RELATING TO BUSINESSES AND PROFESSIONS - LICENSING OF APPLIED BEHAVIOR ANALYSTS

Introduced By: Senators E O'Neill, Perry, Gallo, Ottiano, and Goodwin

Date Introduced: February 28, 2012

Referred To: Senate Health & Human Services

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Title 5 of the General Laws entitled "BUSINESSES AND PROFESSIONS" 2 is hereby amended by adding thereto the following chapter:

3 CHAPTER 86

4 LICENSING OF APPLIED BEHAVIOR ANALYSTS

5 5-86-1. Short title. – This chapter shall be known and may be cited as “Licensing of 6 Applied Behavior Analysts”.

7 5-86-2. Definitions. – As used in this chapter, the following terms shall be construed as 8 follows:

9 (1) “Applied behavior analyst” means a person licensed to practice applied behavior 10 analysis under the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations authorized by this 11 chapter.

12 (2) “Applied behavior analyst aide” means a person not licensed pursuant to the laws and 13 rules applicable to the practice of applied behavior analysis, who works under the supervision of a 14 licensed applied behavior analyst, who assists in the practice of applied behavior analysis and 15 whose activities require an understanding of applied behavior analysis, but do not require 16 professional or advanced training in the basic anatomical, psychological, and social sciences 17 involved in the practice of applied behavior analysis.

18 (3) “Applied behavior assistant analyst” means a person licensed who practices applied

1 behavior analysis under the provisions of this chapter and the rules and regulations authorized by 2 this chapter.

7 (6) “Director” means the director of the Rhode Island department of health.

8 (7) “Education” means the academic program pursued by the person in obtaining the 9 bachelor’s, master’s or doctorate degree, that the programs to include formal course work, 10 seminars and practica.

11 (8) “Psychologist with equivalent experience” means a person deemed to hold equivalent 12 licensure as an applied behavior analyst upon satisfying equivalency requirements through 13 submission and satisfaction of written evidence of education and relevant experience to the 14 department pursuant to subsection 5-86-9(c) of this chapter.

15 (9) “Practice of applied behavior analysis” means the design, implementation and 16 evaluation of environmental modifications by a behavior analyst to produce socially significant 17 improvements in human behavior. It includes the empirical identification of functional relations 18 between environment and behavior, known as functional assessment and analysis. Applied 19 behavior analysis interventions are based on scientific research and the direct observation and 20 measurement of behavior and environment. They utilize contextual factors, establishing 21 operations, antecedent stimuli, positive reinforcement and other consequences to help people 22 develop new behaviors, increase or decrease existing behaviors, and emit behaviors under 23 specific environmental conditions. The practice of applied behavior analysis expressly excludes 24 psychological testing, neuropsychology, psychotherapy, cognitive therapy, sex therapy, 25 psychoanalysis, hypnotherapy, and long-term counseling as treatment modalities. Such services 26 are provided by a person licensed under this chapter only when applied behavior analysis services 27 are prescribed by a child psychiatrist, a behavioral developmental pediatrician, a child neurologist 28 or a licensed psychologist with training in child psychology pursuant to section 27-20.11-4.

29 (10) “Supervised experience” means the practical application of principles, methods and 30 procedures of the science of applied behavioral analysis in accordance with the requirements of 31 section 5-86-9 of this chapter.

32 (11) “Supervision” means that a licensed applied behavior analyst is at all times 33 responsible for supportive personnel and clients.

34 (12) “These regulations” mean all parts of Rhode Island rules and regulations for

1 licensing applied behavior analysts, applied behavior assistant analysts, and psychologists with 2 equivalent experience.

3 (13) “Training” means the pre-professional or professional supervised experience 4 received by the person at the pre or post-doctoral level that experience to have been obtained in 5 an internship, clinic, or other similar professional setting.

7 “licensed applied behavior analyst” and the abbreviation “LBA” or the title “licensed applied 8 behavior assistant analyst” and the abbreviation “LABA”, or the title psychologist with 9 equivalent experience, provided that the title and abbreviation correspond to the license held 10 pursuant to this chapter.

