6 magnificent "I have a Dream Speech", and on to Selma, Alabama, Dr. King became the face and 7 voice of the American Civil Rights movement; and 11 as we love ourselves. His message of love, hope, non-violence and racial equality opened the 12 hearts of millions, motivated countless people to devote their lives to the causes of equality and 13 justice and moved a nation to begin the process of taking steps towards becoming a society in
