STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2013

A N A C T

RELATING TO PUBLIC RECORDS - ACCESS TO PUBLIC RECORDS

Introduced By: Representatives O'Grady, Amore, Fellela, Messier, and Johnston

Date Introduced: February 27, 2013

Referred To: House Judiciary

(Elementary & Secondary Education)

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 38-2-2 of the General Laws in Chapter 38-2 entitled "Access to 2 Public Records" is hereby amended to read as follows:

3 38-2-2. Definitions. -- As used in this chapter:

4 (1) "Agency" or "public body" means any executive, legislative, judicial, regulatory, or 5 administrative body of the state, or any political subdivision thereof; including, but not limited to, 6 any department, division, agency, commission, board, office, bureau, authority, any school, fire, 7 or water district, or other agency of Rhode Island state or local government which exercises 8 governmental functions, any authority as defined in section 42-35-1(b), or any other public or 9 private agency, person, partnership, corporation, or business entity acting on behalf of and/or in 10 place of any public agency.

11 (2) "Chief administrative officer" means the highest authority of the public body.

12 (3) "Public business" means any matter over which the public body has supervision, 13 control, jurisdiction, or advisory power.

14 (4) "Public record" or "public records" shall mean all documents, papers, letters, maps, 15 books, tapes, photographs, films, sound recordings, magnetic or other tapes, electronic data 16 processing records, computer stored data (including electronic mail messages, except specifically 17 for any electronic mail messages of or to elected officials with or relating to those they represent 18 and correspondence of or to elected officials in their official capacities) or other material 19 regardless of physical form or characteristics made or received pursuant to law or ordinance or in

1 connection with the transaction of official business by any agency. For the purposes of this 2 chapter, the following records shall not be deemed public:

3 (A) (I) (a) All records relating to a client/attorney relationship and to a doctor/patient 4 relationship, including all medical information relating to an individual in any files.

5 (b) Personnel and other personal individually-identifiable records otherwise deemed 6 confidential by federal or state law or regulation, or the disclosure of which would constitute a 7 clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy pursuant to 5 U.S.C. section 552 et. seq. ;
8 provided, however, with respect to employees, and employees of contractors and subcontractors 9 working on public works projects which are required to be listed as certified payrolls, the name, 10 gross salary, salary range, total cost of paid fringe benefits, gross amount received in overtime, 11 and any other remuneration in addition to salary, job title, job description, dates of employment 12 and positions held with the state, municipality, employment contract, or public works contractor 13 or subcontractor on public works projects work location, and/or project, business telephone 14 number, the city or town of residence, and date of termination shall be public. For the purposes of 15 this section "remuneration" shall include any payments received by an employee as a result of 16 termination, or otherwise leaving employment, including, but not limited to, payments for 17 accrued sick and/or vacation time, severance pay, or compensation paid pursuant to a contract 18 buy-out provision.

19 (II) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, or any other provision of the general 20 laws to the contrary, the pension records of all persons who are either current or retired members 21 of any public retirement systems as well as all persons who become members of those retirement 22 systems after June 17, 1991 shall be open for public inspection. "Pension records" as used in this 23 section shall include all records containing information concerning pension and retirement 24 benefits of current and retired members of the retirement systems and future members of said 25 systems, including all records concerning retirement credits purchased and the ability of any 26 member of the retirement system to purchase retirement credits, but excluding all information 27 regarding the medical condition of any person and all information identifying the member's 28 designated beneficiary or beneficiaries unless and until the member's designated beneficiary or 29 beneficiaries have received or are receiving pension and/or retirement benefits through the 30 retirement system.

31 (B) Trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person, firm, 32 or corporation which is of a privileged or confidential nature.

33 (C) Child custody and adoption records, records of illegitimate births, and records of 34 juvenile proceedings before the family court.