11 (b) It is unlawful for any person to represent herself or himself as a licensed applied 12 behavior analyst, LBA, licensed applied behavior assistant analyst, LABA, or psychologist with 13 equivalent experience, unless she or he is licensed as a licensed applied behavior analyst or 14 licensed applied behavior assistant analyst or licensed as a psychologist with equivalent 15 experience pursuant to the provisions of this chapter.

16 (c) A licensed applied behavior analyst, licensed applied behavior assistant analyst, or 17 psychologist with equivalent experience, is not required to be an employee of a prescribing 18 profession or organization, and may work for a public or private agency or in private practice in 19 accordance with the requirements of 5-86-9 of this chapter.

20 (d) Licensed applied behavior analysts, licensed applied behavior assistant analysts, and 21 psychologists with equivalent experience are responsible for following all applicable federal and 22 state laws and regulations regarding the confidentiality of medical records.

23 5-86-4. Board of applied behavior analysts– Creation – Composition. – Within the 24 department of professional regulation in the department of health there shall be a Rhode Island 25 applied behavior analyst licensing board consisting of five (5) members as provided by section 5-26 86-5.

27 5-86-5. Board of applied behavior analysts – Appointment, terms, and removal of 28 members. – (a) The director of the department of health shall, with the approval of the governor, 29 appoint five (5) electors as members of the board. Three (3) members of the board shall be 30 licensed applied behavior analysts, one member shall be a licensed applied behavior assistant 31 analyst, and one shall be a consumer representative holding neither license. The licensed applied 32 behavior analysts and licensed applied behavior assistant analyst shall have at least three (3) years 33 professional experience with credentials comparable as those established in this chapter, be 34 certified for a minimum of five (5) years by an appropriate nationally recognized accrediting

1 organization as approved by the department of health.

2 (b) The director shall, with the approval of the governor, appoint persons to serve on the 3 board. Two (2) of those members first appointed by the director of the department of health shall 4 serve initial terms of three (3) years; two (2) of those members first appointed by the director of 5 the department of health shall serve an initial term of two (2) years; and one of those members 6 appointed by the director of the department of health shall serve an initial term of one year

8 years.

9 (c) The board members are eligible to succeed themselves.

10 (d) The director may remove any member from the board for neglect of any duty required 11 by law, or for incompetence, or unprofessional or dishonorable conduct. Vacancies shall be filled 12 in the same manner as the original appointment was made, for the remainder of the term.

13 5-86-6. Board of applied behavior analysts – Organization and meetings. – (a) The 14 board shall organize immediately after the appointment and qualification of its members.

15 (b) The board shall annually elect a chairperson and secretary. Meetings may be called by 16 the chairperson or the director of the department of health or by written request of three (3) 17 members of the board. A majority of seats filled shall constitute a quorum. The board shall meet 18 as often as necessary.

19 5-86-7. Board of applied behavior analysts – General powers. – The Rhode Island 20 applied behavior analyst licensing board shall:

21 (1) Recommend to the director for his or her approval the adoption and revision of rules 22 and regulations not inconsistent with law as necessary to enable it to carry into effect the 23 provisions of this chapter;

24 (2) Adopt policies to be followed in the licensure and renewal of licenses of qualified 25 applicants in accordance with chapter 42-35, of the administrative procedures act;

26 (3) Conduct hearings upon charges calling for the discipline of a license or revocation.
27 The department has the power to issue subpoenas and compel the attendance of witnesses and 28 administer oaths to persons giving testimony at hearings; and 29 (4) The board or the director shall prosecute all persons violating this chapter and has the 30 power to incur the necessary expenses of prosecution. The board shall keep a record of all its 31 proceedings, including, but not limited to, meeting minutes.

32 5-86-8. Register of applied behavior analysts – Licensing records – Issuance of 33 licenses. – The department shall maintain a register of all licensed applied behavior analysts, 34 licensed applied behavior assistant analysts and psychologists with equivalent experience under

1 this chapter which shall be open at all reasonable times to public inspection and updated 2 regularly. The department shall be the custodian of all records pertaining to the licensing of 3 applied behavior analysts, applied behavior assistant analysts and psychologists with equivalent 4 experience.

21 responsible professional conduct, as required by the Rhode Island applied behavior analyst 22 licensure board; and 23 (7) Meets the criteria as established in section 5-86-12.

