3 5-37.3-12. Right to confidential communication of medical information.

4 (a) As used in this section:

5 (1) "Confidential communications request" means a request by an insured covered under a 6 health insurance policy that insurance communications containing medical information be 7 communicated to him or her at a specific mail or email address or specific telephone number, as 8 designated by the insured.

14 pharmaceutical company, or contractor regarding a patient's medical history, mental or physical 15 condition, or treatment. "Individually identifiable" means that the medical information includes or 16 contains any element of personal identifying information sufficient to allow identification of the 17 individual, such as the patient's name, address, electronic mail address, telephone number, or social 18 security number, or other information that, alone or in combination with other publicly available

1 information, reveals the individual's identity.

2 (b) Notwithstanding any other law, and to the extent permitted by federal law, a health 3 insurer shall take the following steps to protect the confidentiality of an insured's medical

11 (2) A health insurer may require the insured to make a request for a confidential 12 communication described in subsection (b)(1) of this section, in writing or by electronic 13 transmission.

14 (3) The confidential communication request shall be valid until the insured submits a 15 revocation of the request, or a new confidential communication request is submitted.

16 (4) For the purposes of this section, a confidential communications request must be 17 implemented by the health insurer within seven (7) calendar days of the receipt of an electronic 18 transmission or telephonic request or within fourteen (14) calendar days of receipt by first-class 19 mail. The health insurer shall acknowledge receipt of the confidential communications request and 20 advise the insured of the status of implementation of the request if an insured contacts the insurer.
