IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2014

A N A C T

RELATING TO STATE AFFAIRS AND GOVERNMENT - SELECT COMMISSION TO INVESTIGATE THE FAILURE OF PUBLIC LOAN GUARANTEE PROGRAMS

Introduced By: Representatives Chippendale, Morgan, Hull, MacBeth, and Nunes

Date Introduced: January 30, 2014

Referred To: House Finance

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Title 42 of the General Laws entitled "STATE AFFAIRS AND 2 GOVERNMENT" is hereby amended by adding thereto the following chapter:

3 CHAPTER 155

4 SELECT COMMISSION TO INVESTIGATE THE FAILURE OF PUBLIC LOAN

5 GUARANTEE PROGRAMS

6 42-155-1. Responsibilities of the commission. -- A commission is hereby created 7 consisting of nine (9) citizens of the state for the purpose of conducting an inquiry into the 8 creation and administration of loan guarantee programs funded or managed by the state of Rhode 9 Island, its municipalities, or quasi-public agencies thereof; and the failure of entities of 10 government which might have prevented the loss of taxpayer dollars related thereto. The 11 responsibilities of the commission shall include, but not be limited to:

12 (1) Investigation as to the circumstances surrounding the enactment and administration of 13 the Rhode Island jobs guaranty fund.

14 (2) Investigation of the failed state investment in the 38 Studios video game company.

15 (3) Investigation of the administration of the industrial and recreational building 16 authority.

17 (4) Investigation of the failed state investment in the CAPCO steel company.

18 (5) Investigation of the role state officials may have played in the administration of the 1 various loan guarantee programs.

2 (6) Investigation of transactions at the economic development corporation which may 3 have resulted from improper and/or insider influence and/or information.

4 (7) Investigation of those individuals and entities whose negligence and/or misconduct
5 directly or indirectly contributed to such financial loss sustained by the state and its citizens.

6 (8) Making a public presentation of the evidence uncovered by the aforesaid investigation 7 at hearings to be conducted by the commission.

8 (9) Making recommendations as to prosecutions of any criminal wrongdoing uncovered 9 by the investigation at hearings conducted by the commission.

10 (10) Making recommendations as to legislation to reform the administration of public 11 funds by quasi-public entities.

12 42-155-2. Composition. – The commission shall be composed of nine (9) members, five 13 (5) of whom shall be appointed by the governor, one of whom the governor shall designate as 14 chairman; one member who shall be appointed by the attorney general, one member who shall be 15 appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives, one member who shall be appointed by 16 the president of the senate, and one member who shall be appointed jointly by the minority 17 leaders of the house of representatives and senate. All commission members shall be subject to 18 the provisions of chapter 14 of title 36, the Rhode Island code of ethics in government, and those 19 members who are not already subject to the code of ethics shall be required to file a financial 20 statement pursuant to the provisions of § 36-14-17 within thirty (30) days of his or her 21 appointment to the commission.

22 42-155-3. Quorum. – (a) A quorum of the commission for the transaction of business 23 shall consist of a majority of its members. Unless otherwise provided, decisions of the 24 commission shall be by a majority of the votes cast. A vote by any member of the commission
25 may be cast only in person and not by proxy. A member must be present in person to be counted 26 toward a quorum. For the purpose of receiving evidence during the investigative phase of 27 the commission's duties, a quorum shall consist of one member. Transcripts of the testimony of 28 all witnesses appearing at such sessions shall be maintained. All commission members shall 29 receive notification of all such meetings.

30 (b) All commission hearings and meetings shall be conducted by the chairperson or a 31 member designated by the chairperson.

32 (c) The chairperson shall give posted notice of each hearing or meeting at least forty-33 eight (48) hours prior to the time such hearing or meeting is to begin. The commission shall be 34 subject to chapter 42-46, the "Open meetings law."

1 42-155-4. Powers of the commission – rules and regulations. – The commission is 2 authorized and empowered to do all things necessary and engage in all activities it deems 3 necessary to carry out the responsibilities set forth in § 42-155-1. The commission is further 4 authorized and empowered to adopt by a majority vote of its members, and from time to time to 5 amend by a majority vote, the rules of procedure which shall govern all facets of the commission
6 inquiry and the powers and duties of the special counsel which are deemed necessary to carry out 7 the responsibilities set forth in § 42-155-1.

