STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2024

A N A C T

RELATING TO COURTS AND CIVIL PROCEDURE -- COURTS -- DOMESTIC ASSAULT

Introduced By: Representatives Baginski, Casimiro, Spears, Craven, Kazarian, Solomon, Hull, and Newberry

Date Introduced: February 09, 2024

Referred To: House Judiciary

(Governor/Judiciary)

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 8-8.1-3 of the General Laws in Chapter 8-8.1 entitled "Domestic 2 Assault" is hereby amended to read as follows:

3 8-8.1-3. Protective orders — Penalty — Jurisdiction.

4 (a) A person suffering from domestic abuse may file a complaint in the district court 5 requesting any order that will protect her or him from the abuse, including, but not limited to, the 6 following:

7 (1) Ordering that the defendant be restrained and enjoined from contacting, assaulting, 8 molesting, or otherwise interfering with the plaintiff at home, on the street, or elsewhere;

9 (2) Ordering the defendant to vacate the household forthwith, unless the defendant holds 10 sole legal interest in the household;

11 (3) Upon motion by the plaintiff, his or her address shall be released only at the discretion 12 of the district court judge;

13 (4) Ordering the defendant to surrender physical possession of all firearms in his or her 14 possession, care, custody, or control and shall further order a person restrained not to purchase or 15 receive, or attempt to purchase or receive, any firearms while the protective order is in effect. The 16 defendant shall surrender the firearms within twenty-four (24) hours of notice of the protective 17 order to the Rhode Island state police or local police department or to a federally licensed firearms 18 dealer.

19 (i) A person ordered to surrender possession of any firearm(s) pursuant to this section shall,

1 within seventy-two (72) hours after being served with the order, either:

2 (A) File with the court a receipt showing the firearm(s) was physically surrendered to the 3 Rhode Island state police or local police department, or to a federally licensed firearm dealer; or

4 (B) Attest to the court that, at the time of the order, the person had no firearms in his or her 5 immediate physical possession or control, or subject to his or her immediate physical possession or 6 control, and that the person, at the time of the attestation, has no firearms in his or her immediate 7 physical possession or control or subject to his or her immediate physical possession or control.

8 (ii) If a person restrained under this section transfers a firearm(s) to a federally licensed 9 firearms dealer pursuant to this section, the person restrained under this section may instruct the 10 federally licensed firearms dealer to sell the firearm(s) or to transfer ownership in accordance with 11 state and federal law, to a qualified named individual who is not a member of the person's dwelling
12 house, who is not related to the person by blood, marriage, or relationship as defined by § 15-15-13 1(7), and who is not prohibited from possessing firearms under state or federal law. The owner of 14 any firearm(s) sold shall receive any financial value received from its sale, less the cost associated 15 with taking possession of, storing, and transferring of the firearm(s).

16 (iii) Every individual to whom possession of a firearm(s) is transferred pursuant to this 17 subsection shall be prohibited from transferring or returning any firearm(s) to the person restrained 18 under this section while the protective order remains in effect and shall be informed of this 19 prohibition. Any knowing violation of this subsection is a felony that shall be punishable by a fine 20 of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment for a term of not less than one 21 year and not more than five (5) years, or both.

22 (iv) An individual to whom possession of a firearm(s) is transferred pursuant to this 23 subsection shall return a firearm(s) to the person formerly restrained under this section only if the 24 person formerly restrained under this section provides documentation issued by a court indicating 25 that the restraining order issued pursuant to this section that prohibited the person from purchasing, 26 carrying, transporting, or possessing firearms has expired and has not been extended.

27 (b) After notice to the respondent and after a hearing, which shall be held within fifteen 28 (15) days of surrendering said firearms, the court, in addition to any other restrictions, may, for any 29 protective order issued or renewed on or after July 1, 2017, continue the order of surrender, and 30 shall further order a person restrained under this section not to purchase or receive, or attempt to 31 purchase or receive, any firearms while the protective order is in effect.

32 (c) The district court shall provide a notice on all forms requesting a protective order that 33 a person restrained under this section shall be ordered pursuant to § 11-47-5, to surrender 34 possession or control of any firearms and not to purchase or receive, or attempt to purchase or

1 receive, any firearms while the restraining order is in effect. The form shall further provide that any 2 person who has surrendered their firearms shall be afforded a hearing within fifteen (15) days of 3 surrendering their firearms.

