2013 -- S 1034 SUBSTITUTE A

===== LC02906/SUB A

2

4

5

6

9

14

17

19

STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2013

AN ACT

RELATING TO STATE AFFAIRS AND GOVERNMENT -- FORT ADAMS FOUNDATION

Introduced By: Senator M. Teresa Paiva Weed

Date Introduced: June 27, 2013

Referred To: Immediate Consideration

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Sections 42-57-1, 42-57-2, 42-57-3 and 42-57-4 of the General Laws in

Chapter 42-57 entitled "Fort Adams Foundation" are hereby amended to read as follows:

3 42-57-1. Foundation created. -- The Fort Adams foundation ("the foundation") is created a body, corporate and politic, to promote interest in and to plan, develop, coordinate, encourage, facilitate, set standards, and programs and projects relating to the restoration, renovation, and reconstruction, and use of the historical Fort Adams structure.

7 42-57-2. Purpose. -- In order to achieve the objective and to carry out the purposes of

8 this chapter, the foundation shall, in close cooperation with and through recommendations to the director of the department of environmental management, initiate, coordinate, and support

10 planning, development, and conduct of the programs, and projects in furtherance of the 11 restoration and use of Fort Adams, provide for all activities in a manner which will be consistent

12 with the purposes of this chapter, and carry out all responsibilities provided by this chapter concerning the restoration and use of the Fort Adams structure.

42-57-3. Organization of foundation. -- (a) The foundation shall consist of the director of the department of environmental management, or his or her designee, and nine (9) four (4) public members, appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate. In making appointments under this section, the governor shall solicit and give due consideration to the 18 recommendations of the following persons, communities and organizations:

(1) Rhode Island historical preservation commission;

1	(2) Newport city council City of Newport;
2	(3) Fort Adams Trust board of directors; and
3	(4) Artillery Company of Newport County Chief of the department of environmental
4	management division of parks and recreation.;
5	(5) Newport Historical Society;
6	(6) Rhode Island National Guard;
7	(7) Rhode Island economic development corporation;
8	(8) Newport county chamber of commerce; and
9	(9) Preservation society of Newport county.
10	In making appointments under this section, the governor shall also give due
11	consideration to the appointment of persons with expertise and experience in the fields of
12	American history, military history, historic preservation, museums, education, historic
13	architecture and/or engineering.
14	(b) The membership of the foundation shall elect from amongst itself a member to
15	director of the department of environmental management, or his or her designee shall act as
16	chairperson.
17	(c) The power of the foundation shall vest in and be exercised by or under the authority
18	of its members, five (5) three (3) of whom shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of
19	business.
20	(d) Employees of the foundation shall be selected and appointed by the foundation, and
21	shall be vested with those powers and duties that the foundation may determine.
22	(e) All appointed members of the foundation as of the effective date of this act [June 16,
23	2006] shall cease to be members of the foundation as of the effective date of this act [June 16,
24	2006] but shall be eligible for reappointment thereafter pursuant to this subsection. The governor
25	shall thereupon nominate nine (9) four (4) members: three (3) one of whom shall serve an initial
26	terms term of one year; three (3) one of whom shall serve an initial terms term of two (2) years;
27	and three (3) two (2) of whom shall serve initial terms of three (3) years. Thereafter, all appointed
28	members shall be appointed to serve three (3) year terms. In the event the senate is not in session
29	on the effective date of this act, the governor may make temporary appointments which shall only
30	be in effect until such time as the senate reconvenes at which time the governor shall appoint four
31	(4) members.
32	42-57-4. Powers (a) The foundation is authorized and empowered:
33	(1) To adopt by-laws for the regulation of its affairs and the conduct of its business;
34	(2) To adopt an official seal and alter the seal at pleasure;