8 42-155-5. Special counsel. – The commission is authorized to supervise special counsel 9 and such assistant special counsel, investigators, and clerical personnel as are necessary to 10 implement the duties and responsibilities of this commission in its investigation of the failure of 11 publicly funded loan guarantee programs. The attorney general is hereby authorized to appoint 12 and empower special counsel and assistant special counsel as special assistant attorney general 13 for the purpose of investigating, indicting, informing against and prosecuting criminal acts within 14 the scope of his/her inquiry. The special counsel and assistant special counsels are hereby 15 authorized to, with the approval of the governor, bring civil actions in the name of the state of 16 Rhode Island and the Rhode Island economic development corporation. All criminal and civil 17 actions commenced pursuant to this authority shall have precedence on all court calendars, and all 18 hearings and trials in such actions shall be accelerated, subject to applicable procedural rules.

19 42-155-6. Subpoena power. – The commission shall have the authority to issue 20 subpoenas and orders for attendance of witnesses and the production of books, accounts, papers, 21 documents and records. The members of the commission are hereby severally authorized and 22 empowered to administer oaths and take oral or written evidence under oath or affirmation. All 23 subpoenas issued shall be served as subpoenas in civil actions in the superior court are now 24 served. Any person who shall neglect or refuse to attend and give testimony or to answer any 25 lawful inquiry or to produce documentary material, may be adjudged in criminal or civil 26 contempt by the presiding justice of the superior court or his/her designee. The commission and 27 the superior court shall follow the procedure set forth in § 22-6-2.1. If a person is adjudged to be 28 in civil contempt, he/she shall remain in contempt until such time as he/she purges himself/herself
29 of contempt by testifying or producing documentary material. Any person who commits perjury 30 or false swearing in response to the subpoena or order of the commission shall be subject to the 31 penalty for perjury pursuant to the provisions of chapter 33 of title 11. Notwithstanding any other 32 provision of the general laws, any rule or regulation or common law right to the contrary, no 33 person or business entity shall be allowed to assert a privilege against or interpose an objection to 34 the production and/or disclosure of books, accounts, papers, documents and records, or

1 information maintained in any form pertaining to accounts, loans, and other financial transactions
2 associated with publicly funded loan guarantee programs which are the subject of this 3 investigation.

4 42-155-7. Immunity of witnesses during commission proceedings. – (a) In the case of 5 any individual who has been or may be called to testify or provide other information at any 6 proceeding in connection with the investigation by the commission, the presiding justice of the 7 superior court or his/her designee shall issue in accordance with subsections (b) and (c) of this 8 section, upon the request of the chairperson of the commission, an order requiring such 9 individuals to give testimony or provide other information which he/she refuses to give or provide 10 on the basis of his/her privilege against self-incrimination.

11 (b) Before issuing an order under subsection (a) of this section the presiding justice shall 12 be required to specifically find that the request for such an order has been approved by an 13 affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the commission five (5) days or more prior to 14 the day on which the request for such an order was made, the attorney general was served with 15 notice of an intention to request the order.

16 (c) The presiding justice or his/her designee, after notice to the witness, shall order the 17 witness to answer all questions put to him/her or produce the evidence. The witness may not 18 refuse to comply with the order on the basis of his/her privilege against self-incrimination, but the 19 witness shall not be prosecuted or subjected to penalty or forfeiture for, or on account of, any 20 transaction or matter regarding which in accordance with the order, he/she gave answer or 21 produced evidence, and no testimony or other information compelled under the order or any 22 information directly or indirectly derived from such testimony or other information shall be used
23 against the witness in any criminal case except he/she may be prosecuted or subjected to penalty 24 or forfeiture for any perjury false swearing or contempt committed in answering or failing to 25 answer or producing, or failing to produce, evidence with the order.

26 42-155-8. Funding. – The members of the commission shall serve without compensation.
27 All expenses incurred by the commission including the cost of the special counsel and assistant 28 special counsels shall be paid out of the general revenue of the state of Rhode Island.

29 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.
