ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Williams requests that Black American History Month be extended until March 15, 2021.

Representative Noret wishes his daughter Robbie Noret a happy 11th birthday.

Majority Leader Blazejewski announces that the House will be on our annual February recess next week. Our next session will be Tuesday, February 23rd here at the Veterans Auditorium at 4:00 p.m.

As we announced the other day, the bill introduction deadline has been extended to Tuesday, February 23rd, the day we return from recess. However, new requests for legislation must get to Legislative Council by next Monday, February 15th, in order for them to have time to get your bills drafted. The desk will remain open during the recess and bills can be dropped in a box in the Speaker's Office.

When introducing your bills, please try using the new DocuSign process. Contact your administrative assistant for more details.

There are three committee hearings tonight. Members who wish to participate virtually need to inform the committee clerks before the hearings and the link will be sent to your official state email.

There were some minor issues with remote hearings this week. We are working to address these concerns for future hearings. We ask you to please be patient as we implement new systems and protocols.

Finally, congratulations are in order to our friend and colleague, Representative Gregg Amore. He was chosen as the recipient of the Paul Crowley Award from the Rhode Island School Superintendents Association for his leadership on educational issues. This award will be presented virtually on March 15th. It is especially meaningful because the late Representative Crowley was the chairman of the House Finance Committee's Education Subcommittee for many years, and that is the same position that Representative Amore fulfills so well today. Congratulations!

Speaker Shekarchi and Majority Leader Blazejewski wish Representatives Cassar, Handy, and Deputy Speaker C. Lima a happy birthday.

APPENDIXINVOCATION*REPRESENTATIVE BARBARA ANN FENTON-FUNG

Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Tomorrow ushers in the sacred Chinese New Year, also known as the Spring Festival. It is a time of great rebirth, renewal, and focus on the family. This year we usher in the Year of the Ox, characterized by honesty & hard work. With the challenges in front of us, there has never been a better time to embrace these qualities in all of the work our legislature undertakes. Traditionally, families greet each other on this sacred holiday by saying Kung Hei fat Choi, which literally translates to "greetings, become rich." While we all certainly want to embrace those good wishes as we stare down a $500 million dollar budget deficit, we also want to embrace the larger meaning of being rich in health, rich with friendship, and rich with good wisdom to bring the state of Rhode Island to a better place. Amen.