24 5-86-10. Licensure. -- A license may be issued to:

25 (1) An applicant who meets the requirements for licensure as approved by the department 26 of health and licensed as a licensed applied behavior analyst, licensed applied behavior assistant 27 analyst or psychologist with equivalent experience as stated in this chapter; and 28 (2) An applicant who has been certified by an appropriate nationally recognized and 29 accredited organization, as approved by the department of health, licensing and licensed as a 30 licensed applied behavior analyst, licensed applied behavior assistant analyst or psychologist with 31 equivalent experience under the laws of another state, United States territory, or foreign country 32 where the board determines that the requirements are substantially equivalent to those of this 33 state.

34 5-86-11. Application fee. -- The applicant applying for licensure as an applied behavior

1 analyst, applied behavior assistant analyst or psychologist with equivalent experience shall pay a 2 fee of one hundred fifty dollars ($150) to the department.

3 5-86-12. Limitation of practice. -- The board shall ensure through regulations and 4 enforcement that licensees limit their practice to demonstrated areas of competence as 5 documented by relevant professional education, training, and experience.

6 5-86-13. Expiration and renewal of licenses – Continuing education – Lapsed 7 license. -- (a) The license of every person licensed under the provisions of this chapter shall 8 expire on the first (1st) day of July of the next even-numbered year following the issuance of his 9 or her license.

10 (b) On or before the first day of May of each even-numbered year, the department shall 11 mail an application for renewal of license to every person to whom a license has been issued or 12 renewed during the cycle.

13 (c) Every licensed person who desires to renew his or her license shall file with the 14 department a renewal application, executed, together with a renewal fee of one hundred and fifty 15 dollars ($150), on or before the first (1st) day of June in each even-numbered year. Upon receipt 16 of a renewal application and payment of the renewal fee, the accuracy of the application shall be 17 verified and the department may grant a renewal license effective July 1st and expiring the June 18 30th in each even-numbered year.

19 (d) Every licensed person who desires to continue licensure as a licensed applied 20 behavior analyst, licensed applied behavior assistant analyst or psychologist with equivalent 21 experience shall present satisfactory evidence to the board and approved by rule or regulation of 22 the board that the licensed applied behavior analyst, licensed applied behavior assistant analyst or 23 psychologist with equivalent experience, has completed a prescribed course of continuing applied 24 behavior analysis education.

25 (e) Any person who allows his or her license to lapse, by failing to renew it on or before 26 June 1st in each even-numbered year, as provided in this section, may be reinstated by the 27 department on payment of the current renewal fee, plus an additional fee of forty dollars ($40.00).
28 Any person using the title licensed applied behavior analyst or licensed applied behavior assistant 29 analyst or psychologist with equivalent experience offering services defined as the practice of 30 behavior analysis under this chapter during the time his or her license has lapsed is subject to the 31 penalties provided for violation of this chapter.

32 5-86-14. Transfers to inactive list – Reinstatement. -- (a) A licensed applied behavior 33 analyst, licensed applied behavior assistant analyst or the equivalence who does not intend to 34 continue his or her licensure, upon written request to the department may have his or her name

1 transferred to an inactive list, and shall not be required to pay the renewal fee as long as he or she 2 remains inactive.

3 (b) Should a licensed applied behavior analyst, licensed applied behavior assistant analyst 4 or psychologist with equivalent experience wish to resume functioning as an applied behavior 5 analyst, he or she must notify the department and remit his or her renewal fee in accordance with 6 the rules and regulations promulgated hereunder within the immediate two (2) years prior to the 7 applicant's request for licensure.

8 5-86-15. Receipts. -- The proceeds of any fees collected pursuant to the provisions of this 9 chapter shall be deposited as general revenues.