4 (d) Any firearm surrendered in accordance with this section to the Rhode Island state police
5 or local police department shall be returned to the person formerly restrained under this section 6 upon their request when:

7 (1) The person formerly restrained under this section produces documentation issued by a
8 court indicating that the restraining order issued pursuant to this section that prohibited the person 9 from purchasing, carrying, transporting, or possessing firearms has expired and has not been 10 extended; and

11 (2) The law enforcement agency in possession of the firearms determines that the person 12 formerly restrained under this section is not otherwise prohibited from possessing a firearm under 13 state or federal law.

14 (3) The person required to surrender his or her firearms pursuant to this section shall not 15 be responsible for any costs of storage of any firearms surrendered pursuant to this section.

16 (e) The Rhode Island state police are authorized to develop rules and procedures pertaining 17 to the storage and return of firearms surrendered to the Rhode Island state police or local police 18 departments pursuant to this section. The Rhode Island state police may consult with the Rhode 19 Island Police Chiefs' Association in developing rules and procedures.

20 (f) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit, expand, or in any way modify orders 21 issued under § 12-29-4 or § 15-5-19.

22 (g) Nothing in this section shall limit a defendant's right under existing law to petition the 23 court at a later date for modification of the order.

24 (h) The court shall immediately notify the person suffering from domestic abuse whose 25 complaint gave rise to the protective order and the law enforcement agency where the person 26 restrained under this section resides of the hearing.

27 (i) The person suffering from domestic abuse, local law enforcement, and the person
28 restrained under this section shall all have an opportunity to be present and to testify when the court 29 considers the petition.

30 (j) At the hearing, the person restrained under this section shall have the burden of showing,
31 by clear and convincing evidence, that, if his or her firearm rights were restored, he or she would 32 not pose a danger to the person suffering from domestic abuse or to any other person.

33 (1) In determining whether to restore a person's firearm rights, the court shall examine all 34 relevant evidence, including, but not limited to: the complaint seeking a protective order; the

1 criminal record of the person restrained under this section; the mental health history of the person
2 restrained under this section; any evidence that the person restrained under this section has, since
3 being served with the order, engaged in violent or threatening behavior against the person suffering 4 from domestic abuse or any other person.

5 (2) If the court determines, after a review of all relevant evidence and after all parties have 6 had an opportunity to be heard, that the person restrained under this section would not pose a danger
7 to the person suffering from domestic abuse or to any other person if his or her firearm rights were 8 restored, then the court may grant the petition and modify the protective order and lift the firearm
9 prohibition.

10 (3) If the court lifts a person's firearms prohibition pursuant to this subsection, the court 11 shall issue the person written notice that he or she is no longer prohibited under this section from 12 purchasing or possessing firearms while the protective order is in effect.

13 (k) The prohibition against possessing a firearm(s) due solely to the existence of a domestic 14 violence restraining order issued under this section shall not apply with respect to sworn peace 15 officers as defined in § 12-7-21 and active members of military service, including members of the 16 reserve components thereof, who are required by law or departmental policy to carry departmental 17 firearms while on duty or any person who is required by his or her employment to carry a firearm
18 in the performance of his or her duties. Any individual exempted pursuant to this exception may 19 possess a firearm only during the course of his or her employment. Any firearm required for 20 employment must be stored at the place of employment when not being possessed for employment 21 use; all other firearm(s) must be surrendered in accordance with this section.

22 (l) Any violation of the aforementioned protective order shall subject the defendant to being 23 found in contempt of court.

24 (m) No order shall issue under this section that would have the effect of compelling a 25 defendant who has the sole legal interest in a residence to vacate that residence.

26 (n) The contempt order shall not be exclusive and shall not preclude any other available 27 civil or criminal remedies. Any relief granted by the court shall be for a fixed period of time not to 28 exceed three (3) years, at the expiration of which time the court may extend any order upon motion 29 of the plaintiff for such additional time as it deems necessary to protect the plaintiff from abuse.
30 The court may modify its order at any time upon motion of either party.

31 (o) Any violation of a protective order under this chapter of which the defendant has actual 32 notice shall be a misdemeanor that shall be punished by a fine of no more than one thousand dollars 33 ($1,000) or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both. Beginning July 1, 2025, said
34 violation shall be prosecuted by an attorney who shall self-certify that they have successfully

1 completed a specialized domestic violence prosecution training course and updated training every
2 four \(4\) years thereafter, aligned with national best practices and eligible for continuing legal
3 education credit\(s\) as approved by the Rhode Island Bar Association.

4 (p) The penalties for violation of this section shall also include the penalties provided under 5 § 12-29-5.

