6 seekers, addressing potential barriers to participation;

7           (2) It shall be understandable, accessible and productive for job seekers, including
8 measures to ensure literacy based accessibility;

12 training and/or education;

13           (5) It shall notify the department of labor and training of the nature of the skill gaps
14 which exist between job openings and job seekers, and shall have the ability to aggregate skill
15 gap reports for the department;

16           (6) It shall be promoted and advertised to maximize business and employment use; and