10 5-86-16. Grounds for discipline. -- The board has the power to deny, revoke, or suspend 11 any license issued by the department in accordance with this chapter, or to discipline a licensee 12 upon proof that the person:

13 (1) Is guilty of fraud or deceit in procuring or attempting to procure a license or 14 temporary license;

15 (2) Is guilty of a felony or of a crime of immorality;

16 (3) Is habitually intemperate or is addicted to the use of habit-forming drugs;

17 (4) Is mentally incompetent;

18 (5) Is incompetent or negligent in the practice of applied behavior analysis as determined 19 by the Rhode Island applied behavior analyst licensing board;

20 (6) Has not fulfilled the required continuing education requirements as determined by the 21 Rhode Island applied behavior analysis licensing board;

22 (7) Has violated the ethical principles governing applied behavior analysts and the 23 practice of applied behavior analysis, as adopted by the board and in force at the time a charge is 24 made, provided that those ethical principles are a nationally recognized standard;

25 (8) Has practiced as a licensed applied behavior assistant analyst or has performed the 26 duties of a licensed applied behavior assistant analyst without proper supervision by a licensed 27 applied behavior analyst pursuant to section 5-86-26;

28 (9) Has had their license revoked, suspended, privileges limited or other disciplinary 29 action in another state or jurisdiction, including the voluntary surrender of a license; or 30 (10) Has failed to furnish the department or its legal representative information requested 31 by the board as part of a disciplinary action.

32 5-86-17. Procedure for discipline. -- (a) When a sworn complaint is filed with the board 33 charging a person with being guilty of any of the actions specified in section 5-86-16, the 34 department shall immediately investigate those charges, or, the board, after investigation, may 1 institute charges. The department may coordinate investigations of alleged violations of the 2 Rhode Island applied behavior analyst licensing board with an appropriate nationally recognized 3 accrediting organization.

4 (b) If the investigation reveals reasonable grounds for believing that the licensee or 5 applicant for licensure is guilty of the charges, the board shall fix a time and place for a hearing, 6 and shall serve a copy of the charges, together with a notice of the time and the place fixed for the 7 hearing, personally upon the accused at least twenty (20) days prior to the time fixed for the 8 hearing.

9 (c) When personal service cannot be effected and that fact is certified by oath by any 10 person authorized to make service, the board shall publish once in each of two (2) successive 11 weeks, a notice of the hearing in a newspaper published in the county where the accused last 12 resided according to the records of the board and shall mail a copy of the charges and of the 13 notice to the accused at his or her last known address.

14 (d) When publication of notice is necessary, the date of the hearing shall not be less than 15 twenty (20) days after the last date of publication of the notice.

16 (e) At the hearing, the accused has the right to appear personally or by counsel or both, to 17 produce witnesses and evidence on his or her behalf, to cross-examine witnesses, and to have 18 subpoenas issued by the administrator of professional regulation.

19 (f) The attendance of witnesses and the production of books, documents, and papers at 20 the hearing may be compelled by subpoenas issued by the department, which shall be served in 21 accordance with law.

22 (g) The department shall administer oaths as necessary for the proper conduct of the 23 hearing.

24 (h) The board is not bound by the strict rules of procedure or by the laws of evidence in 25 the conduct of its proceedings, but the determination shall be based upon sufficient legal evidence 26 to sustain it.

27 (i) If the accused is found guilty of the charges, the board may refuse to issue a license to 28 the applicant, or may revoke or suspend his or her license, or discipline that person.

29 (j) Upon the revocation or suspension of any license, the license holder shall surrender 30 the license to the department, who shall indicate the same in the licensure verification database.

31 (k) A revocation or suspension of license may be reviewed at the discretion of the board, 32 or at the initiative of the department which may order a rehearing of the issue if it finds cause.

33 5-86-18. Grounds for discipline without a hearing. -- With the approval of the director, 34 the board may temporarily suspend the license of a licensed applied behavior analyst, licensed

1 applied behavior assistant analyst or psychologist with equivalent experience without a hearing if 2 the board finds that evidence in its possession indicates that a licensed applied behavior analyst, 3 licensed applied behavior assistant analyst or psychologist with equivalent experience continuing 4 in practice would constitute an immediate danger to the public. In the event that the board 5 temporarily suspends the license of a licensed applied behavior analyst, licensed applied behavior 6 assistant analyst or psychologist with equivalent experience without a hearing by the board, a 7 hearing must be held within ten (10) days after the suspension has occurred.