1 (D) All records maintained by law enforcement agencies for criminal law enforcement 2 and all records relating to the detection and investigation of crime, including those maintained on 3 any individual or compiled in the course of a criminal investigation by any law enforcement 4 agency. Provided, however, such records shall not be deemed public only to the extent that the 5 disclosure of the records or information (a) could reasonably be expected to interfere with 6 investigations of criminal activity or with enforcement proceedings, (b) would deprive a person of 7 a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication, (c) could reasonably be expected to constitute an 8 unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, (d) could reasonably be expected to disclose the 9 identity of a confidential source, including a state, local, or foreign agency or authority, or any 10 private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis, or the information 11 furnished by a confidential source, (e) would disclose techniques and procedures for law 12 enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement 13 investigations or prosecutions or (f) could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical 14 safety of any individual. Records relating to management and direction of a law enforcement 15 agency and records or reports reflecting the initial arrest of an adult and the charge or charges 16 brought against an adult shall be public.

17 (E) Any records which would not be available by law or rule of court to an opposing 18 party in litigation.

19 (F) Scientific and technological secrets and the security plans of military and law 20 enforcement agencies, the disclosure of which would endanger the public welfare and security.

21 (G) Any records which disclose the identity of the contributor of a bona fide and lawful 22 charitable contribution to the public body whenever public anonymity has been requested of the 23 public body with respect to the contribution by the contributor.

24 (H) Reports and statements of strategy or negotiation involving labor negotiations or 25 collective bargaining.

26 (I) Reports and statements of strategy or negotiation with respect to the investment or 27 borrowing of public funds, until such time as those transactions are entered into.

28 (J) Any minutes of a meeting of a public body which are not required to be disclosed 29 pursuant to chapter 46 of title 42.

30 (K) Preliminary drafts, notes, impressions, memoranda, working papers, and work 31 products; provided, however, any documents submitted at a public meeting of a public body shall 32 be deemed public.

33 (L) Test questions, scoring keys, and other examination data used to administer a 34 licensing examination, examination for employment or promotion, or academic examinations;

1 provided, however, that a person shall have the right to review the results of his or her 2 examination.

3 (M) Correspondence of or to elected officials with or relating to those they represent and 4 correspondence of or to elected officials in their official capacities.

5 (N) The contents of real estate appraisals, engineering, or feasibility estimates and 6 evaluations made for or by an agency relative to the acquisition of property or to prospective 7 public supply and construction contracts, until such time as all of the property has been acquired 8 or all proceedings or transactions have been terminated or abandoned; provided the law of 9 eminent domain shall not be affected by this provision.

10 (O) All tax returns.

11 (P) All investigatory records of public bodies, with the exception of law enforcement 12 agencies, pertaining to possible violations of statute, rule, or regulation other than records of final 13 actions taken provided that all records prior to formal notification of violations or noncompliance 14 shall not be deemed to be public.

15 (Q) Records of individual test scores on professional certification and licensing 16 examinations; provided, however, that a person shall have the right to review the results of his or 17 her examination.

18 (R) Requests for advisory opinions until such time as the public body issues its opinion.

19 (S) Records, reports, opinions, information, and statements required to be kept 20 confidential by federal law or regulation or state law, or rule of court.

21 (T) Judicial bodies are included in the definition only in respect to their administrative 22 function provided that records kept pursuant to the provisions of chapter 16 of title 8 are exempt 23 from the operation of this chapter.

24 (U) Library records which by themselves or when examined with other public records, 25 would reveal the identity of the library user requesting, checking out, or using any library 26 materials.

27 (V) Printouts from TELE -- TEXT devices used by people who are deaf or hard of 28 hearing or speech impaired.

29 (W) All records received by the insurance division of the department of business
30 regulation from other states, either directly or through the National Association of Insurance 31 Commissioners, if those records are accorded confidential treatment in that state. Nothing 32 contained in this title or any other provision of law shall prevent or be construed as prohibiting 33 the commissioner of insurance from disclosing otherwise confidential information to the 34 insurance department of this or any other state or country, at any time, so long as the agency or

1 office receiving the records agrees in writing to hold it confidential in a manner consistent with 2 the laws of this state.

3 (X) Credit card account numbers in the possession of state or local government are 4 confidential and shall not be deemed public records.

5 (Y) Any documentary material, answers to written interrogatories, or oral testimony
6 provided under any subpoena issued under Rhode Island general law section 9-1.1-6.

7 \(Z\) Any individually identifiable evaluations of public school teachers and administrators 8 made pursuant to state or federal law or regulation.

9 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.
