-liability partnership may be revoked by the secretary of state under the conditions prescribed in this section when it is established that:

(1) The limited-liability partnership procured its certificate of registration through fraud;

(2) The limited-liability partnership has continued to exceed or abuse the authority conferred upon it by law;

(3) The limited-liability partnership has failed to file its annual report within the time required by this chapter;

(4) The limited-liability partnership has failed to pay any required fees to the secretary of state when they have become due and payable;

(5) The limited-liability partnership has failed for thirty (30) days to appoint and maintain a registered agent in this state as required by this chapter;

(6) The limited-liability partnership has failed, after change of its registered agent, to file in the office of the secretary of state a statement of the change as required by this chapter;

(7) The limited-liability partnership has failed to file in the office of the secretary of state any amendment to its certificate of registration or any articles of dissolution, merger, or consolidation as prescribed by this chapter; or

(8) A misrepresentation has been made of any material matter in any application, report, affidavit, or other document submitted by the limited-liability partnership pursuant to this chapter.

(b) No certificate of registration of a limited-liability partnership shall be revoked by the secretary of state unless:

(1) The secretary of state shall have given the limited-liability partnership notice thereof.
not less than sixty (60) days prior to such revocation by regular mail addressed to the registered agent in this state on file with the secretary of state's office, which notice shall specify the basis for the revocation; provided, however, that if a prior mailing addressed to the address of the registered agent of the limited-liability partnership in this state currently on file with the secretary of state's office has been returned as undeliverable by the United States Postal Service for any reason, or if the revocation notice is returned as undeliverable by the United States Postal Service for any reason, the secretary of state shall give notice as follows:

(i) To the limited-liability partnership at its principal office of record as shown in its most recent annual report, and no further notice shall be required; or

(ii) In the case of a limited-liability partnership that has not yet filed an annual report, then to the limited-liability partnership at the principal office in the certificate of registration of limitedliability partnership and no further notice shall be required; and

(2) The limited-liability partnership fails prior to revocation to file the annual report, pay the fees or taxes, file the required statement of change of registered agent, file the amendment to its registration or certificate of withdrawal of registration, merger, or consolidation, or correct the misrepresentation.

7-12.1-1011. Issuance of certificates of revocation.

(a) Upon revoking any such certificate of registration of limited-liability partnership, the secretary of state shall:

(1) Issue a certificate of revocation in duplicate;

(2) File one of the certificates in the secretary of state's office;

(3) Send to the limited-liability partnership by regular mail a certificate of revocation, addressed to the registered agent of the limited-liability partnership in this state on file with the secretary of state's office; provided, however, that if a prior mailing addressed to the address of the

(d) When reinstatement under this section has become effective, the following rules apply:

(1) In the same manner as the plan was approved, if the plan does not provide for the manner in which it may be amended; or

(2) By its partners in the manner provided in the plan, but a partner that was entitled to vote on or consent to approval of the interest exchange is entitled to vote on or consent to any amendment of the plan that will change:

(i) The amount or kind of interests, securities, obligations, money, other property, rights to acquire interests or securities, or any combination of the foregoing, to be received by any of the partners of the acquired partnership under the plan;

(ii) The partnership agreement of the acquired partnership that will be in effect immediately after the interest exchange becomes effective, except for changes that do not require approval of the partners of the acquired partnership under this chapter or the partnership agreement; or

(iii) Any other terms or conditions of the plan, if the change would adversely affect the partner in any material respect.

(c) After a plan of interest exchange has been approved and before a statement of interest exchange becomes effective, the plan may be abandoned as provided in the plan. Unless prohibited by the plan, a domestic acquired partnership may abandon the plan in the same manner as the plan was approved.

(d) If a plan of interest exchange is abandoned after a statement of interest exchange has been filed with the secretary of state and before the statement becomes effective, a statement of abandonment, signed by the acquired partnership, must be filed with the secretary of state before the statement of interest exchange becomes effective. The statement of abandonment takes effect on filing, and the interest exchange is abandoned and does not become effective. The statement of abandonment must contain:

(1) The name of the acquired partnership;

(2) The date on which the statement of interest exchange was filed by the secretary of state; and 7-12.1-11.36. Effect of interest exchange.

(c) When an interest exchange becomes effective, a person that did not have interest holder liability with respect to a domestic acquired partnership and becomes subject to interest holder liability with respect to a domestic entity as a result of the interest exchange has interest holder liability only to the extent provided by the organic law of the entity and only for those debts, obligations, and other liabilities that are incurred after the interest exchange becomes effective.

(d) When an interest exchange becomes effective, the interest holder liability of a person that ceases to hold an interest in a domestic acquired partnership with respect to which the person had interest holder liability is subject to the following rules:

(2) The person does not have interest holder liability under this chapter for any debt, obligation, or other liability that is incurred after the interest exchange becomes effective.

