APPENDIX

INVOCATION

RABBI WAYNE FRANKLIN

TEMPLE EMANU-EL

Opening Prayer at Rhode Island House of Representatives
Yom HaShoah 2018

The teacher of wisdom in the Biblical Book of Proverbs urged us to realize that: "Death and Life are in the Power of the Tongue." In Hebrew: מִוֶּת וְחַיִּים בְּיַד-לָשׁוֹן

On this Holocaust Memorial Day, known as "Yom HaShoah" in Hebrew, we remember that the murderous Nazi regime was grounded in deception and lies, in hateful speech and malignant characterizations of Jews and others. Words of denigration were translated into divisive laws, which made it easier to deny people of their most basic human right – the right to life itself.

Today, we say "Never Again." In doing so, we commit ourselves to using our tongues – in our many different languages - to advocate for truth, understanding, and compassion. Never Again shall we tolerate hateful personal attacks and deprecation of people who are different from ourselves, in beliefs, race, or gender. Instead, we commit ourselves to speaking kindly to one another and about one another. We commit ourselves to promoting life and freedom for everyone.

We ask your blessings and guidance, O God, on the women and men who represent the people of Rhode Island in this august chamber. Grant them of your wisdom and insight, that they may set a high standard of truth and justice, compassion and equity for everyone in our state. As we all remember together the misuses of words in the past, help us all to use our will and our words to fashioning a life of goodness for all.

Amen.
