(b) Any society or association described in subdivision (a)(3) or (a)(4) of this section which provides for death or disability benefits for which benefit certificates are issued, and any society or association included in subdivision (a)(4) of this section which has more than fifteen hundred (1500) members, shall not be exempted from the provisions of this chapter but shall comply with all of its requirements.

(c) No society which, by the provisions of this section, is exempt from the requirements of this chapter, except any society described in subdivision (a)(2) of this section, shall give or allow, or promise to give or allow, to any person any compensation for procuring new members.

(d) Every society which provides for benefits in case of death or disability resulting solely from accident, and which does not obligate itself to pay natural death or sick benefits, shall have all of the privileges and be subject to all the applicable provisions and regulations of this chapter except that the provisions of this chapter relating to medical examination, valuations of benefit certificates, and incontestability, shall not apply to the society.

(e) The commissioner of insurance may require from any society or association, by examination or otherwise, any information that will enable the commissioner to determine whether the society or association is exempt from the provisions of this chapter.

(f) Societies exempted under the provisions of this section shall also be exempt from all other provisions of the insurance laws of this state.

23 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.