(4) To sue and be sued in its own name, plead and be any action shall be made by service upon the chairperson of the leaving a copy of the process at the office of the foundation thereof; (5) To employ assistants, agents, and other employees the for its purposes; to contract for and engage consultants, and governmental agencies; (6) To accept from a federal agency, loans or grants for and to enter into agreements with that agency respecting those load (7) To acquire, purchase, manage, and operate and hold property, to take assignments of rentals and leases, and make an and agreements necessary or incidental to the performance of its (8) To receive any gifts, grants, or donations made program, and to disburse and administer them in accordance with (9) To do all acts and things necessary or convenient to granted in this chapter. (b) These powers do not remove from the department or responsibilities for maintaining, operating, and developing the F an integral part of the state park system. (1) The department of environmental management asset of public access and use of a tour program at the Fort Adams of by the foundation with oversight by the department. The department be engaged in a governmental function, and in any tort action recovered shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand desection 9-31-2.	e foundation either in hand or by with some person having charge nat may be necessary or desirable to utilize the service of other use in carrying out its purposes, leaving a copy of the process at the office of the foundation thereof; (5) To employ assistants, agents, and other employees to for its purposes; to contract for and engage consultants, and governmental agencies; (6) To accept from a federal agency, loans or grants for and to enter into agreements with that agency respecting those load (7) To acquire, purchase, manage, and operate and hold property, to take assignments of rentals and leases, and make an and agreements necessary or incidental to the performance of its (8) To receive any gifts, grants, or donations made program, and to disburse and administer them in accordance with (9) To do all acts and things necessary or convenient to granted in this chapter. (b) These powers do not remove from the department of responsibilities for maintaining, operating, and developing the Foundation access and use of a tour program at the Fort Adams of public access and use of a tour program at the Fort Adams of by the foundation with oversight by the department. The department of the engaged in a governmental function, and in any tort action recovered shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand described to the state park sum of one hundred thousand described the sum of the sum of	with some person having charge nat may be necessary or desirable to utilize the service of other use in carrying out its purposes, thereof; (5) To employ assistants, agents, and other employees to for its purposes; to contract for and engage consultants, and governmental agencies; (6) To accept from a federal agency, loans or grants for and to enter into agreements with that agency respecting those load (7) To acquire, purchase, manage, and operate and hold property, to take assignments of rentals and leases, and make an and agreements necessary or incidental to the performance of its (8) To receive any gifts, grants, or donations made program, and to disburse and administer them in accordance with (9) To do all acts and things necessary or convenient to granted in this chapter. (b) These powers do not remove from the department or responsibilities for maintaining, operating, and developing the Fan integral part of the state park system. (1) The department of environmental management assured of public access and use of a tour program at the Fort Adams of by the foundation with oversight by the department. The department be engaged in a governmental function, and in any tort action recovered shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand decrease in the state park system.	nat may be necessary or desirable to utilize the service of other use in carrying out its purposes, for its purposes; to contract for and engage consultants, and governmental agencies; (6) To accept from a federal agency, loans or grants for and to enter into agreements with that agency respecting those loand to enter into agreements with that agency respecting those loand to enter into agreements with that agency respecting those loand (7) To acquire, purchase, manage, and operate and hold property, to take assignments of rentals and leases, and make an and agreements necessary or incidental to the performance of its (8) To receive any gifts, grants, or donations made program, and to disburse and administer them in accordance with (9) To do all acts and things necessary or convenient to granted in this chapter. (b) These powers do not remove from the department or responsibilities for maintaining, operating, and developing the Fan integral part of the state park system. (1) The department of environmental management assured of public access and use of a tour program at the Fort Adams of by the foundation with oversight by the department. The department be engaged in a governmental function, and in any tort action recovered shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand described to the state park system.	to utilize the service of other
for its purposes; to contract for and engage consultants, and governmental agencies; (6) To accept from a federal agency, loans or grants for and to enter into agreements with that agency respecting those loans (7) To acquire, purchase, manage, and operate and hold property, to take assignments of rentals and leases, and make an and agreements necessary or incidental to the performance of its (8) To receive any gifts, grants, or donations made program, and to disburse and administer them in accordance with (9) To do all acts and things necessary or convenient to granted in this chapter. (b) These powers do not remove from the department or responsibilities for maintaining, operating, and developing the Foundation with oversight by the department. The department of public access and use of a tour program at the Fort Adams of by the foundation with oversight by the department. The department of recovered shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand decrease in the state of the state of the state of the program at the control of the state of public access and use of a tour program at the control of public access and use of a tour program at the control of public access and use of a tour program at the control of public access and use of a tour program at the control of public access and use of a tour program at the control of public access and use of a tour program at the control of public