8 5-86-19. Penalty for violations. -- (a) It is a misdemeanor for any person, in offering his 9 or her services to the public, to:

10 (1) Use in connection with his or her name any designation tending to imply that he or 11 she is a licensed applied behavior analyst, licensed applied behavior assistant analyst, or 12 psychologist with equivalent experience to render services defined as the practice of behavior 13 analysis, unless licensed under the provisions of this chapter;

14 (2) Use in connection with his or her name any designation tending to imply that he or 15 she is a licensed applied behavior analyst, licensed applied behavior assistant analyst, or 16 psychologist with equivalent experience to render services defined as the practice of behavior 17 analysis, during the time his or her license issued under the provision of this chapter is suspended 18 or revoked; or

19 (3) Otherwise violate any of the provisions of this chapter or the rules and regulations 20 promulgated hereunder.

21 (b) These misdemeanors shall be punishable by a fine of not more than five hundred 22 dollars ($500) for each offense.

23 5-86-20. Injunction of violations. -- When it appears to the board that any person is 24 violating any of the provisions of this chapter, the director may institute an action, commenced in 25 the name of the board, to enjoin that violation in a court of competent jurisdiction. That court may 26 enjoin any person from violating any of the provisions of this chapter, without regard to whether 27 proceedings have been or may be instituted before the board or whether criminal proceedings 28 have been or may be instituted.

29 5-86-21. Persons and practices exempt. -- (a) No provision of this chapter shall be 30 construed to prevent members of other recognized professions that are licensed, certified, or 31 regulated for independent practice of that profession under the laws of this state from rendering 32 services consistent with their professional training and code of ethics and scope of practice as 33 defined in the relevant licensure act, provided that they do not represent themselves to be licensed 34 applied behavior analysts, licensed applied behavior assistant analysts or psychologists with

1 equivalent experience. Recognized members of the clergy shall not be restricted from functioning 2 in their ministerial capacity, provided that they do not represent themselves to be applied 3 behavior analysts, licensed applied behavior assistant analysts or psychologists with equivalent 4 experience.

5 (b) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit teachers, guidance personnel, 6 social workers, and school psychologists in public or private schools from full performance of 7 their duties, nor to prohibit the use of applied behavior analytic techniques by business or 8 industrial organizations or companies for employment, placement, evaluation, promotion, or job 9 adjustment of their own officers or employees.

10 (c) Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting the use of consultants who 11 are defined as qualified mental retardation professionals under the Code of Federal Regulations 12 (CFR) 42, § 483.430 by facilities licensed as intermediate care facilities for people who are 13 developmentally disabled by the department of behavioral healthcare, developmental disabilities 14 and hospitals.

15 (d) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as permitting licensed applied behavior 16 analysts, licensed applied behavior assistant analysts or psychologist with equivalent experience 17 to practice medicine as defined by the laws of this state.

18 (e) Nothing in this section shall be construed as permitting those persons identified in 19 subsections (b) and (f) of this section to offer their services to any persons or organizations other 20 than those listed in subsection (f) of this section as consultants or to accept remuneration for any 21 behavior analytic services other than that of their institutional salaries or fees unless they have 22 been licensed under this chapter or exempted under subsection (a) of this section.

23 (f) Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting those persons who are 24 implementing applied behavior analysis services to an immediate family member or as a paid or 25 volunteer caregiver, if the individual or caregiver does not represent himself/herself as a licensed 26 applied behavior analyst, licensed applied behavior assistant analyst or psychologist with 27 equivalent experience.

28 (g) An applied behavior analyst licensed or certified in another state, or United States 29 territory may perform applied behavior analysis services in this state without obtaining a license 30 for up to ten (10) calendar days per calendar year with no more than five (5) days of this activity 31 occurring consecutively. The calendar day limit shall not apply to services as an expert witness in 32 a legal proceeding.

33 (h) Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting any person pursuing a 34 supervised course of study leading to a degree or certificate in applied behavior analysis at an

1 accredited or approved educational program if the person is designated by a title which clearly 2 indicates his or her status as a student or trainee.

3 (i) Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting any persons fulfilling the 4 supervised fieldwork experience requirement of this section.

5 5-86-22. Enforcement. -- The director shall enforce the provisions of this chapter. He or 6 she, or his or her authorized agents, and the board shall be exempt from providing surety for costs 7 in connection with the commencement of any legal proceedings under this chapter.