6 (q) “Actual notice” means that the defendant has received a copy of the order by service 7 thereof or by being handed a copy of the order by a police officer pursuant to § 8-8.1-5(d).

8 (r) The district court shall have criminal jurisdiction over all violations of this chapter.

9 SECTION 2. Section 12-29-4 of the General Laws in Chapter 12-29 entitled "Domestic 10 Violence Prevention Act" is hereby amended to read as follows:

11 12-29-4. Restrictions upon and duties of court.

12 (a)(1) Because of the likelihood of repeated violence directed at those who have been 13 victims of domestic violence in the past, when a person is charged with or arrested for a crime 14 involving domestic violence, that person may not be released from custody on bail or personal 15 recognizance before arraignment without first appearing before the court or bail commissioner. The 16 court or bail commissioner authorizing release shall issue a no-contact order prohibiting the person 17 charged or arrested from having contact with the victim.

18 (2) At the time of arraignment or bail hearing the court or bail commissioner shall 19 determine whether a no-contact order shall be issued or extended.

20 (3) Willful violation of a court order issued under subdivision (1), (2), or as part of 21 disposition of this subdivision of this subsection is a misdemeanor. Beginning July 1, 2025, said
22 violation shall be prosecuted by an attorney who shall self-certify that they have successfully 23 completed a specialized domestic violence prosecution training course and updated training every
24 four \(4\) years thereafter, aligned with national best practices and eligible for continuing legal 25 education credit\(s\) as approved by the Rhode Island Bar Association. The written order releasing 26 the person charged or the written order issued at the time of disposition shall contain the court’s 27 directive and shall bear the legend: “Violation of this order is a criminal offense under this section 28 and will subject a violator to arrest”. A copy of the order shall be provided to the victim.

29 (4) Whenever an order prohibiting contact is issued, modified, or terminated under 30 subdivision (1), (2) or (3) of this subsection, the clerk of the court shall forward a copy of the order 31 on or before the next judicial day to the appropriate law enforcement agency specified in the order.

32 (b) Because of the serious nature of domestic violence, the court in domestic violence 33 actions:

34 (1) Shall not dismiss any charge or delay disposition because of concurrent dissolution of 1 marriage or other civil proceedings;

2 (2) Shall not require proof that either party is seeking a dissolution of marriage prior to 3 instigation of criminal proceedings;

4 (3) Shall identify by reasonable means on docket sheets those criminal actions arising from 5 acts of domestic violence; and

6 (4) Shall make clear to the defendant and victim that the prosecution of the domestic 7 violence action is determined by the prosecutor and not the victim.

8 (c) To facilitate compliance with the provisions of this section, the district court shall assure 9 that the misdemeanor and felony complaint forms indicate whether the crime charged involves 10 domestic violence and, if so, the relationship of the victim and defendant.

11 (d) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 12-10-12, the filing of any complaint for a 12 crime involving domestic violence shall be conditioned upon the defendant keeping the peace and 13 being of good behavior for a period of three (3) years. In the event a particular case involving 14 domestic violence is filed on a plea of not guilty, guilty or nolo contendere pursuant to section 12-15 10-12, the court having jurisdiction shall retain the records of the case for a period of three (3) years 16 from the date of the filing. These records shall not be expunged, sealed, or otherwise destroyed for 17 a period of three (3) years from the date of filing. Furthermore, the destruction or sealing of records 18 in the possession of the department of attorney general bureau of criminal identification, the 19 superintendent of the state police, or the police departments of any city or town after a filing related 20 to a crime involving domestic violence shall be governed by section 12-1-12.

21 SECTION 3. Section 15-15-3 of the General Laws in Chapter 15-15 entitled "Domestic 22 Abuse Prevention" is hereby amended to read as follows:

23 15-15-3. Protective orders — Penalty — Jurisdiction.