access and use of a tour program at the control of public access and use of a tour program at the control of public access and use of a tour program at the control of public access and use of a tour program at the control of public access and use of a tour program at the control of public access and use of a tour program at the control of public access and use of a tour program at the control of public access and use of a tour program at the control of public access and use of a tour program at the control of public access and use of a tour program at the control of public access and use of a tour program at the control of	to utilize the service of other governmental agencies; (6) To accept from a federal agency, loans or grants for and to enter into agreements with that agency respecting those loan (7) To acquire, purchase, manage, and operate and hold property, to take assignments of rentals and leases, and make an and agreements necessary or incidental to the performance of its (8) To receive any gifts, grants, or donations made program, and to disburse and administer them in accordance with (9) To do all acts and things necessary or convenient to granted in this chapter. (b) These powers do not remove from the department or responsibilities for maintaining, operating, and developing the Foundation access and use of a tour program at the Fort Adams of public access and use of a tour program at the Fort Adams of by the foundation with oversight by the department. The department be engaged in a governmental function, and in any tort action recovered shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand deceases.	use in carrying out its purposes, 9 (6) To accept from a federal agency, loans or grants for and to enter into agreements with that agency respecting those loans (7) To acquire, purchase, manage, and operate and hold property, to take assignments of rentals and leases, and make an and agreements necessary or incidental to the performance of its (8) To receive any gifts, grants, or donations made program, and to disburse and administer them in accordance with (9) To do all acts and things necessary or convenient to granted in this chapter. (b) These powers do not remove from the department or responsibilities for maintaining, operating, and developing the Fan integral part of the state park system. (1) The department of environmental management assured to public access and use of a tour program at the Fort Adams of by the foundation with oversight by the department. The department of recovered shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand decrease in the state park system.
and to enter into agreements with that agency respecting those lose (7) To acquire, purchase, manage, and operate and hold property, to take assignments of rentals and leases, and make an and agreements necessary or incidental to the performance of its (8) To receive any gifts, grants, or donations made program, and to disburse and administer them in accordance with (9) To do all acts and things necessary or convenient to granted in this chapter. (b) These powers do not remove from the department or responsibilities for maintaining, operating, and developing the Fan integral part of the state park system. (1) The department of environmental management assured of public access and use of a tour program at the Fort Adams of by the foundation with oversight by the department. The department be engaged in a governmental function, and in any tort action recovered shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand decrease in the state park system.
(7) To acquire, purchase, manage, and operate and hold property, to take assignments of rentals and leases, and make at and agreements necessary or incidental to the performance of its (8) To receive any gifts, grants, or donations made program, and to disburse and administer them in accordance with (9) To do all acts and things necessary or convenient to granted in this chapter. (b) These powers do not remove from the department or responsibilities for maintaining, operating, and developing the Fan integral part of the state park system. (1) The department of environmental management assured of public access and use of a tour program at the Fort Adams of by the foundation with oversight by the department. The department be engaged in a governmental function, and in any tort action recovered shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand decrease and the state park system.	ans or grants;
property, to take assignments of rentals and leases, and make at and agreements necessary or incidental to the performance of its (8) To receive any gifts, grants, or donations made program, and to disburse and administer them in accordance with (9) To do all acts and things necessary or convenient to granted in this chapter. (b) These powers do not remove from the department or responsibilities for maintaining, operating, and developing the Fan integral part of the state park system. (1) The department of environmental management assured of public access and use of a tour program at the Fort Adams of by the foundation with oversight by the department. The department be engaged in a governmental function, and in any tort action recovered shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand decrease in the state park system.
and agreements necessary or incidental to the performance of its (8) To receive any gifts, grants, or donations made program, and to disburse and administer them in accordance with (9) To do all acts and things necessary or convenient to granted in this chapter. (b) These powers do not remove from the department or responsibilities for maintaining, operating, and developing the F an integral part of the state park system. (1) The department of environmental management assured of public access and use of a tour program at the Fort Adams of by the foundation with oversight by the department. The department be engaged in a governmental function, and in any tort action recovered shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand described.	and dispose of real and personal
