IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2023

A N A C T

RELATING TO THE CONSOLIDATION OF THE OAKLAND--MAPLEVILLE #4 AND THE NASONVILLE FIRE DISTRICTS INTO THE BURRILLVILLE FIRE DISTRICT

Introduced By: Representatives Place, and Newberry

Date Introduced: March 17, 2023

Referred To: House Municipal Government & Housing

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. The Oakland-Mapleville #4 and the Nasonville Fire Districts are hereby 2 merged and consolidated into Burrillville Fire District in the manner and form as follows:

3 Section 1. Consolidation; Name; Jurisdiction

4 All that part of the Town of Burrillville encompassing the villages of Oakland, Mapleville, 5 Whipples, Gazzaville, Tarkih, Oak Valley, Nasonville, Mohegan, Mount Pleasant and parts of the 6 village of Glendale, to include all property of the former Oakland-Mapleville Fire District # 4 and 7 the Nasonville Fire District as defined and as more specifically described in Section 13 hereof, are 8 hereby merged and consolidated into a district to be called the "Burrillville Fire District". Said 9 district, hereinafter called the District, may have a common seal, sue and be sued and enjoy the 10 other powers generally incident to corporations. The Burrillville Fire District, upon consolidation, 11 shall be vested with title, ownership and control of all property and assets of, and shall assume all
12 liabilities of, the Oakland-Mapleville #4 and the Nasonville Fire Districts. The Oakland-Mapleville
13 #4 and the Nasonville Fire Districts shall be hereby dissolved and the charters are hereby revoked 14 upon said consolidation being approved.

15 Section 2. Voters.

16 The inhabitants of the District, qualified to vote in Town of Burrillville affairs on 17 propositions to impose a tax or for the expenditure of money (hereafter called "Qualified Voters")
18 shall be eligible to vote and act at all meetings of the District.

1 Section 3. Meetings.

2 The annual meeting of the District shall be held on the third Wednesday in September in 3 each year. The Clerk of the District shall, at least five (5) days before the meeting, give notice of 4 the same by posting conspicuously in public places within the limits of the District, not less than 5 three (3) written or printed notices setting forth the time and place of such meeting.

6 A special meeting may be called by twelve (12) or more of the Qualified Voters of the 7 District. Such call shall consist of posting in the same manner and for the same time before such 8 meetings as are the annual meetings. No vote except upon an adjournment or on the election of 9 officers pro tempore shall be taken at any meeting of the District unless at least twelve (12)
10 Qualified Voters are present at such meeting. All persons possessing the qualifications set forth in 11 Section 2 of this act shall be entitled to vote by ballot or otherwise as they determine, at the first 12 meeting upon the proposition: "Shall the Burrillville Fire District be established according to the 13 act of consolidation passed by the general assembly of the State of Rhode Island". If a majority of 14 the persons so qualified shall vote in the affirmative, the Fire District shall be established according 15 to the provision of this act. If a majority of the persons so voting shall vote in the negative, then 16 this act shall become null and void. All meetings of the District shall be in accord with the Open 17 Meetings Law, chapter 46 of title 42.

18 Section 4. Governing Body.

19 The Qualified Voters of the District at each annual meeting, may elect an operating 20 committee (the "Operating Committee") to serve staggered terms according to the Bylaws of the 21 District, until the next annual meeting and until others may be chosen in their stead. The Operating 22 Committee shall consist of seven (7) members. The Operating Committee shall elect one of its 23 members to serve as Chairperson of the District which includes the duties incumbent upon any 24 Chief Executive Officer and shall be the official spokesperson for the District. Any vacancy on the 25 Operating Committee shall be filled by the next highest vote getter at the prior annual District
26 meeting. If there is none, or if the one chosen shall decline to serve, the next highest vote getter
27 will be chosen. If there are none, then the remaining Operating Committee members shall appoint 28 a Qualified Voter to serve. The Operating Committee, by majority vote, shall appoint operating 29 officers to include a Clerk, Treasurer, and a Collector of Taxes/Tax Assessor, whose duties and 30 powers within the District shall be such as like officers of the towns in this state. The Chairperson 31 shall serve as an ex officio member of all subcommittees of the Operating Committee and shall 32 vote, as a member of the subcommittees, only when necessary to break a tie. The Operating 33 Committee shall have full power to manage the affairs and interests of the District. The Operating 34 Committee shall have responsibility for maintaining, repairing and insuring all property, real and

1 personal, owned by the District. The Operating Committee shall appoint a Fire Chief. The Fire
2 Chief shall have general supervision and control of the fire companies and shall serve as liaison
3 between the Operating Committee and the fire companies. All members of the Operating 4 Committee shall be residents and Qualified Voters of the District. The Operating Committee may,
5 at its option, appoint non-residents to the positions of Clerk, Tax Collector/Tax Assessor, Treasurer
6 and Fire Chief.

