RELATING TO CRIMINAL OFFENSES -- TRADE IN ANIMAL FUR PRODUCTS ACT

Introduced By: Senators Gu, Lauria, Murray, Ujifusa, Valverde, and Miller

Date Introduced: February 12, 2024

Referred To: Senate Environment & Agriculture

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Legislative findings

2 The general assembly finds and declares that:

3 (1) Animals that are slaughtered for their fur endure tremendous suffering. Animals raised
4 on fur farms typically spend their entire lives in cramped and filthy cages. Fur farmers typically 5 use the cheapest killing methods available, including suffocation, electrocution, gas and poison.

6 (2) Fur farms are reservoirs and transmission vectors for dangerous zoonotic diseases,
7 including SARS coronaviruses that threaten public health. COVID-19 infections have been
8 confirmed at fur farms in Europe and North America, and scientific studies have linked mink,
9 racoon, dogs and foxes, the animals most commonly farmed for their fur, to a variety of corona
10 viruses.

11 (3) The fur production process is energy intensive and has a significant environmental 12 impact, including air and water pollution. Runoff from the fur production process contains high
13 concentrations of phosphorous and nitrogen, which are the most common forms of water pollution
14 in the United States, including in Rhode Island. In addition, the tanning and dyeing processes used 15 in fur production use toxic chemicals and heavy metals like chromium and formaldehyde.

16 (4) Considering the wide array of alternatives for fashion and apparel, the general assembly
17 finds that the demand for fur products does not justify the unnecessary killing and cruel treatment
18 of animals, harm to the environment, and the public health risks to the people of Rhode Island
19 caused by these practices.

1 (5) The general assembly is of the belief that eliminating the sale of fur products in the
2 State of Rhode Island will decrease the demand for these cruel and environmentally harmful
3 products and will promote community awareness of animal welfare and, in turn, will foster a more
4 humane environment in Rhode Island and enhance the reputation of the state.

5 SECTION 2. Title 11 of the General Laws entitled "CRIMINAL OFFENSES" is hereby 6 amended by adding thereto the following chapter:

26 (c) The attorney general shall enforce the provisions of this section.

27 (d) Any municipality may, by ordinance, enforce the provisions of subsections (a)(1)

29 11-71-5. Severability.

30 If any provision of this chapter or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is 31 held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect any other provision or application which can be given