(8) To receive any gifts, grants, or donations made program, and to disburse and administer them in accordance with (9) To do all acts and things necessary or convenient to granted in this chapter. (b) These powers do not remove from the department or responsibilities for maintaining, operating, and developing the Fan integral part of the state park system. (1) The department of environmental management assured of public access and use of a tour program at the Fort Adams of by the foundation with oversight by the department. The department be engaged in a governmental function, and in any tort action recovered shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand decrease in the program and the state part and the program at the part action of public access and use of a tour program at the part action by the department. The department be engaged in a governmental function, and in any tort action recovered shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand decrease and the program at the part action recovered shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand decrease and the program at the part action recovered shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand decrease and the program at the part action recovered shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand decrease access and the program at the part action part action recovered shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand decrease access and the program at the part action part action recovered shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand decrease access and the program access access and the program access access and the program access access access and the program access access and the program access acc	nd enter into all contracts, leases, program, and to disburse and administer them in accordance with (9) To do all acts and things necessary or convenient to granted in this chapter. (b) These powers do not remove from the department or responsibilities for maintaining, operating, and developing the F an integral part of the state park system. (1) The department of environmental management assured of public access and use of a tour program at the Fort Adams or by the foundation with oversight by the department. The department be engaged in a governmental function, and in any tort action recovered shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand described to the state park system.	duties;
(9) To do all acts and things necessary or convenient to granted in this chapter. (b) These powers do not remove from the department or responsibilities for maintaining, operating, and developing the Fan integral part of the state park system. (1) The department of environmental management assured of public access and use of a tour program at the Fort Adams of by the foundation with oversight by the department. The department be engaged in a governmental function, and in any tort action recovered shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand described to the state park system.	for any of the purposes of its granted in this chapter. (b) These powers do not remove from the department or responsibilities for maintaining, operating, and developing the Fan integral part of the state park system. (1) The department of environmental management assured of public access and use of a tour program at the Fort Adams of by the foundation with oversight by the department. The department be engaged in a governmental function, and in any tort action recovered shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand designs.	the terms thereof; and
(b) These powers do not remove from the department or responsibilities for maintaining, operating, and developing the F an integral part of the state park system. (1) The department of environmental management assured of public access and use of a tour program at the Fort Adams of by the foundation with oversight by the department. The department be engaged in a governmental function, and in any tort action recovered shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand department.	o carry out the powers expressly responsibilities for maintaining, operating, and developing the F an integral part of the state park system. (1) The department of environmental management assu of public access and use of a tour program at the Fort Adams of by the foundation with oversight by the department. The departm be engaged in a governmental function, and in any tort actio recovered shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand d an integral part of the state park system. (1) The department of environmental management assured of public access and use of a tour program at the Fort Adams of the by the foundation with oversight by the department. The department be engaged in a governmental function, and in any tort action recovered shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand department.	environmental management any
(1) The department of environmental management assured of public access and use of a tour program at the Fort Adams of by the foundation with oversight by the department. The department be engaged in a governmental function, and in any tort action recovered shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand department.	ort Adams complex State Park as of public access and use of a tour program at the Fort Adams of by the foundation with oversight by the department. The department be engaged in a governmental function, and in any tort action recovered shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand department.
by the foundation with oversight by the department. The department be engaged in a governmental function, and in any tort action recovered shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand department.	mes tort liability for the purpose be engaged in a governmental function, and in any tort actio recovered shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand d	omplex, which shall be operated recovered shall not exceed the sum of one hundred thousand d	ent in its oversight capacity shall n against the state, the damages
26 section 9-31-2.	ollars ($100,000) as identified in (+,000) as identified in
(2) In addition to any other requirements mandated by	(1-10,000) as identified in management, any contractor hired for the purpose of restoration to carry liability insurance in the an amount of one million dollar	the department of environmental by the director.	the department of environmental of the complex shall be required
31 (3) The director may, through regulation or memora	the department of environmental of the complex shall be required
establish an advisory committee for the Fort Adams State Park.	the department of environmental of the complex shall be required are ($1,000,000) to be determined

1	SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage
	======
	LC02906/SUB A

EXPLANATION

BY THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

OF

AN ACT

RELATING TO STATE AFFAIRS AND GOVERNMENT -- FORT ADAMS FOUNDATION

- This act would decrease the number of members of The Fort Adams foundation from nine to four and would include representation from the Rhode Island historical preservation commission, city of Newport, Fort Adams Trust Board of Directors and the DEM division of parks and recreation. It would also authorize the director to determine the amount of insurance coverage and to create an advisory committee.
- 6 This act would take effect upon passage.

======

LC02906/SUB A
