2 hereby amended by adding thereto the following chapter:

3 CHAPTER 33

4 CLAIMS FOR WRONGFUL CONVICTION AND IMPRISONMENT

5 12-33-1. Legislative intent.

6 (a) The general assembly finds that innocent persons who have been wrongfully 7 convicted of crimes through no fault of their own have been uniquely victimized, and are 8 deserving of consideration and remuneration for this miscarriage of justice.

9 (b) For the purposes of this chapter, a "wrongful conviction" is a finding of guilt by a jury 10 or judge, later proven incorrect, which results in incarceration for more than one year.

11 12-33-2. Statement of claim for compensation.

12 (a) In order to present an actionable claim pursuant to this chapter, the claimant must 13 establish by documentary evidence that:

14 (1) Claimant has been convicted of one or more crimes and, as a result of the conviction, 15 was sentenced to a term of imprisonment and has served all or part of said sentence; and

16 (2) On grounds not inconsistent with innocence:

17 (i) Claimant was pardoned of the crime or crimes upon which claimant was sentenced 18 and which are the grounds for the complaint; or

19 (ii) The judgment of conviction was vacated; or

- 1           (iii) The judgment of conviction was reversed; and 2           (iv) The accusatory instrument was dismissed; and 3           (3) The claim is not time-barred by the provisions of this chapter.
4           (b) The claims shall be verified by the claimant; and 5           (c) If the court determines after an examination of the claim that the claimant has not 6 alleged sufficient facts to succeed at trial it shall dismiss the claim, either on its own motion or on 7 the state's motion.

8           12-33-3. Presentation of claim.

9           All claims of wrongful conviction and imprisonment under this chapter shall be presented 10 to and heard by the presiding justice of the superior court.

11           12-33-4. Judgment and award.

12           (a) In order to obtain a judgment in their favor, the claimant must prove by a 13 preponderance of the evidence that:

14           (1) Claimant was convicted of one or more crimes, and subsequently sentenced to a term 15 of imprisonment for more than one year, and has served all or any part of the sentence; and

16           (i) Claimant has been pardoned for the crime or crimes upon which claimant was 17 sentenced, and which are the grounds for the complaint; or

18           (ii) Claimant's judgment of conviction was reversed or vacated and the accusatory 19 instrument was dismissed, and

20           (2) Claimant did not commit any of the crimes charged in the accusatory instrument; and

21           (3) Claimant did not commit or suborn perjury, or fabricate evidence to cause or bring 22 about their own conviction.

23           (4) Neither a confession nor an admission later found to be false or a guilty plea shall 24 constitute committing or suborning perjury, fabricating evidence or causing or bringing about the 25 conviction under this subsection; and

26           (b) If the court finds that the claimant was wrongfully convicted and incarcerated 27 pursuant to this section the court shall grant:

28           (1) An award for wrongful conviction and incarceration calculated at fifty thousand 29 dollars ($50,000) at the time of release and paid for each year and portion of year served in a 30 correctional facility. The award may be expanded to include, at the discretion of the court, in the 31 interest of justice:

33 became due, and interest on child support arrearages that accrued, during the time served in 34 prison but were not paid as well as reasonable attorneys' fees where legal proceedings are

1 required to remedy outstanding obligations resulting from an order to pay child support:

2 (ii) Compensation for any reasonable costs, not exceeding the pro rata award, incurred by 3 the claimant for immediate services secured upon exoneration and release, including housing, 4 transportation, subsistence, re-integrative services, and mental and physical health care costs
5 incurred by the claimant for the time period between the claimant's release from wrongful 6 incarceration and the date of claimant's award; and

7 (iii) Reasonable attorneys' fees for bringing a claim under this chapter calculated at a rate 8 of fifteen percent (15%) of the total amount awarded. Any such fees granted shall not be 30 claimant is entitled under this section.

32 to in subsection (b) of this section, the claimant wins a monetary award as the result of a federal 33 civil rights lawsuit under federal statute 42 U.S.C. § 1983, the claimant shall reimburse the state