24 (a) A person, or a parent, custodian, or legal guardian on behalf of a minor child or the 25 director of the department of children, youth and families ("DCYF") or its designee for a child in 26 the custody of DCYF, pursuant to §§ 40-11-7 and 40-11-7.1, suffering from domestic abuse or 27 sexual exploitation as defined in § 15-15-1, may file a complaint in the family court requesting any 28 order that will protect and support her or him from abuse or sexual exploitation, including, but not 29 limited to, the following:

30 (1) Ordering that the defendant be restrained and enjoined from contacting, assaulting, 31 molesting, sexually exploiting, or interfering with the plaintiff at home, on the street, or elsewhere, 32 whether the defendant is an adult or a minor;

33 (2) Ordering the defendant to vacate the household immediately, and further providing in 34 the order for the safety and welfare of all household animals and pets;

1 (3) Awarding the plaintiff custody of the minor children of the parties, if any;

2 (4) Ordering the defendant to surrender physical possession of all firearms in his or her
3 possession, care, custody, or control and shall further order a person restrained not to purchase or 4 receive, or attempt to purchase or receive, any firearms while the protective order is in effect. The 5 defendant shall surrender said firearms within twenty-four (24) hours of notice of the protective 6 order to the Rhode Island state police or local police department or to a federally licensed firearms
7 dealer.

8 (i) A person ordered to surrender possession of any firearm(s) pursuant to this section shall,
9 within seventy-two (72) hours after being served with the order, either:

10 (A) File with the court a receipt showing the firearm(s) was physically surrendered to the 11 Rhode Island state police or local police department, or to a federally licensed firearms dealer; or

12 (B) Attest to the court that, at the time of the order, the person had no firearms in his or her 13 immediate physical possession or control, or subject to their immediate physical possession or 14 control, and that the person, at the time of the attestation, has no firearms in their immediate 15 physical possession or control, or subject to their immediate physical possession or control.

16 (ii) If a person restrained under this section transfers a firearm(s) to a federally licensed 17 firearms dealer pursuant to this section, the person restrained under this section may instruct the 18 federally licensed firearms dealer to sell the firearm(s) or to transfer ownership, in accordance with 19 state and federal law, to a qualified named individual who is not a member of the person's dwelling
20 house, who is not related to the person by blood, marriage, or relationship as defined by § 15-15-
21 1(7), and who is not prohibited from possessing firearms under state or federal law. The owner of 22 any firearm(s) sold shall receive any financial value received from its sale, less the cost associated 23 with taking possession of, storing, and transferring of the firearm(s).

24 (iii) Every individual to whom ownership of a firearm(s) is transferred pursuant to this 25 subsection shall be prohibited from transferring or returning any firearm(s) to the person restrained
26 under this section while the protective order remains in effect and shall be informed of this
27 prohibition, Any knowing violation of this subsection is a felony that shall be punishable by a fine
28 of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), or by imprisonment for a term of not less than one 29 year and not more than five (5) years, or both.

30 (iv) An individual to whom ownership of a firearm(s) is transferred pursuant to this 31 subsection shall return a firearm(s) to the person formerly restrained under this section only if the 32 person formerly restrained under this section provides documentation issued by a court indicating 33 that the restraining order issued pursuant to this section that prohibited the person from purchasing, 34 carrying, transporting, or possessing firearms has expired and has not been extended;

1 (5) After notice to the respondent and a hearing, ordering either party to make payments 2 for the support of a minor child or children of the parties as required by law for a period not to 3 exceed ninety (90) days, unless the child support order is for a child or children receiving public 4 assistance pursuant to chapter 5.1 of title 40. In these cases, legal counsel for the division of 5 taxation, child support enforcement, shall be notified as a party in interest to appear for the purpose 6 of establishing a child support order under a new or existing docket number previously assigned to 7 the parties and not under the protective docket number. The child support order shall remain in 8 effect until the court modifies or suspends the order.

9 (b) After notice to the respondent and a hearing, which shall be held within fifteen (15) 10 days of surrendering said firearms, the court, in addition to any other restrictions, may, for any 11 protective order issued after or renewed on or after July 1, 2017, continue the order of surrender, 12 and shall further order a person restrained under this section not to purchase or receive, or attempt 13 to purchase or receive, any firearms while the protective order is in effect.

14 (c) The family court shall provide a notice on all forms requesting a protective order that a 15 person restrained under this section shall be ordered pursuant to § 11-47-5 to surrender possession 16 of any firearms while the protective order is in effect. The form shall further provide that any person 17 who has surrendered his or her firearms shall be afforded a hearing within fifteen (15) days of 18 surrendering his or her firearms.

19 (d) Any firearm surrendered in accordance with this section to the Rhode Island state police 20 or local police department shall be returned to the person formerly restrained under this section 21 upon his or her request when:

22 (1) The person formerly restrained under this section produces documentation issued by a
23 court indicating that the restraining order issued pursuant to this section that prohibited the person 24 from purchasing, carrying, transporting, or possessing firearms has expired and has not been 25 extended; and

26 (2) The law enforcement agency in possession of the firearms determined that the person 27 formerly restrained under this section is not otherwise prohibited from possessing a firearm under 28 state or federal law.