(3) This chapter continues to apply to the release, collection, or discharge of any interest holder liability preserved under subsection (d)(1) of this section as if the interest exchange had not occurred.

(iii) Any other terms or conditions of the plan, if the change would adversely affect the partner in any material respect.

(b) After a plan of conversion has been approved by a domestic converting partnership and before a statement of conversion becomes effective, the plan may be abandoned as provided in the plan. Unless prohibited by the plan, a domestic converting partnership may abandon the plan in the same manner as the plan was approved.

(c) If a plan of conversion is abandoned after a statement of conversion has been filed with the secretary of state and before the statement becomes effective, a statement of abandonment, signed by the converting entity, must be filed with the secretary of state before the statement of conversion becomes effective. The statement of abandonment takes effect on filing, and the conversion is abandoned and does not become effective. The statement of abandonment must contain:

qualification, as an attachment.

c) In addition to the requirements of subsection (b) of this section, a statement of conversion may contain any other provision not prohibited by law.

(d) If the converted entity is a domestic entity, its public organic record, if any, must satisfy the requirements of the law of this state, except that the public organic record does not need to be signed.

e) If the converted entity is a domestic partnership, the conversion becomes effective when the statement of conversion is effective. In all other cases, the conversion becomes effective on the later of:

converting entity are entitled only to the rights provided to them under the plan of conversion and to any appraisal rights they have under § 7-12.1-11.16.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in the partnership agreement of a domestic converting partnership, the conversion does not give rise to any rights that a partner or third party would have upon a dissolution, liquidation, or winding up of the converting entity.

(c) When a conversion becomes effective, a person that did not have interest holder liability with respect to the converting entity and becomes subject to interest holder liability with respect to a domestic entity as a result of the conversion has interest holder liability only to the extent provided by the organic law of the entity and only for those debts, obligations, and other liabilities that are incurred after the conversion becomes effective.

(d) When a conversion becomes effective, the interest holder liability of a person that ceases to hold an interest in a domestic converting partnership with respect to which the person had interest holder liability is subject to the following rules:

(1) The conversion does not discharge any interest holder liability under this chapter to the extent the interest holder liability was incurred before the conversion became effective.

(2) The person does not have interest holder liability under this chapter for any debt, obligation, or other liability that is incurred after the conversion becomes effective.

(3) This chapter continues to apply to the release, collection, or discharge of any interest holder liability preserved under subsection (d)(1) of this section as if the conversion had not occurred.

foreign limited-liability partnership if the domestication is authorized by the law of the foreign jurisdiction.

(b) By complying with the provisions of this part applicable to foreign limited-liability partnerships, a foreign limited-liability partnership may become a domestic limited-liability partnership if the domestication is authorized by the law of the foreign limited-liability partnership's jurisdiction of formation.

c) If a protected agreement contains a provision that applies to a merger of a domestic limited-liability partnership but does not refer to a domestication, the provision applies to a domestication of the limited-liability partnership as if the domestication were a merger until the provision is amended after the effective date of this chapter.

7-12.1-11.52. Plan of domestication.

may contain any other provision not prohibited by law.

7-12.1-11.53. Approval of domestication.

(a) A plan of domestication of a domestic domesticating limited-liability partnership is not effective unless it has been approved:

(1) By all the partners entitled to vote on or consent to any matter; and

(2) In a record, by each partner that will have interest holder liability for debts, obligations, and other liabilities that are incurred after the domestication becomes effective, unless:

(ii) The partner voted for or consented in a record to that provision of the partnership agreement or became a partner after the adoption of that provision.

partner in any material respect.

(b) After a plan of domestication has been approved by a domestic domesticating limitedliability partnership and before a statement of domestication becomes effective, the plan may be abandoned as provided in the plan. Unless prohibited by the plan, a domestic domesticating limitedliability partnership may abandon the plan in the same manner as the plan was approved.

(c) If a plan of domestication is abandoned after a statement of domestication has been filed with the secretary of state and before the statement becomes effective, a statement of abandonment, signed by the domesticating limited-liability partnership, must be filed with the secretary of state before the statement of domestication becomes effective. The statement of abandonment takes effect on filing, and the domestication is abandoned and does not become effective. The statement of abandonment must contain:

(c) When a domestication becomes effective, a person that did not have interest holder liability with respect to the domesticating limited-liability partnership and becomes subject to interest holder liability with respect to a domestic limited-liability partnership as a result of the domestication has interest holder liability only to the extent provided by this chapter and only for those debts, obligations, and other liabilities that are incurred after the domestication becomes effective.

(d) When a domestication becomes effective, the interest holder liability of a person that ceases to hold an interest in a domesticating limited-liability partnership with respect to which the person had interest holder liability is subject to the following rules:
