STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2014

J O I N T R E S O L U T I O N

DECLARING MAY 8, 2014, AS "RHODE ISLAND COOPERATIVE EXTENSION DAY" IN CELEBRATION OF THE CENTENNIAL OF THE PASSAGE OF THE SMITH-LEVER ACT AND RHODE ISLAND'S CONTRIBUTIONS TO THE DEVELOPMENT OF AMERICA'S LAND GRANT AND SEA UNIVERSITIES

Introduced By: Representatives Edwards, Lally, Dickinson, and Newberry

Date Introduced: May 08, 2014

Referred To: House read and passed

1 WHEREAS, In April of 1904, President Kenyon Leech Butterfield of the Rhode Island
2 College of Agriculture and Mechanical Arts (now known as the University of Rhode Island), with 3 a $4,000 appropriation from the Rhode Island General Assembly, formally established the 4 Extension Department at the college with a mission to share research findings with Rhode 5 Island's families and citizens; and

6 WHEREAS, After a decade of experience in cooperative extension programming,
7 Kenyon Butterfield went on to assist United States Senators M. Hoke Smith and A. Frank Lever
8 in the formulation of legislation aimed at boosting the United States economy through 9 dissemination of practical scientific research undertaken at all of our nation's Land Grant 10 Universities; and

11 WHEREAS, The Smith-Lever Act was passed by the United States Congress and signed
12 into law on May 8, 1914, by President Woodrow Wilson, establishing the Cooperative Extension 13 Service at Land Grant Universities nationwide; and

14 WHEREAS, The Cooperative Extension Service has greatly contributed to the economic 15 growth of America by allowing for unprecedented increases in farm productivity such that each 16 farmer producing enough food to feed four people in 1914, now feeds over 70 people in 2014; 17 and

18 WHEREAS, The Cooperative Extension Service in Rhode Island, over the last century,

1 has diversified beyond working with farmers into varied programming for all Rhode Islanders
2 including food and nutrition education programs, home economics programming, soil and water 3 conservation education, 4-H youth programming, and home gardening outreach, among many 4 other programs; and

5 WHEREAS, In 1966, with the cooperation of Dean John A. Knauss of the University of 6 Rhode Island's Graduate School of Oceanography, and Dr. Lewis M. Alexander of URI's
7 Department of Geography and Marine Affairs, Senator Claiborne Pell introduced the Sea Grant
8 College and Program Act, establishing Sea Grant Colleges throughout the nation with a Marine
9 Extension Service that was closely modeled after the Smith-Lever Cooperative Extension 10 programming; and

11 WHEREAS, The Marine Extension Service program promulgated by the Rhode Island
12 Sea Grant since 1971, has been disseminating research results to boost our state's maritime 13 economy and building livelihoods in many marine trades while maintaining good stewardship of 14 the coastal and marine environments; and

15 WHEREAS, The Rhode Island Cooperative Extension and the Rhode Island Sea Grant
16 Marine Extension program both remain a vital part of URI's continuing mission of research, 17 education, and engagement with all Rhode Islanders; and

18 WHEREAS, The unique combination of leading research, instruction, and extension 19 capabilities of America's Land Grant and Sea Grant Universities, including the University of 20 Rhode Island, remains critical in resolving society's greatest challenges of economic and 21 environmental sustainability today and into the future; now, therefore be it

22 RESOLVED, That this General Assembly of the State of Rhode Island and Providence 23 Plantations hereby recognizes the Centennial of the Smith-Lever Act and offers its 24 congratulations for 110 years of formal Extension programming by the University of Rhode 25 Island; and be it further

26 RESOLVED, That this General Assembly hereby designates May 8, 2014, which is the 27 centennial anniversary of the Smith-Lever Act, as "Rhode Island Cooperative Extension Day" in 28 the State of Rhode Island; and be it further

29 RESOLVED, That the Secretary of State be and hereby is authorized and directed to 30 transmit duly certified copies of this resolution to University of Rhode Island President David M.
31 Dooley, Rhode Island Cooperative Extension Director John D. Kirby, and Rhode Island Sea
32 Grant Director Dennis W. Nixon.