8 5-86-23. Rules Governing Practices and Procedures. -- All hearings and reviews 9 required under the provisions of chapter 5-44 of the general laws of Rhode Island, as amended, 10 shall be held in accordance with the provisions of the rules and regulations of the Rhode Island 11 department of health regarding practices and procedures before the department of health and 12 access to public records of the department of health (R42-35-PP).

13 5-86-24. Appeals from director and board. -- Any person aggrieved by any decision or 14 ruling of the director or the board may appeal to the superior court in the manner provided in the 15 administrative procedures act, chapter 35 of title 42.

16 5-86-25. Applicability of other laws. -- This chapter shall be subject to the provisions of 17 chapter 2 of title 38 ("access to public records") and chapter 46 of this title ("open meetings") 18 and, in addition, the members of the board shall be subject to the provisions of chapter 14 of title 19 36 ("code of ethics").

20 5-86-26. Supervision. -- (a) A licensed applied behavior analyst shall exercise sound 21 judgment and shall provide care within the scope of practice or guidelines in the performance of 22 his or her duties. A licensed applied behavior analyst shall be permitted to supervise the 23 following: applied behavior analysts, applied behavior assistant analysts, applied behavior analyst 24 aides, care extenders, applied behavior analyst students, and volunteers.

25 (b) Subject to the requirements of this section, a licensed applied behavior assistant 26 analyst may practice limited applied behavior analysis only under the supervision of a licensed 27 applied behavior analyst. Supervision requires, at a minimum, that the supervising licensed 28 applied behavior therapist meet in person with the licensed applied behavior assistant analyst to 29 provide initial direction and periodic on-site supervision. The supervising licensed applied 30 behavior analyst working with the applied behavior assistant analyst shall determine the amount 31 and type of supervision necessary in response to the experience and competence of the licensed 32 applied behavior assistant analyst and the complexity of the treatment program. The supervisor 33 and the licensed applied behavior assistant analyst shall be jointly responsible for maintaining 34 records, including patient records, to document compliance with this regulation.

- 1 (c) A licensed applied behavior assistant analyst:
- 2 (1) May not initiate a treatment program until the patient has been evaluated and the
- 3 treatment planned by the licensed behavior analyst;
- 4 (2) May not perform an evaluation, but may assist in the data gathering process and
- 5 administer specific assessments where clinical competency has been demonstrated, under the
- 6 direction of the licensed applied behavior analyst;
- 7 (3) May not analyze or interpret evaluation data;
- 8 (4) May participate in the screening process by collecting data and communicate the
- 9 information gathered to the licensed applied behavior analyst;
- 10 (5) Monitors the need for reassessment and report changes in status that might warrant
- 11 reassessment or referral under the supervision of the licensed applied behavior analyst; and
- 12 (6) Immediately discontinues any treatment procedure, which appears harmful to the
- 13 patient and immediately notifies the supervising applied behavior analyst.
- 14 (d) An applied behavior analyst aide shall be a worker trained on the job. A licensed
- 15 applied behavior analyst using applied behavior analyst aide personnel to assist with the provision
- 16 of applied behavior analysis services must provide close supervision in order to protect the health
- 17 and welfare of the consumer.
- 18 (e) The primary function of an applied behavior analyst aide shall be to perform
- 19 designated routine tasks related to the operation of applied behavior analysis service.
- 20 (f) The licensed applied behavior analyst shall not delegate to an applied behavior analyst
- 21 aide:
- 22 (1) Performance of applied behavior analysis evaluation procedures;
- 23 (2) Initiation, planning, adjustment, modification, or performance of applied behavior
- 24 analyst procedures requiring the skills or judgment of a licensed applied behavior analyst;
- 25 (3) Acting on behalf of the applied behavior analyst in any matter related to applied
- 26 behavior analysis, which requires decision making or professional judgment.
- 27 5-86-27. Severability. -- The provisions of this chapter are severable, and if any
- 28 provision hereof shall be held invalid in any circumstances, any invalidity shall not affect any
- 29 other provisions or circumstances. This chapter shall be construed in all respects so as to meet
- 30 any constitutional requirements. In carrying out the purposes and provisions of this chapter, all
- 31 steps shall be taken which are necessary to meet constitutional requirements.

32 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.
