RELATING TO FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS -- THE ELDER ADULT FINANCIAL EXPLOITATION PREVENTION ACT

Introduced By: Senators Coyne, Sosnowski, Valverde, Burke, Seveney, and Euer

Date Introduced: February 10, 2021

Referred To: Senate Judiciary

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1	SECTION 1. Title 19 of the General Laws entitled "FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS" is
2	hereby amended by adding thereto the following chapter:
3	CHAPTER 34
4	THE ELDER ADULT FINANCIAL EXPLOITATION PREVENTION ACT
5	19-34-1. Definitions.
6	As used in this chapter:
7	(1) "Department" means the Rhode Island office of healthy aging.
8	(2) "Elder adult" means a person who is sixty (60) years of age or older.
9	(3) "Exploitation" means the fraudulent or otherwise illegal, unauthorized or improper act
10	or process of an individual, including, but not limited to, a caregiver or fiduciary that uses the
11	resources of an elder adult for monetary or personal benefit, profit, gain, or that results in depriving
12	an elder adult of rightful access to, or use of benefits, resources, belongings, or assets by use, undue
13	influence, harassment, duress, deception, false representation or false pretenses, or conduct in
14	violation of § 11-68-2.
15	(4) "Financial exploitation" means:
16	(i) The wrongful or unauthorized taking, withholding, appropriation, or use of the money,
17	assets, or other property or the identifying information of a person; or

(ii) Any act or omission taken by a person, including through the use of a power of attorney, guardianship or any other legal authority, regarding an elder adult to:

(A) Obtain, control through deception, intimidation, fraud or undue influence, over the other person's money, assets, or property to deprive the other person of the ownership, use, benefit or possession of the property; or (B) Convert the money, assets, or other property of the other person to deprive the other person of the ownership, use, benefit, or possession of the property.
(5) "Regulated institution" means any financial institution, credit union, or other insured deposit-taking institution, that is authorized to do business in this state, including one authorized by operation of an interstate banking statute that allowed it original entry.
19-34-2. Reporting suspected financial exploitation of elder adults.
(a) If an employee of a regulated institution has reasonable cause to believe that financial exploitation of an elder adult who is an account holder with the regulated institution has occurred, is occurring, or has been attempted, the employee shall notify the regulated institution of the suspected financial exploitation.
(b)(1) If a regulated institution is notified of suspected financial exploitation under subsection (a) of this section or otherwise has reasonable cause to believe that financial exploitation of an elder adult who is an account holder with the regulated institution has occurred, is occurring, or has been attempted, the regulated institution shall assess the suspected financial exploitation and submit a report to the department identifying the name, address and, if known, the age of the elder adult; the name and address of any person responsible for the care of the elder adult; the nature and extent of the facts of the suspected activity; the basis of the reporter's knowledge; and any other relevant information; or any other reporting requirements consistent with the provisions of § 42-66-8.
(2) The regulated institution shall submit the required report no later than the earlier of:
(i) The second business day following the date the regulated institution completes the regulated institution's assessment of the suspected financial exploitation; or (ii) The seventh business day after the date the regulated institution is notified of the suspected financial exploitation under subsection (a) of this section or otherwise has reasonable cause to believe that the suspected financial exploitation has occurred, is occurring, or has been attempted.
(c) A regulated institution that submits a report to the department of suspected financial exploitation of an elder adult under subsection (b) of this section is not required to make any additional report of suspected abuse, neglect, or exploitation, for the same conduct constituting the reported suspected financial exploitation.

1	(d) Each regulated institution shall adopt internal policies, programs, plans, or procedures
2	for:
3	(1) The employees of the regulated institution to make the notification required under
4	subsection (a) of this section; and
5	(2) The regulated institution to conduct the assessment and submit the report required under
6	subsection (b) of this section.
7	(e) The policies, programs, plans, or procedures adopted under subsection (d) of this
8	section may authorize the regulated institution to report the suspected financial exploitation to other
9	appropriate agencies and entities in addition to the department, including the attorney general, the
10	Federal Trade Commission, and the appropriate law enforcement agency.
11	19-34-3. Notifying third parties of suspected financial exploitation or abuse.
12	If a regulated institution submits a report of suspected financial exploitation or abuse of an
13	elder adult to the department pursuant to § 19-34-2, the regulated institution may at the time the
14	regulated institution submits the report also notify a third party reasonably associated with the elder
15	adult of the suspected financial exploitation or abuse, unless the regulated institution suspects the
16	third party of financial exploitation or abuse of the elder adult.
17	19-34-4. Temporary hold on transactions in certain cases of suspected financial
18	exploitation.
19	(a) Notwithstanding any other law, if a regulated institution submits a report of suspected
