1           WHEREAS, International Women's Day has been observed since the early 1900's, at a 2 time when women's oppression and inequality was spurring women to become more vocal and 3 active in campaigning for change; and

4           WHEREAS, The first National Women's Day was observed in the United States on 5 February 28, 1909, in honor of the 1908 garment workers' strike in New York City, where women 6 protested and demanded shorter hours, better pay, and voting rights; and

7           WHEREAS, The first countries to honor International Women's Day in 1911 were 8 Austria, Denmark, Germany, and Switzerland, where together more than one million women and 9 men attended International Women's Day rallies campaigning for women's rights to work, vote, 10 hold public office, and to discrimination in general; and

11           WHEREAS, On March 25, 1911, only a week after these international rallies, a 12 disastrous event occurred known as the "Triangle Shirtwaist Fire" which took the lives of more 13 than 140 women in New York City, most of whom were Italian and Jewish immigrants; and

14           WHEREAS, In 1914, on the eve of World War I, International Women's Day became 15 recognized worldwide on March 8th. Since then, March 8th has remained the day on which 16 International Women's Day is celebrated in the Unites States and worldwide, and this year marks 17 the 100th Anniversary of International Women's Day; and

18           WHEREAS, International Women's Day has more recently assumed a new, global 19 dimension for women in developed and developing countries alike; and

1           WHEREAS, In 2013, International Women's Day was celebrated by this General
2 Assembly and honored Senate President Teresa Paiva Weed and the other highest ranking women 3 in the three branches of Rhode Island state government; and

4           WHEREAS, In 2014, the Rhode Island International Women's Day celebration will 5 honor:

6           -       Former Attorney General Arlene Violet who was the first female Attorney
7 General in the United States;

8           -       Lieutenant Colonel Karen Pinch who is the first woman ever to serve on the 9 command staff of the Rhode Island State Police;

10          -       Stacey Veroni, Chief of the Criminal Division and the highest ranking woman in 11 the Rhode Island Department of Attorney General; and

12          -       The other highest ranking or most senior women in Rhode Island's Police 13 Departments;

14          All of whom work diligently, courageously and honorably to serve, protect, and preserve 15 the peace in our communities; now, therefore be it