7 Section 5. Taxes.

8 The Qualified Voters of the District at any of their legal meetings, shall have power to 9 order such taxes, and provide for assessing and collecting the same on the taxable inhabitants and 10 property in the District, as they shall deem necessary for purchasing, hiring and otherwise procuring 11 real estate, buildings, implements and apparatus and a supply of water for the extinguishing of fires; 12 purchasing, hiring and otherwise procuring equipment for the providing of emergency medical 13 services; for the payment of the operating expenses of the District; for the preservation of the public
14 peace; and for the payment of any indebtedness incurred by the District; and such taxes so ordered
15 shall be assessed by the assessor of the District on the taxable inhabitants and the property therein
16 according to the last valuation made by the Assessor of the Town next previous to said assessment, 17 adding, however, any taxable property which have been omitted by said Town Assessor or after 18 acquired, and in all cases where the Town Assessor has included property within the District and 19 property without the District in one valuation, the Assessor of the District shall make an equitable 20 valuation of the portion of the same lying within the District; and in the assessing and collecting of 21 said taxes such proceeding shall be had by the officers of the District, as near as may be, as are 22 required to be had by the corresponding officers of Towns in assessing and collection of taxes; and 23 the collector of taxes for the District shall, for the purpose of collecting taxes assessed by the 24 District, have the same powers and authority as are now or may hereafter be by law conferred on 25 collectors of taxes for towns in this state. The District may assess such penalty by way of percentage 26 on the tax if not paid at the appointed time not to exceed eighteen percent (18%) per annum, as they 27 shall deem necessary. In addition to any other sums to which it may be entitled in accordance with 28 this Charter and applicable laws, in any action or proceeding to collect taxes, the District shall be 29 entitled to collect the reasonable costs of collection including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees.
30 The Qualified Voters of the District at any of their legal meetings shall have power to order the sale
31 or purchase of real property and personal property owned by the District.

32 Section 6. Bylaws.

33 The Qualified Voters of the District at any legal meeting shall have the power to enact such 34 bylaws and from time to time to rescind or amend the same by two-thirds (2/3) vote in accordance

1 with the amendment procedure set forth in the Bylaws as they may deem necessary or proper for 2 the purposes of this act and not repugnant thereto or inconsistent with any other law; provided that,
3 no greater penalty shall be inflicted thereby than is provided in this Section 6 and may appoint such 4 committees as they may deem necessary and may fix the compensation of all officers, agents,
5 employees and committees of the District. Such Bylaws may further prescribe the duties of the Fire
6 Chief and of the inhabitants of the District in the time of conflagration, and the method of enforcing 7 the commands of the Fire Chief, and for the appointment of officers for suppressing disorder and 8 tumult, guarding or removing property, and rendering other services in time of fire or emergency, 9 and also for the protection of water pipes, hydrants, safety valves, water gates or other apparatus or 10 property of or in the District, and for any breach of any Bylaw may provide a penalty not exceeding 11 a fine of one hundred dollars ($100), to be recovered for the use of the District, or imprisonment 12 for a term not exceeding thirty (30) days, which penalty may be enforced by prosecution, on 13 complaint of any officer of the Fire District, before any court of competent jurisdiction. Any such 14 prosecution must first be authorized and approved by the Operating Committee.

15 Section 7. Authorization to Form Fire Company.

16 The Operating Committee of the District at any legal meeting shall have the authority to 17 appoint, or may direct the Fire Chief to appoint, so many men/women as the Operating Committee 18 deems necessary and proper to be formed into a Fire Company, and to adopt and approve all such 19 regulations for organizing, establishing and maintaining the same and the equipment thereof as the 20 Operating Committee shall see fit.

21 Section 8. Special Meetings.

22 The District may hold special meetings, which as well as the annual meeting, shall be held 23 within the District and notification shall be given of such special meeting in such manner as the 24 Bylaws and the open meetings laws of the State of Rhode Island shall prescribe; and it shall be the 25 duty of the Clerk to call a special meeting on written application signed by twelve (12) or more
26 Qualified Voters of the District; and whenever the subject of ordering a tax or amending the Charter 27 or Bylaws is to be acted on, the same shall be mentioned in the notice, unless it be the annual 28 meeting.

29 Section 9. Scope of Bylaws.

30 The District may enact all Bylaws by it judged necessary and expedient for carrying the 31 provisions of the act into effect; provided that, no greater penalty be inflicted thereby than is 32 prescribed in the Section 6; and provided, further, the same be not in violation of or repugnant to 33 the laws of this State.

34 Section 10. Liens.

1 District taxes shall constitute a lien upon the property assessed and if not paid when due 2 shall carry an interest penalty at the rate imposed from time to time by vote of the District.

3 Section 11. Authorization to Borrow Funds.

4 The District may also borrow money from time to time for the purpose herein specified 5 and issue bonds or notes therefor which shall be binding upon such District in the same manner as 6 Town or City notes. All bonds are binding upon the District using them but the District shall not 7 have outstanding at any time bonds or notes of a face value or more than three percent (3%) of the 8 total valuation of real estate within the District.

9 Section 12. Amendments.

10 This charter may be amended by a vote of at least two-thirds (2/3) of Qualified Voters
11 present and voting at any annual or special meeting of the District, provided the notice thereof states
12 that an amendment to the Charter shall be considered at such meeting. An amendment to the Charter 13 in conformity with such prior vote of the District shall be effective upon approval.

14 Section 13. Legal Description of the District.
