(a) It shall be unlawful for any person in the business of selling intoxicating beverages in another state or country to ship or cause to be shipped any intoxicating beverage directly to any Rhode Island resident who does not hold a valid wholesaler license or an out-of-state direct wine shipment license issued by the State of Rhode Island. The foregoing shall not apply to any order for intoxicating beverages personally placed by the purchaser at the manufacturer's premises, for shipment to an address in Rhode Island for nonbusiness purpose. Any shipment of intoxicating beverages pursuant to this section shall contain the language: "Contains Alcohol, Adult Signature (over 21) Required for Delivery."

SECTION 2. Sections 3-5-1 and 3-5-14 of the General Laws in Chapter 3-5 entitled "Licenses Generally" are hereby amended to read as follows:

3-5-1. License required for manufacture, sale, or importation of beverages.
No person shall at any time manufacture or sell or suffer to be manufactured or sold or 3-5-14. Licenses issued by department of business regulation.

The right, power, and jurisdiction to issue out-of-state direct wine shipment's, manufacturer's, wholesaler's, or retailer's Class G and Class I licenses are solely in the department of business regulation; provided, that before the department issues any Class I license it shall first receive the approval of the licensing authority of the town or city in which the premises covered by the Class I license are located; and provided, that the number of Class I licenses in the state shall be limited to one to each twenty-five thousand (25,000) of its inhabitants as determined by the latest census taken under the authority of the United States or of this state.
