STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2017

HOUSE RESOLUTION

RECOGNIZING AND CELEBRATING THE 100TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE LIONS CLUBS INTERNATIONAL AND DESIGNATING THE PERIOD FROM JUNE 7, 2017, THROUGH JUNE 7, 2018, AS "THE YEAR OF LIONS CLUBS INTERNATIONAL"

Introduced By: Representatives Phillips, Kazarian, Quattrocchi, Corvese, and Casey

Date Introduced: June 07, 2017

Referred To: House read and passed

1 WHEREAS, The Lions Clubs International (LCI) is an international service organization
2 headquartered in Oak Brook, Illinois. It is comprised of more than 46,000 local clubs and has 3 more than 1.4 million members representing more than 200 countries; and

4 WHEREAS, The Lions Clubs International was founded on June 7, 1917, by Chicago
5 Businessman Melvin Jones. Mr. Jones thought that if he and his colleagues, all of whom were 6 highly driven, intelligent and successful, put their talents and ambition to work towards 7 improving their local communities, through community service, much could be accomplished 8 towards making the world and our local communities better places to live in; and

9 WHEREAS, The stated purpose of the Lions Clubs International is to organize by 10 chartering and supervising their service clubs, to coordinate the activities of these clubs, to create 11 a spirit of understanding and cooperation amongst the peoples of the world, to promote the 12 principles of good government and good citizenship, to take an active interest in civic, cultural 13 and social affairs, to unite the clubs in the bonds of friendship and fellowship, to provide a forum 14 for the open discussion of all matters of public interest, and to encourage civic-minded people to 15 serve their communities; and

16 WHEREAS, The Motto of the Lions is "We Serve." Lions Clubs plan and participate in a 17 wide variety of service projects including donations to hospices, youth outreach, international 18 relations, environmental issues, and health issues related to sight, speech and hearing as well as 19 cancer screening. The Lions Clubs also raise significant amounts of money to assist those

1 afflicted by natural disasters, such as earthquakes, hurricanes, tornados and typhoons; and

2 WHEREAS, Ever since Helen Keller addressed the Lions Clubs International Convention
3 in 1925 and beseeched the Lions to be "Knights of the Blind", the Lions have become famous 4 world-wide for their tireless support of the blind and vision-impaired population. Lions Clubs 5 have raised many millions of dollars and public awareness on this issue through their numerous 6 "SightFirst" programs including the Childhood Blindness Project, the Lions Eye Health Program,
7 SightFirst China Action, the River Blindness/Trachoma program and their Sight for Kids
8 program. Most eye banks in the world are sponsored by the Lions and in 2001 they partnered with 9 the Special Olympics to create the Opening Eyes program, which screened the vision of Special 10 Olympics athletes; and

11 WHEREAS, Throughout the Lions one-hundred years of history, they have made a 12 positive impact and played a prominent role in public and world affairs. The Lions assisted in the 13 drafting of the United Nations Charter in 1945 and Mother Teresa accepted the Lions 14 Humanitarian Award in 1986. Since 1968 and the creation of the Lions Club International 15 Foundation, they have given $826 million to humanitarian causes; now, therefore be it

16 RESOLVED, That this House of Representatives of the State of Rhode Island and 17 Providence Plantations hereby recognizes and celebrates the 100th Anniversary of the Lions 18 Clubs International; and be it further

19 RESOLVED, That this House of Representatives of the State of Rhode Island and 20 Providence Plantations hereby proclaims the period from June 7, 2017, through June 7, 2018, to 21 be "The Year of Lions Clubs International" in the State of Rhode Island; and be it further

22 RESOLVED, That the Secretary of State be and hereby is authorized and directed to 23 transmit a duly certified copy of this resolution to Chancellor Bob Corlew, Lions Clubs 24 International President.
