STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2017

A N A C T

RELATING TO CRIMINAL OFFENSES - FRAUD AND FALSE DEALING

Introduced By: Representatives Kennedy, O'Grady, Johnston, Kazarian, and Messier

Date Introduced: March 01, 2017

Referred To: House Judiciary

(Attorney General)

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 11-18 of the General Laws entitled "Fraud and False Dealing" is 2 hereby amended by adding thereto the following section:

3 11-18-34. Residential Mortgage Fraud.

4 (a) For purposes of this section, the following definitions shall apply:

5 (1) "Mortgage lending process" means the process through which a person seeks or 6 obtains a residential mortgage loan including, but not limited to, solicitation, application, or 7 origination, negotiation of terms, real estate appraisals and surveys, third-party provider services,
8 underwriting, signing and closing, and funding of the loan.

9 (2) "Pattern of residential mortgage fraud" means one or more violations of subsection
10 (b)(1) or (b)(2) of this section that involve two (2) or more residential mortgage loans and that 11 have the same or similar intents, results, accomplices, or methods of commission or otherwise 12 result from comparable actions or omissions.

13 (3) "Person" means an individual, corporation, company, limited liability company,
14 partnership, trustee, association, or any other entity.

15 (4) "Residential mortgage loan" means a loan or agreement to extend credit made to a 16 person, which loan is secured by a deed to secure debt, security deed, mortgage, security interest,
17 deed of trust, promissory note, or any other document representing a security interest or lien upon 18 any interest in a one to four(4) family residential property including the renewal, modification or 19 refinancing of any such loan.

1 (5) "Victim" means a person who experienced personal loss, including, but not limited to 2 monetary loss, due to a violation of subsection (b) of this section.

3 (b) A person commits residential mortgage fraud when, with the intent to defraud, such 4 person:

5 (1) Knowingly makes an omission of a material fact or a written misrepresentation or 6 misstatement of a material fact during the mortgage lending process with the intention that a
7 mortgage lender, a borrower, or any other person that is involved in the mortgage lending process
8 will rely on the absence of such material fact or the making of such material misrepresentation or 9 misstatement; or

10 (2) Knowingly uses or facilitates the use or attempts to use or facilitate the use of any 11 omission of a material fact or written misrepresentation or misstatement of a material fact during 12 the mortgage lending process with the intention that a mortgage lender, a borrower or any other
13 person that is involved in the mortgage lending process will rely on the absence of such material 14 fact or the making of such material misrepresentation or misstatement; or

15 (3) Knowingly receives or attempts to receive proceeds or any other funds in connection 16 with a residential mortgage transaction that resulted from an act or acts constituting a violation of 17 subsection (b)(1) or (b)(2) of this section;

18 (4) Conspires with or solicits another to engage in an act or acts constituting a violation
19 of subsection (b)(1) or (b)(2) of this section; or

20 (5) Files or causes to be filed with a city or town clerk any document involved in the 21 mortgage lending process that the person knows to contain an omission of a material fact or a 22 written misrepresentation or misstatement of a material fact.

23 (c) Any person who violates this section, upon conviction, shall be subject to the 24 following penalties:

25 (1) Any person who commits an offense under subsection (b) of this section shall be 26 guilty of a felony and subject to imprisonment for not more than ten (10) years, a fine of not more 27 than ten thousand dollars ($10,000), or both.

28 (2) Any person who engages or participates in a pattern of residential mortgage fraud or 29 conspires or endeavors to engage or participate in a pattern of residential mortgage fraud shall be 30 guilty of a felony and subject to imprisonment for not more than twenty (20) years, a fine of not 31 more than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), or both.

32 (3) Any person who commits an offense and knew that the victim was vulnerable due to 33 age, disability, infirmity, reduced physical or mental capacity, or national origin shall be guilty of 34 a felony and subject to imprisonment for not more than fifteen (15) years, a fine of not more than 1 fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000), or both.

2 (4) The court shall order restitution to any victim.

3 (5) In addition to any criminal penalties above, any person found in violation of this 4 section shall forfeit anything of value received by them in the course of such violation less any 5 restitution they actually paid pursuant to subsection (c)(4) of this section. Action for recovery of 6 these amounts shall be brought in the superior court of any county in which any element of the 7 crime occurred. The actions shall be brought in the name of the state by the attorney general for 8 the benefit and use of the state.

9 (d) It shall be sufficient in any prosecution for residential mortgage fraud to show that the 10 party accused did the act with the intent to defraud. It shall be unnecessary to show that any 11 particular person was harmed financially in the transaction or that the person to whom the 12 material misstatement, misrepresentation or omission was made relied upon the misstatement,
13 misrepresentation or omission.

14 SECTION 2. Section 12-12-17 of the General Laws in Chapter 12-12 entitled 15 "Indictments, Informations and Complaints" is hereby amended to read as follows:

16 12-12-17. Statute of limitations.
