11 following criteria:

12 (A) The person was unable to provide properly for his or her personal needs for physical

2 or caused it to be transcribed;

3 (3) A care custodian of a transferor who is a dependent adult, but only if the instrument

4 transferor, out of the presence of any heir or proposed beneficiary, about the nature and 5 consequences of the intended transfer, including the effect of the intended transfer on the 6 transferor's heirs and on any beneficiary of a prior donative instrument, attempts to determine if 7 the intended transfer is the result of fraud or undue influence, and signs and delivers to the 8 transferor an original certificate in substantially the following form:

9 "CERTIFICATE OF INDEPENDENT REVIEW

10 I, _____, have reviewed

11 _____
(attorney's name)

18 I am an "independent attorney" as defined in § 33-19.1-2 and I am in a position to advise 19 the transferor independently, impartially, and confidentially as to the consequences of the 20 transfer. On the basis of this counsel, I conclude that the transfers to 21 _____ that would (name of person described in § 33-
22 19.1-3) be made by the instrument are not the product of fraud or undue influence.

23 _____ "

24 (Name of Attorney) _____ (Bar#) _____ (Date)

33 gift shall operate as if the beneficiary had predeceased the transferor without spouse, domestic 34 partner, or issue.

1 33-19.1-7. Liability. -- (a) A person is not liable for transferring property pursuant to an
2 instrument that is subject to the presumption created under § 33-19.1-3, unless the person is 3 served with notice, prior to transferring the property, that the instrument has been contested under 4 this section.

5 (b) A person who is served with notice that an instrument has been contested under this 6 section is not liable for failing to transfer property pursuant to the instrument, unless the person is 7 served with notice that the validity of the transfer has been conclusively determined by a court.

8 33-19.1-8. Non-Waiveability. -- This chapter applies notwithstanding a contrary
9 provision in an instrument.

10 33-19.1-9. Applicability to present documents. -- (a) This section shall apply to 11 instruments that become irrevocable on or after January 1, 2015. For the purposes of this section, 12 an instrument that is otherwise revocable or amendable shall be deemed to be irrevocable if, on or 13 after January 1, 2015, the transferor by reason of incapacity was unable to change the disposition
14 of the transferor's property and did not regain capacity before the date of the transferor's death.

15 (b) It is the intent of the general assembly that this chapter supplements the common law
16 on undue influence, without superseding or interfering in the operation of that law. Nothing in 17 this chapter precludes an action to contest a donative transfer under the common law or under any 18 other applicable law. This chapter is declarative of existing law.

19 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect on January 1, 2015.
