It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 42-9-8.1 of the General Laws in Chapter 42-9 entitled "Department
2 of Attorney General" is hereby amended to read as follows:

3 42-9-8.1 Office of investigation – Powers and duties of investigators. – (1)
4 Establishment. There is hereby established within the department of attorney general an office of 5 investigation.

6 (2) Scope and purpose. The scope and purpose of the office of investigation shall be:

7 (a) To assist special assistant and assistant attorneys general in carrying out investigations
8 relating to grand jury investigations, pre-trial preparation and other litigation efforts;

9 (b) To coordinate their efforts in investigating criminal activity with existing federal,
10 state and local law enforcement resources; and

11 (c) To initiate criminal investigations for violations of the law at the direction of the 12 attorney general.

13 (3) Composition and powers. The office of investigation shall consist of a chief, ~~and not~~
14 ~~more than five (5)~~ field investigators, to be designated by the attorney general and support
15 personnel. The chief and the field investigators shall have the following powers:

16 (a) The power to arrest independently or in conjunction with local, state or federal law
17 enforcement agencies;

18 (b) The power to, with the written authorization by the attorney general or his or her

1 designated deputy, apply for and execute search warrants; and

2 (4) Qualifications. No person shall be appointed as chief of the office of investigation or 3 as a field investigator in the office unless he or she has successfully completed the basic course of 4 instruction for police officers at the Providence police training academy, the Rhode Island
5 municipal police training academy, or the Rhode Island state police training academy, and has at 6 least three (3) years of active law enforcement experience, or has served as a member of the 7 United States Marshal's Service or as a special agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, a