29 (3) The person required to surrender their firearms pursuant to this section shall not be 30 responsible for any costs of storage of any firearms surrendered pursuant to this section.

31 (e) The Rhode Island state police are authorized to develop rules and procedures pertaining 32 to the storage and return of firearms surrendered to the Rhode Island state police or local police 33 departments pursuant to this section. The Rhode Island state police may consult with the Rhode 34 Island Police Chiefs' Association in developing rules and procedures.

1 (f) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit, expand, or in any way modify orders
2 issued under § 12-29-7 or § 15-5-19.

3 (g) Nothing in this section shall limit a defendant's right under existing law to petition the 4 court at a later date for modification of the order.

5 (h) The court shall immediately notify the person suffering from domestic abuse whose 6 complaint gave rise to the protective order, and the law enforcement agency where the person 7 restrained under this section resides, of the hearing.

8 (i) The person suffering from domestic abuse, local law enforcement, and the person
9 restrained under this section shall all have an opportunity to be present and to testify when the court 10 considers the petition.

11 (j) At the hearing, the person restrained under this section shall have the burden of showing,
12 by clear and convincing evidence, that, if his or her firearm rights were restored, he or she would 13 not pose a danger to the person suffering from domestic abuse or to any other person.

14 (1) In determining whether to restore a person's firearm rights, the court shall examine all 15 relevant evidence, including, but not limited to: the complaint seeking a protective order; the 16 criminal record of the person restrained under this section; the mental health history of the person
17 restrained under this section; any evidence that the person restrained under this section has, since 18 being served with the order, engaged in violent or threatening behavior against the person suffering 19 from domestic abuse or any other person.

20 (2) If the court determines, after a review of all relevant evidence and after all parties have 21 had an opportunity to be heard, that the person restrained under this section would not pose a danger 22 to the person suffering from domestic abuse or to any other person if his or her firearm rights were 23 restored, then the court may grant the petition and modify the protective order and lift the firearm
24 prohibition.

25 (3) If the court lifts a person's firearms prohibition pursuant to this subsection, the court 26 shall issue the person written notice that he or she is no longer prohibited under this section from 27 purchasing or possessing firearms while the protective order is in effect.

28 (k) The prohibition against possessing a firearm(s) due solely to the existence of a domestic 29 violence restraining order issued under this section shall not apply with respect to sworn peace 30 officers as defined in § 12-7-21 and active members of military service, including members of the 31 reserve components thereof, who are required by law or departmental policy to carry departmental 32 firearms while on duty or any person who is required by his or her employment to carry a firearm
33 in the performance of his or her duties. Any individual exempted pursuant to this exception may 34 possess a firearm only during the course of his or her employment. Any firearm required for

1 employment must be stored at the place of employment when not being possessed for employment
2 use; all other firearm(s) must be surrendered in accordance with this section.

3 (l) Upon motion by the plaintiff, his or her address shall be released only at the discretion 4 of the family court judge.

5 (m)(1) Any violation of the protective orders in subsection (a) of this section shall subject 6 the defendant to being found in contempt of court.

7 (2) The contempt order shall not be exclusive and shall not preclude any other available 8 civil or criminal remedies. Any relief granted by the court shall be for a fixed period of time not to 9 exceed three (3) years, at the expiration of which time the court may extend any order, upon motion 10 of the plaintiff, for any additional time, that it deems necessary to protect the plaintiff from abuse.
11 The court may modify its order at any time upon motion of either party.

12 (n)(1) Any violation of a protective order under this chapter of which the defendant has 13 actual notice shall be a misdemeanor that shall be punished by a fine of no more than one thousand 14 dollars ($1,000) or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both. Beginning July 1, 2025, 15 said violation shall be prosecuted by an attorney who shall self-certify that they have successfully

17 four \(4\) years thereafter, aligned with national best practices and eligible for continuing legal
18 education credit\(s\) as approved by the Rhode Island Bar Association.

19 (2) The penalties for violation of this section shall also include the penalties as provided 20 by § 12-29-5.

21 (o) Actual notice means that the defendant has received a copy of the order by service or 22 by being handed a copy of the order by a police officer pursuant to § 15-15-5(d).

23 (p)(1) The district court shall have criminal jurisdiction over all adult violations of this 24 chapter.

25 (2) The family court shall have jurisdiction over all juvenile violations of this chapter.

26 SECTION 4. This act shall take effect upon passage.
